[redacted] recalled that on April 2, 1968, a disturbance occurred at Store Number Three, 14th and U Streets, N. W. On this occasion he was notified at about 8:45 p.m., of the disturbance. Arriving at about 9:00 p.m. he noted upon arrival there were about 30 people milling around the store, consisting of teenagers, minors and adults. A fire truck was on the scene extinguishing a fire in a tree apparently set afire by lighter fluid. [redacted] learned one of [redacted] had been in an altercation with some teenagers between 7:30 and 8:00 p.m., same night. In the altercation [redacted] was cut with a knife or razor by one of the boys and was set upon by another armed with a fishing rod. The boys were arrested by Metropolitan Police Officers. After his arrival the crowd increased to an estimated 50 to 75 or more persons. About 50 or 75 of these came into the store attempting to fight with store personnel. After hearing a gunshot and a crash of some glass in front [redacted] to close up and [redacted] assisted him in clearing the people out. Sometime later, between 9:45 and 10:00 p.m., STOKELY CARMICHAEL appeared at the front door and [redacted] permitted CARMICHAEL in along with a bodyguard. At this time CARMICHAEL inquired as to the whereabouts of [redacted] After learning [redacted] was not readily available, CARMICHAEL made a statement to the effect "I done warned you, now you've had it". While making the statement he gestured with his hands across his throat three times. [redacted] followed CARMICHAEL and his bodyguard out of the store and he inquired of the bodyguard what CARMICHAEL wanted. The bodyguard replied with a statement to the effect that "we done had it, we're gonna blow this store up." During this time CARMICHAEL was talking to the crowd of people and said to the effect "we don't want white managers around this store" to which statements CARMICHAEL was cheered by the crowd. There was considerable rockthrowing up until about 11:00 p.m. at which time several windows were broken. He recalls a white male free lance writer who was on crutches who had a rather hard time keeping from getting injured.

b7C She has been employed by Eddie Leonards' Sandwich Shop, 2428 14th Street, N.W., Washington, D. C., [redacted] [redacted] for approximately two years. On the evening of April 4, 1968, she was working as usual, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Business activity was normal. About 9:00 p.m. the sandwich shop did very little business and no one was hanging around the shop. Sometime around 10:00 or 10:05 p.m., exact time not recalled, a group of Negro males, approximately 15 to 20, entered the shop. One of the Negro males whom I had never seen before stated, "who is the owner here?" I answered that the owner was not present. He then asked, "Who is in charge?" I told him I was the night manager. Then he asked if I was going to close the shop in respect to the death of MARTIN LUTHER KING. I replied "I do not know, I'll have to check with the boss". He then said a number of businesses were closing along the street and if I did not close I would "get hurt". He said they would return later to see if I had closed.

b7C During this conversation [redacted] noticed another Negro male, a tall Negro male, holding a switchblade knife in his hand. He never made any gestures or threatening moves. Soon after the conversation they all left.

[redacted] felt the above conversation was more of a command to close the shop than a request. She thereupon locked the front door and telephoned [redacted] [redacted] and advised him of what had taken place. This was about 10:10 p.m. [redacted] advised her to close as he did not want anyone to get hurt.

Shortly after her telephone conversation with [REDACTED] a customer knocked at the door for his pick up order. She opened the door and served him. He then left the shop.

Almost immediately after this, exact time not recalled, another group of Negro males, fewer in number than the first group, but believed to be part of the first group came back to the shop and wanted to know if she was closing. She told them she was and while she was locking the door after the group had left, someone from the crowd on the street threw an object at the front door breaking the glass. She believed it was about 10:20 p.m. and she and the other employees left the shop at this time. [REDACTED] immediately left the area and went straight home.

She pointed out that the two groups that had entered the shop were unknown to her and as nearly as she could determine they were all strangers to her. She estimated their ages to be in the low twenties. Most of them had long hair. She related that none of these individuals had been customers of the sandwich shop and got the impression they were not local residents.

She furnished the identity of the following individuals who were or had been in the shop during this time:

b7C

[REDACTED]

All are employees.

[REDACTED] knows STOKELY CARMICHAEL from appearances in the neighborhood and stated that he was not a member of either group which came into the shop on this night.

She knows only STOKELY CARMICHAEL from his appearances in the area, but she does not know any member of his group.

She reiterated that she did not know any of the individuals in either group and doubted that she would be able to identify any of them if she were to see them again. She felt the groups coming into the shop was a spontaneous act as a result of the announcement of the death of Dr. KING.

The unknown Negro man stated that a group had formed at the corner of 14th and U Streets, N.W., and was going to cause trouble.

[redacted] said he stopped at the front door and looked north toward 14th and U Streets, N.W., and observed a crowd in that area. He then retraced into [redacted] and obtained a shotgun and some shells. He stated that he had determined that none of those "young punks" were going to smash his windows and, therefore, stationed himself at the front door. He said he had made up his mind that he was going to shoot the first person who threw bricks or rocks at his window. He continued, as it turned out, the crowd of young hoodlums did not bother his place of business.

[redacted] advised he was not in a position to hear any remarks made inciting these people. He heard comments from passers-by that STOKELY CARMICHAEL had been talking to the people at 14th and U Streets, N.W., inciting them to the subsequent looting and rioting. He stated that neither the individuals causing the disturbance nor the passers-by were known to him.

b7C During the evening, after word had been spread that Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. had been killed, small groups of young Negro men and Negro boys milled around, walking up and down 14th Street and walking past the station. On one occasion, at about 10:30 p.m., someone from such a group yelled out that he had better close up. [redacted] said he was busy servicing a car at the time, did not look up, and does not know who made the statement. No threat accompanied the above remark and [redacted] did not close the station at that time but waited until almost 11 p.m., the usual closing time, before he actually closed the station. [redacted] said that at no time in the evening did he see what he would consider to be any organized group near his station.

b7C [redacted] stated that although he would probably recognize STOKELY CARMICHAEL if he saw him, CARMICHAEL, to his knowledge, was not a member of any of the small groups which passed the station that evening.

[redacted] employee of the Washington Field Office, Federal Bureau of Investigation, who resides at [redacted] Washington, D. C., Apartment [redacted] advised that at approximately 1:30 a.m., April 5, 1968, he was awakened by the noise of a crowd outside his apartment building and observed a group of approximately 100 young people standing at the intersection of 14th and Euclid Streets, N. W.

He described the mood of the crowd as being ugly but apparently leaderless, and stated there were many young girls in the group. He estimated the ages of the young people in this group ranged from 10 or 11 years old to 20 or 21 years of age.

For approximately one hour the crowd milled around the intersection of 14th and Euclid Streets throwing rocks and bottles which exploded on impact. Several times during this interval, police cars came into the area and the crowd scattered, running West on Euclid Street toward 16th Street, N. W.

After retreating west on Euclid Street, the crowd stopped, and on at least one occasion he observed youths throwing rocks and fire bombs towards the police officers. The police then withdrew from the area and the crowd surged back to the intersection.

By this time, according to [redacted] the plate glass in the store fronts at this intersection had been smashed and the crowd had thrown rocks at the traffic signal in an attempt to put the traffic light out of commission. He noted that some looting also took place during this period, particularly from a grocery store located at this intersection.

On 4/5/68 at Washington, D. C. File # WFO 62-9737
by SA [redacted] tab b7C Date dictated 4/5/68

At approximately 3:00 a.m., a group of individuals entered the grocery store and set fire to it on the inside. Two other stores were also entered and fires were set inside the premises. A small store owned by a Negro which is located beside the grocery store was damaged by flames and smoke from the fire set in the grocery store.

The fire department was called and was able to bring all of the fires under control quickly. When the firemen arrived at the scene, the crowd backed off and allowed the fires to be put out.

[redacted] estimated that from approximately 1:30 a.m. until 3:00 a.m. at least 100 fire bombs were thrown in the immediate area of 14th and Euclid Streets, N. W. He stated he did not know how children as small as some he had observed in the crowd knew how to make fire bombs or were able to obtain the materials necessary, unless older teenagers in the crowd or young adults instructed them. In this connection he was of the opinion that those involved were from the immediate neighborhood, however, he did not recognize any children he knew.

He further advised that to his knowledge, no private homes or apartment houses were damaged in this area and he knew of no personal injuries sustained by any members of the crowd or members of the police department.

He recalled that at one point in this disorder, a large barrel similar to the type used by the Highway Department to store sand for emergencies during the winter months, was rolled out into the middle of the street. Three cars were stopped by the youths, however, no attempt was made to molest the occupants, and after a short interval, each car was allowed to continue on its way. He was unable to ascertain if the occupants of these cars were white or Negro.

[] further advised that many adults came out of their homes and watched the entire episode, however, none of the older residents in the community attempted to take part in the vandalism. On the other hand, none of the adults present made any effort to stop the actions of the young people responsible for the disturbance.

b7C

[redacted] and his partner [redacted] [redacted] employee immediately headed for that area. They approached the area of 14th and U Streets at an estimated 10:00 or 10:30 p.m., and noted a throng of people in the area. [redacted] continued to cruise in this area with [redacted] passing the intersection of 14th and U on three different occasions, and noted crowds of people shouting and chanting, as they broke store windows and began looting. [redacted] took no pictures because the area was dark, and he feared to throw a light on the scene. He noticed no groups of marchers requesting stores and theatres to close in honor of Dr. KING. At no time did he see CARMICHAEL. After leaving 14th Street, [redacted] parked on 16th Street between S and T Streets, N.W., to watch developments. A short time later they were met by ABC employees [redacted]

Sniper Kills Martin Luther King; Blacks Riot, Loot Across Nation

WASHINGTON, D.C.

A stunned America faces up this week to the implications of near-insurrection.

While mourners march in Memphis, an urgent joint session of the U.S. Congress meets Monday night to hear President Johnson's appeal for "constructive action, instead of destructive action, in this time of national need."

While the Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., is laid to rest in Atlanta, the leaders of some 50 U.S. cities cope with the aftermath of Negro violence unleashed by the assassination in Memphis, violence which swept from San Francisco to the very gates of the White House.

America learned last week, months before it fully expected to, that it can happen here, the kind of terror and insensate violence that has rent such far-off cities as Caracas and Algiers, Santo Domingo and Saigon. Most places it was the same old story—predominantly looting, then young Negroes setting fire to Negro districts. While the death toll, both black and white, was relatively small, hundreds were injured, thousands arrested.

In New York City's Harlem, an aged cripple is trapped on an upper floor of a fire-bombed building and dies when firemen finally get him to a hospital. In Tallahassee, Fla., 19-year-old Travis Crow, Jr., dies as well in another fire-bombed building while, a few blocks away, a small band of snipers on the campus of Florida A & M University keep policemen at bay. And in Itta Bena, Miss., highway patrolmen wound two students after receiving fire from snipers at a local college, an all-Negro institution.

Riots occurred in city after city: Denver, Chicago, Detroit, Savannah, Hartford, Boston, Raleigh, Newark. Michigan Gov. George Romney called up 3,000 National Guardsmen for Detroit; 6,000 patrolled in Chicago; they were on alert in Boston. In Washington, Regular Army troops from nearby camps were deployed along with National Guardsmen, 4,000 in all, and then 2,000 airborne infantry were flown in. Nowhere was the situation more critical than in Washington, partly because it gave the Federal Government's home grounds an air of siege.

Unbelievable things happened.

Even as President Johnson was addressing the nation on Thursday night after Dr. King's murder, a mob of 50 Negroes led by firebrand Stokely Carmichael raged down 14th Street in Northwest Washington demanding that motion-picture houses, stores, beauty parlors, and other business establishments close to honor Dr. King's death.

'I Got Me a Gun'

The mob grew until it reached 400 persons, and Carmichael was heard to yell: "When the white man comes he is coming to kill you. I don't want any black blood in the street. Go home and get you a gun and then come back because I got me a gun!"

There was a dramatic confrontation between Mr. Carmichael and the Rev. Walter Fauntroy, vice chairman of the District of Columbia City Council and a close associate of the late Dr. King.

Mr. Fauntroy is a poised, slightly built individual, almost natty in his appearance. Of late he has been criticized by some members of the U.S. Congress for allowing Stokely Carmichael to be in on the planning of the Poor People's March on Washington this month. A few weeks ago in his office in the District Building, Mr. Fauntroy expressed fear of Mr. Carmichael since the latter's return from a five-month tour of Communist countries, saying that Mr. Carmichael had developed into a clever organizer who would have to be watched closely.

On Thursday night, Mr. Fauntroy approached Mr. Carmichael in the midst of the mob, imploring him not to stir up violence.

Stokely Carmichael stepped back, brushed Mr. Fauntroy aside, and exclaimed: "They killed King." The mob rushed on, and Mr. Fauntroy sped to a television station to appeal to Negro citizens to be calm in their hour of trial.

The Police Wait

For nearly two hours after the first reports of looting about 9:30 p.m. Thursday, the Metropolitan Police made few arrest attempts, apparently forced to bide their time until more police could be mustered. Many police on the scene appeared confused, sitting in their squad cars while Negroes smashed store windows, grabbed merchandise, and tossed fire bombs.

"Won't someone please tell us what to do?" came the pleading voice of one policeman over the police radio at 10:30 p.m.

Within a few hours, reinforcements

wearing white helmets with plastic face shields appeared on the streets in great numbers and started sweeping the streets of roving gangs. And then it happened, the first fatality of the riot: A white man was attacked in a service station and stabbed to death.

With first light Friday, the violence had ebbed and most fires had been brought under control. U.S. Government workers streamed into the city as usual from their homes in Maryland and Virginia, few of them completely aware of how serious the situation had been the night before.

Shortly after noon on Friday, a chilly, sunny day, the winds quickened, fanning embers to new flame in the riot area. With the new fires, the rioting broke out afresh.

Offices Close Early

Within two blocks of the White House, looters smashed the window of a haberdashery before the startled eyes of pedestrians waiting at a bus stop. Great billowing clouds of smoke roiled up from the riot area and the wail of police sirens and ambulances began to be noticeable above the hum of traffic. Word went out to Government offices to let the workers go home early. By 3:30 p.m. the routes out of Washington were snarled in a monstrous traffic jam.

There were no police available for traffic duty and hundreds of citizens, both black and white, spontaneously took over, directing traffic by waving their handkerchiefs.

There was almost a picnic air, despite the traffic jams. On street corners, groups gathered to listen to the riot news on transistor radios. Restaurants began closing their doors, and tourists here for the Cherry Blossom Festival, which had had to be canceled, wandered the streets aimlessly.

On the campus of Howard University, Negro students hauled down the American flag and raised in its stead a black flag trimmed in red, its centerpiece a gold wreath with a sword in the center: the symbol of black power.

At Washington National Cathedral, President Johnson and other Government dignitaries attended a memorial service for Dr. King. It was here, just five days before, that the civil-rights leader had enthralled a predominantly white congregation of 4,000 persons with a sermon on the subject of nonviolence.

When the President returned to the White House he was exhausted, his eyes red from lack of sleep.

With the coming of darkness, the Executive mansion put one in mind of a palace besieged. Policemen prowled the grounds. A string of more than 20 powerful floodlights were set up on the front lawn, their beams flashing across an eerily empty Pennsylvania Avenue to Lafayette Square beyond. By the northwest entrance, dozens of suitcases of newsmen, packed for the President's postponed trip to Hawaii, sat tagged and ready to go.

Few white people were now to be seen on the streets. On 14th Street a few blocks from the White House, a pair of policemen held four well-dressed young Negroes—two men, and two women—at bay against the side of their 1963 Pontiac. From the trunk of the Negroes' car, the policemen withdrew vases, lamps, jewelry, wine and liquor bottles.

"They just busted hell out of a store back there somewhere," said one of the policemen, visibly nervous.

Suspects Go Free

Both police and the accused Negroes were elaborately polite to one another. Then gangs of toughs drifted up. A carload of Negro men passed by, the driver pausing just long enough to scream obscenities at the policemen. Suddenly the policemen climbed back into their blue-and-white patrol car, leaving the four to go free, minus their loot.

In late afternoon, Walter Washington, the District's appointed Negro mayor, had declared a 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 a.m. curfew, but it was not being enforced by the harassed policemen. U.S. Army troops and National Guardsmen began to rumble into the city.

The National Observer's Tom DeFeo and Dan Greene, who toured the riot areas throughout Friday night, reported:

"Fourteenth Street above U Street, this was perhaps the worst section. There were soldiers and police everywhere. On some blocks, most of the buildings were burning or were charred remains.

"Fire trucks all over. Blocks of 14th are devastated. Manikins and merchandise lying all over the streets. Here and there a looter dashes away. A group of soldiers with rifles before them hustle a bunch of Negroes along the sidewalk."

In a church, DeFeo and Greene talked with women and children who had been driven from their nearby apartments by smoke from fires. Cots had been set up and people were being fed coffee and sandwiches.

"Behind the altar," said Greene, "was a banner with gold letters on a blue background reading: 'Together let us make this a city of God.'" The banner included a picture of a white hand and a black hand clasped together.

"Everywhere we went, you could hear fire alarms clanging incessantly—the music of the riot."

Said one Negro woman, a self-styled militant: "They never thought it would happen in Washington, but it did. They talked about a long, hot summer. Well, I guess it's going to be a hot spring."

They never thought it would happen in Memphis, either, reported Observer correspondent Angus McEachran from that city.

Dr. King, the Nobel laureate, had come to Memphis to demonstrate for striking sanitation men and when his march led to violence on March 26, many people in Memphis were surprised.

People Take Notice

"We have had a small black-power group for a couple of years," said McEachran, "but they have never been taken too seriously before now. But as the mood grew nastier, people suddenly started taking notice."

"One black-power organizer is Charles Cabbage, 23, a will-o'-the-wisp, a man in motion, a half-glimpsed figure without a known address, moving from phone booth to phone booth."

"Cabbage and other members of the group call themselves the 'Invaders' and often wear Army fatigue jackets and African medallions around their necks. In their pockets, they carry a single .38-caliber bullet, which symbolizes the death of one white man. The Invaders wear sunglasses, or 'shades' to signify that they won't look at the world the white community has created. Before the strike there weren't more than 30 members of the Invaders. Now, I wouldn't estimate their numbers."

"There used to be a joke that Memphis could never support a race riot because 'Memphis has never supported anything.' It was a fair analysis of the complacency that exists—or did exist—in the community, white and black. The long racial calm had perhaps lulled the white civic leaders."

Trouble Was Expected

After the March 26 violence, the white leadership of Memphis was at a loss to explain why the riots started, or what must be done to get the city moving again toward racial harmony. Most of the white community appears to be behind Mayor Henry Loeb and his inflexible stance toward the strikers whom Dr. King had come to town to help. Certainly, they were expecting trouble when Dr. King returned again last week to plan for yet another march.

Some expected more trouble during the march on Monday, which Dr. King's followers had made into a memorial for their slain leader. And the strike of the garbage men, the all but forgotten start of the Memphis trouble, still had to be settled.

The Memphis curfew, which Memphis Negroes had complained was only a black curfew, was enforced tightly, even in the middle-class white suburbs of East Memphis that have been the source of the mayor's political strength.

Dr. King was shot while standing on the second floor balcony of the Lorraine Motel, a few blocks from the Mississippi River. Thirty minutes later he was pronounced dead at St. Joseph Hospital. Police and the FBI sought a white assailant from the time they found a .30-06 Remington pump rifle with a telescopic sight, believed to be the murder weapon.

"There are subtle differences now," concludes McEachran. "Last week you passed a Negro on the street and you felt funny, wondering if you shouldn't nod or something. Now you don't worry about it: You keep going fast."

In more than one American city this week white men and black will be wondering whether or not to nod.

District Riots

Unleashed

Ugly Emotions

BY MARY E. STRATFORD.

WASHINGTON

They chased him. He fled and his stark white fear was transmitted to the black bystanders, some of whom cried out, "Don't kill him."

But the predominant shout to "Get him," was the one winging the feet of the pursuers, urged on by a cheering section lusty to revenge the slaying of the Rev. Martin Luther King in particular and the plight of the black race as a whole.

WHEN THE man was caught and surrounded, he, being shorter than they, looked up at them, mouth working, face gleaming in open appeal, the hands instinctively thrown up to cover his head.

They didn't strike in haste. The attackers forced the pleading man into a bent position, so that the bald spot on top of his head was vulnerable to the blow. Then, the tall slim one, carefully aimed and planted the brick on the skull.

Though in pain, this symbolic white man looked relieved, as if thinking, it wasn't so bad, now it's over and I'm still alive.

HE STAGGERED down the sidewalk, face streaming with blood. Across the street, some onlookers mumbled, "he should have had better sense. He should have stayed out of here (upper 14th St., NW). A white man." His audacity at having come among them when they had taken complete control of the area for black people, angered them more.

"Get him," they shouted anew and the attackers, only a few paces behind recaptured this wobbling, frightened man, now an enemy in their midst, ripped his clothing, beat him with fists, knocked him to the ground, picked him up and threw him into the street.

Where he lay. Teenagers ran up, stomping, yelling, stomping, revengeful, stomping, hating, stomping, terrifying.

"Don't kill him." The yells for mercy were louder. The teenagers left. The white man was red in his own blood, nothing like it seen by most, except on TV where police have been shown clubbing black rioters or demonstrators into senselessness.

THE MAN rose, staggered to a gas station, fell beside one of the pumps. The adult attackers followed, stood over him, began another assault on the prostrate form.

"Don't kill him." Not like

King was killed, show him mercy. "Don't kill him." The yells had become a den.

The assailants had a quick conference, then left. Somebody must have sent for police for shortly afterwards, they drove up, and took the injured man with them.

THIS WAS Friday — the day the violence of the previous night resumed. It began ominously enough. Bands of men, women and teenagers roamed the area from 14th St., NW up to Park Rd. openly stuffing brown paper bags with spoils from stores broken into or burned the night before. Few police were seen in the area and those who were there, ignored the looting.

In front of People's Drug Store on 14th St. near U. a man warned a colored special guard blocking the entrance to leave.

IN HIS voice, there was an urgency stronger than a plea:

"We don't want to hurt you, brother. I'm telling you to leave. They've sold more gasoline in the past two hours than they've sold in the past two months.

"Don't be here when it happens, soul brother. You know whitey owns this store and when you get it, you know where whitey will be? He'll be in Florida."

A GROUP of young women gathered around the guard, who stood there, saying nothing, shaking his head in a negative gesture, smiling coolly.

The girls spotted a reporter. A frozen silence — then, one ventured, "I think it's awful what we've been doing but it can't be helped. None of it is going to bring Martin Luther King back but I'm not sorry about a g-d-d-m thing.

"And be sure you write, black power is still on the move."

A companion interrupted, "We know Dr. King wouldn't want us to do this. I don't know why we're doing it but you know, some of us are iggy."

THE OWNER of one establishment which had been spared was on the sidewalk surveying the scene. He said he gave the roamers coffee Thursday night.

"I hate to see a lot of these people get their place torn down but a lot of good things can come out of bad."

FARTHER UP 14th St., another businessman, whose building had not been touched, was nonetheless bitter over the loss of customers.

"This has had an adverse effect on my business. It has fallen off to practically nothing."

At 14th and Irving, rocks were hurled at passing cars with white drivers. Soon, the pastime was being enacted for blocks. Onlookers ducked from flying bricks, debris, rocks, flung at death speed.

COLORED drivers coming into the area were warned, "Turn on your lights." Cars with lights on were not harmed.

As white motorists gunned their motors, trying to escape injury, there were shouts of "There's one. Get whitey. Get him." The yells were lunged from one group to another as each car progressed up the street.

"Whitey comes in here, gets our money and then leaves town," one woman said angrily. "You ought to see whitey at night, getting out of town. We got a colored mayor and he ain't done nothing."

WHITE D.C. Transit drivers' buses were stoned although it meant their predominantly colored passengers were forced to flee from the buses.

Black bus drivers were permitted to pass if they put on their lights. As word circulated, white bus drivers in other areas of the city drove with lights on to signify they were colored.

FIRST NIGHT

Stores looted, rocks thrown at D.C. police

By LILLIAN WIGGINS

Most Americans, black and white reacted to the death of Dr. Martin Luther King with calm grief and indignation but as word spread through the streets of Washington, it touched off a wave of violence despite the Thursday night rainfall.

The most serious outbreaks of looting and destruction of property took the police force and spectators by storm as teenage gangs and young black militants began breaking into stores, burning property and throwing rocks, glass and other items at law enforcement officers. For that matter, at anyone who happened to get in the line of fire.

I arrived on the scene at approximately 10 o'clock with a fellow reporter and could hardly believe my eyes. All of a sudden, cold perspiration made my body clammy.

IN THE vicinity of 14th and You Sts., whiskey in large quantities was being lifted from the stove through the broken plate glass windows. Televisions were being carried from a T.V. repair place and clothing was being stripped from the windows. Mannequins, colored and white, were scattered from one end of the street to the other.

I was taking notes on the situation when I noticed that several "soul brothers" were staring and pointing at me, so without hesitation, I put my pencil and pad back into my purse.

It didn't take much to realize from this, that reporters and photographers were not popular for the "on the scene action." But as just one of them many on the street, no one paid me any attention.

Everyone was calling each other "brothers and sisters." So as I passed large gatherings, a bit unnerved, I would say "Hello, brother" and the reply would always be... "soul sister."

ONE MAN, who admitted he was a little drunk, came up to me and said, "They shouldn't have done this. Killing Dr. King was the worst thing the white people could have done." He did not appear to be among the "in crowd" but sympathized with their actions.

At Florida and 14th St., an officer stopped me and said I had to go the other way. I showed my press credentials and as he let me through, he looked at me as if to say, You are crazy."

A little ways up the street, six policemen were holding ground with a group of about 50 hecklers. They were cursing the officers and in general creating a very unpleasant scene. The officers said they had been instructed to keep the peace without touching anyone.

FURTHER UP 14th near Euclid, I was caught in the middle of a glass, rock throwing session and had to duck into a D.C. Transit bus for cover to avoid the glass and tear gas. This was one of the many buses which brought the policemen into the strife area. A Capital Transit driver manned the bus which remained in the area.

From a tourist home on one side and an apartment located in the 2500 block of 14th St., young militants were using guerrilla type warfare against the officers.

The bombardment of the officers was so heavy at one time that reinforcements was rushed in completely armed with helmets, gas masks and gas guns.

Shortly after 2 a.m. fire broke out at the Empire Super market on the northwest corner of 14th and Clifton. The fire lit up that area like daylight and spread to an adjoining building when firemen were hampered, by rock throwing crowds, from extinguishing the blaze.

A THREE-STORY house on the Clifton Street side of the market was evacuated. Women in housecoats and children in night clothes stumbled into the streets, choking on the tear gas. It was like vapor in the air, so much of it had been fired. It was impossible to keep from crying as the gas irritated the eyes.

When the fire was out, at approximately 3:30 a.m. only charred remains were left.

Young militants referred to the fire as being "beautiful" and declared this is only the beginning. Others chanted "They asked for it and payers won't do them any good."

At 4 a.m. when the streets were calm, a tour of the general riot area was reflected general destruction. Establishments with "Soul" written all over the windows were spared.

Other "Soul Brother" establishments located on 14th Street above Columbia Road were less fortunate. "Mr. Man," a new clothing store for men which was opened nearly two months ago by a "soul brother" was left in complete chaos. Windows were broken, the store stripped of clothing and the decor smashed.

ANOTHER "soul" brother, who was nearly cleaned out was Hart Shoes at 14th and Irving. A pawnshop owner carrying two guns, one in each hip pocket, said that he saved his shop from destruction by firing two shots into the ceiling of his store as looters approached the entrance.

"I would never try to shoot any one," he said. "The whole thing is a tragic." He said that his place carried riot insurance, but he was sad for the small places which did not have such insurance.

He did not consider the events of the night as being a race riot. His logic was that not only did the looters destroy white property but colored as well.

Stores like Perry Nelson, Krashner, Mr. G's Town and Country Wear, Brookland Hardware, Federated 5 and 10 cent store, Francines, Federal Cab Association and Lite Radio and T.V. were left in shambles.

DAY WAS breaking on an angry community and as the streets on upper and lower 14th Street were being cleaned of debris, new reports of violence, looting and burning were breaking out on 7th, You Streets and Georgia Ave.

Store windows were broken in nearly every establishment on lower 7th Street and near N a linoleum store was nearly burned out. York Haberdashers on Georgia Ave., had "no windows" and stores like Mel's Hardware and the Giant Food on 14th Street were hard hit.

As the town awoken, stunned citizens travelling south on 14th Street around 8 a.m., Friday morning, slowed traffic down to a snail's pace as they viewed the destruction of the early hours.

STOKELY ON KING

'White America killed our hopes'

By GIM OKOH

WASHINGTON

"I think white America made the biggest mistake when she killed Dr. Martin Luther King last Thursday."

Stokely Carmichael, Black Power advocate, with tears almost dripping from his weary red eyes, made these remarks as he spoke to the press here Friday.

"They have declared war on us and we will retaliate," Carmichael sobbed in a broken but clear voice.

He remarked that when White America killed Dr. King, she killed all reasonable hopes.

"WHEN SHE killed Dr.

King, she killed the one man of our race in this country, in the generation, who is non-militant and a revolutionist in the masses of colored people, who has been sincere even though sometimes they did not agree with him," he said.

Carmichael, who had scheduled a press conference to analyze SNCC's move to help Rap Brown out of jail, before Dr. King was shot, said they will march to Richmond to rescue Brown.

ATTORNEYS FOR the militant civil rights leader (Brown) turned up for an unscheduled bond hearing in a Richmond federal court on Wednesday after his sympathizers made appearances there and, in Cambridge, Md., to protest pending court action against him.

The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., a man who lived by non-violence, was shot and killed Thursday evening by a sniper as he stood alone on the balcony of a motel in Memphis.

CARMICHAEL said the death of Dr. King has opened the eyes of colored people in America.

"When white America killed Marcus Garvey, they did it and said he was an extremist, when they got hold of Malcolm X, they did it and said he was preaching hate and deserved what he got; but when they got brother Dr. King they had no reason to do that," he said.

He said Dr. King was the one man "in our race who had tried to teach our people to have love, compassion and mercy for what white people have done."

"THERE WILL be no crying, there will be no funerals. The rebellions that have been occurring in cities of this country has been light stuff to what is about to happen. We are going to retaliate," he warned.

Carmichael said the revenge will not be in court room, nor rational discussion, "it will be in the streets of America."

"White America will live to regret that she killed Dr. King," he said.

A. RESULTS OF STUDENT INTERVIEWS

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

b7C [redacted] student, McKinley Senior High School, residing at [redacted] Washington, D. C., was interviewed by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and furnished the following information:

On Friday, April 5, 1968, a group of 150 to 200 students departed from McKinley Senior High School, 2nd and T Streets, N. E., Washington, D. C., of their own volition, in a "silent march" to the campus of Howard University, in deference to MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. He said the group was non-violent in nature and arrived on the campus about 12:20 p.m. They arrived as a group, remained in a group while on campus and returned to McKinley in a group. He stated that during their "silent march," there were some uneasy moments, but they managed to keep the group together. Not long after their arrival on campus, he noticed that disturbances had already begun on Georgia Avenue, N. W.

[redacted] advised that about 1:40 p.m. he saw STOKELY CARMICHAEL arrive on campus and heard him speak for approximately ten minutes. He stated that CARMICHAEL began by saying something to the effect, "good evening brothers and sisters." "I came for one purpose and one purpose alone; to let all of you know of curfew tonight." "Don't go on the streets unless you have a gun and here is mine." CARMICHAEL then held a gun high above his head. [redacted] said that the gun was black in color with a dark brown handle and appeared to be of .38 caliber. He said CARMICHAEL did not say anything about looting, but told everyone to "carry your guns, some people are going to die tonight." CARMICHAEL said they should use violence, that was the only way.

b7C According to [] CARMICHAEL then departed. [] advised that he is of the opinion that the people who heard CARMICHAEL speak, may have thought about what he said and could have been influenced by CARMICHAEL's statements. Although the group who listened to CARMICHAEL did disperse peacefully, they could have subsequently become involved in looting, etc., and that he in fact did later observe some Howard University students involved in looting. [] did not know them by name, but said he knew them to be students of Howard University.

[] further advised that he does not advocate the teachings and methods of CARMICHAEL and stated that he would be willing to testify to the above information in a court of law.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

b7C

[redacted] advised that on April 5, 1968, a group of approximately 150 students departed MC KINLEY Senior High School, 2nd and T Streets, N. E., Washington, D. C., and proceeded to the campus of Howard University to pay tribute to MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. They arrived on campus about 12:20 p.m. and he noticed a group of teenagers leaving about that time who appeared very unruly. He noticed various teenagers on the campus who were wearing the letters of other Senior High Schools, in the Washington, D. C. area, such as Dunbar, etc. He overheard several of these individuals talk of looting and "going to get their Easter outfits." Some of them suggested that they wait until summer and others said that if they waited until summer, "there won't be any of us left," and "We waited toolong, let's go now."

[redacted] advised that he first noticed STOKELY CARMICHAEL present on campus when he saw CARMICHAEL waving a gun in the air, and stating, "I have mine and I am going to use it." CARMICHAEL told the crowd that if they did not have a gun, they should not go into the streets because they would be shot at. [redacted] did not know what kind of gun CARMICHAEL had in his possession.

According to [redacted] he did not hear CARMICHAEL say anything about looting and that following the above remarks, CARMICHAEL departed in the company of some other unknown males.

[redacted] said he did not believe that the people who listened to CARMICHAEL "paid him any mind," but said that the group leaving the campus at the time he, [redacted] arrived, b7C [redacted] could have been influenced by CARMICHAEL if he was present at that time. [redacted] did not know if CARMICHAEL was on campus then and it would be hard for him to say if CARMICHAEL did actually incite or influence anyone to violence.

[redacted] stated that he did not like what he heard CARMICHAEL say and that he is not an advocator of CARMICHAEL or [redacted] b7C [redacted] advised that the group from McKinley was broken up into "one brother for every two sisters," and that shortly after 2:00 p.m., he and the sisters he was with among others, begin to feel uneasy about the situation and the majority of the group returned to McKinley High School.

On April 5, 1968, at approximately 11:30 a.m. he and about 150-200 other McKinley pupils conducted a silent march in memory of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING from the school to the Howard University campus. After arriving on the campus, the group remained in the vicinity of Douglass Hall and observed several unknown individuals make speeches to a large crowd. At approximately 2:00 p.m. his group began forming for the return trip to McKinley when he noticed STOKELY CARMICHAEL began to address the crowd. [redacted] was sure that this individual was CARMICHAEL because he had seen him on a few other occasions, and also recognized him from many newspaper photographs. [redacted] stated that CARMICHAEL spoke for about five minutes, and in effect, stated "I have only one thing to say and it will take me only five minutes." When they shot Dr. KING, they killed non-violence. The only thing that's talking now is this." At this point CARMICHAEL exhibited a pistol which [redacted] believed to be a .38 caliber, black colored weapon. CARMICHAEL then held the pistol in his hand and waved his arm for a few seconds. [redacted] stated that CARMICHAEL concluded his remarks with something like "tonight's the night", and walked away from the speakers area.

b7C [redacted] stated that on April 5, 1968, at about 12:30 p.m., [redacted] requested him to come to the office. Upon arrival, he was told that he and [redacted] would accompany [redacted] of the Washington, D. C. Recreation Department to attend a meeting of student and community leaders at the District Building in downtown Washington, in an attempt to curb rioting which had already progressed in Washington, D. C. [redacted] said that he, [redacted] and [redacted] names not recalled, left Eastern High School and drove to the campus of Howard University. While enroute, he learned that they were going to Howard to attempt to persuade STOKELY CARMICHAEL to accompany them to this meeting.

When they arrived at Howard just prior to 2:00 p.m., a large crowd of persons were gathered in the vicinity of Douglass Hall. Shortly thereafter, he observed CARMICHAEL and listened to him speak as follows: CARMICHAEL said, "they killed the wrong man, they should have killed myself or RAP." "Now it's time for the honkies to learn." CARMICHAEL stated that America had killed all hope for non-violence and the time for talking was over. He said that now they were going to do it their way. He told the crowd to keep the sisters off the street at night and to tell the young brothers not to loot because "we are out here for serious business." CARMICHAEL stated that "I know I am going to die, but I don't give a damn for myself, I know they are going to kill me."

said, "If you don't have any heat, stay off the streets."

[] stated the word heat in this instance referred to a gun.

[] advised that CARMICHAEL then stated, "I have mine," and held up a pistol, believed to be a .38 caliber with a black barrel.

b7C

[] stated that CARMICHAEL moved away from the speaker's platform, and was loudly cheered by the crowd. [] advised that he next observed the crowd to disperse peacefully, talking in small groups, and walk away from the area in various directions.

[] stated that [] abandoned their plan to ask CARMICHAEL to come with them to the District Building. They entered Douglass Hall and called the District Building. They were then told that the previously scheduled meeting had been cancelled because rioting in the downtown area had gotten out of control.

[] advised that [] were then driven through the area of Georgia Avenue and 7th Street, N. W. and ultimately back to Eastern High School. [] stated he has not seen CARMICHAEL since the occasion at Howard.

[] advised that he did not desire to testify regarding the above information because, in his opinion, prosecuting CARMICHAEL is no solution to the problems causing the rioting. He felt that to put CARMICHAEL in jail would only cause further problems involving the black community.

[redacted] was working alone in his office which is located south and in sight of Howard University at approximately 12:45 p.m., Friday, April 5, 1968. He observed a group of approximately 200-250 Negro teenagers walking north on the east side of Georgia Avenue past his office. They were orderly and walking two to three abreast. They proceeded onto the campus of Howard University. He did not observe their activities on the campus.

About 1:15 p.m. he observed a group of approximately 200-250 Negro teenagers, both male and female, leave the campus, cross Georgia Avenue and head south past his office. He assumed this was the same group. As they crossed Georgia Avenue they began running and several teenagers began throwing objects at passing cars and buses. Two Negro college age females were standing by his office at the intersection of Georgia and Berry Street, N. W., waiting on a bus. They ran when they saw the crowd and a bus did not stop for them.

Several individuals in the group hit his front window with their hands as they ran by, but did not break or damage any of his property. [redacted] went outside and asked some of the group where they went to school and was told by several that they attended McKinley, Eastern and Ballou High Schools. [redacted] did not observe any individuals in the group that appeared old enough to be Howard University students.

[redacted] Hampton Engineering, 2316 Georgia Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC), advised that on April 5, 1968, shortly after 1:00 p.m. he observed an organized group walking north on Georgia Avenue towards Howard University. They were marching in line more like soldiers than a mob. He stated that all day long groups were milling around Georgia Avenue. He stated that prior to his employer pulling the time clock at 1:24 p.m. some members of a large mob broke the window of Hampton Engineering. He advised that he could not identify any leaders nor participants of the groups.

[redacted] Hampton Engineering, 2316 Georgia Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC), advised that about 1:00 p.m. on April 5, 1968, he had seen a large orderly group of young Negro males going north on Georgia Avenue. He stated that this group did not cause any disturbances. Shortly after 1:00 p.m., he estimated a group of thousands came south on Georgia Avenue from the direction of Howard University. They were shouting, laughing, and yelling "bomb them out," "get whitey," and other remarks which were not clear due to the crowd. They seemed to be high school students, grown-ups, and young children. He estimates that at approximately 1:15 p.m. they broke his window. He and his associates decided to leave. They took the time clock off the wall at 1:24 p.m. so that he could positively fix the time of this activity prior to 1:24 p.m. He stated that the broken window was the only damage to his business. He advised that he could not identify any leaders of the mob nor could he identify any of the participants.

b7C [redacted] Reuters News Agency, Room 615 National Press Building, advised that he attended the press conference held on April 5, 1968, at 2208 - 14th Street, N. W., headquarters for the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, at approximately 10:00 a.m. During the course of the press conference, [redacted] made notes on statements made by STOKELY CARMICHAEL as follows:

"White America declared war on black America last night. What is needed now are guns and more guns -- last night here those kids tried to fight guns with rocks and bottles and it just didn't work. We will wait but only until we can get enough guns. There's no need for a lot of intellectual talk now -- that's all over. When Dr. KING was killed the last hope of the white man was also killed."

b7C [redacted] advised he prepared his news dispatch from the above, which he called in to the office of Reuters News Agency immediately at the conclusion of the press conference.

[redacted] stated he is willing to testify to the above at any proceedings which may be held.

[redacted] advised that he presently resides at [redacted] Maryland.

There were about 20 reporters in attendance plus a group of SNCC people, or individuals associated with SNCC, in the next room. The members of this group appeared to be in their 20's.

b7C

[] commented that during the question and answer session, he asked two questions. He did not recall one of the questions but explained that his other question was whether there was not some other alternative to what CARMICHAEL had advocated. As he recalls, CARMICHAEL did not think there was any alternative and that White America had made its worst mistake.

[] remembered that CARMICHAEL was asked a question regarding whether he had any fear for his life. He recalled that CARMICHAEL answered that he had no fear for his life but the person who asked the question, unknown to [] "should fear for yours." The SNCC group in the adjoining room applauded CARMICHAEL for his answer.

[redacted] WTOP, advised he took the press conference film from the film rack outside the processing room door and, pursuant to instructions, cut a two minute and eight second section of the film to be used on TV News. This section of film was aired on April 5, 1968, on the 1 PM Newsday, and 6 PM Newsnight television programs.

b7C [redacted] related that after [redacted] selected a 38 second strip of film to be used. The 38 second film was aired on the 7 PM and 11 PM television news reports on April 5, 1968. [redacted] advised that none of the film was used on Saturday, April 6, 1968. On Sunday, April 7, 1968, the 38 second strip with audio was used at 4:30 PM. It was used on the news program again at 6:30 PM, however, on this occasion the audio portion was not transmitted as the newscaster's narration accompanied exhibition of the press conference scenes. The 38 second strip of film was shown again on the 11 PM news roundup program. Again there was no audio but just the news commentator's commentary. This was the last time any of the press conference film, taken by [redacted] was used.

b7C [redacted] advised that he has had custody of the press conference film or has been aware of its whereabouts ever since it was in the WTOP office. The film was kept on his desk when it was being used. He advised that the parts used were kept on a rear side rack and the part that was cut out was kept in a rack in front of his desk.

United Press International, was interviewed at his office located at 1017 New Jersey Avenue, S. E. [redacted] advised he lives at [redacted] Maryland, home telephone number [redacted] related the following:

On the evening of April 4, 1968, he received notification from the United Press International (UPI) City News Wire Day Book, that STOKELY CARMICHAEL would hold a press conference at 10 AM, Friday, April 5, 1968.

[redacted] decided he personally, along with a television camera crew under his direction, would cover this press conference of CARMICHAEL. [redacted] was accompanied by [redacted]

[redacted] This UPI camera and news crew went to headquarters of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), 2208 14th Street, N. W., and "set up" in advance of the meeting, it being noted by [redacted] other major news services and members of the press were represented in the crowd at SNCC Headquarters.

[redacted] estimated there were approximately 25 "pen and pencil" reporters present, including himself, with about 25, more or less, persons in the room, being made up by camera, sound men and electrical technicians who were members of various news crews who were photographing the press conference.

[redacted] stated his cameraman "shot" approximately 400 feet of sound and film footage in black and white and, in addition, possibly another 50 feet of film without sound. He stated the meeting was opened by LESTER MC KINNIE who first admonished all reporting b7C personnel present with their crews to be sure they cleaned up thoroughly following the press conference, taking all their debris, including cigarette butts, with them. He stated CARMICHAEL was introduced by MC KINNIE who thereupon directed his remarks to the cameras and reporters. [] stated he made a few penciled notes himself but was more concerned in directing his camera towards various "shots" and actually paid little attention to what CARMICHAEL said inasmuch as the press conference was being recorded both on film and on sound track. He said after the news conference was over, he and his crew returned to his office with the film and it was thereafter turned over to [] who prepared a total of 68 feet of film, amounting to one minute and fifty-three seconds of exposure time for transmission on television.

The narration or summation describing the 68 feet of film footage which was made available to UPI clients, described the film as follows:

"Black power advocate STOKELY CARMICHAEL has warned that there will be 'retaliation in the streets' for the killing of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING. CARMICHAEL told a news conference in the nation's capitol that when white America killed Dr. KING, she killed all reasonable hope."

b7C [] stated from his notes, [] had made a paraphrase of what had been uttered by CARMICHAEL at the press conference and this paraphrasing is set forth as it was prepared by []

"(paraphrasing) Carmichael says: When White America killed Dr. King last night she opened the way for every black man in this country... they had no reason to get rid of Dr. King.

He was the one man everyone would listen to... they didn't always agree with him. The rebellion that went on last night is just light stuff to what is going to happen. We have to retaliate for the execution of Dr. King. Our retaliation won't be in the courts but in the streets of America...White America made it a whole lot easier for the black man. When she killed Dr. King (END CUE: 'she lost.') b7C [] stated his own notes, which he had made at the scene of the news conference, were destroyed and thrown away. [] stated to his knowledge CARMICHAEL did not exhibit any firearm at any time during the press conference. It was his considered personal opinion that the utterances of CARMICHAEL were inflammatory and highly militant.

b7C During the question and answer period following CARMICHAEL's major announcements, [] asked CARMICHAEL "Don't you think the majority of Americans are as shocked (at the assassination of Dr. King) as most Negroes?"

[] stated in reply CARMICHAEL gave some sort of oblique answer, the nature of which [] was unable to recall, but which he said should have been fully recorded both by his camera and sound.

b7C Although [] and his crew "shot" in excess of 400 feet of film, [] explained that for purposes of selling the news footage to clients of UPI, only 68 feet of actual film was used and this was reproduced in the total number of 40 copies. The remaining footage which was not "printed out" is considered the "master" film and it was forwarded to the New York City Headquarters of UPI for storage in the Film Library. [] said the full footage minus editing clips would be available for use in any legal proceedings upon service to him of a proper subpoena duces tecum.

[redacted] advised he resides at [redacted] Washington, D. C. [redacted] related he was [redacted] on the assignment to cover the press conference of STOKELY CARMICHAEL held Friday at 10 AM, April 5, 1968 at Headquarters of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). [redacted] related he operated [redacted] while approximately 400 to 450 feet of television news footage was run off covering all the happenings at the news conference, including the opening remarks by LESTER MC KINNIE, announcements by CARMICHAEL, and the brief question and answer period which concluded the press conference.

[redacted] stated inasmuch as he was more concerned with the operation and protection of his equipment than with the actual utterances of the speakers, he did not pay a great deal of attention to what CARMICHAEL actually said. [redacted] did recall he considered CARMICHAEL's utterances as inflammatory and highly militant although he had no specific recollection of actual phrases of CARMICHAEL. [redacted] stated he did not see CARMICHAEL exhibit any type of firearm during this press conference.

He related the following:

On Friday morning, April 5, 1968, [redacted]

b7C [redacted] UPI, to the headquarters of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee located at 2208 - 14th Street, N. W., where STOKELY CARMICHAEL was scheduled to hold a press conference at 10:00 a.m. [redacted] were accompanied by [redacted] b7C [redacted] was primarily concerned with the operation and protection of his camera equipment and, during the course of the press conference initiated by LESTER MC KINNIE who preceded and introduced STOKELY CARMICHAEL, [redacted] said he was unable to devote full attention to statements made either by MC KINNIE or CARMICHAEL. He said the entire occurrence probably consumed approximately 30 minutes, during which period he "shot" a little more than 400 feet of black and white film which included all of the action with sound.

b7C [redacted] said he did not make any notes of comments made by either MC KINNIE or CARMICHAEL, but he did recall CARMICHAEL making a statement, in substance amounting to "Now is the time to shoot." [redacted] also recalled having heard CARMICHAEL state, again in substance, "Tomorrow we are going to Richmond and if they don't release RAP BROWN, we are going to burn Richmond down."

b7C [redacted] stated the entire theme of CARMICHAEL's utterances was "hate." [redacted] said at no time did he see any exhibition of weapons of any kind either by CARMICHAEL or by anyone else present at the news conference. He stated this was the only occasion on which he saw STOKELY CARMICHAEL during the week of April 1 - 6, 1968.

W., Washington, D. C., at 10:00 a.m., April 5, 1968.

He stated members of the news media were "frisked" upon entering SNCC Headquarters. [] stated he sat in the second row at the conference and recorded the proceedings on his portable tape recorder.

During the conference CARMICHAEL made no specific or direct threats of violence against white people. He spoke of getting guns and that there were debts that had to be paid.

b7C [] stated, in his opinion, there was an implied threat of violence toward the whites, in CARMICHAEL's statements, but stopped short of being an open and direct call for violence.

[] stated his tape of the press conference, is in the custody of [] Associated Press and is being held by Associated Press for their legal protection against libel action for misquotes. [] stated the Federal Bureau of Investigation is welcome to listen to or make a copy of this tape. He stated that as he was in the second row and his was a portable recorder the quality of the tape was not of the best. He stated the television and radio media had good equipment near CARMICHAEL which was probably of high quality.

b7C Special Agent (SA) [] of the Washington Field Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, advised he was present to attend a press conference of STOKELY CARMICHAEL which he had called for 10:00 a.m. to be held at the headquarters of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), 2208 14th Street, N.W., Washington, D. C., on April 5, 1968.

b7C Upon arrival at SNCC headquarters at approximately 9:58 a.m., SA [] noticed a crowd of about 50 Negro males standing outside the address (between the ages of about 20 to 35). There did not appear to be any females in the crowd. Two young Negro males appearing to be in their early twenties guarded the door and appeared to be checking everyone entering. White members of the press were trying to get inside. Some were carrying camera equipment. As SA [] approached the doorway a white member of the press was seen exiting. He was asked what was going on inside. He replied that STOKELY CARMICHAEL was holding a press conference. He was further asked if he had been able to get inside. He said, no, that he was refused admittance by the guards. He said he was with "Newsweek" magazine. Another member of the press exited the doorway and inquired of SA [] if he had attempted to get inside, apparently assuming SA [] was with the press. When informed no, he said he tried to get inside but they would not admit him. He also said they had kicked him while trying to get inside. Several other white males appearing on the scene carrying camera equipment were observed to be denied admittance. Other white members of the press were admitted but were being given a body search by the guards posted at the door before entering. Other newsmen denied admittance stood outside in a cluster along side the estimated 50 Negro males.

b7C SA [] recognized there was no likelihood of being admitted to the press conference without being qualified by the guards at the door as being with a member of the press acceptable to them. He joined the members of the press who had been denied admittance to the press conference standing outside waiting until it terminated. A group of about 50 Negroes also stood outside waiting for the conference to end. The crowd outside was ruly. They appeared expectant and curious about what was taking place inside. About 10:33 a.m. newsmen began to emerge from the building, indicating the press conference was ended.

b7C SA [] approached one of the emerging members of the press, whose name he did not know, and asked him what had taken place inside. The newsman had a paper containing notes in his hand which he read from. He said that during the news conference, STOKELY CARMICHAEL stated MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., was the last Negro civil rights leader of the older generation who preached nonviolence, brotherhood, love and good will, and now he is gone. He further said CARMICHAEL stated there will be no funeral and there is no need for crying. CARMICHAEL continued that black people must organize to fight the white society in which they live, there is no longer any need to press for love because what is needed is guns, because Negroes must arm themselves. He stated violence will come but Negroes must first arm themselves. CARMICHAEL continued that on the previous night, Negro youths fought policemen's guns with rocks and bottles. Next time, he stated, it won't be this way, there will be war in the streets.

b7C After the press conference was over, CARMICHAEL was not observed to emerge from SNCC by SA [] The crowd that had gathered outside the building dispersed soon thereafter in an orderly manner.

Negroes Must Kill Whites, Stokely Carmichael Says

Washington — (UPI). — Stokely Carmichael said today that Negroes will "have to get guns" and take to the streets to retaliate for the execution of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

"When white America killed Dr. King, it declared war on us," the Black Power extremist told reporters.

"Black people know that their way is not by intellectual discussions. They know they have to get guns."

"We have to retaliate for the execution of our leaders. The execution of those debts will not be in the courtrooms. They will be in the streets of the United States of America."

Leads Looting

Carmichael, who led several hundred demonstrators last night during several hours of violence and looting in a 15-block area of Washington, said he did it so the youths could ask storeowners to close down their shops out of respect for King.

"I want it clear, however, that we are not stopping them from kicking in store windows," Carmichael added.

"If they don't have guns, we're not going to let them throw bricks and bottles at guns," he said. "When we have guns we will let them come out on the street."

Asked by a white reporter if he feared for his life, Carmichael replied:

"To hell with my life. You should fear yours. I know I am going to die."

'Dying Every Day'

Asked if his course of action might result in the death of many Negroes, Carmichael responded:

"Black men are dying every day. In Vietnam for example. They might as well take as many white men as possible with them."

He called President Johnson and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy (D-NY) "honkies" and included them as part of the "white America" that he held responsible for King's death.

During the looting and other disturbances last night, Carmichael told the crowd of youths:

"When the white man comes he is coming to kill you. I don't want any black blood in the street. Go home and get you a gun and then come back because I got me a gun."

Carmichael then brandished a small, black pistol.

As he did so, a Negro boy fired two shots into the air.

Police tried to disperse demonstrators in various areas and at one point used tear gas.

There were several fires in which arson was suspected. Firemen were the target of rock throwers.

Re preliminary report submitted under date of

For the information of the Bureau, between 50 and 60 Agents have been used daily in the investigation of instant matter, aimed at determining the extent of CARMICHAEL's direction and participation in the rioting conditions on 4/4, 5 and 6/68 in WDC. In excess of 170 interviews have been conducted to date concerning the march on 14th Street, NW, during the early evening of 4/4/68 and the Georgia and Florida Avenue, NW, area during the afternoon of 4/5/68. An estimated 50 additional interviews are contemplated concerning the 14th Street disturbance. To date, investigation indicates that a group of high-school age juveniles began destroying property and looting along Georgia Avenue between 12:30 and 1:30 PM, on 4/5/68. This group originated in the area of Howard University and the disturbance, including looting, began prior to the appearance of CARMICHAEL at the University.

In excess of 50 interviews have been conducted of news-media personnel in instant matter. An additional 14 interviews are contemplated.

Two audio-visual and three audio tapes, primarily concerning the STOKELY CARMICHAEL press interview on 4/5/68, have been obtained.

With respect to CARMICHAEL's appearance at Howard University, investigation has determined that there were three gatherings on that date at the University and that CARMICHAEL appeared only for the third meeting. Our best information to date indicates he arrived at about 1:45 - 2:00 PM and six students at this third gathering, who are considered extreme militants, have been identified as having been there. Efforts will be made to interview them. Five high-school students and six Howard University faculty members who were present at this meeting have been interviewed. Continuing efforts are being made to identify additional spectators at this meeting. Howard University students are on Easter recess and will not return to school until Monday, 4/22/68.

All leads are being given expeditious attention and sufficient manpower will be used to insure that investigation receives prompt attention.

Next investigative report will be submitted 4/12/68.

By letter dated 4/6/68, the Attorney General requested the Bureau's assistance in developing information on the incidents involving Stokely Carmichael on 4/4-6/68.

We have received a preliminary report dated 4/8/68 from our Washington Field Office concerning this matter.

Included in the report is a signed statement from a witness who observed Carmichael lead 15 to 20 youngsters from Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee Headquarters in Washington, D. C., to the vicinity of 14th and U Streets, Northwest, Washington, D. C. Carmichael told the group, "If you don't have a gun, go home and get one." He thereafter exhibited a small caliber handgun to the crowd. This occurred 4/4/68. B

The report also contains a transcript of a tape recording of remarks made by Carmichael at a press conference on 4/5/68. During this press conference, Carmichael acknowledged that he led the Negro youngsters to 14th and U Streets the evening of 4/4/68 and acknowledged that he would not stop them from kicking in store glass windows. He declared, "We are stopping them from coming out on the streets without guns. When they come out on the streets, we want them with guns."

ACTION:

There is attached a proposed letter to the Attorney General, copies for Deputy Attorney General Yeagley and Vinson. Copies for Assistant Attorneys General Yeagley and Vinson contain as an enclosure a copy of Washington Field Office report dated 4/8/68. We are continuing to vigorously press this investigation.

Nevertheless, he has linked his cause with the most outspoken advocate of violence in the United States, Stokely Carmichael. . . . King and his followers are seeking to tie up the organs of government so that democracy will be paralyzed. Blackmail and mob rule have no part in our system of government. . . . I believe that President Lyndon Johnson knows what King is trying to do, and that he should do something about it. I call upon President Johnson to make public the information about King which is available to him. This information is openly talked about in Washington." Mr. Thurmond included an article from the Charleston (South Carolina) News and Courier of February 11 entitled "King, Carmichael To Join Forces" written by Frank V. Set forth as follows is the action which we have instituted pursuant to information developed by our Washington Field Office (WFO) on the evening of April 7, 1968, that Stokely Carmichael, black nationalist militant, would go with a caravan of his followers to Richmond, Virginia, early tomorrow morning in connection with [REDACTED] court appearance there.

Pursuant to your instructions the Richmond Office was advised to endeavor to taperecord any statements which Carmichael or his militant followers might make in connection with this matter. In addition Richmond was instructed to endeavor to thoroughly cover the assemblage through observations of Agents on the spot, as well as use of photographic equipment, noting the necessity of developing any possible evidence in connection therewith.

WFO was instructed to maintain physical surveillance of Carmichael and his caravan and coordinate with the Richmond Office in order that the Richmond Office could assume the surveillance at a discreet position after they were on their way.

It was impressed upon both Richmond and WFO that it is most essential that the Bureau be kept fully advised of all developments in this matter.

We have been keeping the Department fully advised of activities of Carmichael and will continue to do so.

[REDACTED] of the "Washington Post" newspaper, was interviewed for information concerning an article appearing in the "Washington Post" on April 5, 1968, regarding the disturbance at 14th and U Streets, N.W., Washington, D. C., on the night of April 4, 1968.

[REDACTED] advised that his office has a running log of messages telephoned and radioed in by reporters of events which pertain to the civil disturbance in Washington, D. C., on the night of April 4, 1968, and the morning of April 5, 1968. [REDACTED] said that the log is considered as private working papers of his office and may contain personal notes and comments that may not be desirable for the public to review. He stated he would like to cooperate with law enforcement officers but has some reservations about having his reporters tied up in court. He added that the lives and livelihoods of these reporters might be jeopardized by disclosure of information in this matter. However, he believed he could make this log available if it was treated on a "privy" basis.

Please advise whether it is desirable for our Washington Field Office to accept the above log from [REDACTED] under the restrictions placed on its use by him. This log should be the source of considerable lead material.

By letter dated April 6, 1968, the Attorney General requested an investigation of the incidents in Washington, D.C., involving Stokely Carmichael on April 4, 5, and 6, 1968. We have submitted to the Department a preliminary report from our Washington Field Office dated April 8, 1968, which contains considerable information concerning Carmichael's involvement on the above dates and we are continuing to press this investigation to determine the identities of additional potential witnesses and to interview them. The interview of [REDACTED] was conducted by our WFO Office.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL
INCITE TO RIOT

Attached are 5 copies of LHM containing results of an interview of representatives of the "Washington Post" newspaper on 4/10/68 with respect to the presence of a log at the newspaper office setting forth the events which were telephoned in by reporters on the scene covering the riot which occurred on 4/4/68.

WFO recommends that this office be authorized to accept the log and review it for lead information.

Of concurrent interest was information supplied by [redacted] that the "Washington Post" newspaper had three reporters on the scene at 14th and Chapin Streets when CARMICHAEL made comments about using guns. The "Washington Post" has no objection to FBI interviews of these individuals; however, the final decision lies exclusively with the reporters. Interviews will be requested of [redacted]

[redacted] Names of additional reporters working for the "Post" on 4/4/68 have been obtained and they will be interviewed for whatever information they can contribute concerning STOKELY CARMICHAEL.

[redacted] of the "Washington Post" newspaper, for information concerning an article appearing in the "Post" newspaper on April 5, 1968, regarding the 14th Street disturbance on the night of April 4, 1968.

[redacted] advised that his office has a running log of messages telephoned and radioed by reporters of events which pertain to the civil disturbance in Washington, D. C., on the night of April 4, and the morning of April 5, 1968. When asked if he would make that log available for review, [redacted] said that the log is considered as private working papers of the office, may contain personal notes and comments and may not be desirable for the public to review. He stated he would like very much to cooperate with law-enforcement officers but has some reservations about having his reporters tied up in court. He added that lives and livelihoods of these reporters might be jeopardized by disclosure of their sources of information in this matter. However, he believed he could make this log available if it were treated on a "privy" basis. [redacted] was advised that the representatives could not give such assurance at this time; that a check would be made with appropriate authorities and he would be recontacted.

SUBJECT: STOKELY CARMICHAEL
INTERNAL SECURITY - MISCELLANEOUS; SEDITION

At the specific request of the Attorney General, we are conducting an investigation of the incidents in Washington, D. C., involving Stokely Carmichael on April 4, 5, and 6, 1968. One phase of this investigation is the interviewing of persons connected with the news media and in this connection, we interviewed [REDACTED] of the "Washington Post" newspaper.

[REDACTED] advised that his office has a running log of messages telephoned in by reporters of events which pertain to the civil disturbances in Washington, D. C., during April 4-6, 1968. He said the lives and livelihoods of these reporters might be jeopardized by disclosure of information in this matter. However, he believed he could make this log available if it was treated on a "privy" basis.

Our Washington Field Office in recognizing that obtaining the log under such conditions could possibly create technical legal problems, advised the Bureau of the conditions set forth by [REDACTED] and we immediately forwarded the information to the Department for its advice.

By letter dated April 12, 1968, Assistant Attorney General Fred M. Vinson, Jr., has requested that we obtain the log from [REDACTED]. Accordingly, the attached airtel with Mr. Vinson's letter as an enclosure instructs our Washington Field Office to recontact [REDACTED] and advise him that the matter of making the log available under "privy" was presented to the Department and the Department has made the request we obtain the log as set forth in the letter from Mr. Vinson, that is without any absolute promise of confidentiality.

INTERNAL SECURITY - MISCELLANEOUS; SEDITION

By letter dated 4/6/68 the Attorney General requested the Bureau's assistance in developing information on the incidents involving Stokely Carmichael on 4/4-6/68.

We have furnished the Department a preliminary report dated 4/8/68 from our Washington Field Office concerning this matter. Included in this report is a signed statement from a witness who observed Carmichael on the evening of 4/4/68 tell a group in the vicinity of 14th and U Streets, Northwest, Washington, D. C., "If you don't have a gun, go home and get one." This report also contained a transcript of a tape recording of highly inflammatory remarks made by Carmichael during a press conference at Washington, D. C., Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) headquarters the morning of 4/5/68.

We have received a second report from Washington Field Office dated 4/12/68 consisting of over 250 pages which is being furnished to the Criminal Division and to the Internal Security Division of the Department. Included in this report is detailed information obtained from witnesses who observed the activities of Carmichael in the vicinity of 14th and U Streets, Northwest, Washington, D. C., the evening of 4/4/68. Persons interviewed, including press reporters, in variance as to what Carmichael said. However, several witnesses saw Carmichael in the possession of a hand gun. One news reporter heard Carmichael say "Go home and get your guns." Also, numerous store owners and employees in the area were interviewed and some observed Carmichael in group telling businessmen to close their business after the assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr. In addition it was reported that seven students observed Carmichael on afternoon of 4/5/68 at Howard University. Several of these students reported Carmichael exhibited a pistol to the group on the campus and made such statements as "Don't go on the streets unless you have a gun and here's mine."

Pages 33842-33843. Senator Byrd, (D) West Virginia, spoke concerning the recent events of violence and destruction in the District of Columbia. He pointed out that on Saturday he talked with Mr. Warren Christopher, Deputy Attorney General, and urged that firm police action be utilized in dealing with the rioters and looters and that all reasonable force be applied to apprehend and arrest lawbreakers. Mr. Byrd also made reference to activities of Stokely Carmichael and advised that he had asked Mayor Washington "what consideration was being given to the arrest of Stokely Carmichael and he said that 'serious considerations are being given by the Justice Department. I am continuing to talk with the Department of Justice regarding Carmichael.'" Mr. Byrd went on to state: "I wish to express deep appreciation to Mayor Washington, Deputy Mayor Fletcher, the White House personnel, Chief Layton, Mr. Vance, and others, who worked virtually around the clock in the effort to bring a most difficult and volatile situation under control."

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum dated April 2, 1968, and entitled as above.

On March 28, 1968, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that he learned the following:

Fred Hampton and Stokely Carmichael are friends, but the closeness of their friendship is not known. Hampton stated that Carmichael will return to Maywood sometime in the future and stated that one of the reasons for Carmichael's recent visit to Chicago was to contact the Blackstone Rangers and request them to stop fighting with other Negro gangs and to unite behind the Black Power movement espoused by Carmichael.

Hampton and his aides are receiving a good deal of money and very little of it is being spent for the benefit of the people who contribute. The profits of the Cultural Center Store, 1009 Madison Street, Maywood, Illinois, also go to Hampton and he has stated he intends to buy a new car, possibly a Cadillac. Hampton also stated that he may return to work for the International Harvester Company, where he was formerly employed, but left because he was not made the shop steward. Hampton is also supporting [REDACTED]

On April 2, 1968, source further advised that Hampton held a meeting with his five aides on March 31, 1968, and stated that on that date a boycott of gas stations in Maywood owned by white persons would begin. The stations were identified as the Shell Station, 17th Avenue and Madison Street; Standard Station, 19th Avenue and Madison Street; Sunoco, 9th and Madison; Mobil Station, 9th and Madison Streets; an off-brand station, 8th and Madison Streets; and the "S and A" Station at 4th Avenue and Lake Street. Hampton also stated that a boycott of white-owned grocery stores in Maywood would begin the following week and he would advise Negro-owned stores to stock up for this purpose. Hampton and [redacted] were seen visiting Negro-owned stores on April 1, 1968. ILL

Source stated Hampton urged that efforts be made to obtain guns as they had only one rifle, one shotgun, and some pistols, which may be hidden in the homes of Hampton's aides. Hampton and his aides thought that three or four guns would be found in the trunk of [redacted] car, but the attempted theft of said guns was thwarted when [redacted] were caught by [redacted] during the theft and arrested. Hampton was confident that they would not be convicted and he has paid their bond money and hired an attorney. On March 30, 1968, Hampton and [redacted] were driving around Maywood with a shotgun in the car. Hampton and his aides do not conceal the fact that they all expect to get rich by continuing their efforts in Maywood.

In order that the Bureau might be fully informed concerning my conference with United States Attorney DAVID G. BRESS on 4/6/68, there is enclosed the original of a memorandum I prepared on 4/9/68, setting forth such information.

At one point in our conversation, Mr. BRESS indicated he personally would be willing to proceed against CARMICHAEL on the basis of information already obtained but he did recognize a definite need to strengthen the evidence.

I suggested to Mr. BRESS that due to the nature of this matter it might become necessary for him to exercise some of the muscle of his office by calling some potential witnesses to testify before a Grand Jury. He said he realized this might have to be considered.

RE: STOKELY CARMICHAEL
INCITING TO RIOT - MISCELLANEOUS

On Saturday afternoon, 4/6/68, accompanied by [] [] I responded to a request received from United States Attorney DAVID G. BRESS that we confer on a matter b7C which he described over the telephone as being very important.
With Mr. BRESS were two Assistant United States Attorneys, EARL SILBERT and HAROLD SULLIVAN. At the conference it developed Mr.
BRESS wished to discuss possible prosecution of STOKELY CARMICHAEL for violation of a new statute against Inciting to Riot within the District of Columbia (Public Law 90-226, Enacted 12/27/67, 81-Stat.
743). Also present for the conference in Mr. BRESS' office was [] of the Metropolitan Police Department, Intelligence Division.

Mr. BRESS said he would like to speak for a few minutes and he did so making the following comments:

Three things relating to possible prosecution are known.
They are: (1) On Thursday evening, 4/4/68, CARMICHAEL brandished a pistol and started a large group of persons north on 14th Street.
Along the way he asked that stores be closed in respect to the late Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. It is not known whether this group increased in size as it went along, nor are the names of the participants known nor do we know the identities of the stores or people who were contacted. Likewise we do not know what employees of the store operators were contacted. In fact, b7C we have no witnesses at all. We know of no connection between this activity and the breaking out of fires. The only thing we know in fact is that a single individual, [] of the Metropolitan Police Department, heard CARMICHAEL ask others at 14th and Chapin Streets, N. W., whether they had their guns.
Upon receiving a negative answer, CARMICHAEL reportedly stated well he had his. There was a report that two people in a Volkswagen automobile were attacked in the immediate area, but we do not know who they were or what happened.

Mr. BRESS is charged with the responsibility to see that the events of Thursday evening, 4/4/68, are fully investigated. He noted a more formal type of request for investigation by the FBI would be forthcoming. Meantime he had been authorized by the Attorney General to get the FBI to do the investigation with respect to point (1) as outlined. He recognized it was impossible under the circumstances for the MPD to fully investigate CARMICHAEL's activities on that evening. This is as far as "we are asking the FBI to go," Mr. BRESS said. MPD would be requested to do nothing further concerning activities on 4/4, but was being requested by him during the conference to cover points (2) and (3) as follows:

(2) CARMICHAEL held a press conference on 4/5/68, and further details should be developed. For example, how did this conference come about? Who called it, etc.?

(3) What took place at Howard University on the afternoon of 4/5/68 when CARMICHAEL reportedly made a speech? Who was present? What did he say? What did he do? We have no information as to what he said during such a speech or what he did afterward or what he or his followers said later. We do have [redacted] but his testimony alone will probably not be sufficiently impressive or articulate to sustain conviction. b7C

Upon making the three requests cited above, Mr. BRESS spoke in more general terms as follows: Of course, CARMICHAEL, technically, could be prosecuted for carrying a dangerous weapon without a license but in the prevailing atmosphere no consideration would be seriously given to singling him out for such a charge. In fact no charge should be made unless we can be certain the Government will prevail. A question exists at the present time as to whether [redacted] testimony and the other limited information at hand would enable the Government to prevail. Consideration must be given as a practical matter as to the make-up of any jury which might be selected within the District of Columbia. b7C

Mr. BRESS then went over the provisions of the Riot Statute cited in the first paragraph of this memorandum, and said that after all the information had been obtained and reviewed by him, he would have to submit it and his judgment

"to half a dozen persons upstairs." He stated he would have the assistance of Mr. SULLIVAN and Mr. SILBERT but it was his personal responsibility to report to the Attorney General on what develops from the investigation and how it fits into the law.

Following the conference with Mr. BRESS, I talked privately to [redacted] and learned from him that his view, and probably the view of his Department, would be that the MPD would not conduct any further investigation. It was felt a violation on the part of CARMICHAEL had been established sufficient for the Government to proceed if it cared to do so. [redacted] subsequently telephoned to say he had discussed the conference with [redacted] [redacted] had stated that while his Department would make [redacted] available and otherwise cooperate fully with the FBI, the MPD itself could not conduct any additional investigation at this time. [redacted] told me Mr. SULLIVAN and Mr. SILBERT were conferring at that time (5:40 p.m., 4/6/68) with [redacted] but [redacted] did not feel this conference would result in any statement contrary to what [redacted] had said.

At 7:10 p.m. on 4/6, Mr. SULLIVAN called me to advise of the view of the MPD and stated he had made this fact known to Mr. BRESS. At 7:38 p.m., Mr. BRESS himself called me. He stated that while the MPD would do anything and everything asked of it, he must readily recognize the inadequacy of the MPD's Intelligence Division to do very much at this time. Therefore, he would like to enlarge his prior request of the FBI to include the request that we handle items (2) and (3) as previously described.

After checking with Inspector JOSEPH A. SIZOO at the Bureau, who in turn had been in touch with Mr. DeLOACH, I called Mr. BRESS and told him the FBI would handle the investigation as requested but no effort would be made until regular hours on Monday, 4/8, to contact the business people in the burned out area.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL
INTERNAL SECURITY - MISCELLANEOUS;
SEDITION

On April 8, 1968, [] advised that Carmichael arrived in front of Paschal's Motor Motel, 830 Hunter Street, S.W., Atlanta, Georgia, in a 1965 blue and white Dodge sedan bearing an unknown South Carolina license plate, at approximately 11:40 p.m. on April 8, 1968. Immediately upon his arrival and the recognition of him by several people in the immediate vicinity, a congregation assembled around the automobile from which he was alighting, and the remark "Brother, tomorrow night we gonna burn them" was heard coming from the crowd surrounding Carmichael.

On April 9, 1968, [] advised that Carmichael arrived in the vicinity of the Ebenezer Baptist Church, 413 Auburn Avenue, N.E., at approximately 10:20 a.m., where the funeral services for Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. were in progress. As Carmichael walked toward the entrance to the church, and although not appearing to speak to anyone in particular, he repeated time and time again, as he held up his hands, "black power, black power."

Carmichael was dressed neatly in a black business suit, and upon reaching the entrance to the Ebenezer Baptist Church found that the doors had been locked on the inside. After the crowd had shouted "let him in" several times, the doors were opened and Carmichael entered the church.

According to [] after the services at the Ebenezer Baptist Church and while en route to memorial services for Dr. King which were to be held on the campus of Morehouse College, the rumor through the crowd was that Carmichael had said, "Play it cool, and after we bury the man, then the riots can start."

[] advised that Carmichael, while standing close to the casket of Dr. King at the Morehouse College campus at approximately 2:00 or 3:00 p.m., made no speeches or comments.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

[] advised on April 9, 1968, that at approximately 9:30 p.m. on that date a crowd of around 250 to 350 persons gathered in front of Paschal's Motor Motel, and according to [] Carmichael was inside the motel having dinner with several known associates of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee.

[] advised that at approximately 10:35 p.m. on April 9, 1968, the crowd in front of Paschal's dispersed and Carmichael was not known to have engaged in any activity or speech making up to that time.

Information received from [] failed to indicate that Carmichael was subsequently engaged in any type of speech making or other activity in the vicinity of Paschal's Motor Motel up until Midnight, April 9, 1968.

This is to request that the Washington Field Office obtain the "log of messages" of the Washington Post from [redacted]

Although we desire the informal cooperation of [redacted] the log should not be obtained with any absolute promise of confidentiality. While we appreciate the problem of [redacted] we cannot guarantee that they will never be subpoenaed or interviewed. However, we can proffer cooperation in developing alternative sources for the same information. [redacted] is undoubtedly aware that his log could probably be obtained by a subpoena.

It is our understanding that the Bureau is making contact with all other news media. In this connection, we would particularly call your attention to the need for making contact with some of the out-of-town media. We were advised, for example, that the American Broadcasting Corporation sent some of its New York staff to Washington during the emergency. It is also important to contact WOOK, WOL, WAVA, and any stations of the UBC.

Dear [redacted]

Your letter of April 9th has been received and I want to thank you for your kind comments concerning my work.

Stokely Carmichael was born on June 29, 1941, at Trinidad, West Indies, and is a citizen of the United States by derivation. He is, therefore, not subject to exclusion from the United States as an alien. In addition, the FBI is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government and, as such, does not determine whether prosecution will be undertaken in any situation. Such decisions concerning violations of Federal law are within the province of the Attorney General.

I want to assure you that we in the FBI are very much aware of the dangers posed by irresponsible demagogues, and that we will continue to discharge our responsibilities with the highest degree of thoroughness and dispatch.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Dear Sir:

I have followed your career over the years and want you to know that I believe beyond a shadow of doubt that you are one of the greatest American Patriots of our times. You have done a tremendous job and I am proud of you for it.

Another reason for this letter was to ask no beg you to do something about Stockley Carmichael. I believe beyond any doubt that he has been trained by the Communist to try and destroy our American government. He has been allowed to preach hate, urge the black man to kill, burn & loot and I think it is time for him to be put away. Now I am not trying to tell you how to run your office, but I believe the Carmichaels, etc. should either be locked up or run out of the country. Can't your department act before it is too late?

In view of information that CARMICHAEL, after hearing of the news of KING's death on 4/4/68, had instructed or requested businessmen in the area of 14th and U Streets, N.W., to close early that evening, it was suggested that inquiry be made of logs kept at the 13th Precinct of the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) which might reveal the identities of businessmen who had been approached by CARMICHAEL.

Accordingly, SAs [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] contacted [REDACTED]

13th Precinct, re the above. [REDACTED] stated that such inquiries or complaints by business establishments would not be kept on any type of log at the precinct level. He stated that all incoming telephone calls are recorded on 11 separate recorders at Headquarters.

b7C

[REDACTED] stated he learned that [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] who was on duty at the time of KING's death, was aware of CARMICHAEL's purported statements to businessmen along 14th Street, N.W. He stated that since he personally knew nothing further of this incident, he doubted that any formal complaint had been made by any businessmen. He stated he would remain alert for any information along this line and would advise WFO.

Title:

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Character:

INCITING TO RIOT - MISCELLANEOUS

Synopsis:

MPD officer stated in signed statement that he observed CARMICHAEL on evening of 4/4/68, as the leader of a group which requested business establishments in the area of 14th and U Streets, N.W., to close and that CARMICHAEL stated "We don't want any violence, as long as they close. But if they don't, take it". Press reporter who accompanied crowd this same evening stated CARMICHAEL was very polite in making requests to close the stores and when CARMICHAEL was the leader of the group he did not condone vandalism. Reporter observed CARMICHAEL take a gun from an individual who fired twice in the air and CARMICHAEL not observed by this reporter with gun at any other time. Another press reporter who accompanied crowd on evening of 4/4/68, observed CARMICHAEL exhibit a short-barrelled gun which he had taken from inside his trousers at the belt. Press chronology of events the evening of 4/4/68 and morning of 4/5/68 set forth. Transcripts of WTOP and ABC's coverage of SNCC Press Conference 4/5/68, also set forth. Six students saw CARMICHAEL on campus of Howard University on the afternoon of 4/5/68. One of these students observed CARMICHAEL tell a group gathered on campus that "They killed the wrong man" referring to MARTIN LUTHER KING and then raise a pistol over his head. A press reporter stated CARMICHAEL's appearance on Howard University's campus neither created nor dispelled violence; however, she heard

ON EVENING OF APRIL 4, 1968

Washington, D.C.

I, [REDACTED] Metropolitan

Police Department (MPD), Washington, D.C. (WDC), voluntarily make the following statement to Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

I know that this statement may be used in a court of law. I have been on the police force approximately nine and one-half years, and I am assigned to the Vice Detail at the 13th Precinct.

During the evening of Thursday, April 4, 1968,
I was assigned to plain clothes duty in the vicinity of the Peoples Drug Store located in the 2000 block of 14th Street, N.W., WDC. At approximately 8:50 p.m., while sitting in a private automobile in the 2000 block of 14th Street, N.W., I was joined by [REDACTED] MPD, WDC.

b7C

[REDACTED] stated he had been inside the headquarters of Martin Luther King's Poor Peoples March, and had heard Stokely Carmichael say he was not going to wait for any verdict, but was going to get his boys.

Shortly thereafter, I observed Carmichael, followed by approximately fifteen to twenty unidentified persons, proceeding south on the west side of the 2000 block of 14th Street, N.W. I readily recognized Carmichael from newspaper photographs, although I had not previously observed him in person. The group entered the Peoples Drug Store in the 2000 block of 14th Street, and I observed an unidentified person or persons in conversation with the manager of the store. I was not close enough at this time to determine who talked with the manager.

The group then exited the Peoples Drug Store and proceeded diagonally across 14th Street, N.W., to the 1900 block, where they stopped briefly at a Safeway Store. Inside the Safeway Store at this time were two or three employees and some special security officers. I did not observe the group to enter this store and do not know if any conversation ensued between the employees and members of the group.

The group, with Carmichael in front, continued south to the Wings Carry Out located at 14th and Wallach Place, N.W. There Carmichael was confronted by an individual I believe to be photographs of whom I had previously observed. After a brief conversation, Carmichael appeared to brush [] aside and entered the Wings Carry Out Shop. At this point, the group had grown to approximately eighty to one hundred in number. A small group of individuals followed Carmichael into the Wings Carry Out Shop.

Shortly thereafter, the group, with Carmichael in the lead, departed the Wings Carry Out Shop. I thereupon overheard Carmichael say to the group: "We don't want any violence, as long as they close. But if they don't, take it." The group, with Carmichael still in the lead, then crossed 14th Street to the west side. The group proceeded to the Pig N' Pit Restaurant in the 1900 block of 14th Street, N.W., and a small part of the group entered this restaurant. I was unable to observe if Carmichael personally entered this restaurant. After departing the Pig N' Pit, the group continued north to the Wings and Things Restaurant, also located in the 1900 block of 14th Street. Some of the group entered this restaurant, but again I was unable to observe if Carmichael himself went in.

Upon exiting the Wings and Things, the group proceeded north on 14th Street to U Street, crossed 14th Street and continued east on the north side of U Street. In the 1300 block of U Street, Carmichael and part of the group entered a delicatessen, the name of which I cannot recall.

Upon departing the delicatessen, they proceeded to the vicinity of the Republic Theater, also located in the 1300 block of U Street.

At the Republic Theater, Carmichael remained outside on the sidewalk, while part of the group filed through the lobby and into the theater itself. The group broke windows at the Republic Theater, and again I overheard Carmichael say: "We don't want any violence as long as they close. But if they don't close, take it."

The group then proceeded east on U Street to the Lincoln Theater, located in the 1200 block of U Street. Some of the group, which now numbered approximately 150 to 200 persons, entered the Lincoln Theater. At this point, my attention was distracted by the presence of an unidentified white male, who was standing on the south side of U Street and carrying a camera and camera case. The group also spotted this individual and about eighty to one hundred members of the group rushed him, shouting "kill him," and "get him." The unidentified white male was thrown to the ground by the mob, and I yelled to the mob to let him go. At this point, I was identified by several persons in the crowd as a "roller" (street language meaning policeman). I then heard someone in the mob shout, "Get the film." The unidentified white male thereupon opened the back of this 35 millimeter camera, and an unidentified member of the mob snatched the film from it. The white male was then assisted to his feet by an unidentified Negro male, and he and I pushed our way through the crowd and led the white male to safety. I last saw the unidentified Negro male and white male running north across U Street and west on U Street towards 14th Street. I did not observe Carmichael as being part of the group that attacked the unidentified white male.

At this point, I noticed that the group, now split in two sections with Carmichael leading the front section, proceeding west on U Street towards 14th Street. They went north on the west side of 14th Street and unidentified persons within the group began throwing objects, such as coke bottles and rocks, at passing automobiles bearing white persons. As these incidents occurred, I observed Carmichael to be leading the group, although I did not observe him to personally throw any objects. The group continued north on the west side of 14th Street, and some windows were broken in a drug store located at 14th and Clifton Streets and other premises, the names of which I cannot recall. I also observed unidentified persons looting the drug store window at 14th and Clifton Streets.

Subsequently, the main part of the crowd stopped at the corner of 14th and Chapin Streets, and led by Carmichael, reversed direction and proceeded south on 14th Street. At this point, I heard two gunshots. I was, at this time, one block north of the crowd around the corner at 14th and Clifton, where I had attempted to telephone the precinct. I did not see who fired the shots, and did not at any time observe Carmichael in possession of a gun. While following the group subsequent to the incident in the 1200 block of U Street, I received several threats against my person from unidentified members of the group.

After hearing the shots, I crossed to the east side of 14th Street and walked south of the group. Carmichael and the group stopped in front of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) Headquarters, 2208 14th Street, N.W., and I crossed back over 14th Street at U Street. I then walked back to the 13th Precinct and was assigned to duty in a police cruiser.

On April 16, 1968, [redacted]
[redacted] of "The Washington Post" newspaper, advised SA [redacted] as follows:

b7C "The Washington Post" article in the Sunday edition, April 14, 1968, captioned "The City's Turmoil:
The Night It Began," was prepared from a mass of "pieces of paper" which have not been assembled. These pieces of paper represent a log of chronology of events telephoned in to the paper by their reporters on the street.

[redacted] advised that, of course, a newspaper does not desire that its activities be pried on;
however, at the same time, if its reporters secured information in the performance of their duties which is of evidentiary value, then there is a duty to make this information available to the authorized authorities. [redacted] b7C [redacted] said he is not particularly concerned that the reporters might have to testify, but is concerned that privileged sources not be disclosed. He stated that he would go through this "log" of events to make certain that it does not contain privileged matter. Once this is done, which he estimated would take about two days to review, the "log" will be made available to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

[redacted] further stated that the chronology which appeared in last Sunday's edition of "The Washington Post" contained about every quotation of STOKELY CARMICHAEL that is available.

The City's Turmoil: The Night It Began

The intersection at 14th and U Streets nw. is, in many ways, the hub of the Negro community in Northwest Washington. Theaters, restaurants, shops and major bus stops make it one of the city's most traveled intersections, especially in the early evening hours.

Officials have always feared that the intersection's four corners could be launch pads for rioting. Last week, fears were confirmed.

In the wake of the news of the assassination of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., on Thursday, April 4, 1968, crowds took to the streets, smashing windows, looting and setting fires. That Thursday night was the trigger for the wave of looting, vandalism and arson that rolled over Washington's ghetto areas for the rest of the week and that left more than 7000 persons under arrest, hundreds of burned out buildings and 14,000 troops on hand to keep order.

Washington was already a city on edge before Dr. King's murder. Dr. King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference was to conduct the Poor People's Campaign here April 22. Stokely Carmichael, of the revolution-minded Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, had made the city his base of operations. Both groups have their offices near 14th and U Streets.

And it was at 14th and U on Tuesday night, April 2, that an angry crowd gathered after a tussle between a Peoples Drug Store guard and a youth. Police made two disorderly conduct arrests and withdrew quickly. The crowd dispersed.

This type of brush fire is endemic at 14th and U. It is, simply, a tense spot. And it is where Washington blew on April 4.

Reporters for The Washington Post have assembled the following chronological report of what happened on 14th Street that night. It was drawn from on-the-scene observations Thursday night and from exhaustive interviews since.

The chronological approach has helped resolve conflicts in the first reports of Thursday night's events, and has brought new information to light. For instance, it was found that Carmichael was involved in two separate gun incidents, and not one, as previously thought. In one, he pulled a gun from his belt to show a youth. Later, he took a gun away from another young man and waved it in the air telling the crowd to "go home."

Many of those interviewed did not know exact times and the times below are extrapolated from the various accounts:

7:05 p.m.—The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. is shot in the neck as he stands on the balcony of Lorraine Motel in Memphis, Tenn.

7:12 p.m.—Wire services send bulletins on the shooting. President Johnson, meeting in the White House with aides on Vietnam, gets word of the shooting from his news ticker.

7:13 — Mayor Walter E. Washington is in his District Building office. He is told of the shooting by community organizer John Stagers. Corporation Counsel Charles T. Duncan learns of the shooting from his car radio as he drives home. At their homes when they get the news, at about the same time, are Public Safety Director Patrick V. Murphy, Police Chief John B. Layton, Assistant Chief Jerry V. Wilson and the Rev. Walter E. Fauntroy, Dr. King's Washington representative and vice chairman of the Washington City Council.

7:17 p.m.—President Johnson orders Attorney General Ramsey Clark to order the FBI into Memphis. He tells aide Joseph Califano to draft a statement for a television broadcast.

7:19 p.m.—Recovering from the first shock of the news, officials begin to act. Mr. Fauntroy is on his way to his church, the New Bethel Baptist Church at 9th and S Streets nw., as Murphy drives toward 14th Street, fearing trouble at the hub. Assembled in Mayor Washington's office are Deputy Mayor Thomas W. Fletcher, Stagers, press aide Sam Eastman, Program Director Sherrill Luke and others.

7:30 p.m.—Mayor Washington alerts the District's Civil Defense Communications Unit to provide him with information on what is happening in the city.

7:31 p.m.—Deputy Chief of Police John S. Hughes returns to police headquarters and asks his intelligence men for a description of what is happening on the streets.

8 p.m.—Stokely Carmichael, C. Sumner (Chuck) Stone of the Black United Front, and Lester McKinnie, SNCC's Washington director, confer in a small room at SNCC's new offices at 2208 14th st. nw. About 15 people wait outside in a larger room.

8:05 p.m.—Dr. King dies in Memphis. The public is not yet aware of it. The FBI immediately notifies President Johnson.

8:06 p.m.—Stone asks Carmichael and McKinnie without success to go on television and urge Negro citizens to remain calm.

8:11 p.m.—The President tells Califano to revise the statement in view of the death. He discusses canceling his scheduled trip to Honolulu and a speech he was to give that night at a fund-raising dinner at the Washington Hilton Hotel. Califano, Press Secretary George Christian and Defense Secretary Clark Clifford concur that both should be canceled.

8:12 p.m.—The President decides to go on television. His barber, standing by to trim his hair for the Hilton dinner, begins instead to prepare him for the broadcast.

8:19 p.m.—News of Dr. King's death flashed here. Assistant Chief Wilson, driving on 3rd Street nw. toward police headquarters, hears it on the radio. So do Carmichael, Stone and McKinnie at SNCC.

8:20 p.m.—Mayor Washington hears the news in his office. He telephones top aides and prepares to leave for home.

8:21 p.m.—Mr. Fauntroy, in his study at the church, has been trying to call the Lorraine Motel in Memphis and Mrs. King in Atlanta. The lines are busy. He has just placed a call to Dr. King's Atlanta secretary, Dora McDonald, as his father, William T. Fauntroy, interrupts him. Dr. King is dead. Walter Fauntroy is crushed and asks to be alone.

8:22 p.m.—The President calls Mrs. King to express his and Mrs. Johnson's sorrow. Mrs. King says she is proud to live in a country where the President would call her personally.

8:25 p.m.—Mayor Washington, leaving for home, is told that freeway opponent Sammie Abbott and his group are using the occasion of Dr. King's death to picket the Mayor's house.

8:26 — The Rev. Arnold Davis, at SCLC's Washington headquarters, calls Mr. Fauntroy and says an angry crowd is gathering at the office at 14th and U. Fauntroy agrees to come to calm them.

8:31—Mr. Fauntroy, at SCLC, asks 15 staffers to meet with him on the second floor. First floor lights are turned off.

8:32 p.m.—At SNCC, Carmichael, McKinnie and Stone are still discussing what should be done. Around them is first aid equipment.

8:33 p.m.—Citizens, stunned by the assassination, stand all along 11th Street, particularly at 14th and U.

8:34 p.m.—Stone suggests SNCC deploy people around to ward off trouble. They discuss a massive boycott to honor Dr. King.

3:42 p.m.—Police plainclothesmen are moving into the 14th and U Street area.

8:45 p.m.—The President calls Vice President Humphrey at the Hilton dinner and reads him the statement he will deliver on television.

8:45 p.m.—Mayor Washington arrives home. He gets in contact with the police communications center, to determine the whereabouts of Murphy, and Layton. The Mayor begins receiving periodic reports from the center.

8:46 p.m.—At SNCC, Lester McKinnie comes out of the inner office, and tells those in the front, larger room that they need "a period of time to react to this great tragedy." He suggests they all wait until everybody has a chance to get their senses together.

8:49 p.m. — Stokely Carmichael bursts out of the back room. He says: "We're going to close them down now."

8:51 p.m.—Corporation Counsel Duncan and his wife at their home agree that "all hell could break loose around the country."

8:52 p.m.—Carmichael leaves the SNCC office and starts walking south along 14th Street, a crowd gathering around him as he goes.

8:54 p.m.—Carmichael and the growing crowd are being observed and followed at a distance by Police Lt. Frye of the 13th Precinct. Plainclothes policemen are in the crowd around Carmichael, with instructions to observe.

9:02—The President begins his three-minute television broadcast.

9:06 p.m.—Stokely Carmichael and a crowd of about 25 to 30 others barge into the People's at 14th and U where some people had been listening to the President's speech. The group shouts: "Martin Luther King is dead! Close the store! Go home!"

The band dissolves and individuals run down the aisles. Carmichael confronts the manager, G. N. Simirtzakis, and tells him (politely, according to Simirtzakis) to close up. The store was closed.

9:12 p.m.—The crowd, led by Carmichael, rushes out of the drug store, pushing people (including one reporter) out the door.

9:14 p.m.—Carmichael and those with him cut diagonally across the 14th and U intersection toward Carter's Liquors at 1941 14th.

9:14 p.m.—Upstairs at SCLC, Mr. Fauntroy sees what is happening in the intersection and darts for the stairs to go outside.

9:14 p.m.—At Police Headquarters, Deputy Chief Hughes starts calling his full intelligence staff into work.

9:15 p.m.—Carl McKinley Harris is at his grandmother's house at 14th and Belmont sts. nw. He has just turned on the television set and learns that Dr. King is dead. A short time later, he leaves the house and goes onto 14th Street.

9:15 p.m.—Public Safety Director Murphy is meeting with Lt. Frye at 16th and U for a briefing.

9:15 p.m.—Carmichael and the crowd are now on the east side of 14th Street, moving south, having closed Carter's Liquors.

9:16 p.m.—Assistant Chief Wilson, at Police Headquarters, gets a list of all plainclothesmen on duty in the city and a list of officers due on duty at midnight.

9:17 p.m.—Mr. Fauntroy catches up with the crowd and shoulders his way to the front where Carmichael is.

9:18 p.m.—"This is not the way to do it, Stokely," Mr. Fauntroy shouts. "Let's not get anyone hurt. Let's cool it."

"We're tired of them killing black people," Carmichael replies. "We want them to close out of respect for Dr. King." One reporter overhears Carmichael saying, "All we're asking them to do is close the stores. They killed Dr. King."

The confrontation takes place at the southeast corner of 14th Street and Wallach Place, about 25 feet from Wings 'n Things at 1917 14th.

Those around Carmichael number about 100. All but four are men between 18 and 30 or so, with four women in their early 20's.

9:20 p.m.—Berkley Chaney, the night manager of Wings 'n Things, looks out and sees the crowd. Some come in and ask him to close, and he starts to do so.

9:20 p.m.—A white reporter enters Billy Simpson's Restaurant at 3815 Georgia ave. nw., the gathering spot for the city's Negro elite. One customer is overheard to say, "He must have come to the wrong place."

9:23 p.m.—Mr. Fauntroy, satisfied that asking storeowners to close was a "useful channelling of the frustration," leaves the crowd.

9:24 p.m.—The crowd makes a U-turn on 14th Street and begins zig-zagging northward up the street, asking storeowners to close. They cooperate.

9:24 p.m.—Religious leaders like the Rev. Phillip Newell of the Council of Churches and the Rev. Geno Baroni of the Catholic Archdiocese are furiously trying to set up a service for Friday at the National Cathedral to honor Dr. King and, at the same time, defuse what they feel is a potentially explosive situation in the city.

9:25 p.m.—Mr. Fauntroy meets with a police official parked near 14th and U. He tells the policeman that, in his judgment, great numbers of policemen should not be called into the area.

9:26 p.m.—Mr. Fauntroy goes back into the SCLC offices.

9:30 p.m.—Murphy finishes his 16th and U briefing by Lt. Frye and heads to the Hilton to check on the Police Department's large detail there and on the streets leading to the hotel. The detail had been dispersed to cover the President's trip to the hotel.

Murphy tells a reporter: "We're giving it the light touch. There are no great numbers of men visible." He drives off in an unmarked Ford.

9:30 p.m.—The crowd turns right—east—on U Street. One of the milling clusters heads into Success Cafe and tells the bartender to close.

9:31 p.m.—The President has a snack. This done, he returns to his office to make plans for Friday. His aides go over a list of civil rights leaders to be invited to the White House Friday. They consider declaring a national day of mourning.

9:36 p.m.—The crowd, gathering momentum, arrives at the Republic Theater, 1343 U st. Reporters note that the mood is becoming ugly. One person yells, "This is it, baby." Another yells, "It's gonna hit the fan now. They got our leader."

9:37 p.m.—The crowd moves into the Republic's box office area and tells the ticket seller to close the theater. A glass door is broken—the first known act of vandalism in the disturbance.

9:37 p.m.—Murphy is now inside the Washington Hilton Hotel. He stays there as dinner guests, including the Vice President, begin departing.

9:38 p.m.—Murphy receives call about the crowd at the Mayor's house (but he does not realize they are anti-freeway pickets). He decides to move the large Presidential detail to the 13th Precinct, 1620 V st. nw., for possible use on 14th Street.

9:38 p.m.—The city's ethnic radio stations—those that program their fare for Negro audiences—have dropped their "soul" programs and play religious music in deference to Dr. King. Disc jockeys try to calm the situation. WOL's Bob Terry tells listeners, "This is no time to hate—hate won't get you anywhere."

9:41 p.m.—Corporation Counsel Duncan, his wife and Julian R. Dugas, head of the District's Licenses and Inspections Department, are touring the troubled area, on their way to Mayor Washington's home.

9:43 p.m.—The crowd arrives at the Lincoln Theater, 1215 U St., and closes it. Carmichael and others are hustling more rowdy persons out of the crowd.

9:45 p.m.—The outer edges of the crowd now extend out as far as the middle of the 1100 block of U Street, while the main body begins an about-face to return to 14th Street.

9:49 p.m.—The group reaches 14th and U and turns north to resume its demands on storeowners to shut down.

9:50 p.m.—The crowd on 14th Street is nearing V Street and the mood continues to grow uglier. Some in the crowd begin to shout for people to get their guns and kill some whites. Their cries become so loud that Carmichael and others ahead stop the crowd.

9:51 p.m.—Carmichael argues with a man who appears to be about 25.

"Are you ready to kill?" Carmichael demands. "How you gonna win? They got guns, tanks. What you got? If you don't have your gun, go home. We're not ready. Let's wait until tomorrow. Just cool it."

This sets off a wave of echoes in the crowd: "We're not ready. Let's wait and get our stuff together."

9:52 p.m.—People circulate throughout the crowd, telling them to wait, repeating the phrase, "We'll be back."

9:53 p.m.—Carmichael tells the people to "Go home! Get off the streets! This is not the time, brothers!" People ignore his advice. Some of them move to the west side of 14th Street to the front of People's.

9:54 p.m.—A glass window is broken at People's. It is the second known instance of vandalism. From his office at SCLC, Mr. Fauntroy hears the sound of splintering glass.

9:56 p.m.—Part of the crowd moves up the west side of 14th Street past closed stores. Nothing is smashed.

9:57 p.m.—Murphy leaves the Hilton, heading for Mayor Washington's house on T Street.

9:59 p.m.—Carmichael and eight others walk into the Van Kee Tavern, 2026 14th, and go to the rear, asking for the owner. He is How K. Chen. He comes out, and Carmichael asks him to close in honor of Dr. King. Chen nods his head in assent.

"Solid," Carmichael says. And he leaves.

10 p.m.—The crowd has grown to about 200. It moves to Eaton's Barber Shop, 2100 1/2 14th Street, and tells the only barber there, Johnny Jones, to close. He does.

10:01 p.m.—Duncan, his wife and Dugas arrive at the Mayor's home. At about the same time, Deputy Chief Hughes calls Chief of Police John B. Layton at his home and tells him of trouble on 14th street. Layton heads for that area.

10:05 p.m.—The first part of the group led by Carmichael reaches 14th and Clifton Streets. The crowd seems to be running out of vigor. It turns around and moves back toward the SNCC office.

10:07 p.m.—The crowd is near the Belmont Radio and TV shop at 2414 14th Street when Carmichael hears the breaking of glass.

He races up to a youth, takes him by the shoulders and shakes him. He tells the youth that breaking windows is not worthwhile.

2100 block of 14th Street. Window

Carmichael then tells the youth that if he means business, he should have a gun. He reaches inside his jacket and pulls a gun from his belt, and shows it to the youth, implying that the youth wasn't ready for "the thing." The march south continues.

10:16 p.m.—Assistant Chief Wilson has arranged for buses to take the Presidential detail to the 13th Precinct stationhouse.

Wilson drives his unmarked white cruiser toward 14th Street in a light rain, wishing "it would rain like hell."

10:18 p.m.—The main body of the crowd is approaching the middle of the breaking is spreading and looting is becoming commonplace.

10:19 p.m.—A reporter observes a man walking by with a television set under each arm. Men break away from the crowd and guard windows to keep looters away. Other men pull people out of display windows to stop the stealing.

10:20 p.m.—Lt. Frye tells all policemen at 14th and U Streets to pull back from the area. The crowd reaches 14th and U.

10:21 p.m.—A heated argument breaks out in the crowd. Talk focuses on whether blacks should take revenge right now.

10:22 p.m.—Two loud reports are heard, and one young man brandishes a gun. Carmichael wrests the gun from the youth.

"Go home!" Carmichael tells the youth. Waving the gun over his head, he says: "None of this, none of this, we're not ready."

A voice in the crowd says: "But we don't have no leader. We lost our leader!"

"You won't get one like this," Carmichael snaps back. "You'll just get shot."

10:23 p.m.—Police have received a call for looting at Sam's Pawnbroker at 1930 14th St.

10:24 p.m.—Police receive a call that a window of the Rhodes 5 & 10 Store at 1930 14th St. has been broken. Police Headquarters suddenly becomes feverish with activity. All available detectives are ordered to report to headquarters.

10:24 p.m.—Murphy is back out on 14th Street. He drives up 14th from U and sees looters pillaging a liquor store. He hops out of his car and chases them. As he gets back in the car, he hears by radio that the crowd has grown at 14th and U Streets and he heads back that way.

10:25 p.m.—Carmichael slips away from the crowd at 14th and U and ducks into the U Street entrance of SCLC. He stays inside for about two minutes, emerges, cuts diagonally across the intersection, gets into a car and is driven away. He is not to be seen in the vicinity again.

10:26 p.m.—After Carmichael leaves, the crowd begins to drift aimlessly. More serious trouble is beginning.

10:26 p.m.—Calls are pouring into the police radio communications center from policemen seeking orders.

"We're surrounded by a mob of about 50 people," says one officer. "What do we do? They're looting. Do we arrest them or do we leave? Or what the hell do we do?"

10:27 p.m.—Policemen say they are being stoned in the 2600 block of 14th Street. Again, the call: "What do we do?"

Each time, the radio dispatcher asks for Murphy. Each time, a calm, cool voice replies:

"Do whatever you think needs to be done."

10:30 p.m.—Deputy Chief Hughes tells a reporter that those men of the specially trained Civil Disturbance Unit who are on duty are being called into their headquarters room to draw equipment—helmets, gas masks, gas, etc.

10:32 p.m.—Looters pass the corner of 14th and V Streets with dresses and bottles of liquor. A wide section of the west side of the 2100 block of 14th Street has been looted.

10:33 p.m.—Mayor Washington is at his home, watching the news on television. With him are Duncan and Dugas, who have reported on their trip along 14th Street.

10:35 p.m.—Chief Layton tells the Mayor that incidents have localized at the 14th and U Streets hub and he says he thinks the situation is beginning to come under control.

Area where the trouble started.

10:40 p.m.—The Mayor decides to see for himself what is going on. He leaves in Duncan's new Pontiac Tempest, with the Corporation Counsel, Mrs. Duncan, Dugas and a reporter. They head for 14th Street.

10:50 p.m.—As looting proceeds, the first fire call comes in from the area—a car burning on the lot of Barry-Pate-Addison Chevrolet, 14th and Belmont Street.

10:52 p.m.—Fire Chief Henry Galotta is called at home and told about the trouble. He prepares to come in.

10:53 p.m.—Dugas and Duncan decide to go out and see for themselves what it was like on 14th Street. They get in Duncan's new Pontiac Tempest, telling the Mayor they will report to him later.

10:55 p.m.—The decision has been made to bring the midnight-to-3 a.m. police shift in an hour early to help. All detectives come to headquarters to put on special jump suits and to get riot paraphernalia. Riot helmets are rushed to the 13th Precinct stationhouse.

10:56 p.m.—A man standing in front of a pharmacy at 14th and Girard lights a match to a wad of paper and throws it inside. He also lights a paper sign hanging out of the broken window of the store—Judd's Prescriptions. As he does, several women across the street scream at him not to do it—that people live above the store. He tries to douse the flames, but he is too late. The store is burning; the people upstairs evacuate.

11:01 p.m.—Youths are attempting to break into Empire Supermarket, at 14th and Euclid. The grating holds.

One man steps out of a crowd of about 30 persons, rips a No Parking sign out of the pavement and shoves it through the grating breaking it. The heavy grating is pulled down, youths pour inside and begin wrecking the place. The youths try to set the supermarket on fire, but they do not succeed.

11:05 p.m.—By this hour, police feel they have massed enough men to make a show of force. The word is spread to start making arrests.

Police cruisers, four men to a car, are sent up 14th Street. Patrol wagons follow. As they go, youths heave bottles, bricks—anything they can find—at the cars.

11:07 p.m.—The sight of the approaching police vehicles angers many of the youths. One youngster, from 20 feet away, lobbs a bottle through the windshield of a patrol wagon into a policeman's face.

11:12 p.m.—Police on 14th Street between Harvard and Irving Streets are chasing looters, flailing at them with nightsticks. A general melee is breaking out along 14th from T Street to Park Road.

11:14 p.m.—With police escort, Mr. Fauntroy is being rushed from television station to television station to make appeals for calm.

11:21 p.m.—Reporters notice that policemen are backing away when confrontations with large groups of youth appear imminent.

11:31 p.m.—White House aides have been informed of the trouble. They get the impression that the city feels it can handle the trouble without outside help.

11:34 p.m.—A brief rainstorm seems to have quieted the looting and burning somewhat and to have driven some people off the streets.

11:40 p.m.—On the street, the Mayor has decided that the situation is truly serious and heads for the 13th Precinct stationhouse to meet Murphy, who is already there. B. APPROX.

11:44 p.m.—The first riot suspect is booked at the 13th precinct. He is Charles Herman, 31, of 1360 Belmont st. nw. He is charged with burglary. Police say they arrested him with a radio-phonograph at 11:35 p.m. in front of Belmont Radio & TV, 2414 14th st.

11:45 p.m.—The police cordon off 14th st. with a human wedge. They line up side-by-side across the street and then up both sides of the intersection to seal off any further movement north and south, east and west of the hub intersection.

11:46 p.m.—Mr. Fauntroy returns to SCLC offices and immediately talks by phone with the Rev. Ralph Abernathy of SCLC in Memphis. During the 15-minute conversation, he hears from below on 14th Street the sounds of glass breaking and sirens wailing.

11:49 p.m.—The youngsters who have ripped apart the Empire Supermarket have kept trying to burn the store. When police come by they scatter. When the police move on, they come back. After 45 minutes of trying, they succeed. The Empire Supermarket goes up in a swath of flames.

11:50 p.m.—The Mayor arrives at the 13th Precinct stationhouse and walks by green footlockers filled with tear gas and tear gas launchers. He goes into the Captain's office with Dugas, Duncan, Murphy, Layton and Clinton Mitchell of the city's Human Relations Council.

11:51 p.m.—Fire Chief Galotta tells his men to put "Plan F" into effect—splitting engine companies into two by bringing in off-duty firemen.

FRIDAY

12:04 a.m.—Mr. Fauntroy calls Mayor Washington at the 13th Precinct, responding to an earlier call from the Mayor. Washington tells him "we ought to be together during this crisis."

12:05 a.m.—Assistant Chief Wilson, now on 14th Street, has decided to call in all off-duty policemen to boost strength to 2000 men.

12:05 a.m.—President Johnson tells Attorney General Ramsey Clark to go to Memphis with Clifford Alexander of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and Roy Wilkins of the NAACP. They are to check on the FBI's probe.

12:06 a.m.—Carl McKinley Harris, who had heard the news of Dr. King's death at 9:15 p.m., is arrested at 1351 U st. nw. Police charge him with taking seven men's hats from a clothing store. He is the second rioter booked. Harris, freed on $500 bond, is scheduled for a jury trial on May 15.

12:15 a.m.—About 100 policemen face a crowd of 150 persons at the intersection of 14th and V Streets nw. Chief Layton is on the scene. The police march up 14th Street, herding the people in front of them. Some police are armed with tear gas dispensers.

12:23 a.m.—Another fire breaks out at Barry-Pate-Addison Chevrolet at 14th and Florida Avenue.

12:25 a.m.—The Fire Department notifies its men to use extreme caution in responding to fires because of disorderly crowds. At the same time, the firemen receive a call for a blaze at 2510 14th st. nw.—the Blue Ribbon Dry Cleaners, near Chapin Street.

12:32 a.m.—Chief Galotta tells his men to speed up and return as soon as possible. The Department does not have enough men to fight all of the fires that are burning.

12:35 a.m.—A fire is set at 11th and Fairmont Streets nw. Firemen and police are met by an ugly crowd made up mainly of men in their late teens and early 20's. A bottle is thrown from a roof and four policemen, drawing their guns, seek cover behind a reporter's car. Soon, the area is blanketed with tear gas. It is used extensively for the first time, with grenades and cannisters being launched. By the end, 140 cannisters will have been expended here as people came out of their houses to form new crowds.

12:42 a.m.—Firemen are ordered to wear goggles and protective screens are put over the driver's compartments on all trucks.

12:45 p.m.—Having received reports of sporadic looting and burning outside of the 13th Precinct, the Mayor and Murphy confer and decide to move to Police Headquarters so they can monitor the entire city by radio.

12:52 a.m.—The Central Market, 2629 14th st. nw., is in flames. Crowds gather as firemen arrive. They quickly put out the fire.

~~SECRET~~

12:55 a.m.—Another grocery burns in the 2700 block of 14th Street nw., near Fairmont Street.

12:57 a.m.—A hostile crowd bombards firemen as they move in to fight a blaze at Steelman's Liquors at 2746 14th st. nw. Police wearing gas masks fire tear gas into the crowd. The group breaks up, but reform farther down the street.

1 a.m.—The Mayor and his entourage arrive at Police Headquarters, 300 Indiana ave. nw. and head directly for Murphy's fifth-floor office. It is closed.

They go down one floor to the communications center, which is by this time the command post, and an aide knocks on the locked door.

A policeman looks out at the group apprehensively and is about to close the door when one of the aides says, "The Mayor wants to see Mr. Murphy." The officer hesitates briefly, and says, "The Mayor can come in; the rest stay outside."

The rest sit outside on hard wood benches. Mr. Fauntroy, by now nearly distraught with grief, holds his head in his hands.

1:15 a.m.—Murphy and his aide, Gerald M. Caplan, emerge carrying a map of the city mounted on a board and all but two lower-level aides are invited into the room to study data and listen to the radio channels.

1:17 a.m.—The Fire Department's Plan F is turning up enough additional men to field the first dual company, Engine Co. No. 6, as the force begins its growth from 32 to 64 companies in all.

2:00 a.m.—There are now nearly 2000 policemen on duty, and they are regaining control of 14th Street. Firemen are still battling blazes, as they will through the night, but crowds are beginning to diminish. Looting incidents are dropping.

2:02 a.m.—A general officer from the Pentagon arrives at Police Headquarters to establish liaison with the District government. Later, Murphy goes to the Pentagon to discuss contingency plans.

2:16 a.m.—A store at 14th and Euclid nw. starts to burn. Firemen know it is arson. They see that it was started in several places.

3 a.m.—Murphy goes to the Pentagon to meet with top officers of the Army and National Guard and representatives from the Justice Department. They are concerned about what might happen Friday night.

They decide to have Guardsmen on the streets Friday night. At this point, Federal troops that had been earmarked for possible duty if rioting broke out in Washington had been alerted for a possible call.

4:08 a.m.—The President's staff finishes contacting civil rights leaders who will meet with Mr. Johnson.

4:36 a.m.—Corporation Counsel Duncan drives Mayor Washington and Dugas to their homes (Mrs. Duncan has been driven home earlier). The unarticulated consensus is that the trouble is over.

What came next was a gradual buildup during the day. At first it was youths throwing rocks at cars. Then, shortly after noon Friday, the fires started multiplying and the firemen began to encounter more and more trouble battling the blazes.

The calls came rapidly. At 12:13 p.m. there was a blaze in a Safeway at 1931 14th st. nw. At 12:15, firemen were alerted not to use their sirens and use "extreme discretion." At 12:39, for a fire in the 2900 block of 14th Street, the firemen asked for police assistance because of hostile youths. It got worse and worse, and by 4 p.m., as workers clogged main arteries in their attempt to flee, the city told the President it needed Federal help. The riot was on.

[] advised that on the night of April 4, 1968, he arrived at the office of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) shortly after 8:00 p.m. His purpose in going to that office was to obtain the reaction to Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., having been shot. He said that the office was quite crowded and everyone was trying to obtain news on the condition of Dr. KING. He does not recall the identities of individuals who were there except he does remember STOKELY CARMICHAEL and one white man whom he believes to have been on the President's Crime Commission. [] said that he finally obtained the news of Dr. KING's death from [] automobile radio. The attitude at SCLC was one of grief. However, he heard mutterings to the effect "Non-violence, Hell! Now there is no way left except the STOKELY way."

Soon thereafter, he left SCLC and proceeded to SNCC headquarters where he joined a group in the back of the room. [] recalls [] were there but does not recall the identities of other individuals. Soon after his arrival at the SNCC Office, STOKELY CARMICHAEL came in and advised that he was going out and see that the stores were closed, as they closed when President KENNEDY was shot and they should do the same for Dr. KING. [] said he, personally, agreed that the stores should close and also thought the schools should do likewise. [] joined CARMICHAEL when he left SNCC headquarters to have the stores closed. [] remained at the SNCC Office. Other individuals who were at SNCC joined CARMICHAEL, but [] could not recall their identities.

b7C [] accompanied the crowd into Peoples Drug Store. They proceeded down one aisle to the rear of the store where CARMICHAEL asked an individual, whom [] presumed was the manager, to close the store in respect for Dr. KING. He also heard CARMICHAEL request several other stores to close but does not recall the specific stores. CARMICHAEL was very polite in making the request although others in the crowd were shouting "Close the store. Dr. KING is dead." [] said no trouble developed until they reached the Republic Theater where a youngster broke a window and a lot of popcorn was taken. When this occurred, CARMICHAEL grabbed the individual and said, "Don't do that. We don't want any trouble." [] said that while CARMICHAEL was the leader of the crowd he did not want vandalism and tried to stop it whenever he saw it occurring.

b7C According to [] the crowd got out of control at about the 2000 block of 14th Street and started looting. CARMICHAEL stopped and called to them to, "Cool it!" and "Go home. We don't want trouble."

[] said there were a lot of children as young as ten years of age and CARMICHAEL did not want any of them hurt. [] said there were other SNCC members on the street trying to stop vandalism, but does not know their names.

b7C [] said at one point he heard what he thought was two shots and then saw CARMICHAEL grab what appeared to be a gun (pistol or revolver) away from a sixteen or eighteen year old individual, wave it in the air, and say, "We will have none of this. Go home, go home. We are not ready." Someone in the crowd responded, "We lost our leader." CARMICHAEL replied, "You won't get one this way." [] did not see what CARMICHAEL did with the gun after he waved it in the air. He did not see CARMICHAEL with any other gun that evening nor did he hear CARMICHAEL tell the crowd to go and get their guns as he had his.

b7C [] recalls that soon after CARMICHAEL started his tour to close the stores he was approached by [] who took him by the elbow and asked what he was doing; that this was not the way. CARMICHAEL replied that he was only asking the people to close their stores as they had killed Dr. KING.

[] stated he did not see CARMICHAEL leave the crowd and does not know when or how they departed. He is of the opinion he was with them less than an hour and believes that the events took place about fifteen minutes earlier than reported in "The Washington Post" article of April 14, 1968.

b7C [] saw no evidence that the looting had been planned and thought it was a spontaneous thing. As a matter of fact, he had been surprised that such activities had not occurred previously. He said that Washington ghettos had been tinder boxes for a long time. [] referred to Dr. KING as the greatest living American, and the people were upset over his death.

He has not seen CARMICHAEL since the night of April 4, 1968.

b7C [] said that he thought "The New York Times" coverage of the events pertaining to STOKELY CARMICHAEL on the evening of April 4, 1968, was "unfair" in that this article made no comment that CARMICHAEL was trying to "cool" the crowd and protect the stores. Concerning these happenings, [] commented that he believed CARMICHAEL was disturbed in that he could not control the people. He said this was a moderate attitude for CARMICHAEL and that he believed CARMICHAEL's participation was in respect to Dr. KING.

b7C [redacted] for "The Washington Post", was interviewed in the Washington Field Office, Federal Bureau of Investigation. [redacted] resides at [redacted] and has telephone number [redacted]. He has been [redacted] for the Washington Post since June, 1967 prior to which time he attended college.

b7C As soon as he heard the news of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING's death on the evening of April 4, 1968, he left the "Post", and immediately drove around the streets in a radio-equipped automobile. His purpose was to write a mood article as to the city's reaction. [redacted] explained that he was "fuzzy" as to the times involved; he didn't actually keep time, and the times used in the "Post's" chronology were approximations. [redacted] first drove up 7th Street, N. W.; and then to 14th and "U" Streets, N. W., where at about 8:30 PM he went to the SCLC headquarters after having parked his automobile on "U" Street, just west of 14th Street. [redacted] was unsuccessful in getting into SCLC headquarters, which was just closing. [redacted] then went to the Peoples Drug Store at 14th and "U" Streets and called his office. At that time people in the store were listening to the President's message concerning KING's death on a radio. Just as the President's message ended, a large group of people came through the door making statements to the effect that the store was closed in respect to MARTIN LUTHER KING. [redacted] saw STOKELY CARMICHAEL in the store walking up and down the aisles telling the people that the store was to be closed. He did not actually see CARMICHAEL talk to the store manager, but, he, [redacted] several days later interviewed the manager who told him that CARMICHAEL had asked him to close the store in respect to Dr. KING. CARMICHAEL replied in effect that the group just wanted to close the stores. [] again made a call to his office.

b7C When [] rejoined the crowd it was turning up 14th Street from "U". The crowd stopped at various places asking them to close. [] advised that not very many places were open and he and other reporters of the Post finally came up with the number of 12 or 13 establishments which were open and were asked to close. During this activity the crowd was growing, and he, [] had not seen any window breaking; although he has heard from other reporters that a window had been broken at the Republic Theater, probably during one of his phone calls.

b7C About 14th and "V" Streets he witnessed a male approach a bus and smash a window with his fists, and at the same time injure his hand. This person was pulled away from the bus by others in the crowd, but broke away and endeavored to hit at a small foreign auto which contained several white people. [] did not see any damage to this small auto, which moved away. [] said he did not know the individual who hit at the bus and small foreign car; nor did he know whether this car was a Volkswagen.

[] Someone broke the window of a nearby novelty store. CARMICHAEL came back into the crowd and grabbed a person by the arm and made a statement to the effect that this should be stopped, that the person would get himself killed, and that if the person did not have a gun he should go home. He asked the person if he had a gun and when the person replied that he did not, CARMICHAEL said that he had one and exhibited a black, short-barrelled gun, which [] who estimated he was four or five feet away, believed to be smaller than a .38 calibre, which he had pulled from inside his trousers at the belt. The person replied "OK." CARMICHAEL made a statement, not shouted, that he did not want any dead Negroes.

Shortly thereafter, [] left the crowd to make a phone call from a gasoline station at 14th and Clifton. [] walked down 14th Street to "U" where a liquor store was being looted, and Peoples Drug Store windows were broken. He observed a crowd in front of the National Liquor Store at the Northeast corner of 14th and "U". CARMICHAEL was heard by [] to exhort the crowd to go home or they would be killed. CARMICHAEL responded that they would not get one "like this." STOKELY CARMICHAEL walked around the corner and [] did not again see him that night.

[] said that he did not observe CARMICHAEL take a gun from anyone. The only time he saw a gun in CARMICHAEL's possession was in the aforementioned instance on 14th Street, between Belmont and Chapin. [] stated that not once did he hear CARMICHAEL incite or urge anyone to vandalize, loot, or commit other illegal acts. He is sure that CARMICHAEL never told anyone, while he was present, to go home and get a gun.

[] recalled that he had observed CARMICHAEL lean over a railing in front of a variety store at about "W" or Florida and talk to someone, but he did not hear what CARMICHAEL said.

b7C

Following CARMICHAEL's departure, [] walked along "U" Street where people were looting a custom shop. A man with a polaroid, endeavoring to take a picture, told the people to get away as he did not want their faces in the photo. [] returned to his office before 12:30 AM but went back on the streets and drove around. There was not much trouble on 7th Street; however, he observed looting of a clothing store about 14th and Columbia Road.

[] said that in the crowd lead by CARMICHAEL he had seen several persons whom he had previously seen at SNCC, but whose names he did not know. After CARMICHAEL left, he observed [] (last name unknown) whom he had seen at SNCC, trying to prevent the crowd from looting a liquor store where a window had been broken. He advised he b7C [] knew no one in the crowd. During the evening he had seen [] of WTOP at the SCLC office, and had seen [] (phonetic) and [] of the Star somewhere along 14th Street, but did not know whether they had been present when CARMICHAEL was there.

[] advised he did not see CARMICHAEL after Thursday night, April 4, 1968. On Friday he worked "H" Street, N. E., and Saturday he was all over the city, ending up in the south-east section. At no time did he see anyone trying to incite the mob. He described the activity as a general melee, with no leader.

[redacted]
residence telephone [redacted] employed as [redacted] for "The Evening Star" newspaper, 225 Virginia Avenue, S.E., advised that in the evening of Thursday, April 4, 1968, he was eating with a group at Mr. Smith's Restaurant on Pennsylvania Avenue, S.E., when he learned of the shooting of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING in Memphis, Tennessee. [redacted] returned to the Star Building at about 8:00 p.m. and sometime later, decided to "get out on the street" and cover any story that might be breaking. He went to the vicinity of 14th and U Streets, N.W., arriving there at about 9:45 p.m. After parking his car, near 14th and U Streets, he walked westward on U Street. When he got to the corner of 14th and U Streets, he noticed a group of about 15 teenagers walking south on 14th Street led by a young man carrying a two inch by four inch board approximately three to four feet long. This boy, whose identity [redacted] did not learn, would swing the two inch by four inch board which he carried and break store windows as the group moved down the street. Then the other "youngsters" following him would run into the windows and stores and begin looting. Not many people were around at the time and the group of boys did not say anything as they moved along.

Shortly after this, [redacted] back tracked along 15th up to Belmont Street and noticed a lot of damage to store buildings and looting in the area. He stated that when he arrived on 14th Street, all of the stores were already closed, although some were still lighted, people were inside, but with the doors locked. He tried to get in one of these lighted stores with people inside in order to use the phone to call the "desk" and let the paper know what was going on but he was refused admittance.

b7C [] remained in the vicinity of 14th and U Streets for about two hours, watching developments until a police bus arrived. He stated the police began a "sweep" at Wallach Place, moving north on 14th Street, and he followed the police up to Clifton Street. Then he continued north almost to Harvard Street, remaining in the area until about 4:00 a.m. He stated that he believes he would have recognized STOKELY CARMICHAEL from pictures of him he had seen, but that at no time did he see CARMICHAEL on the night of April 4.

[] did not cover the news conference held at Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) Headquarters at 10:00 a.m. on April 5, 1968, at which news conference CARMICHAEL spoke.

b7C [] arrived at the Howard University campus at about 10:00 a.m. on Friday, April 5, to await the memorial service for Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING to be held there at noon on that date. It was his understanding that the doors to the Cramton auditorium would be opened at 11:30 a.m., but the doors were not opened until 12:00 noon at which time the service began. [] said that this service was presided over by a chaplain and that EWART BROWN, president of the student body of Howard and JAMES M. NABRIT, president of Howard University spoke. Later a number of clergymen offered prayers. According to [] BROWN in his address stated that racism had killed Dr. KING; that Dr. KING was a buffer between the moderates and the extremes among colored people; and that Dr. KING's absence forecasts trouble. [] stated that NABRIT's speech was more conciliatory and NABRIT dwelt on the worth of the man (Dr. KING) but pointed out that Dr. KING was not the last of the effective Negro leaders.

b7C [] stated that Cramton auditorium was filled for this memorial service and that 15 to 20 percent of the audience was made up of white people. He stated that at about 12:50 p.m., the memorial service ended and he left just as the closing song, "We Shall Overcome", was being sung, as he had a 1:00 p.m. deadline with the paper which he wanted to meet. He telephoned the "Star" from the campus and was told to go to 7th Street, N.W., as it had been reported that a group of young people had left the campus and were headed for 7th Street. [] stated that while he was on the campus, he saw no such group leave, and certainly none had left the memorial service.

b7C From the campus, [] went to the vicinity of 7th and U Streets and saw that a number of fires had been set in business establishments. Subsequently, he saw bands of teenagers (and younger) racing along 14th Street, breaking the glass out of store fronts and looting at will. He stated that these looters were all "kids" at first but that after about an hour and a half, the adults too joined in the looting. For most of the afternoon of April 5, [] stayed in the vicinity of 14th and S Streets and observed the looting of stores, and fires being set in them after they were looted. [] stated that he did not see STOKELY CARMICHAEL at the Howard University campus as he evidently left the campus before CARMICHAEL arrived. He stated that at no time on the afternoon of April 5 did he see CARMICHAEL.

b7C [] stated that he had not attended the press conference reportedly held by "CHUCK" STONE, former administrative assistant to ADAM CLAYTON POWELL, on Sunday, April 7, 1968.

[redacted] informed that from approximately 2:30 p.m., April 8, 1968, he was on duty with broken hours until Monday at 8:00 a.m., April 8, 1968. During this period of time, he covered the 14th and U Streets area.

b7C

[redacted] stated that at no time did he observe STOKELY CARMICHAEL nor did he hear any rumors of any actions on the part of CARMICHAEL or any statements attributable to him, inflammatory or otherwise. [redacted] stated he knows CARMICHAEL and could identify him. He wanted to point out, however, that there was such a large crowd on the evening of April 4, 1968, beginning shortly after 8:00 p.m. which crowd was surging south on 14th at U Street it was impossible to recognize any particular individual.

[redacted] did advise that about 8:20 p.m., Thursday, April 4, 1968, while he and his partner, [redacted] were parked on the N.E. corner of 14th Street, N.W., facing south at U Street [redacted] who was not among the crowd but was standing on the corner with two other individuals came up to their automobile, sticking his head inside, and talked directly to him, [redacted] asking them not to arrest "these people;" that they were "just expressing themselves," and he felt certain the crowd would disperse and do no harm. [redacted] said he did not recognize the two other individuals, and [redacted] did not introduce them.

[redacted] advised that his last encounter with STOKELY CARMICHAEL was Tuesday night, April 2, 1968, about 9:30 to 9:45 when there was a disturbance at the Peoples Drug Store, 14th and U Streets, N.W. A crowd of approximately fifty persons had gathered on the street outside of the drug store. CARMICHAEL, who had been in the drug store talking to the manager, came out and walked among the people asking them to go home. [redacted] said he did not see any firearm in CARMICHAEL's possession nor did he hear CARMICHAEL make any inflammatory statements.

[redacted] "The Washington Post," was interviewed April 11, 1968, at his office by Special Agents [redacted] advised he resides at [redacted] Washington, D. C. (WDC).

[redacted] related on Thursday, April 4, 1968, he was assigned to cover a press conference the following day, April 5, 1968, scheduled to be held by STOKELY CARMICHAEL; however, on Thursday night, at home, he got a telephone call from the City Desk of the newspaper, advising him the press conference had been cancelled.

b7C

In the light of events which transpired on Thursday night with reported disorders, [redacted] on Friday morning, went to 2115 - 14th Street, N. W., to The New School of Afro-American Thought in anticipation of covering any events which might transpire there, and also he had heard CARMICHAEL was, in fact, going to hold a press conference. At any rate, by the time [redacted] arrived in the vicinity of headquarters for the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), at 2208 14th Street, N. W., he learned the press conference was over. He, thereafter, returned to his office.

[redacted] stated beginning about 11:30 a.m., Friday, he began patrolling streets in a radio car of "The Washington Post" and traversed 14th Street as far as Euclid Street, N. W., and observed the activities going on in that vicinity until approximately 5:00 p.m.

He stated he made intermittent telephone calls to his office to report events and noted that at approximately 5:00 p.m., Friday, April 5, 1968, he counted 13 fires in the vicinity of 14th Street between Columbia Road and Park Road, and also observed three fires being set. He said he did not actually witness any specific individual setting fire to any one store but recalled a liquor store on 14th at Irving Street, N. W., was in the process of being looted and apparently was about half emptied out when some unidentified Negro youth gathered up pieces of cardboard boxes, set fire to them and began a fire in this store, which was thereafter burned up.

He said he was in the vicinity of another clothing store nearby which, while in the process of being looted, was set on fire by apparently some sort of fire bomb as he said there were young Negro youths still in the store looting when that fire was started. [] said he also observed a men's wear store on 14th Street, probably Irving's Men's Shop, explode into fire after it had been thoroughly looted. He said due to the size of the crowds milling around, he could not see who threw the fire bomb device which ignited Irving's Men's Shop. [] recalled he stayed on the street until approximately 2:00 a.m., Saturday morning, observing the general disorder.

b7C

On Saturday, according to [] he spent most of the time cruising the streets downtown in the 7th and 14th Street areas and eastward as far as Capitol Hill during the hours of 12:00 noon to 11:00 p.m. At no time while he was out on the street did [] see any evidence of any organization whatsoever, and he said he did not see STOKELY CARMICHAEL or others known to him to be associated with or identified as members of SNCC.

b7C

[] stated all of the things he saw gave him the impression the disorder was more in the nature of a carnival or gala event, rather than the results of hatred or sorrow at the death of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

On April 11, 1968, [] advised SAs [] that he resides at [] Apartment [] (telephone [] and has been employed [] for "The Washington Post" newspaper for approximately five years.

[] advised he was assigned at Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) headquarters on Thursday, April 4, 1968, where he remained until approximately 4:00 a.m. on April 5, 1968. Therefore, during this period he observed none of the looting or burning taking place in the city.

b7C

On April 5, 1968, [] reported for work at about 4:00 p.m. and was assigned to cover the H Street, N. E., area with [] He and [] proceeded to the vicinity of 9th and H Streets, N. W., arriving in that area at approximately 5:00 p.m. He remained in that vicinity, mixing with the crowds on H Street between 9th Street and Bladensburg Road, until approximately 10:00 or 10:30 p.m.

During this period, he observed the burning and looting of a number of business establishments, interviewed police and fire officials and spoke with citizens on the street. He noted that being of the Negro race himself, he was able to mix freely with the crowds and, in fact, was handed several bottles of liquor while in the vicinity of a liquor store that was being looted.

At about 10:30 or 11:00 p.m., that date, he returned to the Washington Post building for a lunch, after which he went out to 7th Street, N. W., and for the next several hours observed the activities of the fire department in that area.

b7C During the entire period mentioned above, [] stated he observed none of the known activist leaders in SNCC or other militant Negro groups. He further observed that the vandalism, looting and arson attendant during this period appeared to be unorganized, spur-of-the-moment activities without leadership or guidance.

b7C [] related that a fellow [] had made arrangements to accompany the SNCC contingent planning to travel to Richmond, Virginia, on Monday morning, April 8, 1968, to attend the hearing in court for []. Accordingly, with [] proceeded to SNCC headquarters about 5:30 a.m., Monday morning and noted the area was completely sealed off by police and military vehicles.

[] said they parked their car on 15th Street, and he could not even get close to SNCC headquarters on foot, but [] did manage to get to SNCC headquarters. He said the police and military authorities prevented the SNCC people from leaving their premises until after 6:30 a.m. at the termination of the curfew. Thereafter, a group of young Negro males came out of SNCC headquarters and proceeded to get into automobiles.

b7C At this point, [] approached and talked to [] at approximately 6:30 a.m. He asked [] where STOKELY CARMICHAEL was, and [] parried the question, wanting to know why [] was interested in STOKELY. [] pointed out that as a newspaperman it was his business to know the whereabouts of such prominent persons as CARMICHAEL. [] never did answer his question but proceeded to show to [] objects which [] identified as fragments of a tear gas cannister which he alleged had been thrown into SNCC headquarters the previous evening by someone believed to be an officer of the MPD. Thereafter, [] drove off with his other companions, presumably heading for Richmond, Virginia.

[] advised that in the period April 5 through April 8, 1968, he had seen no other leaders or activists of SNCC or other militant groups and noted that he had heard rumors at various times during this period that STOKELY CARMICHAEL was in Arlington, Virginia; New York, New York; or Memphis, Tennessee. He noted that he spoke to no one during this period who had seen CARMICHAEL since Thursday evening, April 4, 1968.

On April 11, 1968, [] advised SAs [] [] he resides at [] Apartment [] (telephone [] stated he has been employed [] on "The Washington Post" newspaper for approximately two months.

b7C

From approximately 11:30 p.m., April 4, 1968, to 3:00 a.m., April 5, 1968, [] was on the street in the vicinity of 7th and M Streets, N. W., observing the fires and the firemen in action. He observed no known leaders of SNCC or other militant groups in this area.

On April 5, 1968, between the period 12:30 and 5:00 p.m., he worked on 14th Street and 7th Street, N. W., observing the crowds and looting and again observed none of the leaders of militant black power groups. At approximately 7:30 p.m., he moved to the Anacostia area where he spent the remainder of the day and observed no significant activity.

The only exception to his above observation concerning leaders was his encounter with [] whom he identified as connected with [] [] He encountered [] at 14th Street and Florida Avenue, N. W., and attempted to interview him. [] hurried away, stating he had heard there were fires in the vicinity of his home and he was going home to ascertain if, in fact, his own home was being burned.

[] stated his own notes in his reporting his observations to the newspaper described his observations as being like a carnival or a big party, entirely without leadership and apparently mere spontaneous action on the part of the persons taking part in the looting and burning.

[redacted] Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), 1401 U Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., advised as follows:

On the day and night of April 4, 1968, she was working at SCLC. When she heard the news that Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. had been shot she went home to get her television set to bring to headquarters so everyone could be kept abreast of the latest news. Upon returning to headquarters she saw STOKELY CARMICHAEL there. For a brief time both she and CARMICHAEL made attempts to reach Atlanta, Georgia with no success. She said she did not hear him make any statements, but when she went out into the street to try to get the young children and young adults to get off the street and home, he, and the people with him, also went out and she heard him trying to get people to get off the street. She further advised that the next day, April 5, 1968, some of the people from CARMICHAEL's group, the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), returned to the SCLC and helped her distribute leaflets asking people to keep their children off the streets. She again stated she neither saw nor heard CARMICHAEL do anything to attempt to arouse anyone and she did not see him have a gun or any other weapon.

On the day and night of April 4, 1968, he was at his post at the SCLC, when the news was heard that Dr. KING had been shot and killed. He could not recall the times but did remember seeing STOKELY CARMICHAEL in the building during that period which he estimated to be from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. [redacted] was unnerved by his presence because he recalled some of CARMICHAEL's earlier statements about "black power" and since there were several white volunteers in the building he feared for their safety. He said he did not see or hear CARMICHAEL suggest anything that might tend to arouse people but then his desk is located at the back of the building, perhaps thirty-five feet from where CARMICHAEL was while in the building. Although CARMICHAEL was not causing any trouble [redacted] still insisted that many of the white people leave and he personally escorted several to their cars and got them out of the neighborhood.

While CARMICHAEL was there, [redacted] also saw [redacted] there with CARMICHAEL and at one point he called [redacted] to his desk and asked him if he could not do something about getting CARMICHAEL to leave. He could not recall if [redacted] even answered him.

b7C

[redacted] recalled that sometime since Dr. KING's death, he has had occasion to talk to one of his acquaintances, [redacted] (LNU), who lives on [redacted] about two blocks from [redacted] [redacted] told him that he had seen CARMICHAEL on the street after KING's death and while the early rioting started, and had heard him making some statements which [redacted] was unable to remember exactly. He said he could find out his friend's last name and address if it was needed.

When he arrived he saw STOKELY CARMICHAEL, in the building, trying to call Atlanta, Georgia to get further details of the shooting. [redacted] then returned home to get his radio to take it to the SCLC, where he remained through that night and the next day. After he returned to the SCLC, CARMICHAEL was still there but left at approximately 9:00 p.m. and [redacted] did not see him again. [redacted] never heard CARMICHAEL make any remarks which he could have interpreted as attempting to arouse people to commit violence, nor did he ever see him in possession of any type of weapon.

She said that on the night of April 4, 1968, when Dr. KING was killed she saw STOKELY CARMICHAEL carrying a silver and black transistor radio in his hand. She remembered this now after thinking about it since her previous interview, because she had heard that some member of the SCLC was saying that he had been carrying a pistol or revolver, and she wanted to clear up that point. She recalled the radio vividly because it belonged to some member of the SCLC, who had brought it to the SCLC for the workers to keep up with the news about the assassination and although the color may have made it appear to be a revolver or pistol, it very definitely was not; and in fact, they are now trying to contact him to find out what he did with the radio because they want it back.

She could not recall the name of the party who made the claim about the revolver and could furnish no additional information.

the following information concerning the activities of STOKELY CARMICHAEL at the Peoples Drug Store Number 3, 2002
14th Street, N.W., WDC, on Thursday, April 4, 1968, as well as other activities deemed pertinent to this investigation:

not witness any of the activities which took place there on that date. After hearing of the activities of April 2, 1968, [redacted] also decided against reporting for work on the night of April 3, 1968. [redacted] did report for work on night of April 4, 1968, and worked behind the cigar counter, his

Following the announcement of the death of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., on April 4, 1968, the store became unusually quiet with a minimum of customers. There then began a buildup of people on the street in front of the

At exactly 9:10 p.m., according to the wristwatch of [redacted] a group of at least fifteen adult-sized young Negro male individuals stormed into the store from the street behind STOKELY CARMICHAEL and loudly demanded that the store be immediately closed. All of the members of the group seemed b7C this regard. They yelled "This store is closed!" and that the store was closing because of the death of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. [] was unable to state that he actually had heard any utterance from the lips of CARMICHAEL because of the loudness of the entire group, but he had no difficulty in recognizing CARMICHAEL as the group leader. The group moved almost hand-in-hand in single file through the store. CARMICHAEL and the group proceeded to the rear of the store where they repeated their demands directly to the store manager, who agreed to close the store in deference to their demands.

b7C CARMICHAEL then led the group to the store entrance, during the course of which, one member of the group, noting that [] continued to wait upon a customer, cursed [] with a familiar Negro expression and demanded that he stop. The group then passed out of the store. No firearms or dangerous weapons of any nature were seen by [] in possession of the group.

The store was then immediately closed by the manager and the employees left the premises as soon as they were able to balance their accounts.

b7C [] left the store between 9:20 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. and entered his automobile which was parked facing west on U Street, N.W., just west of 14th Street. There were many people on the streets at that time and a group of Negro male individuals began crowding him as he approached his auto. One member of the group said "Let's take him!" [] recognized two of the members of the group as men he had seen in the area on various occasions in the past. These members told the group that [] was a "soul" and that they should leave him alone. Although [] is a Negro, he is occasionally mistaken for a white man.

b7C When [] entered his auto, he made a "U" turn on U Street and proceeded eastward across 14th Street to 13th Street, N.W., where he turned north and traveled to his residence.

b7C While entering his auto, [] noticed a group of Negro male individuals congregated on the street in front of the Republic Theater between 14th and 13th Street on U Street, N.W. When he passed the Republic Theater, he then noticed the same or a similar group walking toward the Lincoln Theater in the next block. [] could not state whether the group or groups seen by him in the theater areas was the previously described CARMICHAEL group which had entered the Drug Store.

b7C As [] rounded the corner of 13th and U Streets, N.W., he noticed for the first time that night that rocks were being thrown through store windows by persons unknown to him. [] continued on without stopping and went home. He has not returned to the 14th and U Streets, N.W., area of Washington since that night.

[] was displayed photographs of the following Negro male individuals:

b7C [] immediately identified CARMICHAEL, by photograph and name, as the person who had led the parade of the group into the Peoples Drug Store Number 3 on the night of April 4, 1968, when demands were made for the store to close.

[] recognized [] by photograph, as a person who had been in the Drug Store on many occasions. He described [] as a "hanger-on" in the area for about six years.

[] stated he had heard that on the night of Friday, April 5, 1968, or Saturday, April 6, 1968, a note written by STOKELY CARMICHAEL had been delivered to the guards assigned to Peoples Drug Store Number 3. The note warned the guards that the store would be burned down.

[redacted] Seaboard Service System, Incorporated, 927 H Street, N.W., residence, [redacted] furnished the following information concerning violence at People's Drug Store Number 3, 14th and U Streets, N.W.:

b7C

On April 2, 1968, [redacted] was on duty at the store at H and North Capitol Streets, N.W. At 8:45 p.m., he left this store to proceed to Store Number 3, where violence had been reported. Arriving at the store at about 9:05 p.m., the same night with [redacted] noted a rather unruly crowd assembled at the front of the store. The crowd was engaged in throwing of bottles, etc. He immediately entered the store. The violence continued outside and at one point a group of about 75 entered the store to attempt to engage in an altercation with a porter. This porter had previously during the evening given aid to another private officer on duty at the store in connection with some teenage boys who had attacked the officer. When the crowd entered the store, the manager upon orders of one of the superior officers of the guard force, closed the store whereupon the crowd dispersed from inside; however, they continued to crowd around the front door outside of the store.

At approximately 9:30 p.m., an individual [redacted] knows as STOKELY CARMICHAEL gained entrance to the store by knocking on the front door. CARMICHAEL was accompanied by either one or two Negro males, obviously bodyguards or close associates. CARMICHAEL talked with the manager of the store and [redacted] overheard him say to the manager "I talked to you about this days ago. We're out to get you." CARMICHAEL left after conversing with the manager briefly. When outside the store, CARMICHAEL was heard by [redacted] to say to the crowd "All right let's clear the streets; we don't want to go to jail. I have a better way, we'll either burn it or we'll bomb it." CARMICHAEL was then observed by [redacted] to proceed across Fourteenth Street from the store and in a northerly direction. [] believes CARMICHAEL has an office up 14th Street or did have at one time. He presumes he was headed toward that office. [] believes CARMICHAEL left around 11:30 p.m. After CARMICHAEL's departure the crowd seemed to disperse progressively and it appeared all had left about 30 to 40 minutes later. He estimated the crowd consisted of about 300 to 400. [] advised that the crowd of about 75 who entered the store to engage the porter in a scuffle, kicked out some of the window panes in the front doors. The remainder of the night was relatively calm.

On Thursday evening, April 4, 1968, after it was learned MARTIN LUTHER KING had been shot and killed, [] remained at his station at the Peoples Drug Store at North Capitol and H Streets, N.W., until about the closing time of 10:00 p.m. He believes he left about 9:50 p.m. to assist in guard duties at Store Number 3. He got into a taxicab and proceeded to Store Number 3. Upon arrival he noted a crowd in excess of 200 and possibly as many as 300 in front of Store Number 3. He ordered the driver of the cab to go to Store Number 8 at 14th Street and Park Road, N.W. At that store [] met []

[] They were in the process of closing Store Number 8. from U Street and proceed towards the [] officers. They all left hurriedly for the Plymouth automobile. In the automobile they closed the windows, locked the doors. The crowd swarmed around the auto preventing an instant getaway and a number of about 25 or 30 of the crowd commenced to grab hold of the car and commenced to rock it. At that instance, [] noted STOKELY CARMICHAEL with two 38 caliber snub nose revolvers in his hands. The revolvers appeared to be blue steel with brown handles. Two others in the crowd also had guns. CARMICHAEL announced to them "the police are not the only ones who have guns tonight. We have guns and ammunition, all we need. Best you can do is stay away from this store. We're going to burn it." CARMICHAEL also made the announcement stating "I am going to take over where KING left off". [] believes the time this all occurred was about 10:30 to 10:45 p.m. After CARMICHAEL told them to leave, the [] officers left and headed down 14th Street in a southerly direction. About a block or so away they were overtaken by [] who was in his automobile. [] said he did not intend them to get involved with so many people which [] estimated must have been close to 500. [] along with the rest of the officers in the Plymouth, as well as those in [] auto, left the two cars in an area removed some blocks from 14th and U and walked back to Store Number 3 and they posted themselves across the street from the store to observe. They remained until shortly after 1:00 a.m., after which the crowd was dispersed by the actions of Metropolitan Police Officers as well as the rains. After things quieted down some, [] entered Store Number 3 and remained until about 7:30 a.m., April 5, 1968 (Friday). Then he proceeded to Store Number 8 where he remained until 1:45 p.m., April 5, 1968 (Friday). of Wings Carryout Chinese Restaurant, 1917 14th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., advised that on the night of April 4, 1968, he was playing bridge at a friend's home. The friend's son advised [redacted] of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, Jr.'s death about 7:30 p.m. that evening. From the bridge game, [redacted] drove to his restaurant on 14th Street, where he arrived about 12 midnight and observed his place was closed. He unlocked the door, then left after a cursory look revealed no apparent damage. He surmised that based on the evening's receipts the restaurant was probably closed about 8:00 p.m. He stated that [redacted] Washington, D. C., and [redacted] address unknown, Telephone [redacted] were employed in his restaurant on the evening of April 4. On Friday, April 5, 1968, [redacted] related to [redacted] that about 8:00 p.m., April 4, STOKELY CARMICHAEL entered Wings Carryout Restaurant and asked, "Would you do us a favor and close the store." [redacted] agreed to close the store immediately and did so. She told [redacted] there was a great deal of commotion on the street which worried her. She advised [redacted] that when she left no damage had been done to the store.

[redacted] advised that [redacted] did not appear to sympathize with STOKELY CARMICHAEL or his activities. He felt, however, that she might, out of fear, slant her comments concerning the happenings around the restaurant on the evening of April 4, 1968.

On April 16, 1968, [redacted]

[redacted] of Wings-N-Things Carryout Restaurant, 1932 14th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., advised he arrived at Wings-N-Things Restaurant, 1932 14th Street, N. W., about 8:55 p.m. on April 4, 1968, to check the change of shifts, as his usual responsibility. Everything appeared normal from 8:55 p.m. until 9:10 p.m. when he left. [redacted] of Wings-N-Things, [redacted] did not mention any unusual disturbance in the area. [redacted] returned to the restaurant about 9:30 p.m. and began closing, anticipating possible trouble. At this time he observed a few broken windows in the nearby stores. He did not see any large crowds in the area although large numbers of people are common in this area. He proceeded to another Wings-N-Things Carryout Restaurant on 14th and Kenyon Street, where he closed the restaurant about 10:30 p.m. due to the unruly crowds on the streets. [redacted] stated he heard a shot fired from the mob but could not determine where it occurred.

b7C

On Friday, April 5, 1968, while driving through the intersection at 14th and U Streets, N. W., about 11:30 a.m., [redacted] recognized STOKELY CARMICHAEL addressing a crowd. [redacted] did not stop to further observe these activities.

The following investigation was conducted by SAs

AT WASHINGTON, D. C.

On April 10, 1968, [redacted] of Nine Seventy Five Optical Company, 1921 14th Street, N.W., advised his store went out of business on April 1, 1968, and was not occupied after that time; consequently, he has no personal knowledge of neighborhood activity subsequent to that date.

b7C

On April 10, 1968, [redacted] Optometrist, 1944 14th Street, N.W., advised that on the afternoon of April 4, 1968, he closed his shop at approximately 4:30 p.m. He explained that he is under a doctor's care, following recent surgery for the removal of a chest tumor, and the doctor has permitted him to operate his shop only from 10:00 a.m. to approximately 3:30 p.m. He said he had no personal knowledge of neighborhood activity on April 4, 1968.

On April 10, attempts to contact someone at the Lord's House of Prayer, 1939 14th Street, N.W., were negative, as this establishment was locked and closed.

b7C

On April 10, 1968, [redacted] advised that he does not know who is the Pastor of the Lord's Prayer which is located on the street floor of this address. He pointed out, though, that the only time he has ever seen the establishment open is on a Sunday and does not believe it was open on the evening of April 4, 1968.

On April 10, 1968, attempts were made to contact someone at 1916 ½ 14th Street, N.W., the location of Williams Barber Shop. It was observed this shop had a vacant, abandoned appearance to it.

in this matter on page 55:

[redacted] was present during the interview and at the outset both were very cooperative. However, as specifics were mentioned concerning STOKELY CARMICHAEL, and other pertinent events of April 4-6, 1968, [redacted] became excited and attempted to answer all questions for her husband who was sincerely responding to interviewing Agents. As the interview progressed, it was impossible to obtain positive answers from [redacted] because of [redacted] disruptive influence. Consequently, [redacted] appeared to reluctantly answer in the negative at the urging of his wife. b7C

It is pointed out both [redacted] appeared concerned about the health of [redacted] advising interviewing Agents that [redacted] was not to be excited. It is also noted that [redacted] who furnished a more detailed account of events of April 4-6, 1968, during separate interviews, April 8, 1968 and April 9, 1968, mentioned that [redacted] should not be excited because of his health. b7C

[redacted] is employed [redacted] for "The Washington Post" newspaper, and his normal duties confine him to the office. On occasion, he is given reporting assignments outside the office.

On April 4, 1968, his duties confined him to the Washington Post Building. On April 5, 1968, he stated he was out on a reporting assignment for several hours and then returned to the building for the remainder of this shift. On Saturday and Sunday, April 6 and 7, 1968, his assignment was to endeavor to locate and stay with STOKELY CARMICHAEL. On Sunday evening, he spent several hours at SNCC headquarters; however, he never located or observed CARMICHAEL. During the time he was at SNCC headquarters, he observed no weapons and heard of no discussion concerning firearms or the use of same. During that period at SNCC headquarters, there was some discussion by unidentified individuals concerning their attendance at the Richmond, Virginia, hearing concerning [redacted]. There was no indication in this discussion of any contemplated violence in connection with that hearing.

During the above-mentioned period, April 5 to 7, 1968, [redacted] stated he had observed none of the leaders of SNCC or other militant organizations. He stated he observed several instances of looting and was in the vicinity of several of the fires; however, he was unable to identify any of the individuals involved in arson or looting.

On April 12, 1968, [redacted]
[redacted] "D.C. Examiner" newspaper, 3600 M Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC), advised SA [redacted] that she was with [redacted] at the time he had a camera taken from him on the afternoon of Friday, April 5, 1968.

b7C

She stated she and [redacted] had driven from the "D.C.
Examiner" office in a 1965, white, two door hardtop Mustang and had parked this car on U Street between 14th and 15th Streets, N.W. To the best of her recollection, between 5 and 5:30 p.m., she and [redacted] were on the south side of Florida Avenue between 14th and 14th Streets, watching a house fire across the street.
[redacted] was on one knee taking pictures with a LEICA camera when he was struck on the head from behind, knocked to the pavement and had his camera stolen. While she personally did not see the actual attack, she stated that [redacted] although he momentarily lost his glasses and was temporarily stunned, described his attackers as two big Negro youths in their late teens. After taking his LEICA camera these two assailants fled down an alley between Florida Avenue and U Street.

b7C

[redacted] stated that after the attack, she and [redacted] did not return immediately to their car but he stopped to take a couple of pictures on Florida Avenue with another camera which he had with him. At the same time, however, they were edging toward 15th Street in order to get to their car and get out of the area.

She stated she knew of no other photographer who had been attacked in that area on Friday afternoon but she had heard or read about two UPI men being attacked in a phone booth in the area of 7th Street and H Street, N.W., on Friday, p.m.

[redacted]

[redacted] obtained a press card from [redacted] [redacted] of "The Washington Post" and proceeded to the area of 14th and U Streets, N.W., arriving in that area between 2:00 and 3:00 a.m., April 5, 1968. [redacted] proceeded to take photographs of the burning and looting in the area until about 3:30 a.m. when a group of young Negro males seized his camera case, removed the film from his camera, broke his camera, and fled with the camera case. Without a camera, there was no need to remain in this area, and [redacted] went home.

b7C

[redacted] attended a press conference held by STOKELY CARMICHAEL at the headquarters of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, 2208 14th Street, N.W., at 10:00 a.m., April 5, 1968, [redacted] did not have a good vantage point at the conference and was able to take only one photograph with a borrowed camera which he was unable to sell to the news media. [redacted] could add nothing of substance, regarding statements made by CARMICHAEL or others at the press conference to those reports which appeared in various newspapers.

b7C

[redacted] again visited the 14th Street, N.W., area where the looting and burning was taking place about 12:00 noon, April 5, 1968. He saw more looting and burning buildings but he did not actually see any establishment set aflame.
[redacted] remained in this area taking pictures most of the time until about 3:00 a.m., April 6, 1968, when he went home.

b7C

[redacted] was successful in selling three photographs he had taken during the above period to "The Washington Post," which photos appeared in that newspaper.

CARMICHAEL: Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING fought for his people. It was not but four weeks ago when JOHNSON told KING that if he came marching into the District, he would meet a force because he should bring his troubles to him. And now tonight he is trying to make as if Dr. KING was his hero. He fools no one. BOBBY KENNEDY pulled that trigger just as well as anybody else. Because when Dr. KING was down in the South and BOBBY KENNEDY was Attorney General, every time a black person got killed, KENNEDY would not move because he wanted votes so he is just as guilty...all of white America killed Dr. KING. And those who feel sorry ought to feel sorry.

Mr. CARMICHAEL, what do you intend to do... what action do you intend to take relative to RAP BROWN and your intent to get him out of jail.

CARMICHAEL: We decided at our central committee meeting that if Maryland persists with this nonsensical charge, even though the reports said that RAP did not incite any riot in Cambridge. Well then Governor AGNEW, he ain't seen nothing if he thinks he saw something on that Bowie State

I think white America made its biggest mistake when she killed Dr. KING last night because when she killed Dr. KING last night, she killed all reasonable hope. When she killed Dr. KING last night, she killed the one man of our race in this country, in the older generation, who the militants and also the revolutionaries and the masses of black people, would still listen to, even though sometimes they did not dis.... agree with him they would still listen to him.

When white America killed Dr. KING last night, she opened the eyes for every black man in this country. When white America got rid of MARCUS GARVEY (phonetic), she did it and she said he was an extremist, he was crazy. When they got rid of Brother MALCOLM X, they said he was preaching hate, he deserved what he got. But when they got rid of Brother MARTIN LUTHER KING, they had absolutely no reason to do so. He was the one man in our race who was trying to teach our people to have love, compassion, and mercy for what white people have done. When white America killed Dr. KING last night, she declared war on us. There will be no crying, there will be no funerals. The rebellions that have been occurring around the cities of this country is just light stuff to what is about to happen. We have to retaliate for the death of our leaders. The execution of those debts will not be in the courtrooms...they are going to be in the streets of the United States of America. When white America killed Dr. KING last night, she made a whole lot easier for a whole lot of black people today. As you may or may not know, this press conference was called before Dr. KING was murdered. We called it then to deal with our Brother RAP BROWN because we were very upset that Brother RAP BROWN had been in jail for 41 days and Governor AGNEW of Maryland still seems to persist with his nonsensical charge and so the Brother can't get out of jail. Now we want the Brother out of jail..ah..next week when he comes to trial. Now, as to Dr. KING's murder. I think white America made its biggest mistake when she killed Dr. KING last night because when she killed Dr. KING last night, she killed all reasonable hope. When she killed Dr. KING last night, she killed the one man of our race in this country, in the older generation, who the militants and the revolutionaries and the masses of black people, would still listen to, even though sometimes they did not dis....agree with him they would still listen to him. late Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, Jr., who was brutally murdered today in Memphis, Tennessee. In his death there is a lesson which white America has taught us many times before. This lesson was clear in the murder of our four brothers in Orangeburg. This lesson was clear in the murder of a 16-year-old LARRY PAYNE (phonetic) in Memphis. This lesson is clear in the day-to-day torture of black people by white people in America and throughout the world. It was to end this torture that Dr. KING bravely faced death many times, non-violently. Dr. KING was a brother who dedicated his life to liberating his peoples through non-violence. Dr. KING was a symbol of non-violence and white America shot him down.

CARMICHAEL:

There is one last comment about these news things - about last night. We will tell you where we were last night. Last night, we led all of those youngsters up and down the streets to close every store in this area because Dr. KING was shot and they should have closed those stores. Now, some of them kicked glass store window in. We are not stopping them from kicking in the store windows. We are stopping them from coming out on the streets without guns. When they come out on the streets, we want them with guns. If they don't have guns, we're not gonna let 'em throw bricks and bottles at guns. But when they get guns, we'll be on the streets.

b7C

On April 5, 1968, at approximately 10:30 a.m. he was part of a group of McKinley High School students who left McKinley and walked in a "silent march" to Howard University in deference to MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. After arriving at the Howard campus, his group became part of a large crowd assembled in an area near the flagpole. This crowd was composed of about 200-300 persons, and was addressed by various individuals. At approximately 2:15 p.m. a person known to [redacted] as STOKELY CARMICHAEL walked through the crowd and to the speaker's platform. [redacted] was sure that it was CARMICHAEL because he has seen him before in person, and has also seen numerous newspaper photographs of CARMICHAEL. [redacted] claimed that he was standing approximately 30-40 feet in front of CARMICHAEL during the speech.

[redacted] stated that CARMICHAEL spoke for about three to five minutes, mentioning the death of Dr. KING, and that "they killed the wrong man". CARMICHAEL also stated something to the effect that 14th Street was on fire. He then raised a pistol over his head and remarked that he had his gun. [redacted] believed that the gun in CARMICHAEL's possession was a .38 caliber pistol and he described it as having a long, black barrel.

CARMICHAEL finished his speech, walked through the crowd and disappeared from [redacted] view. [redacted] stated that, in his opinion, aside from loud cheering, the speech had

At 11:45 AM on April 5, 1968, he participated in a silent march in honor of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING from the high school to Howard University. The group of students walked to the area near Douglas Hall on the Howard campus and remained, listening to several persons address a large crowd which had gathered. About 2:00 PM, a person known to [redacted] as STOKELY CARMICHAEL began to speak to the crowd for about five minutes. [redacted] stated that he was standing approximately fifty yards from CARMICHAEL, but was still able to hear his speech. He recalled that CARMICHAEL mentioned that they had shot the wrong man in the wrong place at the wrong time, and that they should have shot him instead. [redacted] understood that CARMICHAEL was referring to the killer of Dr. KING. CARMICHAEL then cautioned those present to stay off the street. CARMICHAEL finished his speech and immediately left the area. The crowd quietly dispersed, and the group of students from McKinley returned to their school.

b7C

[redacted] advised that he later learned that CARMICHAEL displayed a pistol while he was speaking, but he [redacted] did not actually observe this because he was standing too far away from CARMICHAEL.

[redacted] Spingarn High School, 26th and Benning Road, N.E., furnished the following information concerning activities at the school on the morning of April 5, 1968.

b7C

[redacted] said that at approximately 10:20 a.m., on April 5, students from Eastern High School arrived at Spingarn in an attempt to have Spingarn students join them in attending a gathering at Howard University. He said that he invited the leaders of this group, consisting of three boys and a girl, into his office to discuss the situation. He described one of the Eastern High School students as a Negro male having a bush haircut and pimply face. He believed that he also had been a member of the Eastern High School basketball team. He could not recall the other two Negro males. He stated that the Eastern High School girl student was a [redacted]. He stated that while they were in his office, the group of students from Eastern High School, consisting of approximately 150 to 200 students, came through the Spingarn halls and requested the Spingarn students to join them in attending the gathering at Howard University that day. He said that the Eastern students verbally made comments to the effect that all the students should leave the school.

[redacted] recalled that the four student leaders from Eastern High School had asked him whether or not the school had conducted any activities in tribute to Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING. [redacted] stated that he told the students that the school had held a memorial service that Friday morning.

[redacted] stated that as the Eastern students left Spingarn High School, he noticed that one student, [redacted] joined the group leaving the school around 10:50 a.m. He stated that few, if any, other Spingarn students were observed by him joining the Eastern High School group.

[redacted] stated that he came to school on April 5, and attended his homeroom class. He left after this class and went across the street to Rip's (ph) pool room, which is just across the street from the school. He said that while he was in the pool room, around 10:30 a.m., a group of Eastern students came by who were on their way to attend a gathering at Howard University to demonstrate. He stated that he followed along in the crowd. He commented at this time that he felt that it was going to be a peaceful demonstration and also believed that the group had the right to demonstrate. He said that the group went through Spingarn High School soliciting other Spingarn students to join the group and also did the same thing at Phelps Vocational High School. He said that the group, consisting of students from Eastern, Ballou, Cardozo and Mc Kinley High Schools, walked out Benning Road, Florida Avenue up 4th Street to Howard University. He stated that they arrived at Howard University campus at approximately 12:15 p.m.

He stated that when they arrived at the campus, for approximately 20 minutes "militant students" talked to the students. He recalled one "militant" girl student whose identity was not known to him but who had an African bush haircut made comments that the group should "burn fast and burn quick", commenting that "they killed our leader" (Dr. KING). [redacted] stated that he thought that the demonstration was going to be a peaceful one. He said that they listened to the speakers for approximately 20 minutes and during this time, he recalled that people were saying that CARMICHAEL (STOKELY) had told us to get guns before they fought the Honkys. He could not attribute

They also looted the Cavalier Clothing Store located in the 1100 block of 7th Street, N.W. He also recalled that the police came while the crowd was at 7th and H Streets, N.W., and the crowd became "riled up". He stated that although the male students were blamed for breaking windows of the various stores, that girl students participated to a great extent. He stated that the group that originally began as approximately 300 or 400 students increased in size to approximately 500 or 600. He also commented that the group broke up and some of the group went down 7th Street while the other group proceeded down 14th Street, N.W.

[] stated that he did not participate in the looting as he was afraid of being shot. He stated that approximately 2:15 p.m., he later proceeded back up Georgia Avenue, and that afternoon returned home.

On the morning of Friday, April 5, 1968, he and approximately a dozen students from Frank W. Ballou Senior High School, where he is a student, left school after the assembly and traveled to Howard University by public transportation to attend a "rally" being held there. When they arrived at Howard University, they saw other students there from Ballou. However, [redacted] stated he could not recall the names of any of the students from Ballou, including those who accompanied him.

[redacted] noted that he is a member of the Black Student Union. He stated that members of the Black Student Union groups from several Washington, D.C. high schools were present at Howard, including all those active in the Black Student Union at Ballou.

He did not observe a formal platform or public address system at Howard University. Various individuals whom he could not identify were speaking to different groups. He recalled hearing one individual make statements about "tearing the town apart" and other individuals who opposed such action. One individual made the statement that "the white man had declared war". Other individuals were debating the question of who had killed Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING.

The groups broke up and left the campus, but he did not recall what time this occurred because he did not have a watch. He returned to Southeast Washington to begin work at his place of employment around 3:00 p.m. [redacted] stated that one group departed from Howard stating they were "going downtown," but he could not further explain their intentions or objectives.

He stated that to his knowledge STOKELY CARMICHAEL did not appear or speak while he was present at the "rally". He stated that most of those he heard speak were not able to express themselves very well, and he had trouble hearing what was being said.

b7C

stated his personal reaction to the remarks he heard at the "rally" was one of "confusion". He stated that he would not consider the remarks he heard by the speakers to be of a nature to incite violence.

b7C

[redacted] stated that three separate ceremonies took place on the Howard campus on April 5, but only two of these were University approved functions. A University approved flag raising ceremony in memory of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING was scheduled for 12:00 noon and was to be conducted by the ROTC department. This was to end at approximately 12:15 at which time a second more formal memorial was to commence at Cramton Auditorium on the Howard campus. This was to be attended by the University faculty and staff members and was to end at approximately 1:15 p.m. Both these events had been hurriedly scheduled since the death of Dr. KING had only occurred the day before. Also to take place at about 1:00 was a rally by the militant element at Howard University which had been called by self appointed militant leaders who are not recognized by the University.

[redacted] advised that events which occurred on the day and night of April 4 caused the group of militants to form early. They were joined by groups from several different high schools in the District, who had originally appeared for the flag raising ceremony. [redacted] stated that there were students present from McKinley, Dunbar, Spingarn and Eastern high schools. [redacted] continued that he observed the rally conducted by the militants and observed several hundred high school students leave at approximately 12:45 p.m. [redacted] stated that STOKELY CARMICHAEL had not put in an appearance as of this time and after observing the high school students leave, he returned to his office.

The following day, Friday, April 5, 1968, she was scheduled by her paper to cover the news conference at Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) Headquarters at which CARMICHAEL spoke. She, however, was not able to make this assignment, and thus did not cover the news conference. However, since part of her news beat the previous week was the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), she went to the headquarters of that organization, 14th and U Streets, N.W., on Friday morning, April 5, 1968, arriving there at about 11:00 a.m.

b7C [] decided to attend this rally, and invited [] and a minister who was at SCLC Headquarters, as well as [] to join him. [] did not recall the name of this minister and did not recall the church with which he was affiliated. They left for the rally in the minister's automobile.

On the way to the rally at the Howard University campus, the group stopped off first at the Franklin Administration Building, offices of the Board of Education, remaining there until shortly after 1:00 p.m. They arrived at Howard University at about 1:30 p.m. and thus were late for the start of the rally which had begun at about 1:00 p.m. Because of the crowd, the leaders left the building where the rally was originally scheduled to be held and moved to the front of Frederick Douglas Hall, so that the rally could be held out in the open to accommodate all those in attendance.

b7C [] did not know the names of the student speakers but recalled an individual whom she presumed to be a Howard student introduce two other presumably student speakers, the last of whom was an African student who spoke about black unity throughout the world. All of the speakers were eulogizing Dr. KING and deploring the circumstances of his death.

b7C [] went up on the steps of Douglas Hall fully expecting to speak, but the student who was conducting the rally and acting as a sort of master of ceremonies requested that [] not speak; and [] thereupon acquiesced to this individual's wishes and made no effort to speak. [] hopes of having the minister who accompanied him speak were also quashed by his own rebuff by the student in charge of conducting the rally.

[] stated that suddenly from across the campus STOKELY CARMICHAEL came striding. She stated that as he neared the speakers platform a cheer arose, and he immediately started to speak. She stated that the students in attendance b7C had seen him coming across the green; and when he reached the platform, the crowd pressed forward to hear him. She stated that as she estimated it, CARMICHAEL appeared on the campus at about 1:45 p.m. and stayed no longer than about fifteen minutes. She said that he spoke for only three or four minutes. She noted that the mood of the crowd at the rally was militant, pointing out that it was for that reason that [] had been told that the leadership at the rally preferred that he not speak, knowing that his theme would be non-violence. She said that it was obvious that the crowd was in no mood to listen to a speech urging non-violence as advocated by SCLC, and she was of the opinion that CARMICHAEL recognized this immediately and geared his speech accordingly. [] explained that the students were angry over the death of Dr. KING. She stated that she noted that the students looked angry, and many had ominous expressions on their faces, and all were very serious. She said it was evident to her that the meeting was called as a sort of "catharsis" to enable them to display their anger, and express their mood. She stated, however, that during the speeches she heard no direct retaliatory action urged or planned.

b7C [] went on to state that when CARMICHAEL appeared he walked directly to the platform, faced the crowd, and immediately began to speak. She said in the crush of the crowd he was for a time lost from her sight. CARMICHAEL spoke of Dr. KING's death as "the death of our leader." According to her, he said to the crowd, "If you don't have a gun, go home." She stated that he talked as though he did not want the assemblage "to play games," because they were "not prepared." She stated that the theme of his speech was "go home." She stated that as soon as CARMICHAEL had finished speaking he walked straight through the crowd, crossed the center of the green, and evidently left the campus, as she did not again see him that day. She stated that as he walked across the campus [] was preparing to leave the campus, and her attention was centered on joining him, and she thus made no further effort to follow CARMICHAEL's movements. At this time, the crowd began to disperse, moving off in all directions. She stated that she did not notice any large group banding together and moving off in such a manner as being indicative of moving toward some common objective.

b7C [] was certain that CARMICHAEL had a gun at this gathering. She stated that she did not actually see a gun in his possession, but stated that for a time he was lost from her sight because of the crowd. She said, however, that she heard some of the students make statements concerning CARMICHAEL to the effect, "he's got his," stating that she was certain they were referring to a gun CARMICHAEL was carrying with him.

In summing up CARMICHAEL's appearance on the Howard campus, [] opinion was that he neither created nor dispelled violence. She said that she was certain that [] would have been booed off the platform had he attempted to speak of non-violence to the crowd. She stated that CARMICHAEL must also have known the tenor of the gathering and stated that he is "enough of a performer" to have understood the mood of the crowd and spoke accordingly. She said that if he had advocated non-violence at the campus he too would have been booed off the platform. She said that CARMICHAEL did not tell the students to do, or not to do, anything. He indicated to them that the group "better think about what you are doing."

b7C [] had no way of knowing whether the crowd was made up of predominantly Howard University students but felt that it was. She stated that there may have been high school students at the rally, but she could not recognize them as such. She said that she saw familiar faces there, but many of them she could not name. She stated that she recognized [] of the Howard student newspaper "Hilltop" in the crowd. She also recognized [] there, noting that others, names-unrecalled, in the Howard student government were present. She also mentioned that [] of the Black United Front was present and had spoken briefly with her, telling her that he had decided not to speak at the gathering. She stated that she believed there were also a number of Howard University white students in the audience, none of whom she knew by name. She added that it was entirely possible that there were high school students in the audience at the campus but said she had no way of telling whether they were from high schools.

After [redacted] [redacted] left the campus, they proceeded south on 7th Street; and [redacted] suggested they pick up some food on the way to take back to the Poor Peoples March on Washington Headquarters for SCLC people and others who were there. When they stopped for food, [redacted] told the group that she intended telephoning her whereabouts to her newspaper at which statement [redacted] who was with them became angry because he thought she intended informing the paper about STOKELY CARMICHAEL's speech. Therefore when she, [redacted] got out of [redacted] car at about 7th and Q Streets, N.W., [redacted] left them there and drove off alone. She stated that the three of them then planned to walk back to SCLC Headquarters. Noting "young kids" in the area who appeared to be between six and nine years of age on 7th Street between P and Q who were looting stores, she decided to remain in the area for a while to see what developed so that she could report back to her paper on the activities in the area. She stated that she remained in the area on 7th Street between Q Street and Mt. Vernon Place until about 3:30 p.m. She said that the police had cordoned off the area at Mt. Vernon Place, and it was some time before she was permitted to proceed on 7th Street south of Mt. Vernon. Finally at around 7th and G Streets, N.W., she and other "Post" people who had joined her on 7th Street were able to secure a cab. At that time "Post" [redacted] was with her, having previously joined her on 7th Street; and they proceeded by cab to the vicinity of Newton Street and 16th Street and secured [redacted] car which was parked there, and they returned to the "Post" building.

B. "WASHINGTON POST" ARTICLE BY ROWLAND EVANS AND ROBERT
NOVAK OF APRIL 8, 1968

~~SECRET~~

~~SECRET~~

THE WASHINGTON POST Monday, April 8, 1968

A17

Rowland Evans and Robert Novak

Mystery Call Spurs Carmichael to Take Leadership in Mourning for Dr. King

WHEN THE NUMBING news came on Thursday night of the brutal assassination of Martin Luther King, the usually decisive Stokely Carmichael was in a momentary state of confusion and inaction—until he received a mysterious telephone call from an unknown source.

After that conversation, Carmichael was his old self. He announced that he would immediately go into the Negro ghetto on Washington's Northwest Side to demand that stores close out of respect for Dr. King. Not surprisingly, Carmichael's efforts degenerated into looting by Negro youths later in the evening (though Stokely, for a time, tried to discourage it). Moreover, he was back in Washington's streets Friday morning leading a march which preceded waves of new violence.

The mobilization of Carmichael by a single phone call reinforces suspicions of Negro leaders who believe he is guided through his otherwise inexplicable shifts of strategy by unseen—and undetermined—forces. After returning several months ago from a long sojourn in Communist countries, he dropped his advocacy of violence for a calmer popular-front line couched in Leninist vocabulary. A few weeks ago, however, Carmichael abruptly switched back to advocating violence.

Novak

Evans

WHAT MAKES the source of Carmichael's tactical aberrations so frighteningly persistent is that he may be the Negro filling the void left by Dr. King as the charismatic leader of the Negro masses.

The Rev. Ralph Abernathy, King's successor as head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), will maintain his martyred chief's principle of nonviolence, but neither he nor any of the other SCLC lieutenants can command national attention among the militant youths of the Nation.

Nor do any of the middle-aged, middle-class Negro leaders summoned to the White House on Friday by President Johnson. It is significant that, when Negro youths took to Washington's streets Thursday night none of the established civil rights leaders were on hand. Only two prominent negroes were in the ghetto: Carmichael and Chuck Stone, former aide to Adam Clayton Powell and a preacher of politics—not physical—Black Power.

Indeed, there are only two black leaders today nationally with the charisma to replace Dr. King. One is Powell—ailing, aging, embittered, self-exiled much of the time in the Caribbean. The other is Carmichael.

Moreover, Carmichael fits perfectly with the fierce new ghetto mood. Wherever militant Negro youths have gathered in recent weeks, there has been one subject: Guerrilla warfare. The militants claim that the department store fires in Chicago and New York began this war and grimly warn of more sophisticated anti-white assaults such as dynamiting power plants and poisoning water reservoirs.

EVEN WITH his unmatched prestige and spell-binding oratory, Dr. King had been losing ground of late among the ghetto militants. Carmichael obviously was waiting for Dr. King's Poor People's March on Washington later this month to fail, either by failing short of its dimly stated goals or by acquiescing in some unenforceable agreement with the Government. According to this plan, Carmichael then would nudged aside Dr. King for paramount Negro leadership and perhaps take over the March itself.

The tragic death of Dr. King not only moves up Carmichael's takeover timetable but enormously strengthens his hand as a foe of nonviolence. Indeed, there is now an excellent chance that Carmichael and the militants will elbow the SCLC leaders out of running the March. The March might well then become something radically different from the nonviolent demonstration originally planned by Dr. King.

With this backdrop, Chuck Stone on Friday wrote his old boss, Adam Clayton Powell, to come home and try to seize leadership of the angry black militants. Although Powell bitterly declared an end to nonviolence in his last U.S. lecture tour, the fact remains that he never has been the cause, purposely or otherwise, of racial violence.

It would be ironic should Powell, defrocked for personal peccadilloes by his congressional colleagues, turn black militants away from suicidal revolution. It would also be unlikely. More probably, white leaders who so often condemned Martin Luther King as an extremist now will have the pleasure of dealing with Stokely Carmichael.

[] stated, he is of the impression that JAMES FORMAN (the International Representative) of SNCC may be the individual so involved.

b7C

As concerns the very recent rioting and looting which occurred in Washington, D. C., [] stated that, based on his conversations with his sources, the minimum number of fatalities which occurred, and more or less the general manner or approach of containment of the authorities, may have taken some of the edge off the counter actions of the militants. [] said that he understands, had a large number of people been killed, this could have triggered the next plateau of escalation of the militant groups. [] said he has the impression they may have been looking for such an event. Further, that the talk now is that since this did not occur, the militants will have to resort to other measures of guerilla warfare.

b7C

In making these observations, [] pointed out that these are his impressions from comments of his sources, but that he has no idea as to where the sources may be getting such information, adding that this could be "pool hall" conversation or widespread talk within the militant community and elsewhere.

[] did not reveal the identity of his sources.

b7C

[redacted] attended a press conference held by
 C. SUMNER STONE at the Ed Murphy's Supper Club, 2227 Georgia Avenue, N.W., on Sunday, April 7, 1968. [redacted] was given the assignment of covering the press conference after an anonymous telephone call had been received at his newspaper office that the conference was going to be held. The press conference was scheduled to begin at 3:00 p.m. However, [redacted] did not arrive there until approximately 3:25 p.m.;
 and at that time, the conference had not begun.

b7C

When he arrived at Ed Murphy's, [redacted] observed [redacted] a representative of the Student Nonviolent money. [redacted] has not borrowed any money from [redacted]

b7C

STOKELY CARMICHAEL was just coming out onto the street when [redacted] was entering Ed Murphy's. They exchanged greetings but had no further conversation. CARMICHAEL went over and engaged [redacted] in conversation.

At approximately 3:30 p.m., STONE came onto the patio of Ed Murphy's and indicated that the press conference was to begin. STONE sat at a long table with CARMICHAEL to his immediate right.

STONE started the press conference by reading a prepared statement of two or three pages, which reading lasted approximately two or three minutes. In his statement, STONE said that they were calling for a national work stoppage on Tuesday, April 9, 1968, out of respect for the late Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., who was being buried that day. STONE said that Dr. KING had been a victim of white racists. STONE indicated that as a result of the eruptions which had followed Dr. KING's assassination, now perhaps "you will listen to us." According to [] STONE's statement was a moderate one.

b7C

As soon as STONE completed his prepared statement, CARMICHAEL left. CARMICHAEL made no statement.

The press conference continued with a question and answer period which lasted ten or fifteen minutes.

Immediately following the question and answer period, [] WTTG, a Washington, D.C. (WDC), television station, and a reporter (whom [] does not know by name but whom he believes works for "The Washington Post and Times Herald" newspaper) talked briefly with STONE. During this conversation, STONE said that the press conference indicated there was "black unity." STONE said that he and CARMICHAEL have their differences but that even he, CARMICHAEL, approved of STONE's proposal of a work stoppage. STONE indicated by his remarks that CARMICHAEL, by his presence at the conference, had yielded to the moderates in the Black Power Movement.

The press conference broke up at approximately 3:52 p.m. [] said he did obtain a press release at the conference, but he has since disposed of it. [] said he did not have a tape recorder with him at the conference.

On April 12, 1968, [] Metromedia Incorporated (WTTG-TV), 5151 Wisconsin Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC), advised that he had been assigned to cover and did cover the Chuck Stone News Conference held at Ed Murphy's Supper Club, 2227 Georgia Avenue, N.W., WDC, on Sunday, April 7, 1968. He stated the conference was at 3:00 or 3:30 p.m., but he did not recall which time was correct.

b7C

[] advised that before STONE's conference began STOKELY CARMICHAEL and some of his lieutenants arrived. CARMICHAEL came up to STONE and stated, "This isn't going to be any peace conference is it?" STONE replied, "No, no, none of that." CARMICHAEL then said, according to [] words to the effect "Yeah, I'm sick and tired of these niggers talking about peace."

[] stated that one of CARMICHAEL's lieutenants said, "No, no, this is war." After CARMICHAEL made the statement to STONE about "This isn't going to be any peace conference is it?", [] stated he could not pinpoint which of CARMICHAEL's lieutenants made this statement.

b7C

[] advised that STONE then gave CARMICHAEL the statement, which was later made available to the press by STONE. CARMICHAEL sat at the table, set up for the press conference, and read the statement. When he finished reading, he appeared pleased with the statement as he was smiling. He exchanged some remark with STONE; and STONE, to the best of [] recollection, touched CARMICHAEL.

[] stated that right after this the press conference began, during which STONE read the statement he had shown CARMICHAEL. This statement, according to [] was about two pages in length. It called for a general work

b7C

[] advised that CARMICHAEL did not say anything during the conference, which lasted about fifteen or twenty minutes. At the conclusion of the conference, CARMICHAEL and his lieutenants departed immediately.

[] advised WTTG-TV had film of about ten minutes of the STONE press conference and also a copy of the press statement. However, the film and statement were not readily available due to the fact that these items are mixed in with the large volume of film exposed during coverage of the riots. [] advised attempts to locate these items at WTTG had not been successful.

On Sunday, April 7, 1968, [] attended a press conference held by C. SUMNER STONE at the Ed Murphy Supper Club, 2227 Georgia Avenue, N. W. The press conference was scheduled to begin at 3:00 PM, but [] was delayed because of adverse traffic conditions and did not arrive there until approximately 3:30 PM. The press conference lasted only a few minutes after [] arrival. [] ascertained that the press conference was called by STONE to propose a "work stoppage" on Tuesday, April 9, 1968 in deference to the funeral of the late Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. [] said he did pick up a copy of a press release at the conference, but he does not have it now.

[] stated that STOKELY CARMICHAEL was not present at the press conference while he was there. [] recalled he had spoken with STONE following the press conference, at which time STONE mentioned that CARMICHAEL had been there earlier and that CARMICHAEL had indicated approval of STONE's "work stoppage" proposal.

[] mentioned that he had heard no one make any inflammatory statements while he was in attendance at the press conference. [] said he had a tape recorder with him, but that the tape recorder did not function properly. STOKELY CARMICHAEL

The following program was broadcast from Radio
Havanna, Cuba on April 5, 1968, at 10:30 PM, Pacific Standard Time:

This is a statement from the Afro-American Leader
STOKELY CARMICHAEL made by telephone from Washington on MARTIN LUTHER KING's murder.

Hello?

STOKELY.

Yes.

This is MIKE LAGUARDIA (Phonetic) from Radio Havanna, Cuba.

Hello.

Hello Sir.

Como Esta?

Bien, Bien Y Usted?

Ah Ah

Say STOKELY.

Ah.

We would like to have a statement from you on MARTIN LUTHER KING's assassination.

Right.

And how you see the reaction of the African-American in the face of this crime.

Right.

So what do you have to say on that?

Are you ready?

Are you ready?

Just a second.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL speaking:

A white America has dropped on its ear right now and America killed Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., last night. When they killed Dr. KING they made a mistake, because Dr. KING was the man who was trying to ask, ah, black people not to burn down the cities. Now that they have killed Dr. KING there is no black man who will ask black people not to burn down the cities. What it means is that we have gone full slate into the revolution. Last night thirty five cities had major incidents, that was last night, thirty five cities in the United States where there was burning and shooting and killing over the death of Dr. KING. It is clear that, ah, more of this will continue. It is going to become more and more a guerrilla, urban guerrilla warfare, because it is clear that we cannot win with the, ah, with the police, in open rebellion so more people are now beginning to plan seriously a major urban guerrilla warfare where we can begin to retaliate, by the right to the (?) death of Dr. KING to where we can begin to move seriously to do a serious revolution in this country and bring them to their fate. It is crystal clear to us that the United States of America must fall in order for humanity to live. We are going to give our lives in this cause to our brothers and sisters in Cuba and Washington.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Hello.

And it's good to hear you all.

Thanks very much STOKELY.

Right.

We'll be coming back to you again and say something more later.

Very good.

All right all right.

And, ah, to Prime Minister FIDEL, say hello.

All right.

Have a good time.

Good-bye.

Good-bye.

That was STOKELY CARMICHAEL's voice in a special message on MARTIN LUTHER KING's death directly made from Washington.

following investigation is set forth:

MO 105-772

On 3/18 and 19/68, [redacted] Montgomery, Ala., advised that a Negro male, 5'9", 160 pounds, with an unidentified Negro female [redacted] bar at 9:00 P.M. on Thursday night, 3/14/68, and wanted to use the banquet room for a meeting. According to [redacted] the unidentified Negro male made the arrangements for approximately fifteen persons, believed to be from Alabama State College, to meet there. A photograph of [redacted] was exhibited to [redacted] stated that the Unsub looked like the photograph but that he could not positively state that he was the unsub. On 4/5/68, [redacted] that a Negro female student from Alabama State College contacted him during the week of 4/1/68 and requested [redacted] to use the meeting room at his bar. She referred to [redacted] as having been with [redacted] on 3/14/68 when they used the banquet room to hold the meeting. According to [redacted] he believed that these students are affiliated with SNCC.

On 3/18/68, [redacted] Alabama State College, Montgomery, Alabama, advised that [redacted] was observed on the campus of Alabama State College during the time STOKELY CARMICHAEL was in Alabama. He stated he saw [redacted] and CARMICHAEL together at Tuskegee on Monday night, 3/11/68. He described [redacted] as Negro male,

[redacted]
This is essentially the same description given by [redacted] with the exception of the location [redacted] of the unidentified Negro male who was in possession of the machine gun with CARMICHAEL on 3/14/68.

On 3/27/68, [redacted] advised, after viewing photograph of [redacted] that this was a good likeness of the unidentified Negro male who was in possession of a machine gun on 3/14/68 but he could not definitely state that this was the individual.

On 3/29/68, [redacted] Beulah Baptist Church, Montgomery, Alabama, advised that efforts were made to use [redacted] on 3/11/68 for a meeting. He advised that there is a small room on the left rear side of the church, and that it was unlocked during church services on 3/14/68. He stated, however, that he was not aware that this room had been used by anyone on that evening.

b6
b7C

MO 105-772

On 4/4/68, [redacted] Community Relations
Dent, Montgomery PD, stated that he recalls seeing [redacted] [redacted] on the steps of the Beulah Baptist Church on 3/14/68, at which time he was speaking. He said he did not hear his comments but that he did recall seeing him.

The above investigation would tend to identify [redacted] as the individual described by informant as speaking on steps on 3/14/68 and the individual who was in possession of the brief case which, according to the

Dear Mrs. Stegall:

Enclosed is a memorandum setting forth information volunteered to our representative in the Dominican Republic by a Dominican national concerning an allegation made by a Dominican communist that Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown have advocated the assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr., by a white man.

These data are being furnished for the information of the President. The material is also being furnished to the Attorney General and other interested Government officials.

ASSASSINATION OF MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

The following information was volunteered to our representative in the Dominican Republic on April 8, 1968, by a Dominican national who has previously furnished both information that has been subsequently verified and information that has been proven to be inaccurate. The source is a member of a respected family in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, and is bitterly anticommunist and anti-Castro. He reportedly had some "bad experience in Cuba during and just after 1959." During prior interviews the source when pressed for specific details has sometimes become evasive.

The source advised he learned from a female, whom he refused to identify, that the latter had visited during the afternoon of April 6, 1968, the residence of [redacted]

b6
b7C

According to the source, the above female advised that [redacted] that since possible peace in Vietnam was weakening communist actions, an "event strong enough to shake the U.S. to its foundations was needed to create a national atmosphere of war which would lead to the overthrow of the present Government" in the United States. [redacted] commented that Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown are geniuses or they have perfectly assimilated the lessons they have received during the past two years.

b6

[redacted] noted that for more than fifteen days Carmichael and Brown have been advocating the death of Martin Luther King. King was described by [redacted] as a person who favored the men of the right or the "pseudo-Democrats" with his politics of nonviolence and

"Quilled the plans of black power which is one of violence." [redacted] stated it was, therefore, propitious for the cause of "black violence" from all points of view to assassinate Martin Luther King with the assassin being a white man. As a result the "guilt" for this deed would be attributed to President Johnson and Wall Street.

The source advised the above-described female could furnish no further information concerning this matter.

The source possessed no information as to how [redacted] could possibly have been in contact with Carmichael or Brown. He expressed the opinion, however, that these Dominicans are in close communication through couriers with individuals in Cuba. On February 26, 1968, he advised that [redacted] was then in Havana, Cuba, [redacted] [redacted] and Stokely Carmichael are the former Chairman, respectively, of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, an extremely militant Black Nationalist organization.

Title: STOKELY CARMICHAEL

DECLASSIFIED BY SP-1AG/En
ON 4-6-87

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - MISCELLANEOUS; SEDITION

Synopsis:

At approximately 11:30 p.m., 2/7/68, subject and [REDACTED] member of Central Committee of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), arrived at Cox Municipal Airport, Dayton, Ohio, where they were met by [REDACTED] other Dayton, Ohio, SNCC members. Subject and [REDACTED] met with other Dayton, Ohio, SNCC members at [REDACTED] house in Dayton, where they remained several hours. [REDACTED] another SNCC committeeman, met with CARMICHAEL at the [REDACTED] home. CARMICHAEL and associates discussed SNCC's new policy of ostensibly taking a "soft" line in order to bring more Negroes into the fold. However, they also mentioned during this time that they could not make meaningful changes without destroying the system of government in the U.S., and that "true liberation cannot be accomplished without violence" and that the Negro must develop an army to win the revolution.

CARMICHAEL told Dayton SNCC members the analysis by SNCC of all riots in the U.S. had revealed that they were unorganized with no real leadership. He said future disturbances would be better organized. At approximately 4:00 a.m., 2/8/68, CARMICHAEL, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] checked in at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel, Cincinnati, Ohio, where CARMICHAEL was scheduled to speak before the National Conference of Negro Methodists' Convention later that evening. CARMICHAEL left hotel later that day with local SNCC members to hear speech by JAMES FARMER, former Director of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), at a nearby church. CARMICHAEL returned immediately to hotel, where he later spoke to convention group. Text of CARMICHAEL's talk set forth by informants and local news media. It was reported, however, to be relatively tame and toned down as compared to previous speeches. CARMICHAEL, accompanied by [redacted] left Cincinnati at 12:50 p.m., 2/9/68, for Washington, D.C., via American Airlines. (u)

DETAILS:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

On February 7, 1968, Special Agents of the FBI observed at approximately 11:30 p.m., STOKELY CARMICHAEL and [redacted] arrive at Cox Municipal Airport, Dayton, Ohio, aboard Trans World Airlines Jet Flight #442. This flight departed Washington International Airport, Washington, D.C., 9:30 p.m., with one stop in Columbus, Ohio.

CARMICHAEL and [redacted] were met at the airport by [redacted] and others, and from there, drove directly to the residence of [redacted] Dayton, Ohio. representative

b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted] advised that [redacted] is a member of the Central Committee of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC).

FLORENCE TATE

[redacted] (u) on various dates, advised that STOKELY CARMICHAEL, on April 29, 1967, while in Cincinnati, Ohio, stated that [redacted] is the SNCC representative in Dayton, Ohio, and plans are already formulated to give her assistance in organizing SNCC in Dayton during the summer of 1967.

[redacted] (u) advised that [redacted] Dayton, Ohio, [redacted] the Dayton Alliance for Racial Equality (DARE) a small, militant, local civil rights group. [redacted] (u) described [redacted] as an advocate of coordination and cooperation of Black Nationalist groups to promote Negro rights.

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted] on February 8, 1968, advised that prior to the arrival of CARMICHAEL, there were approximately 28 persons at the [redacted] residence holding a meeting, ostensibly concerning the racial situation in Dayton, Ohio. When CARMICHAEL arrived, they were all surprised and elated since they were not aware he was coming to the meeting. (u)

[redacted] on February 8, 1968, stated that included among these persons was [redacted] who arrived in Dayton, Ohio, earlier in the day (February 7, 1968), and was being hosted by [redacted] is a member of the Central Committee of SNCC. (u)

b6
b7C

[redacted] on February 8, 1968, advised that [redacted] would be in Dayton, Ohio, for the next three to four months to organize a SNCC group. Dayton appears to be a SNCC priority city for the following reasons: (u)

- 1) Dayton is centrally located; that is, close to Cleveland, Cincinnati, and Columbus, Ohio. Also, Dayton is near two predominantly Negro colleges, referring to Central State University and Wilberforce University, both Wilberforce, Ohio.
- 2) Dayton has an Afro-American Center, 309 North Broadway, Dayton, Ohio, which has facilities and space to headquarter a SNCC chapter.
- 3) SNCC believes that because of three previous disturbances in Dayton, and the recent one at Central State University, Dayton appears to be ripe for SNCC recruiting.
- 4) [redacted] have indicated that there are a number of people interested in joining SNCC in the Dayton, Ohio, area.
- 5) [redacted] has a great admiration for STOKELY CARMICHAEL, and it appears he also admires her.

[redacted] on February 9, 1968, advised that CARMICHAEL was originally scheduled to travel directly to Cincinnati from Washington, D.C., to speak before the National Negro Methodist Convention at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel, Cincinnati, Ohio, on February 8, 1968. However, it appears CARMICHAEL decided to travel to Dayton, Ohio, to lend prestige to [redacted] extended visit in Dayton and to visit [redacted] who are his friends. (u)

[redacted] on February 9, 1968, advised that CARMICHAEL, [redacted] generally discussed SNCC's new policy, which is to attain unity among all Negro groups with the ultimate goal of Black Power. They indicated that SNCC is presently taking a "soft" line on Black Power in order to bring all Negroes into the fold. In Washington, D.C., this is called "Unified Black Front." They stated even "Uncle Toms" will be taken in and attempts will be made to convert them into SNCC followers. If they do not convert, they will be treated and handled like traitors. (u)

b6
b7C
b7D

CARMICHAEL stated that on February 7, 1968, he was with H. RAP BROWN, National Chairman of SNCC, and others in Washington, D.C., organizing the various groups. (u)

[redacted] advised that in each area, in order to unify the community, they will organize and set up programs around the needed goals of that particular community. For example, the programs in Washington, D.C., are centered around community organizations, civil rights groups, and the unifying of all Negro organizations. In New York City, the organizing is centered around the schools, PTA, Teachers Guild, and parents. (u)

[redacted] advised that CARMICHAEL stated the voter registration drives in the South were not the way to make changes since the Negroes feel they do not have any power. (u)

[redacted] stated that included in this new approach is that conferences and speeches are being decreased and instead, these SNCC workers are going out and working directly with the people. Also, SNCC is no longer going to issue press releases. (u)

In connection with the above, it is noted that the "Dayton Daily News," a daily newspaper of general circulation in the Dayton, Ohio, area, carried an article titled, "Carmichael Visits SNCC Here," on page two of the February 8, 1968, edition.

According to the article, the news learned that CARMICHAEL and WARE were in Dayton on February 7, 1968, to help map future activities of SNCC in Dayton. Mrs. CHARLES (FLORENCE) TATE, when contacted by the news, refused to confirm the visit, but commented that "Black people all over this country are coming together, making plans for their survival."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

According to the article, TATE declared that whites "are becoming more and more irrelevant to us." TATE further stated, "We mean to survive by whatever means necessary."

[redacted] further advised on February 9, 1968, that CARMICHAEL mentioned they could not make meaningful changes without destroying the system of government in the United States. CARMICHAEL stated, "To attain equality in the system is not possible without destroying the system."

(u)

CARMICHAEL stated, "True liberation cannot be accomplished without violence," and mentioned that the Negro must develop an army to win the revolution. CARMICHAEL stated, "No matter what happens, we (Negroes) will survive."

(u)

[redacted] said that CARMICHAEL mentioned that the Negro people all over the United States are ready to fight, including Washington, D.C. He stated, "The black people do not cause the incidents to spark the trouble, but are ready to fight if necessary."

b2

(u)

CARMICHAEL stated that they (presumably meaning SNCC) analyzed all the riots in the United States during the past few years and determined that they were unorganized and had no real leadership. According to CARMICHAEL, one group would be in meetings attempting reconciliation with the power structure, while the other groups would be in the streets rioting. He said that in the future, the disturbances would be better organized.

(u)

[redacted] advised that CARMICHAEL stated that the revolution is ready in its final phases all over the world, and the only ones holding it up are the "niggers" in the United States. Vietnam and Korea already have their rebellions, and other Asian countries - Africa and South America - are also preparing for their rebellions. Eventually, this situation will lead to war between the white and black people.

CARMICHAEL stated that the person who designed Washington, D.C. constructed it so as to be built in a circle of defense. He stated that they have "looked over" the armored vehicles in Washington, D.C., which will be utilized by the police department, and they determined that if oil was poured on asphalt streets, the vehicles would slide and become immobile. He also mentioned that in the event of a riot in Washington, trenches could be dug in the Negro areas which would prevent the armored vehicles from flushing the rioters. He mentioned that Washington is solid with black people and increasingly the people are becoming organized. X(u)

CARMICHAEL also mentioned that they understood that in the event of a riot in Washington, the U. S. Government could move 35,000 troops in immediately. X(u)

CARMICHAEL stated that they were doing research on the approaches to and control of riots conducted by law enforcement, both local and Federal. The purpose of this is that during a riot, this knowledge would be invaluable in order that appropriate action could be taken to combat action by law enforcement authorities. X(u)

[] on February 9, 1968, advised that [] generally discussed guerrilla warfare. [redacted] related that in the early evening of February 8, 1968, CARMICHAEL, accompanied by [redacted] and several local SNCC members, went to the Wesley Methodist Chapel in Cincinnati, Ohio, to hear a speech by JAMES FARMER, former Director of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), and now a professor at an eastern college. CARMICHAEL did not speak at the chapel but remained there for several hours, listening to other speakers, and returned to the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel at about 10:30 p.m. From approximately 11:00 p.m. to 12:00 midnight, CARMICHAEL spoke to approximately 250 Methodist Ministers who were attending the conference, as well as with local SNCC members. All of the ministers at the conference did not attend this speech, but only those who were interested. [redacted] related that this was a closed speech in that no white persons were permitted to be present. After speaking for approximately one hour, CARMICHAEL remained for about one-half hour or 45 minutes answering questions put to him by the ministers in attendance. The speech was held at the Roof Garden of the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel. After the speech, CARMICHAEL returned to his suite for a private party. (S)(u)

[redacted] stated that in attendance at this party were approximately four Negro ministers from the conference, as well as local SNCC members, the number of which was estimated at about 15. He said that there were several other people there whom he was not acquainted with, but stated there were about 35 persons in attendance. [redacted] said that CARMICHAEL's speech to the ministers was relatively tame and on a much higher plane than some of his previous talks. He said, in essence, that the Negro ministers should attempt to bring all Negroes together as a unit and should concentrate more on the poor than on the middle class. In some of his discussions at the party, CARMICHAEL related that when he got back to Washington, D.C., he and [redacted] who was to accompany him, would try to organize and take over the school system there with the help of school officials, schoolteachers, and anyone else they could get to assist them, including pimps and prostitutes. CARMICHAEL implied that this meeting with some school officials was going to be closed and/or secret, and it was hoped that through the cooperation of the Negro people in Washington,

At approximately 10:30 p.m., February 8, 1968, a Special Agent of the FBI observed STOKELY CARMICHAEL and associates, previously mentioned, at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel, Cincinnati, Ohio.

[redacted] advised on February 9, 1968, that while CARMICHAEL's party was in progress, CARMICHAEL received a long distance telephone call from possibly Orangeburg, South Carolina, and was informed that there had been a disturbance there at a Negro college, and that several Negroes had been killed. At approximately 2:30 a.m., February 9, 1968, a Special Agent of the FBI observed [redacted] depart from the front entrance of the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel, Cincinnati, Ohio, carrying two attache-type cases and enter a taxicab.

[redacted] advised on February 9, 1968, that CARMICHAEL was scheduled to depart with [redacted] from Cincinnati, Ohio, via American Airlines Flight 476, at 12:50 p.m., February 9, 1968, for Washington, D.C., arriving at National Airport, Washington, D.C., at 2:00 p.m. on that date.

At 12:25 p.m. on February 9, 1968, Special Agents of the FBI advised that CARMICHAEL, accompanied by [redacted] a local SNCC member, and [redacted] left the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel and proceeded to the Greater Cincinnati Airport at Erlanger, Kentucky. Special Agents of the FBI also observed that CARMICHAEL's car was followed by another vehicle with [redacted] both local SNCC members. At 2:50 p.m., both STOKELY CARMICHAEL and [redacted] departed Greater Cincinnati Airport via American Airlines Flight 476.

The February 8, 1968, edition of the "Cincinnati Enquirer," a daily newspaper of general circulation in the Cincinnati, Ohio, area, contained an article captioned "Negro Methodists Told To Stand Fast." The February 9, 1968, edition of the "Cincinnati Enquirer" contained an article captioned, "Carmichael Here At Church Meeting." This article read as follows:

"Stokely Carmichael, militant Black Power advocate who ran into State Department troubles for tours behind the Iron Curtain, was in Cincinnati Thursday to speak to the National Conference of Negro Methodists at the Hotel Sheraton-Gibson. The public was not invited to the session.

"Carmichael was accompanied by George Ware, his principal aide, who was freed of sedition charges in Nashville, Tennessee, last August. Ware visited Communist Cuba with Carmichael last fall."

The February 8, 1968, edition of the "Cincinnati Post and Times Star," a daily newspaper of general circulation in the Cincinnati, Ohio, area, contained an article captioned, "Carmichael Here For Talk." This article stated as follows:

"Stokely Carmichael, former national president of SNCC and militant black power advocate, is in Cincinnati to speak at a workshop at the National Conference of Negro Methodists, now meeting at the Sheraton-Gibson.

"The Rev. James Lawson, Memphis, Tenn., conference chairman, confirmed that Carmichael is in town, but would not say where he is staying.

"He says Carmichael will speak at a workshop entitled 'Black Churchmen-Black Revolution' tonight, but it will be closed to the press, as are all other workshops of the conference.

"Rev. Mr. Lawson says Carmichael was brought here because the churchmen 'want to hear what he can tell them' and not for the publicity his appearance might arouse."

The February 9, 1968, Seven Star Final edition of the "Cincinnati Post and Times Star," contained an article

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

captioned "Black Power Unanimously Approved." This article indicated that in a speech by JAMES FARMER, former National Director of CORE, at the Wesley Chapel before a group attending the National Conference of Negro Methodists, FARMER stated that the Negro "has got to stop being ashamed of being black and develop ethnic pride and identity." FARMER, according to this article, once considered a radical militant but now regarded as almost an elder statesman in the civil rights movement, is Director of Social Welfare at Lincoln University in Pennsylvania. The article stated that during FARMER's speech, the "slight, stooped figure of Stokely Carmichael, former National President of SNCC, tiptoed quietly up to the front of the church and sat down. Carmichael, who coined the slogan 'Black Power' was not introduced. He refused to talk to newsmen after the meeting, but rode with friends back to the Sheraton-Gibson, where he conducted a seminar for the church delegates on 'Black Churchmen-Black Revolution.'"

The February 9, 1968, edition of the "Dayton Daily News," a daily newspaper in general circulation in Dayton, Ohio, contained an article by EMIL DANSKER, Daily News Staff Writer, captioned, "'Turn World Upside Down'---Stokely." This article, which is datelined Cincinnati, refers to the talk made by CARMICHAEL before the National Conference of Negro Methodists, on Thursday evening, February 8, 1968. This article read as follows:

"A Bible-quoting Stokely Carmichael urged black Methodist ministers to 'turn the world upside down' in their efforts to help the poor in a talk before the National Conference of Negro Methodists Thursday night.

"Taking his text from Acts 17:6, Carmichael recalled for his audience of about 250 persons the words, 'And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying these that have turned the world upside down are come hither also.'

"And citing also Jeremiah 1:10---'See, I have this day set thee over the nations, and over the kingdoms, to root out and to pull down, and to destroy, and throw down, to build, and to plant'---

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

he told the clerics they are as chosen people in their mission to work among the poor as did Jesus.

"Black ministers basically should be dealing with poor people, Carmichael said, and should try to get away from the middle-class Negroes and quit appealing to him.

"Your job," he said, 'is to turn the world upside down.'

"To nearly every question following the hour-long talk, Carmichael replied, in effect, that if Jesus could direct his message work among the poor, so can the church today.

"How, asked one questioner, can the Methodist Church combine the two factions represented on the one hand by the poor and on the other hand by a middle class reluctant to be directly involved in the civil rights movement?

"Carmichael, a Methodist, said, 'Jesus did it.'

"The former chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating committee received several rounds of applause, including a standing ovation, in a low-key talk scheduled as part of a new separatist movement between black and white Methodists.

"The talk officially was open only to registered delegates to the conference, but about 20 SNCC members attended as observers. They had been told not to participate in the question-and-answer session on grounds it might hinder a realistic exchange between Carmichael and regular delegates.

"Carmichael and his aide, George Ware, were in Dayton earlier in the week. They refused to be interviewed by reporters, asserting conference officials had asked them not to seek publicity.

"I don't have much to say," said Ware, who declined comment as to when he expects to return to Dayton to set up activity on the city's west side. 'As a matter of fact, I don't have anything to say.'

"One source said the Dayton activity will include a combined effort with Negro Methodists."

The February 11, 1968, edition of the "Cincinnati Enquirer" contained an article captioned, "Go Help The Poor, Stokely Tells Pastors." This is another article concerning the speech made by STOKELY CARMICHAEL before the Negro Methodist Conference at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel. This article read as follows:

"Stokely Carmichael, black power advocate, told a group of Negro Methodist Ministers to go into the streets and help the poor.

"Carmichael made the statement to about 250 delegates last week in a closed session of the National Negro Methodist Conference at the Hotel Sheraton-Gibson. He told the ministers that the church should not be geared toward the middle class, but that its job was helping the poor.

"'You should do as Jesus did, go into the community, seek out the poor, preach to them, administer to them and bring them together as a unit. If the Negro minister fails to bring the poor Negroes together as a unit, then he is nothing more than a hustler in the community,' Carmichael said.

"The former Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee national chairman who has a Methodist background, said the church was the only agent within the Negro community which could bring about cohesiveness among the Negro people.

"He pointed out that the church can do this because dating back to slavery and after the slaves were freed, the Negro church was the one free agent in the Negro community controlled by them.

"Speaking to a quiet but tense audience, Carmichael began to generate emotions from the gathering as he told them that the church was the place where Negro culture was preserved.

"He said, 'When the black man was supposedly freed in this country, his culture began and was developed in the church. The rhythmic music forms which are so prevalent today in many other types of music other than spirituals, had their beginning in pews of the black churches. Ray Charles sings gospels. Aretha Franklin sings gospels, the late Sam Cooke sang gospels and brother James Brown had his beginning in the black church.'

"Carmichael pointed out that evidence of this free expression is prevalent in the Negro churches today.

"'The black man, today, sings, acts and talks like a black man when he is in his own church. We sing. We shout and we utter such common black man expressions as "amen, preach on, brother"; "uhun and yes, Lord,"' Carmichael said.

"The black power advocates said the white Methodist churches use hymns written by white song writers, such as John Wesley, 'But our black people want to hear "Ezekel Saw the Wheel,"' he said.

"Carmichael called for the Negro Methodist ministers to define black power. He told them not to accept the white man's definition of black power. 'Define it for yourself, see what it means to you and move on with it,' he said.

"He also said the black churches should take another look at Christianity and see if it really works for Negroes. He said Christianity was a white man's religion and might not work for Negroes.

"'This white man's religion shows Jesus Christ as a white man and this to a poor poverty-stricken black man represents an oppressor. How then can a black man really be taught to worship an oppressor?'

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"Carmichael received a standing ovation as he closed by telling the ministers, 'Preach to them about black consciousness, instill pride in them, tell them black is beautiful and it's so beautiful to be black.'"

The February 10, 1968, edition of the "Cincinnati Post and Times Star," contained an article by JAMES ADAMS captioned, "Leaders Fear Voice of Change Unheard by Society." This article contained comments, in part, of Reverend JAMES LAWSON who chaired the National Conference of Negro Methodists meeting in Cincinnati. According to this article, Mr. LAWSON had the following comment to make concerning STOKELY CARMICHAEL:

"Mr. Lawson says he has known Stokely Carmichael since 1960. Stokely is a Methodist.

"'Stokely has the basic compassion that is called for in the Christian faith'---noticing my puzzled expression, he quickly added---
'I know white America can't grasp that.'

"'Stokely doesn't really know where he is going himself. He is trying a means to revolutionize society.' Carmichael was brought to the conference here at the request of some of the more militant ministers. Others objected and threatened to leave in protest.

"'I feel we ought to listen to what he has to say---even if we didn't agree,' Mr. Lawson says."

The February 9, 1968, edition of the "Cincinnati Post and Times Star," contained an article captioned, "Tense Peace Prevails in S.C. After 3 Students Die in Riot." This article, which was datelined Orangeburg, South Carolina, indicated that the South Carolina State College had suspended classes and urged students to stay in their dormitories today in the wake of a bloody battle between Highway Patrolmen and Negro students that claimed three lives and injured 36 persons. According to this article, among the injured, of whom two were listed as critical, was one CLEVELAND SELLERS, an official of SNCC, who was arrested on a number of charges at a hospital emergency room and jail. This article quoted SELLERS as stating, "STOKELY (CARMICHAEL) will probably come down if they incarcerate me." SELLERS, according to this article, had told newsmen earlier that he had been in touch by telephone with CARMICHAEL and H. RAP BROWN, head of SNCC. SELLERS, who had been organizing a "Black Awareness Committee" on the campus, was charged with inciting to riot, destruction of property, arson, and assault and battery with intent to kill.

[redacted] advised on February 13, 1968, (u) that CARMICHAEL, on the evening of February 8, 1968, spoke before a group of approximately 200 Methodist ministers and friends at a closed session at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel. The ministers were a part of a group of Negro Methodist ministers attending a National Negro Methodist Conference there. He said CARMICHAEL spoke from a prepared speech and it was directed more or less to the Negro ministers attending the conference. He said, in part, that the Negro should go into the streets and help the poor, and that the church should not associate itself with the middle class. During his talk, he made several references to sections of the Bible to illustrate his comments. He made no comment about the Negro Methodist separating from the white Methodist Church, and mentioned the difficulty the Negro ministers were having in getting into the policy-making process within the framework of the entire Methodist Church.

[redacted] (u) advised that STOKELY CARMICHAEL, who was accompanied by [redacted] of SNCC, was at the Wesley Methodist Church to hear a speech by [redacted] the evening of February 8, 1968. A P P E N D I X✓ REVOLUTIONARY ACTION MOVEMENT (RAM)~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

On November 3, 1964, a source made available a document entitled, "The Revolutionary Action Movement Manifesto," the document having been obtained by the source from an individual known to be a member of the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM).

This document stated, in part, that RAM was officially organized in the Winter of 1963 by Afro-Americans who support the revolutionary objectives of Robert F. Williams, then residing in Cuba, and his concept of organized violence to achieve the liberation of the Afro-American people in the United States. This Manifesto disclosed that RAM had oriented its program to one of education and political revolution and the organization of a "black" political party with revolutionary objectives, having recognized the need for a "black revolution" that could and would seize power. RAM philosophy is described in this document as one of revolutionary nationalism; that is, one involving the struggles of the non-white races of the world against exploitation and enslavement by the white capitalist and imperialist nations.

This source, in September, 1964, advised RAM is dedicated to the overthrow of the capitalist system in the United States by violence, if necessary, and to its replacement by a socialistic system oriented toward the Chinese Communist interpretation of Marxism-Leninism. RAM is entirely non-white in membership, clandestine in nature, and owes its primary allegiance to the "Bandung World," that is, the non-white races of the world rather than to any national entity, as such.

On November 16, 1964, a second source advised he learned recently from a RAM member that the organization began in Detroit, Michigan, largely under the impetus of [redacted] described as the "Father" of RAM and referred to as RAM's "Black Stalin."

Dear [REDACTED]

I have received your letter of April 9th and appreciate your kind comments. All of us in the FBI hope our efforts will continue to merit your approval.

As to your question concerning Stokely Carmichael, this Bureau is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government and, as such, does not determine whether prosecutive action will be undertaken in any situation. Decisions concerning violations of Federal law are within the province of the Attorney General.

I can assure you, however, the FBI is aware of the activities of Stokely Carmichael. Voluminous data regarding him has been furnished to the Department of Justice for its consideration and you may wish to contact the Attorney General in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date April 6, 1968

On April 5, 1968, Stokely Carmichael appeared at Howard University, Washington, D. C., and allegedly made the Statement "Tonight bring your gun, don't loot, shoot." The Criminal Division of the Department last night advised determination is being made with respect to getting warrant for arrest of Carmichael based on above and other activities. Criminal Division requested we expeditiously determine whether our source of above statement is willing to testify and whether any other evidence, such as press coverage, tape recordings, other source coverage and Metropolitan Police Department coverage is available.

Attached is the result of inquiries last night. It is noted source is fearful of life if he testifies. Further inquiries are continuing. Copy of attached memorandum has been furnished Criminal Division of Department.

On April 5, 1968, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Stokely Carmichael and Cleveland Sellers of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, appeared on Howard University Campus, Washington, D. C., on that date at about 1:55 p.m., where a Eulogy-type program in honor of Martin Luther King, Jr., was breaking up.

According to the source, before the crowd of about 300 departed and in clear view, Carmichael held a gun in the air before the crowd and stated, "Tonight bring your gun, don't loot, shoot." The source continued that the crowd began to peacefully disperse, leaving the campus.

The source advised on the same date that he would not be willing to testify to the above information at this time. In view of the current atmosphere prevailing, he would be fearful of his life if he testified.

An article appearing in "The Washington Post" newspaper, dated April 6, 1968, under the byline of Phil Casey, Staff Writer, stated that, "Later, at the Howard University rally, Carmichael rose and chanted over and over, his voice rising, 'Stay off the streets tonight, if you don't have a gun because there's going to be shooting.' Then he held a revolver over his head."

Further inquiry is being made regarding knowledge of the above incident.

INCITING TO A RIOT - MISCELLANEOUS

Investigation being initiated by this office with the Bureau's telephonic approval to develop details of possible violation by STOKELY CARMICHAEL of District of Columbia statute on willful inciting riot. Investigation requested on 4/6/68, by U. S. Attorney DAVID G. BRESS following conference with Attorney General.

Initially BRESS requested only that FBI develop full facts surrounding CARMICHAEL's activities on evening of 4/4/68, when he reportedly led a group of individuals along 14th St., spoke to various merchants enroute, and at one time brandished a weapon. Later, Mr. BRESS expanded request to include details of press conference conducted by CARMICHAEL on 4/5/68, and facts surrounding his appearance, statements, and action at Howard University, at a meeting apparently called to honor the memory of the Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING.

INTERNAL SECURITY - MISCELLANEOUS
SEDITION

Stokely Carmichael appeared on television program "Controversy 14", broadcast from 7:00 to 10:00 PM on March 20, 1968, by station WFAN, Washington, D. C. The program was moderated by John Hightower who advised it was a discussion in nature involving Carmichael and others. Hightower advised the program was on the air from 7:00 to 10:00 PM, but Carmichael did not appear during the full time. Hightower also advised a tape was not made of the first 15 minutes of the program due to an oversight.

Statements made by Carmichael on the program are as follows:

Carmichael:
(CAR:)

because in the West Indies there were more Africans than there were white folks. There were a lots of us, a lot of slaves, a few white folks, so one day in the middle 1830's all the Africans got together and wiped out the white folks and took the island. So that was that, there was no more problem, I mean there was no emancipation, we drove the white folk out of the island.

Commentator:
(COMM:)

It was like then the take-over in Haiti.

CAR:

Right, Haiti and right on. After it spread in Haiti all around the West Indies. And so the African heritage was always stronger, it was passed down. My grandmother, on my fathers side was a Zulu and she maintains from her grandmother a lot of the Zulu's heritage which she passed on to me, so that I know that one part of me is Zulu.

ENCLOSURE

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

COMM: Well then how would you relate that to other people that are "hibos" (ph) or "houses" (ph) or what ever?

CAR: Well the same is true I mean, we are tribal people of African descent and Africa is the richest country in the world. It has the richest language in the world. For example, in Africa a child 6 years old speaks three different languages, by the time they are six, they speak three different languages. They are to be found in one country, as many as 30 rich languages.

COMM: Mr. Mack, you have been sitting off stage, sir, you live in the Shaw area?

ROLAND

MACK:

(MACK) Yes, I do. I'm speaking specifically for the Alabama tenant Association, the tenant group within the Shaw area.

COMM: Could you say what they had to say or have they given you a message that ought to be heard in Washington?

MACK: Well you recently heard about Sidney Brown up here at Clifton Terrace.

COMM: Yes, sir.

MACK: Now down here at the Alabama.....

COMM: Sixty days, is about a year or two or three or more than that, too light a sentence?

MACK: Would like to put the owners of our building in for a little bit longer.

COMM: Who owns your building?

MACK: This Carl S. Vollmer (ph)

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

COMM: Varman (ph).

MACK: Vollmer (sp).

COMM: And what are the conditions that are in your building?

MACK: Well, in 1966 we had 500 housing code violations in our building; in 1967 we had 800 housing code violations in our building. And the recent inspection which took two weeks this year, we had 1000 housing code violations....

CAR: They ain't burned that place down yet?

MACK: I don't think I have to say anything else....

COMM: What was your question, Stokely?

CAR: That place should have been burned already, fire is the purifier says the Bible, and fire would do that building some good.

COMM: And where will those people live.

MACK: I don't think we're going to burn the building down. What I think we're going to do, since we have a tenants organization that's very well organized, I have one spokesman from the tenants organization here, he's on stage right now and I am the President so I suppose I'll have to be the spokesman more or less. But we're negotiating with HDC, we're working with "Curac" (ph), with UPO and other organizations. And we would like to take over the building we live in, have it rehabilitated and turn it into....

COMM: You mean like a co-operative..

MACK: Like the co-operatives, yes.

COMM: How much money would this cost.

MACK: The estimates that I've heard so far run between 150 and 200 thousands.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

COMM: Do you think that the tenants in the building are going to be able to afford this between them?

MACK: No, the thing is that the tenants will not definitely be able to afford this, we can't afford it but we would very much appreciate Federal assistance and we think that any loan or grant that the Federal government could give us, we could repay within 5 years.

COMM: Stokely, what do you think about a move like that?

CAR: Whatever the brother is doing to help our people, I am in favor of.

COMM: Does this go against your way of doing things?

CAR: We have different ways but the brother is doing it his way, I will back him one hundred percent.

COMM: This is really what you are looking for, isn't it? Self-determination on a local level.

CAR: That is absolutely correct, I'm looking for us to rule ourselves. The laws that govern black people must be made by black people. And what the brother is doing is good, if we can help in any way, we would. I think that ah....what did you say the "cats" name was?

MACK: Carl S. Vollmer.

CAR: I think that it's a crime that a man like that is able to live, you know really.

COMM: You're not advocating killing him, are you?

CAR: Let me ask you a question, man. If somebody forces somebody to live in sub-human condition like that, what would you advocate they do to him?

COMM: Well, I would imagine put him in jail as these people are undoubtedly going to attempt to do....

CAR: For 60 days?

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

COMM: I don't know.....

CAR: If a black man...

COMM: I'm not the () and I'm not the judge.....within a given system.

CAR: Right, let's work within this given system. If a black man 16 years old went into a store and stole 300 dollars and he got caught, do you think that they would send him to jail for 60 days?

COMM: No, I don't.

CAR: How long do you think they'd send him to jail for?

COMM: I have no idea.

CAR: Come on, take a guess.

COMM: Alright what is it, armed robbery? Strong arm robbery?

CAR: Alright, let's say it wasn't even arm robbery. Let's just say he just snatched 300 dollars out of the cash register.

COMM: He'd probably get a year.

CAR: He'd get a year. Now here's a honky, who has a 1000 violations on a house.....

COMM: How does that term come about?

CAR: Forget that. Here's this honky whose got a 1000 violations on a house and he's forcing our people to live in this house in these run down conditions, the laws hasn't picked him up, if the Judge ever picks him up he goes to jail for 60 days and comes back out and do the same thing. In order for the people to get the building they got to put up 150 or 200 thousand dollars. Now this honky has already made flat 200 thousand dollars, probably in one month off of our people. He shouldn't be walking the streets. Now, you can figure out what should be done yourself.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

COMM: What do you think about the difference one bureau wants, you know, between Marion Barry attempting to low rate Mr. Mayfield by trying to stop his press conference?

CAR: Marion Barry is the flesh of my flesh and blood of my blood, he is my brother. Rufus "Catfish" Mayfield is flesh of my flesh and blood of my blood, he is my brother. I will not in any way encourage black people to fight. The time for us fighting each other is over, it is past, it is time that we begin to move together in a spirit of love and unity to fight our major enemy.

COMM: Which is?

CAR: Which is that we bury all of our differences and we begin to development an undying love for each other, which this white man has been able to push against us, make us fight each other, make us hate each other, make us hate our color. We have to override that and begin to love each other, love our color, love our heritage and have a undying love for each other where we will not fight each other, we will come together and fight our major enemy.

COMM: Do you think or do you feel inately a hate for any white man?

CAR: Let's get that out of the way once and for all because I'm just tired of this question of hate. Now do you believe in dialective philosophy?

COMM: Sometime.

CAR: Well, clearly dialective philosophy works because all it says is that there are opposites in the world, is that correct?

COMM: I believe.

CAR: For hot there is cold, for joy there is sadness, for laughter there is tears. Is that correct?

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

COMM: Right.

CAR: There are opposites for everything, is that correct? Alright you have love, then there must be hate. So now if someone says to me that they don't hate white people then it means they don't have love for their own people. Because if they had love for their own people they would have to hate white people who are trying to destroy their people. If you're a father and you have children and I came to destroy your children you'd have to hate me, wouldn't you? Or try to stop me from destroying your children, wouldn't you?

COMM: Yes.

CAR: Right, because you love your children. So you don't have to preach hate and we don't have to preach hate for white people.

COMM: I answered yes to two questions. I think I would....

CAR: Alright, clarify them.

COMM: I think that I would try to stop you from killing those people, I think that hate is on an individual basis and not.....

CAR: You're absolutely wrong...

COMM: You hate me because I'm white.

CAR: Your people hate me because I'm black, dig that. You stole me from Africa because I was black.

COMM: I didn't steal you from anywhere.

CAR: Your ancestors stole me from Africa....

COMM: So therefore I've got to pay for what they did, theoretically did to your parents.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CAR: No, it's not theoretical, it's actual, and not only do you have pay....

COMM: Yeah, but I said your parents and it wasn't even your parents, it was on before that.

CAR: No, no, no, baby, it was my ancestors, my people, my race, it is my race that has been destroyed; my race that has been destroyed, has been spattered all over this world; my race by your race, by your race. So its clearly now that we're talking about this race of people, this beautiful black race of people regaining their consciousness and taking care of business and doing what is necessary so that we will survive, because we have to survive, we can't go on the way we been going on for 400 years, I mean you just get tired of being tired and I swear black people are just tired of being tired. So you just say that well look if we come to the end of the road, this is the final showdown, let's get the confrontation on, you know,

COMM: What sort of a confrontation are you looking forward to?

CAR: The confrontation that will make black people survive. That means there can be no major rebellions in the cities because white people are prepared for major rebellion, you're not prepared for other kinds of things.

COMM: What sort of rebellion is effectual in the city?

CAR: Ha, ha, ha.

COMM: How long can you control a city if the pipelines to the food which obviously come from the country because you know they don't grow in the supermarkets.

CAR: How long can you control them if white people can't get into the cities? Where the heart of production of the cities are?

COMM: You really believe that people can just exist on machines?

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

- CAR: That's not what I'm saying. You set up a parallel situation. We can't get food; you can't get in to produce. The heart of production of this country is where? Where your machinery is? Where your industry is?
- COMM: Stokely, you can't eat machinery.
- CAR: Where are your industries?
- COMM: In New York, in Chicago, in Detroit.
- CAR: In the cities. Where's your steel? The largest steel plants are in Gary, Indiana, 60% of that is black. You can't function without steel.
- COMM: There's enough of (it) it starve you out.
- CAR: Well, we could try. Better to die on my feet than live on my stomach crawling for the rest of my life. I'd rather die at 26 with a gun in my hand than live to die like my father did, because he gave all his sweat and all his blood to white folk and I ain't got nothing to show for it.
- COMM: How did your father die?
- CAR: Of a heart attack at a young age, working hard, working, bowing scraping, saying yas suh, yas suh. But he was an Uncle Tom, not for me to be an Uncle Tom, he was an Uncle Tom for me to be a man and I'm going to be a man one way or another.
- COMM: Do you foresee what is termed a riot in Washington this summer?
- CAR: No, there's not going to be any riot in Washington this summer.
- COMM: A rebellion?

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CAR: There ain't gonna be no rebellion in Washington this summer. The police are gonna start their little stuff and when they do we're gonna be cool. But we gonna get them back. Its not gonna be no mass thing because they got the tanks so we not gonna go out there and meet you with the tanks but everytime a policeman gets a brother...the policeman got to ride in our community.

COMM: So the reference is there that you're going to get a policeman?

CAR: (laughing) Not one (laughing) One ain't gonna be enough, brother, really.

(COMM. questions another panelist. CAR joins in.)

CAR: See the people we've been talking to, we've been making a mistake, we've been talking to white people. They have not been listening, that is the mistake. We've got to talk to our people that is what we've got to do. Now they are out there, forget these two cats, talk to our people, tell them what we've got to do.....right on, state blowing, take the time.....

CAR: Well I think that the problem that the brother, the brother faces a problem that we all face, that is how can black people communicate without the interpretation of the white media, because white people you know have to interpret everything that somebody says, a black man says, to black people, and what the brother is trying to do is get his own organ going where black people can talk to black people without white people saying what they doing, cause Honkies do that all the time like.....

COMM: That would be better without saying black in it.

CAR: Well look, I'm black and I am proud of it and I say it all the time...ah..you know I'm black and I'm beautiful and will say it a thousand times a night, that irrelavent...

COMM: What do you want me to say that I'm white and ugly?

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CAR: That's your problem, not mine, really.....ah for example when we formed the Black United Front the main honkie press in this city, the Washington Post came out and said "why all these moderates leaders like Sterling Tucker sitting down with a communist like Stokely Carmichael, bla, bla....now what they what they were trying to do was to confuse the minds of our people, that was clear. About seven months ago a honkie named Lyndon Johnson sat down with another honkie named Kosygin in Glassboro, N. J. Johnson is the leader of the white free world and we know what that means, and Kosygin is leader of the Communist world, now these two honkies can sit down for two days and they get flashed all over the T.V., the Washington Post say what a beautiful thing that it is that these leaders are coming together and working out their differences bla, bla but when two black people get down together the honkies don't want to hear it. Now, that what the brother is trying to do he is trying to get his own press so all those.....

COMM: Are you a Marxist Stokely?

CAR: Marxism, I don't.....what is a Marxist?..Man I'm going to get you good. Tell me what is a Marxist is.

COMM: If you don't know I'm not going to tell you.....

CAR: No, No you asked the question. Tell me what a Marxist is.

COMM: Go ahead.....

CAR: Tell me what a Marxist is.

COMM: I just asked you a simple question.....

CAR: Well, I don't know what it is and I want to ask you the question.

COMM: Are you a black and beautiful man?

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CAR: Well I know that I am black and beautiful, that's evident, I mean.....

COMM: OK, then, don't argue a Marxist.

CAR: Ah, well no, what is a Marxist?

COMM: Stokely, I ... you and I could talk about three more hours so.... There is a caller who called in with mention to Hannibal, Hannibal did not wipe out the Roman empire. His march over the alps came to a standstill before Rome because his government would not send equipment and supplies.....

CAR: Tell the man, did you ever see a Sicilian. Look at the color of a Sicilian man he's just as dark as me. That is Hannibal.

COMM: John, did you have a question for Mr. Carmichael?

JOHN: Well yes, I want to get some figures a little later on in the show. I was just telling him that I'm sure that the Washington Post didn't call him a communist because that's a () and you would undoubtedly have had a law suit within the hour.

CAR: The Washington Post said that Stokely Carmichael who has just returned from communist country who is espousing the downfall of the United States of America, are that these responsible Negroes should not set down with him. Kosygin is a communist. He lives in a communist country. He espouses the downfall of the United States. Yet when he sat down with Johnson the Washington Post did not say that Johnson should not set down with Kosygin. What I am saying is that the world is moving closer and closer on the Comi (??) question, the white man is coming closer and closer together to wipe out the black man and what the white man fears is the black man coming together, any sign of unity by the black man and the white man get upset. Any sign of identification by the black man and the white man get upset. Can't nothing upset a honkie like a man wearing a bush. A policeman gets shaken everytime he sees three brothers walking down the street with a bush.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

COMM: What is a bush natural?

CAR: Natural is our beautiful hair coming out.....

JOHN: Well wouldn't you get shook if you saw a Klansman walking through your neighborhood with a shot gun?

CAR: I most certainly would get shook, Not only would I get shook, I would blow him to kingdom come. Ah, you know I don't think a man with a bush is equivalent to a man with a gun. Especially since the klansman is in my community, the brother with the bush is in his community. The white cop ain't got no business in our community () cause the Klansman with the shotgun is the same, like the Honkie cop with the badge and the gun. make that analogy....

JOHN: It was my understanding that during the Watts riots (Carmichael corrects Rebellion) rebellion, revolution, whatever you want to call it (Carmichael rebellion moving toward revolution) That Police Chief Parker one of the things he offered to do was to withdraw the police protection from the community and he was asked definitely not "We don't want that done". Because he got tired of it Charlie we'll just draw them out of there if you don't want them. (Carmichael, he's not fooling anyone). Now this was a white press that wrote that. (garbled) lies.

CAR: (repeats) He is not fooling anybody, it is lies, he is not fooling anybody. White policemen in our community is to do one thing, to protect property, not to protect us. Everybody knows that.

JOHN: How about black policemen in your community?

CAR: Now we are not going to fight them..we are not going to fight with our black policemen. No sir, every time I walk down the street and see a black man in uniform I say hello brother because I am not going to alienate myself from that brother. But every time I see a blue eyed man wearing a cops gun in my community today when he knows he has got no business there I just look him dead in the eye and just tell him I'm waiting. I'm waiting. So you know....I not going to fight.....

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

JOHN: How much longer are you going to wait?

CAR: Not too much longer, baby. I can feel....

JOHN: You know Stokely I read a very interesting letter to the editor in the New York Times Magazine that pointed out the fact that you were from Trinidad... and that this type of path (?) that you are putting down makes a lot of sense to a country that has a black majority. But in a country with a white majority.....

CAR: I don't want to hear that nonsense. Wherever the white man is he rules. Whether he is the majority or the minority, he rules. In South Africa he's the minority, he rules. Wherever you go he rules. Because the white man got this superior thing that he is supposed to rule the whole world. He came to this country as the minority, as the minority. Indians told you how to adapt to this country, you wiped him out. Took the country. Came to Africa, you were the minority, stole us, brought us here. Gave us a (superiority?) complex.....

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

JOHN: Interrupts Carmichael and says, I think your black brothers have been selling you for a few hundred years

CAR: Carmichael interrupts and says, Wait a minute . . . Let's get to that now because I am tired of you white folks telling me how black people sold us. Now you came to Africa to steal gold. What did you buy us with? You didn't have no gold cause all the gold is in South Africa. You didn't have none.

JOHN: Some of the Soviets

CAR: Interrupting, What did you have? You didn't have . . . Don't tell me about the Soviet Union because the Czar had that up tight. What did you have? Trinkets? We had all the diamonds. You didn't have no diamonds. What did you have? Cotton? Africa's got cotton and we had to pick the cotton to develop the country. What did you buy us with? Green money? Green money aint no good unless it's backed with gold. And we go back to the gold nor for . . .

JOHN: Hold up your hand when you are through here

CAR: What did you buy us with? Tell me? What did you buy us with? What (coins?) did you use? You always say that our people sold us out . . . What did you buy us with?

JOHN: I asked you that with a question mark on the end of it. Has black people ever sold black people?

CAR: No, they have never sold black people. White people say that because they want us to divide among ourselves. No, never.

JOHN: Which you are not going to do?

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CAR: We will not divide among ourselves. We are one beautiful race of people. We will unite today and take care of our

JOHN: Interrupts and asks, Do you think people like Roy Wilkins and Whitney Young see eye to eye with you? On the basic problems?

CAR: Whether or not they see eye to eye to me is irrelevant in public. They are flesh of my flesh and blood of my blood. I will sit down with them and I will talk to them and I will try to reason with them.

JOHN: Fine. Now answer the question. Do you think they see eye to eye with you? You said not in public. Have they indicated to you in private that they would like to come out and say to they are for what you . . . or would they dare

CAR: What they say in private I wouldn't tell you.

JOHN: I wouldn't expect you to but I expect you to be honest about it.

CAR: Ah well I see them in private.

JOHN: And they say different things than they say in public.

CAR: I see them in private.

Stokely ah

CAR: Let the brother talk about figures and show them to you

COMM: I will . . . I have a couple of more questions . . . Do you feel that the . . .

CAR: We can get em back. Let the brother () so we can take a break . . . (garbled)

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

- COMM: Do you feel that the black community tomorrow (garbled by Carmichael)
- CAR: You are trying to split us again . . .
- COMM: I am not trying to split . . .
- CAR: I am like James Brown . . .
- COMM: (Garbled) Do you think the black community should physically arm itself with guns, shotguns, pistols, et cetera.
- CAR: I'll get back to that along thing as soon as the brother do the number because that' a long thing. We just can't answer yes or no.
- COMM: Stokely, we have a question that was directed to you. I believe it said to the beautiful Stokely Carmichael where can people find out more about Black Power.
- CAR: Black History.
- COMM: Right, same thing isn't it?
- CARM: Yes, in a sense it is. There are a lot of books that can be . . . One of them is Riches (pho) of the Earth by Franz (pho) Fanon (very pho). Brother Fanon has also written another good book called White Skin, Black Man. The story of a black man in a White Society. Another one to read which is very very good is by J. A. Rogers, which is Africa's gift to America. It is really not the right title because we didn't give anything to America. They just stole it. Another good book, of course too, is written by Brother Lerone (pho) Bennett is Before the Mayflower. Confrontation Black and White W. E. DuBois, The Brilliant Black Author, has written several books, one of the best ones, a little pocket book, The Soul of Black Folks, which is an excellent book. We also

CAR: have the invention of the Negro by Earl Carou (pho), which is very good to explain just how the term Negro came up and what its uses are. There are several new books on the market today that. The Crisica of the Negro Intellectual by Harold Cruise (pho). This is an excellent book to read and there are lots more coming out. What we are trying to do is compile a lot of these books and to open a black book store. As a matter of fact, we will open a black book store in the District which will be on 14th Street and Fairmont. If people want courses they can contact the New School for Afro-American Thoughts which is on 14th Street between Florida and W, which has an awful lot of information on this.

COMM: Stokely Carmichael, have you urged the black community in America to arm themselves?

CAR: Well, see I do that in the context of equality. I believe in equality.

COMM: Then again as an equalizer.

CAR: Well in a sense you see White People got guns, that's a fact. White folks got guns. Now if you believe in equality if a white man got a gun then a black man should have a gun, that being equal. But white folks got a game, if they get the gun they don't want nobody else to have the gun like the Atomic Bomb. White countries have the Atomic Bomb, the Hydrogen. Now they come up with some joke about we ought to have nuclear test treaties (long laughter). And no more testing. And no more developing of bombs, they got the bombs, if you don't have any nuclear testing it means you won't get the bomb. So they tell the rest of the Third World, Africa, Asia and Latin America, you all don't do any more testing cause we don't need no more bombs, they got all the bombs. The white folks are doing the same thing, they got all the guns, and

CAR: now today they talk about we got to stop the sale of guns because they got em. Did you see in the papers white women in Kansas, the police are teaching them how to shoot. Atlanta, Georgia, two months ago, the police department sold guns for a dollar a piece to white people. The necessity that black people get guns. We need em in case you come down. It's better to have your stuff than not to have it. It's always better to be prepared.

UNIDENTIFIED

MAN: To pursue this question of equalization a little bit further, as far as employment quotas are concerned, do you put any stock in those if a community is ten per cent black, that some of the businesses should employ at least ten per cent black people. Do you hold stock in that at all? Population versus percentage of employees .

CAR: I don't understand.

ANOTHER

UNIDENTIFIED

MAN: In other words if we go along with Mr. Ragland's statistics, that 90 per cent of the people in Washington are black, should 90 per cent of the job holders in Washington be black.

CAR: No, No, I'm not talking about job holders, I'm talking about ownership and control.

FIRST

UNIDENTIFIED

MAN: If there are ten per cent black people in the United (ABOVE) States, should ten per cent of the Federal jobs be black?

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

CAR: Ten per cent of the ownership and control of their country should be black. Jobs don't mean nothing unless you have ownership and control. So let's talk about ownership and control. White people don't want to talk about it. They want to talk about we will give you ten per cent of the jobs.

UNIDENTIFIED

MAN: In a black community do you think things should be commonly owned?

CAR: Yes, no doubt about it. There is going to have to be in our community. This concept of private property and private ownership and profits is a strict white concept. We've never had it.

UNIDENTIFIED

MAN: That sounds a little Marxist there, doesn't it?

CAR: What's Marxist? (laughter) I'm talking about Africa that's Africa, the usual way of life - straight up African and a Marx is a white boy who came along after Africa, so you know.

UNIDENTIFIED

MAN: Where are there communal societies on the world that have worked out?

CAR: Africa, until you came along and disrupted it.

UNIDENTIFIED

MAN: What kind of standard of living do they have in Africa?

CAR: They had a beautiful standard of living. You have a standard of living now that tightens everybody up because you raped the world. You steal the gold, you steal the uranium, you steal the copper, you aint got no gold in this country.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

UNIDENTIFIED

MAN: You have a warped sense of history.

CAR: You aint got no gold in this country, yet your whole country is backed by gold (?). Do you back your gold currency 25 per cent on the dollar bill for your gold, hell no, and you know it. Uranium, copper, diamonds, zinc, where do you get all these from, that's not white economics, that's black stuff that you steal. Now what about your rest of metals and materials, where does it come from?

UNIDENTIFIED

MAN: What's your point?

CAR: My point is the United States raped the rest of the world.

UNIDENTIFIED

MAN: Do you want our gold and uranium?

CAR: No, I want my gold, my gold is in South Africa, my people gonna get it.

COMM: Ends discussion, time is up.

STUDENTS AT VIRGINIA UNION SEIZE BUILDING, BAN WHITES

RICHMOND (UPI)—Militant students seized the administration building of predominantly Negro Virginia Union University yesterday and vowed to occupy the structure for "a long, long time."

The 300 students turned the three-story building into a dance hall later, with couples dancing and mingling to rock and roll music blaring over loudspeakers.

Whites were warned to stay away from the building by the students, who enthusiastically welcomed black power advocate Stokely Carmichael as a visitor. Carmichael, in Richmond to attend a bond hearing for H. Rap Brown, head of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, remained in the administration building about a half hour.

The students took control of the building after talks between boycotting students and officials broke down.

Dr. Alix B. James, vice president of the school of about 1,300 enrollment, said the administration planned "to keep going as much of the normal operation of the university as possible."

Student grievances are known to include mandatory class attendance, the right to evaluate teachers and improved campus facilities.

The students arrested for various offenses during the disturbance should be interviewed to determine if they heard remarks made by CARMICHAEL at approximately 9:30 p.m., 4/4/68, in the vicinity of 14th and U Streets, N.W., Washington, D. C. (CARMICHAEL reportedly made remarks similar to those made at Howard University on 4/5/68) or the following day at Howard University and interviews should determine if CARMICHAEL's remarks had any affect on actions of arrested students.

Offices receiving copies of this communication are requested to handle leads as expeditiously as possible and submit results on FD 302.

CARMICHAEL SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS SINCE INDIVIDUALS HAVE REPORTED HIM IN POSSESSION OF A GUN ON THE EVENING OF 4/4/68 IN THE VICINITY OF 14th AND U STREETS, N.W. AND AGAIN ON THE AFTERNOON OF 4/5/68 AT HOWARD UNIVERSITY.

_____ interviewed for approximately 30 minutes 4/18/68. He advised unable to be available for further interviews until 4 p.m. 4/19/68.

During interview 4/18/68, re instant matter, FAUNTROY furnished the following information:

In response to a telephone call from SCLC office, 14th and U Sts., N.W., about 8 p.m., 4/4/68, he went to the SCLC office. At the office he endeavored to call SCLC officials in Memphis, Tenn., but call not completed. Upon hearing street noise he went to SCLC office window. He observed CARMICHAEL leading 50 - 60 predominately young people south on 14th St. at U St. He feared break-ins and violence might erupt that all the group was doing was just asking the store merchants to close their shops out of respect to Dr. KING's death and that he (CARMICHAEL) could not stop this.

Attached are photographs of a small Japanese-made transistor radio capable of monitoring, with good clarity, the various radio frequencies used by the FBI, Metropolitan Police Department, Fire Department, and other nearby police agencies for their regular voice communications networks.

b6
b7C

This radio was furnished to Special Agents of this office on 4/10/68 by [redacted] under development as a PRI, who claims he obtained the radio at Washington SNCC Headquarters. [redacted] stated that similar radios are used by STOKELY CARMICHAEL, [redacted] and other members of SNCC to monitor police and FBI broadcasts. It is noted that pasted to the back of the radio is a small card which appears to be a listing of the exact places on the dial where the listed agencies can be monitored:

- 155 - D. C. Police
- 156 - (Middle Dot) Fire Department
- 159 - (Between 1 and 5) Prince Georges County
- 170 - Park Police
- 171 - FBI
- 160 - Arlington County

This radio can be purchased from the Radio Shack Company, which has stores in various large cities, for $24.95. Similar radios covering the frequencies from 148 to 174 Mhz. can be purchased for as little as $17.95 from Lafayette Radio Corporation stores and other stores throughout the United States.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL
INTERNAL SECURITY - MISCELLANEOUS
SEDITION

Stokely Carmichael appeared on television program "Controversy 14", broadcast from 7:00 to 10:00 PM on March 20, 1968, by station WFAN, Washington, D.C. The program was moderated by John Hightower who advised it was a discussion in nature involving Carmichael and others. Hightower advised the program was on the air from 7:00 to 10:00PM, but Carmichael did not appear during the full time. Hightower also advised a tape was not made of the first 15 minutes of the program due to an oversight.

The original tape prepared by the station and made available to Special Agent Paul E. Morrison of the Washington Field Office of the Federal Bureau Of Investigation on April 15, 1968, is enclosed herewith.

Re Baltimore letter to Bureau, 2/5/68.

SAC met with [redacted] for approximately two hours on 4/17/68. A synopsis of the conversation, wherein [redacted] responded to specific questions, is as follows:

The recently concluded disorders and riots in Baltimore showed signs of organization, considering the places that were looted and burned. Most businesses looted and destroyed were stores and shops operated and owned by whites, or operated by Negroes but owned by whites who live in distant suburbia. The disorders might not have been planned for the weekend of 4/5-7/68. As a matter of fact, [redacted] heard rumors beforehand that there would be "trouble" on Easter Monday in Baltimore (4/15/68), which is the traditional date Baltimore has had racial difficulties over the years. [redacted] feels the disorders broke out earlier because of the murder of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. He has no "hard evidence" that the disorders were deliberately provoked or organized, but he had been hearing for weeks in advance of the April 5th weekend, black militant mutterings and remarks concerning the "economic rape of the ghetto" by absentee landlords and white proprietors. The angry talk in the ghetto was against many white shop owners who used the "thumb method" in dealing with Negroes who come in to purchase food with Welfare checks. These people get 75% of their money's worth of food, and 25% thumb on the scales. The black militants have been agitating people in the ghettos with such observations and their purpose is to drive the whites from the inner city and control it themselves.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL
INCITING TO RIOT - MISCELLANEOUS

Enclosed is a copy of a letter from Assistant Attorney General Fred M. Vinson, Jr., dated April 22, 1968, captioned "Stokely Carmichael, Inciting to Riot - Miscellaneous."

It is noted that the enclosed letter was prepared before the Department received your report dated April 19, 1968, and that the details of that report contained a considerable amount of the information requested.

The additional data requested by the Department should be handled promptly. Your attention is specifically invited to Item Number Five in the enclosed letter which requests information concerning "all of Carmichael's activities from April 4 to April 9, 1968." It is realized that the activities of Carmichael on April 7, 8, and 9 have been reported separately by daily teletypes and other communications to the Bureau. You should incorporate this information in your next report. Of course, any additional information developed covering this pertinent period should be included.

NOTE:

By letter dated April 6, 1968, the Attorney General requested the Bureau's assistance in developing information on the incidents involving Stokely Carmichael on April 4-6, 1968, and to conduct a continuing investigation and surveillance of Carmichael. By letter dated April 9, 1968, we advised the Attorney General that a full-time physical surveillance is impractical and impossible. However, we are maintaining a continuing investigation of Carmichael. Concerning the request of the Attorney General in his letter of April 6, 1968, we have to date furnished the Department three reports totaling over 500 pages and are continuing to press this investigation.

Your extensive report on certain activities of Stokely Carmichael on April 4, 5 and 6, 1968 in the District of Columbia opened several new areas of possible inquiry. We request your continued assistance in developing facts relating to the following matters:

1. Dissemination of the press conference of April 5, 1968.

TV, Radio and newspapers should be checked for time of broadcast or publication on the press conference. We are particularly concerned with precise time of broadcast, number of listeners at the given hour, the hour at which any newspapers with accounts of the conference may have reached readers and transcript of the broadcast or a copy of the news article.

2. Other knowledge which the news media may have.

The fruitful interviews with some of the news media indicate the need for further development of this source. We ask additional interviews with [redacted] as well as the stations beamed at the Negro community, i.e. [redacted] or any others known to you. These interviews should relate to what their reporters may have observed or heard about Carmichael and his activities from April 4 to date.

EX-105

1 APR 23 1968

RACIAL SECT.

3. The knowledge of the Community Relations Service.

CRS people may have been about town during the recent events. We ask broad inquiry concerning their knowledge of particular incidents like the press conference as well as all matters relating to Carmichael's activities during this period.

4. The knowledge of the Roving Leaders.

Your reports suggest that roving leaders may have been on the streets during crucial times. We ask that they be interviewed both as to their knowledge of specific events and as to information on how these events got started.

5. All of Carmichael's activities from April 4 to April 9, 1968.

While we have some knowledge of Carmichael's activities from April 4 to April 9, 1968, he was not visible for some substantial periods of time. What he was doing, persons with whom he was conferring, etc., may shed light on his intent in going to Howard and/or the manner in which the riotous conduct was started or sustained. Furthermore, if any of the alleged supplies of firebombs, purchase of gasoline, etc. can be traced to him or to SNCC charges of possessing implements of crime may be involved. Likewise his communications with persons outside the District via telegraph or long distance may prove fruitful.^{1/}

b6

[redacted] and my staff will be available to discuss these matters with your agents.

Thank you for your cooperation.

^{1/} We are aware that the telegram check on the California matter produced nothing.

ReWFOlet 4/22/68 forwarding reel of video tape made by T.V. station WFAN, Channel 14, of an appearance by STOKELY CARMICHAEL and others on that station on the evening of 3/20/68.

T.V. station WFAN has advised that they maintain only a very limited supply of video tape and that they have a need for the above-mentioned tape in order to erase and re-use it. They are entirely willing to accept a substitute reel of blank tape for use until such time as the original reel can be returned to them.

WFO requests authority to purchase one sixty-minute reel of video tape, at an approximate cost of $65 to lend to T.V. station WFAN until such time as this original reel can be returned to them. The reel of tape loaned to the station would then be returned to WFO, where it would be used in our video coverage in certain of our intelligence operations.

By letter dated 4/6/68, the Attorney General requested the Bureau's assistance in developing information on the incidents involving Stokely Carmichael on 4/4-6/68.

My memorandum dated 4/5/68 advised we have furnished the Department two reports totaling over 300 pages from our Washington Field Office concerning this matter. Included in these reports is detailed information obtained from witnesses who observed the activities of Carmichael in the vicinity of 14th and U Streets, N.W., Washington, D. C., the evening of 4/4/68. Several witnesses saw Carmichael in the possession of a handgun and one witness stated Carmichael said, "If you don't have a gun, go home and get one." Also included in one of these reports is a transcript of highly inflammatory remarks made by Carmichael at Washington, D. C., Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee headquarters on morning of 4/5/68 and Carmichael's activities at Howard University the afternoon of 4/5/68 where several witnesses reported Carmichael exhibited a pistol to a group of students on the campus.

We have received a third report from our Washington Field Office consisting of over 200 pages which is being furnished to the Criminal Division and to the Internal Security Division of the Department. Included in this report are the results of additional interviews with a large number of individuals. One witness stated in a signed statement he observed Carmichael on the evening of 4/4/68 as the leader of a group which requested business establishments in the area of 14th and U Streets, N.W., to close and Carmichael stated, "We don't want any violence as long as they close, but if they don't, take it." Six additional witnesses, who are students, saw Carmichael on the campus of Howard University on the afternoon of 4/5/68. One of these witnesses observed Carmichael raise a pistol over his head. A press reporter heard Carmichael state at Howard University, "If you don't have a gun, go home." This report also contains the transcript of Radio Havana broadcast of Carmichael's telephone interview on 4/5/68 wherein Carmichael commented that as a result of the death of Martin Luther King, Jr., "more people are now beginning to plan seriously a major urban guerrilla warfare where we can begin to retaliate not only for the death of Dr. King but where we can move seriously to ... serious revolutions with this country to bring it to its knees."

We are continuing to press this investigation to determine the identities of additional potential witnesses and to interview them.

CUBAN PROPAGANDA ACTIVITIES

On April 4, 1968, Martin Luther King, Jr., President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), was assassinated in Memphis, Tennessee. Prior to his death, King, as President of the SCLC, publicly announced that he would conduct a massive civil disobedience campaign in the nation's capital in the spring of 1968, in an effort to pressure Congress into passing legislation favorable to the Negro.

Statements by Stokely Carmichael

On April 3, 1968, [] an individual acquainted with certain phases of both pro and anti-Fidel Castro activities in Cuba and in the United States, furnished the following information:

b2
b7D

On April 5, 1968, Radio Liberacion, Havana, Cuba, broadcast a statement by Stokely Carmichael that the Negroes should arm themselves with rifles and pistols and take the city streets in the United States by assault. Carmichael was described in the broadcast as the leader of Black Power. He was reported as blaming both Presidential Candidate Robert Kennedy and President Lyndon B. Johnson for the death of Martin Luther King. During this broadcast, Carmichael predicted that as a consequence of the killing of King, there would be executions in the streets and he warned that the violence unleashed by the Negroes because of King's death was meager compared with what will and must occur in other cities of the United States.

Telephone Interview with Stokely Carmichael by Radio Havana, Cuba

According to [] on April 5, 1968, Radio Progreso, Havana, Cuba, made a broadcast in Spanish of a telephone interview by Radio Havana, Cuba, with Stokely Carmichael concerning the assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr. A summary translation of the broadcast is set forth below:

"White America has Rap Brown in jail, and last night they killed Martin Luther King. In murdering Dr. King, they have made a serious mistake, because he had been the leader of a movement which urged United States Negroes not to burn the cities, not to commit acts of violence. Now that King has been murdered, there will be no other Negro leader who can tell his brothers not to burn the cities. This means entering fully into the revolution.

"Last night, there were serious incidents in 35 cities, fires, shooting, fighting and killing, as a consequence of the crime committed against Dr. King. It is clear that other events like these will take place. The guerrilla warfare in the cities will develop rapidly, now that it is evident that we cannot face the police in open rebellion.

"Now there are many people who will support this method of fighting, because it is the only way in which we can answer the violence unleashed against us. With the death of Martin Luther King, we can seriously take the road to revolution, in order to bring about the fall of this system in the United States, so that humanity can live in peace. And we will dedicate our energies to this battle."

Stokely Carmichael ended his statement by sending affectionate regards to the revolutionary people of Cuba and their leader, Fidel Castro.

CUBAN PROPAGANDA ACTIVITIES

According to [] Radio Progreso and Radio Liberacion, Havana, Cuba, repeated many times the statement of Carmichael and added that Carmichael had said it would have been better to have killed Rap Brown than King because then "they would have been able to say 'he who lives by the sword will die by the sword.'" These broadcasts also reported that Carmichael had said it was necessary for the United States to be completely demolished so that the Negroes could survive.

Statement by Puerto Rican Representative in Cuba

On April 5, 1968, according to [] Radio Havana, Cuba broadcast a statement by Carlos Padilla, head of the Puerto Rican Independence Movement Mission in Havana, Cuba. Padilla stated that with the assassination of King, "the racists in the United States, placed in the highest government ranks in Washington, D. C., had committed one of the most repugnant crimes in recent times." Padilla added that the life of King and above all King's death eloquently displayed that the Negro in the United States could not gain freedom except by destroying the system which oppresses him, "the white power structure." He concluded by affirming that the murder of King exhibited to the Puerto Rican independence supporters how far the Yankee imperialists were willing to go when it was a question of liberating the oppressed.

Statement by the Dominican Communist Party

On April 6, 1968, according to [] Radio Liberacion, Havana, Cuba, announced that the Dominican Communist Party had expressed its shock at the assassination of King and urged support of the Negro war of emancipation in the United States. The Dominican Communist Party was reported to be supporting the statements of Stokely Carmichael.

Statement by Floyd McKissick

According to [] Radio Havana, Cuba broadcast in Spanish on April 8, 1968, a telephone interview with Floyd McKissick, national leader of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE). A summary translation of the broadcast is set forth below.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

CUBAN PROPAGANDA ACTIVITIES

"The National Board of CORE was horrified and saddened at learning of the death of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. in Memphis, Tennessee. The death of Dr. King is a tragedy and horror for all Americans. That this Negro leader, winner of the Nobel Peace Prize, and the most outstanding apostle of nonviolence, was shot in the heart of an American city is a sad proof of the racism existing in our present society.

"Dr. King was the last apostle of nonviolence and with his death the ideology of nonviolence has also died. It was not Negroes who killed him; it was white violence and racism. It was the shot in Dallas, repeated in Memphis. Once more, the United States has shown the world that this is a violent nation. With the assassination of a president and now the assassination of a man of peace, dedicated to God, in the same decade, racism and white violence have produced not the American Dream but the American Nightmare.

"I am astonished that the murderer of Dr. King was able to escape so quickly through the ring of police around the motel at the time the crime was committed; and it is still more unusual that the suspected assassin was able to flee in a city like Memphis, which was already on the alert. It is ironic that President Johnson does not mention racism as the root of the problem which provoked the murder of Dr. King. Tragic as it is, the death of Dr. King points up the importance of unity among all segments of the Negro community. We are not warning, we are not predicting, but the American Negroes will not remain as impassive witnesses to the brutal murder of our leaders, our heroes, our people."

When questioned by Radio Havana, McKissick said: "We cannot teach the people not to be violent while we are involved in a violent war in Vietnam; we cannot preach non"violence to the Negro people who must face violence in United States streets every day."

Finally, MacKissick told Radio Havana that nobody can predict events in the United States in the next few days.

Statement by Vietnam
Representative in Cuba

On April 6, 1968, according to [redacted] Radio Liberacion, Havana, announced that Juan Vin Son, head of the Mission of the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam in Cuba, had sent a message to Afro-Americans, expressing sorrow and indignation at the assassination of Martin Luther King. He said this crime had shown the truth about the government and racists in the United States, since "Johnson's crocodile tears fooled nobody" and they cannot put down the indignation felt by the Afro-Americans and the honorable people throughout the world. The broadcast also indicated that since Vietnam was a victim of the imperialistic policies of aggression and exploitation, the people of South Vietnam understood very well the situation of the Afro-Americans who suffered today under the cruel segregation policy of the United States. He said the South Vietnam National Liberation Front was resolved to intensify its offensive against the Yankees in order to honor the memory of King.

Statement by Representative of Black Panther Party (BPP)

b6
b7C

On April 12, 1968, radio Liberacion, Havana, according to [redacted] broadcast in Spanish a telephone interview between Bobby Silk (phonetic), official spokesman for the Black Panther Party (BPP) in the United States, and Radio Havana, Cuba. A summary translation of this broadcast disclosed that Silk reported on the health of Averill Clivers (phonetic), described as a leader of the BPP, who was seriously wounded a week previously by the Oakland, California Police Department. Silk alleged that there was still some remains of tear gas in Clivers' lungs and that Clivers had been brutally beaten in jail, although he had been seriously wounded by a gunshot in the leg. Silk alleged that Clivers "was the victim of the same kind of brutal treatment given to all the Negroes in the United States by the white racist policemen." During the broadcast, it was explained that Clivers had been arrested while members of the BPP were distributing arms to members of the Negro community in order that the latter could defend themselves from racist attacks by the police. Those arrested were ordered to remove their clothing and at the same time Bobby Houston was shot while proceeding to a police car. Further, other Negroes were tortured and brutally mistreated by the police during these arrests. Silk furnished plans for the funeral service of Houston to be held that same day, after which a planned demonstration would take place in front of the jail where Clivers was being detained. Silk also mentioned Huey Newton (phonetic), described as a top leader of the BPP, was also under arrest in Oakland. silf HUTTON HUEY

According to the broadcast, when questioned about the assassination of Martin Luther King, Silk said that in spite of differences in philosophy, the BPP believed King was brutally murdered by racists. He said they had information that King never told anyone privately he would not defend himself, and he only supported nonviolence publicly but privately believed everyone had the right to defend himself from racist attacks. He said he attended the funeral of King in Atlanta, Georgia, and believed the racist who murdered King was part of a plan of the "racist power structure" to eliminate him.

With regard to the civil rights legislation which had been approved by the United States Congress, Silk stated the BPP did not consider it effective in solving their problems. He said none of the laws were valid, because they could not be enforced, and for this reason, the Negroes should arm themselves in order to defend themselves. He stated the fight for liberation was intended to bring about the necessary economic and political changes in the decadent and racist capitalist system.

In conclusion, Radio Havana announced that they in Cuba support the fight of the BPP.

Black Power Posters Sent to the United States by Cuba

To whom? On April 13, 1968, "The Miami Herald," a daily newspaper published at Miami, Florida, contained an article by William Montalbano, Herald Latin America Correspondent, entitled "Black Power Posters Sent to U. S. by Cuba." This article stated Cuba was mailing to the United States Black Power posters, urging Negroes to initiate "revolutionary violence" in retaliation for the assassination of Martin Luther King. Copies of the poster showing a panther with flaming red eyes, its fangs bared, with the words "Black Power" inset in its mouth, were received by mail in Miami. A slogan, in English, French, Spanish and Arabic appears in the poster's lower left corner and reads: "Retaliation to Crime: Revolutionary Violence" (Response to the Assassination: Violent Revolution.) These posters were being distributed under the auspices of the Tricontinental Peoples Solidarity Organization, a communist group with headquarters in Havana. Accompanying the poster was a mimeographed message, signed by the Executive Secretariat of the OSPAAAL, which reads as follows: "On the occasion of Dr. Martin Luther King's assassination we have published a poster that is now being circulated all over the world. We are sending you here-with a certain amount of these posters, which may be used in your country for the activities to be carried out in this regard."

The article continued that the OSPAAAL Secretariat is an outgrowth of a meeting of revolutionaries from Africa, Asia and Latin America held in Havana in January, 1966. A "spin-off" group called LASO (Latin American Solidarity Organization) met in Havana last summer in a conference attended by several hundred Latin American revolutionaries. American Black Power leader, Stokely Carmichael, was among the honored guests.

On April 12, 1968, [] an individual acquainted with certain phases of both pro and anti-Fidel Castro activities in Cuba and in the United States, furnished a plain brown manila envelope, approximately 7½ inches by 10½

Additional Statements from Cuba Inciting Racial Violence in Imperialist Countries of the World

b2

On April 15, 1968, [] reported Cuban radio stations have continuously repeated messages from various parts of the world concerning the death of Martin Luther King.

A message from the Joint Committee of the Union of Communist Youth (UJC) and the Federation of University Students (FEU), signed by their Presidents, Julio Cesar Castro Palomino and Jaime Crombet Baquero, stated they supported the just decision of the Negro movement to answer the reactionary repression of Yankee racist imperialism with revolutionary violence. This message was sent by the Cuban youth to the Negro youth of the United States through the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC).

The message also related that the assassination of King had served to show that Yankee imperialism did not differentiate at the hour of treacherous assassination between a fighter, who preached a violent fight like Malcolm X, and a person like King, who adopted a position of peaceful resistance. The message referred to inciting racial violence in imperialist countries throughout the world.

Message from Cuban Women to Negro Women of the United States

On April 15, 1968, an article appeared in "Granma," official organ of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Cuba, printed daily in Havana, Cuba, captioned: "Message of the FMC to the Negro Women of the U. S." This article indicated the Cuban women, members of the Federation of Cuban Women, had watched with fervor the growing progress of the fight of the Negro in the United States. It reflected the Negroes were recruited to serve as cannon fodder for the most unjust and criminal war being waged by the United States Government against the people of Vietnam, as well as the Cuban Propaganda in the United States and Throughout the World

[] advised that since the first part of January, 1968, Radio Progreso, Radio Havana and other radio stations in Havana, Cuba, have continuously reported on activities concerning Vietnamese in Cuba and Cubans in Vietnam. He noted a scheduled air flight travels between Vietnam and Cuba weekly.

[] further stated that Radio Havana, Cuba transmits a program in English on the 49 meter band, 7150 kcs., called "The Voice of Vietnam." He stated this program can be heard nightly in the United States and in northern Europe. He also advised that Radio Havana broadcasts this program in various languages to all parts of the world at various times throughout the day and night, including Guarani, Quechuan, Portuguese, Spanish and Creole to the Caribbean and South America; in Arabic to the Mediterranean; and in French to the Mediterranean, Europe and Canada. [] described Radio Havana as a very powerful radio station, having 100,000 watts, which transmits via short wave throughout the world in various languages violent anti-United States propaganda. It is the official voice of the Fidel Castro communist government of Cuba.

With respect to "The Voice of Vietnam" program, Radio Havana also transmits this broadcast at 9:10 p.m. and 10:00 p.m. on the 31 meter band, 9525 kcs., at 11:40 p.m. on the 49 meter band, 6130 kcs., and at 2:40 a.m. on the 31 meter band, 9655 kcs.

A representative of the United States Post Office, Miami, Florida, has advised that mail arrives from Cuba via Mexico weekly, generally on Tuesday. He stated that in accordance with postal union agreements with practically all nations of the world, mail is accepted and delivered if received from a country which is a member of this union. He advised Cuba is a member of this union, as well as the United States, and therefore all mail received in the United States from Cuba is accepted and delivered. There is no additional postage required once Cuban mail has been received in the United States. Concerning the afore-mentioned Black Power poster, he advised the United States Post Office had received word this poster had been sent to the United States from Cuba via the mail system. However, he was unable to state the extent of its distribution.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

On April 16, 1968, [] reiterated that Radio Havana, Cuba and "Granma" have repeatedly announced statements by Stokely Carmichael that there should be many "Vietnams" in all major cities in the United States. Also, after the death of Martin Luther King, the Negroes were again instructed by Carmichael to make violent revolution throughout the imperialist nations of the world. It is noted the great activity of burning and looting occurred in the United States after the Carmichael statements broadcast by Radio Havana, Cuba. [] also speculated it was not outside the realm of possibility that the assassination of Martin Luther King was possibly planned and perpetrated by anti-democratic factions outside the United States. b2 b7D

Synopsis: [REDACTED] advised that on evening of 4/4/68, STOKELY CARMICHAEL led a group of 50 - 60 predominantly young people in the vicinity of 14th and U Streets, N.W., Washington, D.C. [REDACTED] the evening of 4/4/68. Representatives of Columbia Broadcasting System advised CARMICHAEL's remarks at Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee press conference on 4/5/68 deemed too inflammatory to be broadcast on television. "The Washington Post," in all editions of 4/6/68, printed accounts of CARMICHAEL's remarks at the 4/5/68 press conference and the circulation of these editions was estimated to have been between 410,000 to 414,000 copies. One Howard University student recalls

CARMICHAEL appearing angry on Howard University campus on afternoon of 4/5/68 and making vehement remarks to get something going. This student stated CARMICHAEL pulled out what appeared to be a pistol and held it up. Another Howard University student who observed CARMICHAEL at that time felt he was not trying to incite the crowd to violence but was only trying to urge the audience not to come out on the streets if they wanted to be safe or were not willing and ready to kill. CARMICHAEL reported in the 4100 block of Wheeler Road, S.E., Washington, D.C., on the afternoon of 4/5/68 and allegedly stated "We are going to get this area." Subsequent looting and destruction by fire of several business establishments in this neighborhood took place. ARMED AND DANGEROUS.

[REDACTED] he heard people shouting on the street and milling around. He thought there might be fighting on the street. He looked out the office window and saw STOKELY CARMICHAEL leading fifty or sixty predominantly young people from the N.E. corner of 14th and U Streets to the S.W. corner. He thought that this group, led by CARMICHAEL, might lead to violence, break-ins, and shooting

[REDACTED]

At this time, he noticed that CARMICHAEL and the group stood in front of the Safeway Grocery Store located on the S.E. corner at 14th and U Streets.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] related that he saw no sticks, bricks, or guns as he surveyed CARMICHAEL and the group;

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] commented that he last saw STOKELY CARMICHAEL from the SCLC Office window. At this time, CARMICHAEL was leading a group east in the 1300 block of U Street, N.W.

[REDACTED] advised that he wanted to make it clear that he did not observe any violence or disruptive tactics by CARMICHAEL or members of the group following CARMICHAEL

[redacted] believed CARMICHAEL's experience in the South during those several years caused him to become an advocate of violent tactics. He advised that [redacted]

b6

b7D

[redacted] he believes subject is a militant extremist who believes in violence. CARMICHAEL advocates violence "to protect yourself against the honky". He does not recall subject saying this in these words but this is what [redacted] has understood CARMICHAEL to mean. At this point [redacted] referred to CARMICHAEL's statements made at subject's April 5, 1968, press conference where he advocated Negroes get guns and fight the white people.

[redacted]
[redacted] the SCLC office, 14th and U Streets, N. W., on the night of April 4, 1968, he heard the noise of a crowd outside on 14th Street. When he looked out of the third floor office window (not the second floor as [redacted] previously stated), he saw CARMICHAEL leading a crowd of 50 to 60 predominantly young people south on 14th Street at U Street. He recognized CARMICHAEL because of his walk, his familiarity with the army hood-type jacket CARMICHAEL was wearing, [redacted] He believed CARMICHAEL was leading the group because CARMICHAEL was in the front center ranks of the group. [redacted] stated that he did not hear any shouting or other remarks made by members of the group subject was leading.

b6

b7D

WFO 62-9737

He first thought that it was CARMICHAEL's purpose that night to lead a civil disturbance [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

He was of the opinion CARMICHAEL had complete control over the crowd he was leading and was in a position to prevent or incite violence. He did not believe from what he observed that CARMICHAEL's actions would lead to violence and civil disorder. [REDACTED] commented that he did not believe CARMICHAEL's request for the stores to close in respect to Dr. KING was improper; however, he would not have asked the store merchants to close on the night of April 4, 1968, as CARMICHAEL did. [REDACTED] did not know who or where the idea to request the stores to close originated.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] explained that CARMICHAEL exhibits at times a dual personality. CARMICHAEL believes in violence but at the same time has compassion for the conditions resulting from violence. He is of the opinion CARMICHAEL believes in the efficacy of civil disorder and is influenced by some people who are very much anti-American. He did not know how far CARMICHAEL would go or participate in a riot or civil disorder. When asked to identify the people who influenced CARMICHAEL, [redacted] furnished the following information: He believes that CARMICHAEL is influenced primarily by [redacted] who is connected with the SNCC New York City office. [redacted] said that [redacted] hates the United States and white people. He advised that he believed between the night of April 4, 1968, and the time of CARMICHAEL's press conference at the SNCC Headquarters office, 2208 14th Street, N.W., on April 5, 1968, CARMICHAEL received information from someone, possibly [redacted] or other unidentified individuals around SNCC, because CARMICHAEL changed his tactics. [redacted] believes that CARMICHAEL's statements at his press conference influenced some people to violence. He noted that this conclusion was mere conjecture on his, [redacted] part for he had not talked to anyone who said they looted, etc. because of what CARMICHAEL said and [redacted] had no proof CARMICHAEL's statements at the press conference incited anyone to riot or civil disturbance. [redacted] remarked that at his press conference on April 5, 1968, CARMICHAEL was calling for civil disturbance. The remarks CARMICHAEL made would incite angry people. CARMICHAEL's remarks were an open articulation of a cause of action that was not justified. [redacted] was unable to provide the names of any other individuals who could have possibly influenced CARMICHAEL to make his press conference statement.

[redacted] was referred to his participation

[redacted] stated that to his knowledge STOKELY CARMICHAEL was not in the SCLC office at 14th and U Streets, N. W. at anytime on the night of April 4, 1968. [redacted] does not know of anyone who can furnish information regarding CARMICHAEL's activities on April 4 or 5, 1968. He has no information that STOKELY CARMICHAEL incited anyone to riot by his statements or actions on April 4 or 5, 1968.

[redacted] commented that he had seen STOKELY CARMICHAEL twice since April 4, 1968; once at Dr. KING's funeral at Atlanta, Georgia. The second time was in Atlanta, Georgia when CARMICHAEL was in a car which passed the West Hunter St. Baptist Church in Atlanta the day after Dr. KING's funeral. [redacted]

[redacted] stated that the press conference remarks made by STOKELY CARMICHAEL on April 5, 1968, could have incited a riot but he has no proof that CARMICHAEL did incite a riot and knew of no individual who could furnish such information. Although it was his observation that CARMICHAEL could have lead the crowd following him on the night of April 4, 1968, to violence, he did not, while [redacted] was in the vicinity of CARMICHAEL's activities with the crowd in the 14th and U Streets, N. W. area.

[redacted] advised after having observed CARMICHAEL proceeding east in the 1300 block of U Street, he never saw him again, and could provide no information as to how CARMICHAEL might have departed the area of 14th and U Streets on the night of April 4, 1968.

On April 26, 1968, [redacted]

[redacted] Community Relations Service (CRS), United States Department of Justice, Washington, D.C., furnished the following information to SA [redacted] concerning activities of STOKELY CARMICHAEL during the violence in Washington, D.C., April 4-6, 1968:

b6 b7C

[redacted] pointed out his functions as [redacted]

[redacted] therefore, information received by him is second hand. [redacted] said, however, his over-all impression of information received tended to reveal STOKELY CARMICHAEL was active in trying to "cool things down" during the pertinent period. Also, that CARMICHAEL is "too smart" to take overt action and riot with gun in hand as reported in the "New York Times".

[redacted] related that a look at the arrest records for the pertinent period shows no particular group, organization, or individual was involved in the looting and burning, but rather a cross section of individuals within the community.

[redacted] volunteered that in connection with his employment, he has made a study of STOKELY CARMICHAEL and his strategy. According to [redacted] CARMICHAEL is not a violent insurrectionist who would advocate guerilla warfare backed by communist forces inside or outside the United States. He believes CARMICHAEL to be an intelligent person who knows full well he cannot push "white America" too far. CARMICHAEL, therefore, desires to cause "alarm" rather than "panic" in the "whites" to get them to take action on Negro grievances. In the event of "white panic", [redacted] believes CARMICHAEL understands the Negro would lose to an overwhelming white population. Also, that CARMICHAEL has taken note of violent action on the part of [redacted] which resulted in [redacted] jailing and CARMICHAEL does not desire this to happen to him.

In [] opinion, CARMICHAEL will talk less violently in the future and will move the Negro communities to take action on Negro problems through registration of more Negro voters.

Concerning specific details of activities during April 4-6, 1968, including CARMICHAEL's press conference at 10:00 a.m. on April 5, 1968, [] suggested that the following individuals of CRS would probably be in a better position to comment concerning details:

[redacted] (white), Serviceman, American District Telegraph Company (ADT), Central Office, 1012 14th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., telephone [redacted] who resides at [redacted] Arlington, Virginia, telephone [redacted] furnished the following information:

[redacted] was on duty at the Central Office, ADT, on the night of Thursday, April 4, 1968. At 9:08 p.m., April 4, 1968, the ADT burglar alarm located at the H and T Furniture Company, 2811 14th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., sounded and [redacted] was immediately dispatched to the scene in a marked automobile of ADT. The Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), Washington, D.C., had been simultaneously notified of the sounded alarm and officers of the MPD were already there when [redacted] arrived at the H and T Furniture Company at 9:17 p.m. Inspection of the outside of the front of the store by the police and [redacted] failed to reveal evidence of forcible entry into the store or evidence that the store premises had been vandalized in any manner.

At that time, [redacted] noticed a crowd of Negro people had congregated on the sidewalk in front of the Rio Club located directly across 14th Street from the H and T Furniture Company. He also noticed a crowd of Negro people was also forming around the outside of another bar at the intersection of 14th and Harvard Streets, N.W. He heard the people across 14th Street commenting that Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING had died. Several automobiles traveling north on 14th Street, N.W. then stopped near the H and T Furniture Company and the occupants of these automobiles informed the police officers that crowds were forming farther south on 14th Street, N.W. [redacted] also received this type of information via the MPD radio. The police officers who had answered the call to the H and T Furniture Company then equipped themselves with helmets and billy clubs and departed the area in their automobiles headed south on 14th Street, N.W.

At that point, [] was left alone at the premises of the H and T Furniture Company until he received further instructions as to whether or not a representative of that store intended to visit the premises for inspection purposes. [] waited in front of the store for about fifteen minutes in this regard and he then decided to inspect the back entrance to the store. He entered his automobile and proceeded to the vicinity of the alley behind the building, but due to the lack of satisfactory lighting, he was unable to determine the exact location of this rear door. He decided that due to the inflammatory conditions created by the death of Dr. KING, he would not leave his automobile in the further pursuit of this matter.

[] then elected to drive around the local area of the store while awaiting further instructions from his office. During this tour, he proceeded south on 14th Street, N.W. to U Street, east on U Street to 13th Street, north on 13th Street to Harvard Street, and west on Harvard Street to 14th Street, N.W.

During his described automotive tour, [] noticed that 14th Street was unusually crowded with Negro people, both males and females but primarily males. He arrived at the intersection of 14th and U Streets at about 9:40 p.m. While waiting for the traffic control signal to change color, he saw an object of some nature shatter a plate glass front window of the Peoples Drug Store on 14th Street in that vicinity (Peoples Drug Store Number 3). He also saw the plate glass window to a variety store immediately to the north of the drug store also shatter.

This store had mannequins in its window. He saw looters enter these windows and steal merchandise from within. He also heard members of a group of Negroes in the area yelling, "Get that honky !" There were about five automobiles in the area at the time, one of which might also have been driven by a white person, so [redacted] was uncertain as to whether the "honky " comment had been directed toward him.

b6 b7C

[redacted] continued on his described course without further incident. Shortly after returning to the vicinity of the H and T Furniture Company store, [redacted] was ordered by radio to return to his office via a route other than 14th Street. He returned via 13th Street to Thomas Circle and then along lower 14th Street to his office, where he arrived at 10:05 p.m.

Washington D.C.

b6 b7C He reported for work at his place of employment, The Cannon Shoe Store, 7th Street and Florida Avenue, N.W., at 11 a.m. on April 4, 1968. The store closed at 8 p.m. to customers but he did not leave the store until 8:30 or 8:45 p.m. because of the additional work required to straighten up the store. Upon leaving the store, he walked to 14th and U Streets, N.W., arriving in this area about 9:15 p.m. [redacted] said when he arrived at the area of 14th and U Streets, N.W., he observed a crowd of people and that he observed STOKELY CARMICHAEL also with the crowd. At this time, they were coming south on 14th Street between U and V Streets. [redacted] said he joined the crowd as they continued marching south to Peoples Drug Store, located at the corner of 14th and U Streets, N.W., whereupon CARMICHAEL went into the drugstore with some of the "brothers" and asked the store to close out of respect for Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING. [redacted] said he believed CARMICHAEL talked to the manager of this Peoples Drug Store. The crowd then continued south on 14th Street for about one block below U Street, asking that the various business houses close out of respect for the death of Dr. KING. The crowd reversed itself and went north on 14th Street to U Street, then east on U Street for about two blocks, asking the business establishments on U Street to close out of respect for Dr. KING. The crowd reversing themselves walked west on U Street, back to 14th Street. They then marched north on 14th Street. It was only after the crowd went north on 14th Street that some "brothers" began breaking glass windows. When this breaking of glass windows started, CARMICHAEL asked the crowd to stop, telling them to go home, "that this was not what we want." The march continued north on 14th Street to near Euclid Street, when CARMICHAEL made his final appeal for the "brothers" to stop breaking windows and go home. [redacted] said he estimated this time to be 9:45 p.m. CARMICHAEL, [redacted] related, after making this final appeal left the crowd. [redacted] said that he, himself, also left at this time returning to the Dunbar Hotel. [redacted] stated that at no time did CARMICHAEL say anything in the way of encouragement to the crowd for them to break windows or engage in other actions of violence.

[redacted] stated that during the march north on 14th Street, someone in the crowd fired two shots from a firearm. He did not see the firearm but other "brothers" said it was a pistol. [redacted] said he could not identify the "brother" who discharged the pistol and quoted CARMICHAEL as saying "Don't do that for that is not what we want." On the night of April 4, 1968, at approximately 8:00 p. m. [redacted] was with friends on Connecticut Avenue, N. W., when he learned that Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING had been shot and that crowds were forming in the vicinity of 14th and U Streets, N. W., Washington, D. C. He immediately proceeded to this intersection. As he approached, walking east on U Street he observed several large groups of people in the vicinity of 14th Street. He stopped at this intersection and watched as STOKELY CARMICHAEL and a large group of individuals walked down U Street. He believed that CARMICHAEL and his group were entering various businesses, telling them to close immediately in memory of Dr. KING.

[redacted] advised that he was in this area for approximately two hours, 9:00 p. m. to 11:00 p. m., and during this period saw CARMICHAEL about three or four times. He stated that on each occasion he observed CARMICHAEL from a distance, and could barely hear what CARMICHAEL was saying. He believed that CARMICHAEL was urging the crowd to return to their homes. At no time did he see CARMICHAEL in possession of a gun, and he did not hear anyone, including CARMICHAEL mention guns.

[redacted] stated that during the time he was at 14th and U Streets that night, he observed some looting and damage to property. He believed that feelings of the crowd were running strong because of Dr. KING's death, and that the looting and disturbance were going to increase. He claimed that he left the area at approximately 11:00 p. m.

Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS) News, was interviewed at his office, [redacted] Washington, D.C. [redacted]

[redacted] related that with reference to the CBS coverage of the STOKELY CARMICHAEL news conference at the headquarters of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) on Friday morning, April 5, 1968, he viewed the material which consisted of approximately 500 feet of sound film as soon as it was processed.

[redacted] said he felt the material was too inflammatory for use that day in a television broadcast and so transmitted the material by wire to New York, requesting confirmation of his decision in this regard. He said the people in New York agreed with him that the material should not be used on the CBS news roundup that date. [redacted] stated that on the CBS news roundup featuring WALTER CRONKITE, broadcasted on CBS network, 7:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., there was brief mention by CRONKITE of the CARMICHAEL press conference and CRONKITE used about one or two sentences of CARMICHAEL's remarks. [redacted] stated he does not have a recording of the CRONKITE broadcast but that such material as was used by CRONKITE relating to this press conference would be readily available at New York City Headquarters of CBS. [redacted] stated the CBS news roundup has a regular television audience estimated to range between 17 and 20 million viewers. [redacted] stated that the Friday, April 5, 1968, news coverage of STOKELY CARMICHAEL constituted the last time the Washington, D.C. Bureau of CBS had seen CARMICHAEL. He stated CBS News did not cover CARMICHAEL's subsequent appearance on the afternoon of April 5, 1968, at Howard University.

[redacted] stated CARMICHAEL was introduced by the unknown person, who in a threatening manner announced that Mr. CARMICHAEL was going to have a press conference and would give the news people only five minutes time and there would be no questions. He also made a stern announcement that following the press conference, all members of the press must get out of the premises immediately and take all their equipment, dirt, trash and cigarette butts with them. Thereafter, CARMICHAEL got up to speak but then sat down at the table in front of the microphones and in substance explained the press conference initially had been called to announce their plans to go get RAP BROWN out of jail. CARMICHAEL said the assassination of Dr. KING caused cancellation of the press conference as initially scheduled, but he later rescheduled a press conference to discuss the effects of the death of Dr. KING. CARMICHAEL said it was he (CARMICHAEL) who was out on the street the previous night leading the people.

In substance, according to [redacted] CARMICHAEL related, "This is civil war. The whites against the blacks. Negroes should get their guns. This is the only way they can get their freedom. When the whites killed Dr. KING, they declared war on the blacks."

[redacted] stated the whole air of the press conference was threatening in manner towards the press and he stated he was apprehensive. He recalled after CARMICHAEL's brief dissertation, one reporter asked a question about Governor AGNEW of Maryland and some trouble which had occurred at a small Negro college in Maryland. In response to the inquiry of the reporter, CARMICHAEL replied in substance, "If AGNEW thinks he had trouble, then he should wait until we go there. We'll tear the place up."

[redacted] recalled another reporter, in asking a question relating to the death of Dr. KING, inquired of CARMICHAEL if he was not afraid of also being killed.

Carmichael
Text

'We're Not Afraid...'

'We're Gonna Die for Our People'

This is the transcribed text of nearly all of Stokely Carmichael's press conference here yesterday morning. Brief sections were inaudible and in some instances the exact wording of the speakers were obscure.

Lester McKinnie speaking:

This press conference will be for only five minutes and as soon as the press conference is over you gentlemen will not leave anything in here . . . Your films, your cigarette butts, you take them with you. You waste any water, you will have to clean it up. We will have a few questions . . . To my right, Cleveland Sellers, director of the Orangeburg, S.C., project SNCC. . . Right here, immediately, right, is Stokely Carmichael, who will start here in Washington, D.C., and to my left, Winkie Hail, who is also a member of the staff of Washington. Carmichael will speak to you five minutes.

Carmichael: You may or may not know that this press conference was called before Dr. King's murder. We called it then to deal with Brother Rap Brown because we were very upset. Brother Rap Brown had been in jail for 41 days and Gov. Agnew of Maryland still seems to persist with his nonsensical charges so the Brother can't get out of jail and we want the Brother out of jail next week when he comes to trial.

As for Dr. King's murder, I think white America made its biggest mistake when she killed Dr. King last night because when she killed Dr. King last night, she killed all reasonable hope. When she killed Dr. King last night, she killed the one man of our race that this country's older generations, the militants and the revolutionaries and the masses of black people would still listen to. Even though sometimes he did not agree with them, they would still listen to him.

When white America killed Dr. King she opened the eyes of every black man in this country. When white America got rid of Marcus Garvey, she did it and said he was an extremist, (that) he was crazy. When they got rid of brother Malcolm X, they said he was preaching hate, (that) he deserved what he got.

Then they got rid of Brother Martin Luther King and had absolutely no reason to do so. He was the one man in our race who was trying to teach our people to have love, compassion and mercy for what white people had done. When white America killed Dr. King last night, she declared war on us. There will be no crying and there will be no funeral.

The rebellions that have been occurring around these cities and this country is just light stuff to what is about to happen.

We have to retaliate for the deaths of our leaders. The execution for those deaths will not be in the court rooms. They're going to be in the streets of the United States of America.

The kind of man that killed Dr. King last night made it a whole lot easier for a whole lot of black people today. There no longer needs to be intellectual discussion. Black people know that they have to get guns. White America will live to cry since she killed Dr. King last night. It would have been better if she killed Rap Brown and/or Stokely Carmichael. But when she killed Dr. King, she lost it.

Q. We want a statement from the organization.

McKinnie: We, the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee wish to extend our condolences to the family of the late Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., who was brutally murdered in Memphis, Tenn. This is a lesson which white America has taught us many times before. This lesson was clear in the murder of our four brothers in Orangeburg. This lesson was clear in the murder of the 16-year-old Larry Payne in Memphis. This lesson was clear in the day-to-day torture of black people by white people in America and throughout the world.

It was to end this torture that Dr. King bravely faced death many times—nonviolent. Dr. King was a brother who dedicated his life to liberating his people through nonviolence. Dr. King was a symbol of nonviolence and white Americans shot him down.

Q. Mr. Carmichael don't you believe that the vast majority of Americans feel just as badly as you do about what happened to Dr. King?

Carmichael: The honky from honky Lyndon Johnson to honky Bobby Kennedy will not co-opt Dr. Martin Carmichael (left) and McKinnie at press conference.

Luther King — Dr. Martin Luther King or black people. It was not but four weeks ago when Johnson told King that he if came marching into the District he'd need a voice because he should bring his troubles to him and now tonight he's trying to make as if Dr. King was his hero.

He fooled no one. Bobby Kennedy pulled that trigger just as well as anybody else, because when Dr. King was down south, Bobby Kennedy was Attorney General.

Every time a black person got killed Kennedy wouldn't move because he wanted votes, so he is just as guilty as all of white America who killed Dr. King. And those who feel sorry ought to feel sorry.

Q: Mr. Carmichael what do you intend to do? What action do you intend to take relative to Rap Brown?

Carmichael: We decided at our central committee meeting that if Maryland persists with this nonsensical charge, even though the reports said Rap did not incite any riot in Cambridge—well, then, Gov. Agnew—he ain't seen nothing if he thinks he's done something on that Bowie State thing.

We will take our troops back into Maryland and all of us veterans from Cambridge, Md., and from Baltimore, Md., and we will turn that State inside out and upside down, and we've got Louisiana to get.

We've got some brothers working in Florida. We've got some brothers working in Ohio and we're going to get Richmond, Va.

Q: Mr. Carmichael, what do you think will happen with the Poor People's Campaign?

Carmichael: I understand that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference will carry it on, and as we said before we will be glad to give them any support. Whatever the Southern Christian Leadership Conference asks for today we will give to them, except our tears. We will give no more tears for any black man killed.

Q: Mr. Carmichael, do you see anybody replacing

Dr. King as a nonviolent leader.

Carmichael: NO! That's why America lost when she shot him down last night.

Q: Inaudible.

Carmichael: We're waiting for what the Southern Christian Leadership Conference wants to do.

Q: What do you say to black people who have to die to do what you say?

Carmichael: That they take as many white people with them as they can. We die every day. We die in Vietnam for the honkies. Why don't we come home and die in the streets for our people. We die every day. We die cutting and fighting each other inside our own communities. We cut and fight and kill each other off. Let's kill off the real enemies.

Black people are not afraid to die. We die all the time. We die in your jails. We die in your ghettos. We die in your rat-infested homes. We die a thousand deaths every day. We're not afraid to die, because now we're gonna die for our people.

McKinnie: On Monday our chairman, Rap Brown, will be in Richmond, Va., according to the honky Federal Government. And there will be a car caravan with all directions leading to Richmond, Va., on Monday morning. We're urging all our black brothers and sisters to come to Richmond.

Q: Mr. Carmichael, what's the alternative to this kind of retribution in the streets that you are talking about. Is there any way to stop it?

Carmichael: I don't think so I do not think so. I think white America is incapable of dealing with the problem.

Q: How will Dr. King's death affect the leadership?

Carmichael: Dr. King's death will not affect our leadership. He will affect the black man, for he was my brother, flesh of my flesh and blood of my blood.

You see the mistake they made when they shot Dr. King was even though Dr. King felt about nonviolence, he was always in the streets ready to lead a demonstration.

All the other so-called leaders who talk about non-violence are not on the streets with their people. Many people respected Dr. King, even though they didn't agree with his philosophy, because at least he was in the streets. But now there's really no one else to respect who talks about non-violence. The people who talk about now violence are not in the streets.

Q: Mr. Carmichael, are you declaring war on white America?

Carmichael: White America has declared war on black people. She did so when she stole the first black man from Africa. The black man has been . . . has been patient, has been resisting—and today the final show-town is coming.

That is clear. That is crystal clear. And black people are going to have to find ways to survive. The only way to survive is to get some guns. Because that's the only way white America keeps us in check, because she's got the guns.

Q: What do you see this ultimately leading to? A blood bath in which nobody wins?

Carmichael: First, my name is Mr. Carmichael, and secondly black people will survive the bath. Last question.

Q: What accomplishments or objectives do you visualize from the encounter? What do you think you will accomplish?

Carmichael: The black man can't do nothing in this country. Then we're going to stand up on our feet and die like men. If that's our only act of manhood, then Goddammit we're going to die. We're tired of living on our stomachs.

Q: One last question: Do you fear for your life?

Carmichael: The Hell with my life! You should fear for yours. I know I'm going to die. I know I'm leaving.

(Applause.)

McKinnie: There will be a just fight throughout the United States, so that black brothers and sisters can take off that day as slaves working for the master and think about, realize what the honky is doing to the black people in this country and perhaps then something can be done. That's the end of the press conference.

[redacted] stated that at approximately 1:30 p. m. he observed STOKELY CARMICHAEL walk through the crowd to the speaker's platform. [redacted] recognized CARMICHAEL because he has seen him in person before, and he has seen numerous photographs of CARMICHAEL in the newspapers. [redacted] stated he was standing in front of CARMICHAEL at a distance of about 30-40 feet when CARMICHAEL started to speak. According to [redacted] CARMICHAEL spoke for about 3-4 minutes, telling the crowd to get off the streets and to stay off them. He also said something to the effect that "now is the time" and "anything can happen." CARMICHAEL also talked about Dr. KING's death, and inquired why should KING be killed because he stood for non-violence. CARMICHAEL then stated, "They killed the wrong man," and concluding, stated, "if you don't have a gun, then there's no use coming on the streets." b6 b7C

[redacted] claimed that he did not observe a gun in the possession of CARMICHAEL, but the following Monday at school,

In substance the remarks [] heard CARMICHAEL state were as follows:

The black brothers and sisters were ready but CARMICHAEL didn't specifically say what they were planning to do. He urged the people in the assembled group not to loot and to try to persuade other people not to loot. He indicated that now was the time but didn't indicate what they were planning to do. He wasn't heard by [] to make any mention of guns although he was speaking in a hostile spirit. While he was speaking, [] overheard other men, who were standing in back of CARMICHAEL and whose identities were unknown to JORDAN, to mention that they had guns and were ready; however, they did not further elaborate on these statements.

[redacted] with CARMICHAEL. Some of CARMICHAEL's associates made purchases of small food items and the group departed the store. [redacted] did not recognize any of these individuals as coming from the Wheeler Road area; therefore, he asked a member of CARMICHAEL's party where they came from. The individual replied they all came from another section of Washington, D. C., and were merely looking over the Wheeler Road area. He stated they expected to return to their section of the city later in the day.

[redacted] viewed a photograph of STOKELY CARMICHAEL, [redacted] and identified CARMICHAEL as the individual who was in the store. [redacted] was not able to identify [redacted] as being members of CARMICHAEL's party.

[redacted] stated that [redacted] (phonetic) and [redacted] (phonetic) cashiers, were present at the time CARMICHAEL's party entered the store, he does not think they overheard his exchange with CARMICHAEL. [redacted] informed his employer, Mr. [redacted] of CARMICHAEL's visit to the store.

CARMICHAEL and his group after departing the Food Center walked down to the area of the laundry in the shopping center and for a short period of time CARMICHAEL spoke to a group of neighborhood youths in front of the laundry. [] stated that [] (phonetic) an employee of the store, walked down to the group and was there while CARMICHAEL talked with the group. According to [] upon his return stated CARMICHAEL had said, "We are going to get this area."

[] stated that shoppers were rushing in and out of the store making quick purchases when [] received a telephone call at 3:00 p.m. from an unidentified individual who informed him that "they" had just got the Sears, Roebuck Store and "they" are coming towards the shopping center.

[] stated that neither he nor [] had any idea who "they" were. Since the other stores in the shopping center were closed at this time, [] decided it best to close the Food Center.

[] stated that he and some of the other store employees []

[] Some time later they heard a commotion over towards the shopping center and went to see what was taking place. When they arrived at the shopping center they saw people running with clothing that apparently came from the cleaners. One or more individuals were breaking windows, including the Food Center windows. [] went to a nearby pay phone to call the police, but could not get through. It appeared the lines were dead. [] stated that when he first arrived on the scene, most of the individuals were passively watching the activities, but later joined the looters. [] stated he saw [] along with other looters taking [] recognized some of the looters as coming from the area, but did not know their names.) things from the stores. She said that on April 5, 1968, she went to work at about 9:30 a.m. At about 1:30 p.m., she went to lunch, returning about 2:30 p.m. As she was crossing Wheeler Road, returning from lunch, a Negro male, who she did not know, asked her where she was going. She said she told him that she was going to work at the Food Center. She said the man then told her, "We're burning down all these places today". She said she continued on to the store. She advised she had never seen this man before and could not further describe him. She said she was not familiar with STOKELY CARMICHAEL and when shown a photograph of CARMICHAEL, [redacted] stated she did not recognize any of them. She said, though, that none of these individuals resembled the man who made the comment to her.

When she returned to work, [redacted] advised one of the other employees, [redacted] told her that STOKELY CARMICHAEL had been at the store while she was at lunch. She said that she understood CARMICHAEL and others, how many she does not know, came into the store and asked for something and then left. She said she does not know what he may have said while in the store or outside of it. She believes that [redacted] and another employee, [redacted] were in the store when CARMICHAEL was there, but does not know who else might have been there.

[redacted] advised she was employed by the Wheeler Food Center, 4139 Wheeler Road, S.E., as a cashier and had worked in that capacity on April 5, 1968. Her recollections of that day were vague, she said, due to her preoccupation with thoughts revolving about the death of Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

She recalled that on April 5, 1968, between 12:00 noon and 1:00 p.m. she was working at her cash register and [redacted] was "bagging" groceries for her. She said that after the departure of several Negroes and whites who were strangers to her she was told by [redacted] one of them had said he was from the city (Washington, D.C.) and "There's going to be a mess over here before it ends."

The Federal Bureau of Investigation in Atlanta, Georgia is in possession of information that CARMICHAEL, according to an unconfirmed report, upon arrival in front of the Paschal Motor Hotel, 830 Hunter Street, S. W., Atlanta, Georgia, at about 11:40 p.m. on April 8, 1968, spoke to a crowd stating: "Brother tomorrow night we gonna burn them". Subsequently, at about 10:20 a.m. on April 9, 1968, CARMICHAEL arrived in the vicinity of the Ebenezer Baptist Church, 413 Auburn Avenue, N. E., Atlanta, Georgia, where funeral services for Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. were in progress. As he proceeded in the vicinity of the church and although speaking to no one in particular he repeated time and again "black power, black power" as he held up his hands. After services at the church and while en route to memorial services at Morehouse College for Dr. KING, rumor was that CARMICHAEL had said "Play it cool and after we bury the man, then the riots can start".

Efforts are currently being made to corroborate the above information.

University campus. [] did not relate any unusual incident to him regarding STOKELY CARMICHAEL during his Easter vacation to Chicago.

b7C

[] doubted if his son would truthfully respond to an interview by the FBI concerning an unusual or inflammatory exhibition by STOKELY CARMICHAEL. He thought if [] did observe CARMICHAEL's actions and truthfully reported it to the FBI, he would never testify to it in court on the behalf of the U. S. Government. He said [] is [] at Howard University and, as such, he is recognized as being part of the Howard "power structure" and his performance is approved by both faculty and students, both favoring the current policies of the "in" leadership, which reflect a "black power" position. [] said his son is a "smart, shrewd politician" and would never publicly condemn actions of CARMICHAEL and risk losing his support by the faculty and students by turning against a "brother black power advocate." [] is certain his son does not share the radical, violent views of CARMICHAEL and has never been associated with or a member of SNCC.

b7C

[] said he would call [] and tell him to contact the WFO regarding this matter. He doubts if [] will do as he desires.

It is being left to the discretion of the office of origin whether they desire to cover these leads.

Re AT airtel with LHM, 4/10/68.

Investigation disclosed CARMICHAEL apparently in Atlanta, Georgia, from 4/8 through 4/10/68.

While in Atlanta, it appears CARMICHAEL made a number of inflammatory type statements. On 4/9/68, Atlanta Office advised that Atlanta Police Department reported seeing CARMICHAEL in front of Paschall's Restaurant and Motel accompanied by three or four other unknown individuals.
Members of the Police Department reported that CARMICHAEL stated, "tomorrow night we're gonna' burn". On 4/10/68, Atlanta reported CARMICHAEL arrived in the vicinity of Ebenezer Baptist Church and repeated time and time again
"Black Power" as he held up his hands. After services at church for MARTIN LUTHER KING, rumor was that CARMICHAEL had said "play it cool and after we bury the man, then, the riots can start".

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

b7C [redacted] San Francisco, California, Police Department, advised on April 6, 1968, that he had received information from a reliable source that the Black Students Union at San Francisco State College had received a telegram from Stokely Carmichael on April 5, 1968, with instructions to Black Power affiliates "to hit the streets" that night. [redacted] advised that the source of the information had not actually observed the telegram in question but had obtained the information about the receipt of the telegram from individuals connected with the Black Students Union at San Francisco State College. He stated that he understood from the source that similar telegrams had been sent to all Black Power affiliates apparently in the United States. [redacted] stated conversely the alleged receipt of the telegram from Stokely Carmichael by persons affiliated with the Black Students Union at San Francisco State College could have been made up in an effort to enhance some unidentified person's status. He also stated that the information received was that the message was a telegram; however, he acknowledged it could have been another means of communication instead.

b7C [redacted] continued that about noon Pacific Standard time on April 5, 1968, the day after the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, Stokely Carmichael appeared on television, believed to have originated on the East Coast, and according to [redacted] he urged black men to "hit the streets and to go and retaliate." Subsequently, the program was rebroadcast again during the day.

Stokely Carmichael, former chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, extreme militant black nationalist organization, is scheduled to speak this evening at a meeting in New York City of the Southern Conference Educational Fund, a mixed Negro-white group which was formed as the educational wing of an organization which has been cited as a communist front by a committee of the United States House of Representatives. We have instructions outstanding to all our offices to attempt to tape record Carmichael's speeches whenever this can be done legally and with full security assured.

On the afternoon of 4/24/68 the New York Office telephonically requested authority for an Agent to attend the above-mentioned meeting and to record Carmichael's remarks by means of a concealed tape recorder. New York has indicated this can be done with full security assured.

In view of the time element involved and after checking, New York was authorized to tape record Carmichael's remarks and it was reiterated to New York that this should be done with full security.

TO : The Director

DATE: 4-22-68

FROM : N. P. Callahan

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Pages E3073 and E3080. Congressman Barick, (D) Louisiana, stated "Castro's No. 1 agent for the U. S. theater of action is reconfirmed as that leading civil rights advocate, Stokely Carmichael. But do not give Stokely and Castro all the credit. He has some friends in high places in our Government who must rejoice. . . . Shame on those shortsighted bureaucrats who have brought our country to the brink of fear, battle casualties and chaos here in the United States. He included an article from the Washington Evening Star written by Jeremiah O'Leary entitled "Cubans Quote Carmichael On Urban Warfare." This article stated "Carmichael's activities in Washington the night King was killed are already under federal and Washington police investigation to determine if his statements warrant prosecution under anti-riot laws." Mr. Barick also commented on a statement made by Sargent Pitcher, Jr., district attorney for the Parish of East Baton Rouge, Louisiana, during the recent threatened insurrections. He placed Mr. Pitcher's statement in the Record. Mr. Pitcher stated "Make no mistake about my position. To me a thief is a thief, and a murderer a murderer, regardless of what inspires or motivates the crime. Thus far, we have been fortunate in the responsible leadership in this parish being able to maintain relative tranquillity, but to those few who would take the law into their own hands, let me assure them at this time that their apprehension and prosecution will be swift and certain. We will not tolerate anarchy in this parish." Mr. Barick added "I trust Mr. Pitcher's remarks will inspire our dedicated law enforcement officials to speak forth and reassure the great majority of our fellow countrymen that, despite what the internationalized communications jumpers and howlers may cry and espouse, our country is not about to be turned over to the criminal element."

Dear [REDACTED]

In reply to your letter of April 17th, the FBI, at the request of the Attorney General, has been and is investigating the activities of Stokely Carmichael. As a matter of policy, we notify local law enforcement authorities of his presence in their area, and this was done when he traveled to Baltimore. Since data in FBI files is confidential pursuant to regulations of the Department of Justice, no information as to the purpose of his visit was disseminated except to appropriate law enforcement and intelligence authorities.

While I can certainly understand your concern, the confidential nature of our files makes it impossible for me to answer your specific inquiries.

I want to assure you, however, that the results of our investigation of Carmichael and others are promptly disseminated to the Attorney General for prosecutive consideration.

Sincerely yours, [REDACTED]

NOTE: Bufiles contain no record identifiable with correspondent. Our files contain no derogatory information regarding Governor Agnew. On 4-18-68 ASAC Charles D. Chapman, Baltimore Office, advised that the information regarding the whereabouts of Carmichael was disseminated to law enforcement agencies in Baltimore but that the Baltimore Office definitely furnished no such information to Governor Agnew or his aides. Carmichael was in Baltimore on April 3rd; however, there is no indication he met with any group regarding the riots. Our relations with The Evening Sun have been cordial.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Since the end of the Baltimore riot a week ago, several public officials and officeholders have directly stated or implied that the troubles were "controlled," "organized" or "influenced" by outside agitators.

In fact, Governor Spiro T. Agnew, addressing newsmen April 11, flatly stated that Stokely Carmichael met with known criminals and civil rights militants on a visit to Baltimore prior to to start of civil disorders. The Governor quoted Carmichael as telling some of them that "black power comes from guns" and that "Bobby Kennedy is the last white hope this country has."

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 4/27/68

Stokely Carmichael, former chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, has been in the New York-Newark area for the past several days. Attached relates to a speech given by Carmichael at a Newark, New Jersey, high school on 4/26/68. According to a racial source, he broke an agreement and made several inflammatory remarks, such as encouraging people to secure guns and burn out local white merchants.

This will be furnished pertinent divisions of the Department and the military.

RE: STOKELY CARMICHAEL
INTERNAL SECURITY - MISCELLANEOUS
SEDITION

On April 25, 1968, [redacted] an individual acquainted with certain phases of both pro and anti-FIDEL CASTRO activities in Cuba and the United States, furnished the following information:

b2
b7D

An article appeared in the April 23, 1968 issue of "Granma", official organ of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Cuba (CPC), Havana, Cuba, as follows:

CARMICHAEL will Travel to Uruguay

United States Negro leader STOKELY CARMICHAEL will soon go to Uruguay, accompanying his wife MIRIAM MAKEEBA, who is making an entertainment tour throughout Latin America. She is the originator of the new musical rhythm "El Pata-Pata" and reportedly has been hired by various radio and TV stations in Latin America.

The article stated the military regime of General JUAN CARLOS ONGANIA of Argentina had forbidden CARMICHAEL to enter the country of Argentina, "so Uruguay will be the last country to be visited by the United States Negro leader".

This same announcement was broadcast over Radio Liberacion and Radio Havana, Cuba, on April 24, 1968.

[redacted] stated that no specific date for this travel of STOKELY CARMICHAEL [redacted] was mentioned.

WFO

Since that time, [] has furnished additional information (to the WFO and New York offices) concerning his and CARMICHAEL's attendance at the Conference of the NBARADU which was held in NYC during the weekend of 4/12-14/68. The details of the information furnished by [] concerning this conference will be set out hereinafter.

b7C
b7D

BACKGROUND AND PERSONAL HISTORY

The following information was taken from a psychiatric study of [] which was made by the U. S. Bureau of Prisons in 6/64, at the time he was last incarcerated. It should be pointed out that in the Bureau of Prisons summary the comment is made that since his first commitment at age seven, [] has never been out of confinement longer than six months at any one time.

[] is the only child of the union of [] and [] and never were married. He has on numerous occasions described himself as a "bastard" and a "half-breed." Official Agency reports in Staten Island indicate that [] was born on [] but in the year [] and lists him as a member of the white race. His parents are given as [] in WDC in approximately 1933, and [] is described variously as white, negro, and of Puerto Rican extraction. Another report gives his mother as [] a native of South River, New Jersey, who was employed [] As far as can be ascertained, [] has no brothers or sisters and he indicates his only relative is [] who resides in [] New Jersey.

[] claims that he has been knocked about from pillar to post all of his life and has never had any familial affection. It should be noted that during his recent contacts with WFO, he has indicated that for the first time in his life, he is experiencing a love for another human being, []

b7C
b7D

[] has advised interviewing Agents that at the present time, []

b7C b7Db7C
b7D

During his recent contact with WFO Agents, [] stated that he is motivated in his present endeavor with the FBI by his desire to save many "young black people from being killed in the streets." He has also indicated very definitely that he will expect financial remuneration for all services rendered to the FBI.

b7C
b7D

ASSOCIATION WITH STOKELY CARMICHAEL AND THE SNCC IN
IN WASHINGTON, D. C.

During the interview of 4/10/68, [] stated he arrived in WDC on Friday, 4/5/68, after having called STOKELY CARMICHAEL earlier that week from [] was living. He has known CARMICHAEL for about 14 years (since about 1951) when CARMICHAEL was residing in the Bronx, NYC. [] stated he was living at [] and he believes CARMICHAEL lived at [] NYC, []

b7C

Upon his arrival at Washington National Airport on 4/5/68, he took a taxicab to the Dunbar Hotel (exact address unknown). He was met at the Dunbar Hotel by CARMICHAEL and two other negro males and was driven to within three blocks of the Pitts Hotel, where he was advised that he should register. He registered at the Pitts Hotel in Room [redacted]

Before the time of curfew, he was picked up at the Pitts Hotel by an individual whom he has come to know as [redacted]. [redacted] was driving what appeared to be a Dodge, black and red in color, with a burnt area on the trunk. He was driven to SNCC Headquarters where he remained for the remainder of the night. Most of the members, however, left the SNCC office and went out on the street where the disturbance was taking place. CARMICHAEL was on the street with the other members. [redacted] stated he stayed at the SNCC office for the next two nights (Saturday and Sunday). From time to time, he has observed individuals, approximately seven in number, enter the office with pistols. He is unable to identify these individuals.

b7C

[redacted]

He stated that while he had been in the office, approximately three telephone calls were made from Cuba to the SNCC office for CARMICHAEL. During one of these calls, he heard CARMICHAEL say, "the revolution is on." He stated that prior to this call, there was a message from a (FNU) [redacted] on the bulletin board, advising CARMICHAEL to call Cuba immediately.

b7C
b7D

He stated that on Tuesday, 4/9/68, four telegrams addressed to STOKELY CARMICHAEL arrived at the SNCC office from Cuba and that he signed for one of them. The contents of these telegrams are unknown to him. He further stated that on Wednesday, 4/10/68, three checks were received in the SNCC office. He was unable to describe one of the checks but he gave the following descriptions of the other two:

- (1) A check made payable to STOKELY CARMICHAEL in the amount of $1500 (source of check unknown).

- (2) A check made payable to STOKELY CARMICHAEL in the amount of $500. bearing the name of [REDACTED] (phonetic), [REDACTED] was unable to recall the city and state but believes it was abbreviated as "Mo." or "Md.")

b7C
b7D

[REDACTED] has stated that the other individuals in the SNCC office have accepted him only because of the warm greeting he had received from CARMICHAEL on 4/5/68.

ACTIVITIES IN NYC AT THE CONFERENCE OF THE NEANADU DURING WEEKEND OF 4/12-14/68

(It should be noted that on every occasion [REDACTED] has been contacted by WFO Agents, he appeared to have been drinking alcoholic beverages. During the lengthy interview which took place on 4/15/68, [REDACTED] indicated that while in NYC, he had been "partying" and "walking all over New York" trying to locate old acquaintances. It is felt that as a consequence, he has been unable to recall on what specific days the various meetings took place, the names of individuals, most of whom he encountered for the first time. Furthermore, it is speculated by the interviewing Agent that because of his long history of confinement, [REDACTED] was probably preoccupied with having a good time, and he paid no attention to specific details or what actually went on at these conferences.)

b7D

Concerning the conference, [REDACTED] stated that during the speeches which were made by CARMICHAEL and others in the main hall, he estimated the crowd to number close to 1500. He stated that he was given the position of [REDACTED] for CARMICHAEL during the conference and he carried [REDACTED] [REDACTED] previously mentioned in this communication, while he was in attendance at these conferences.

7
b7D

[REDACTED] stated that as a result of this situation, he has been accepted to a greater extent by several persons who are close to CARMICHAEL.

WFO

[] stated that in addition to the main speeches which were made, "regional cadres" met in various rooms in the Diplomat Hotel and held general discussions concerning their plans for guerrilla revolutionary action and techniques to disrupt the U. S. He stated that from time to time he, CARMICHAEL, and other leaders, would individually and sometimes collectively, visit these "cadres" and sit in on their discussions, and offer suggestions and encouragement.

[] also stated that on one occasion during the weekend (and he cannot recall on which day), a special meeting was held in the apartment of (FNU) [] (phonetic), [] NYC, near [] telephone [] which was attended by STOKELY CARMICHAEL, [] (FNU) [] (FNU) [] (phonetic), [] and several other leaders from the various groups which were in attendance at the aforementioned conference. [] states that he considered these other individuals, whose names he cannot recall, to be leaders because at most of the "regional cadres", he seems to recall that they appeared to be the leaders of the discussions.

(When interviewed on 4/18/68, [] advised that on 4/17/68, he observed a slip of paper in the SNCC office which reflected that (FNU) [] mentioned above, is [] whose apartment is on the [] floor, Apartment []

[] stated that at the address [] he visited two different apartments, one on the [] floor and one on the [] floor. When he was interviewed on 4/15/68, he was unable to recall which of the two apartments the meeting was actually held in. He stated, however, that the apartment in which the meeting took place was littered with photographs, literature and posters depicting various slogans and organizations associated with []

[] stated that at the special meeting many proposed disruptive tactics and plans of action were discussed freely among all present. In response to specific questions concerning which individuals at the meetings actually made the various statements or initiated the different topics of discussion, [] replied that he is unable to recall exactly who led the discussions from topic to topic. He states that, to the best of his recollection, the different topics were simply mentioned by one of the individuals and everyone made whatever comment he had to offer concerning it.

According to [] the following items were discussed at the special meeting:

- (1) The preparation of smoke bombs made from a mixture of sulphur and sulphuric acid. It was mentioned that these bombs in addition to causing thick smoke, also cause a choking sensation to anyone who inhales the fumes. It was mentioned that they could be used in possible bank robberies, as well as in causing chaos in highly populated areas. During the discussion, someone mentioned that [] a high school student in WDC, who was also in attendance at the conference, but not at the special meeting, would handle the making of these bombs since he had some knowledge of the chemical ingredients which were necessary.

INERT.

b7C

b7D

- (2) Throwing dynamite on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange to cause chaos on Wall Street. [] stated that he seems to recall that someone who mentioned this specific item also said something about having been employed, or knowing someone who had been employed at the New York Stock Exchange.

b7C

b7D

- (3) Placing dynamite in the Empire State Building.

- (4) Destroying the electrical circuits in NYC thereby causing another "blackout" situation on the eastern seaboard of the U. S.

[] stated that he is of the opinion that all, or most of the plans for violent disruptive action have originated with [] whom he described as the individual who attempted to destroy [] a few years ago. He stated that he feels he understands the mind of [] because they spent some time together in [] Pennsylvania. He stated that [] Has always been a strong revolutionary who espoused the views of MAO TSE-TUNG and GUEVERA. [] believes that [] is probably insane because of his preoccupation with discussing acts of violence. [] also believes that in this respect, STOKELY CARMICHAEL takes orders from [] because he does not feel that CARMICHAEL is capable of planning the disruptive acts which were discussed at the special meeting.

b7C

[] stated that the group also discussed possible retaliatory measures for the murder of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING. He stated that he recalls that the names of RICHARD NIXON, RONALD REAGAN and GEORGE WALLACE were mentioned as possible targets in this connection. [] stated that no definite plans were made concerning this.

[] stated that in his opinion much of the talk concerning these acts of violence represented nothing more than the careless boasting of young men who quite possibly may have been under the influence of alcohol. He stated, however, that their statements could not be discounted in view of the fact that men such as [] and STOKELY CARMICHAEL had participated.

[] stated that [] emphasized to the group that CASTRO had overthrown Cuba "with only nine men". [] stated that the group at one point considered very humorous the statements of WHITNEY YOUNG of the Urban League who said that CARMICHAEL had only 50 followers. [] was very impressed by the number of persons who did attend the conference and he has continually stated that he is of the opinion that CARMICHAEL does have a large following, spread across the U. S., and the backing of CASTRO and the Cuban Government.

[] stated that throughout the special meeting, it was generally agreed by everyone that any disruptive acts which would take place, should take place within a month or two and that they should be simultaneous and nationwide.

During the interview of [] on 4/15/68, it was noted that he continually referred to various individuals as "that dude" or "this dude", and was unable to recall names, or furnish identifiable descriptions. He stated, however, that during his visits to the "regional cadres", he had on occasion approached the various individuals and asked them to write their names and addresses on a piece of paper for him for future contact purposes. [] cannot recall how many names he acquired in this manner but he stated he furnished this information to Agents of the NYO of the FBI.

WFO

[redacted] was contacted on the morning of 4/19/68, at which time he informed SAs [redacted] that he suspected there is a bit of animosity between CARMICHAEL and [redacted] the latter being the ostensible head of SNCC in WDC. He said that [redacted] buttonholed him within the past couple of days and inquired of [redacted] as to the events which transpired in NYC. It was apparent that [redacted] had been told by unnamed individual (s ?) about certain of the happenings in NYC. In the ensuing conversation between [redacted] certain information supplied by [redacted] refreshed [redacted] memory, thus allowing him to elaborate on [redacted] previous story concerning the special meeting at [redacted]

b7C
b7D

[redacted] stated that he is now of the opinion that the special meeting took place on Sunday, 4/14/68, from approximately 6:00 PM to 9:00 PM, at the apartment of one [redacted] (phonetic), which is located on the [redacted] floor at [redacted] W.F.O.

b7C
b7D

He also stated that [redacted] was apparently in attendance at the special meeting. He stated that during the weekend he had visited [redacted]'s apartment which is on the [redacted] floor; that he had described [redacted] apartment correctly when interviewed earlier; and that [redacted] apartment, to the best of his recollection, is identical, including the Cuban-type posters and literature. W.F.O.

OBSERVATIONS AND LEADS

On the basis of information set forth heretofore, it appears that [] is in a position to be of assistance to the FBI. His credibility and bona fides need to be corroborated. A [] confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Stokely Carmichael did not arrive at the meeting until approximately 8:40 p.m. As soon as he assumed the chair, he called upon a young Negro male, whose name was not given but was a high school student and a member of the Black Student Union (BSU). This young man advised that the BSU is planning to celebrate May 19 and May 20, 1968, as Malcom X Days and the BSU is preparing a letter which will be sent to the District of Columbia School Board requesting that May 20, 1968, be made a school holiday. This young man requested that the BUF support the BSU in this regard and endorse the proposed letter. This young man also advised that the BSU is applying for a permit for the use of Bannaker Playground commencing at 9:00 a.m., the morning of May 20, 1968. After holding this rally at the playground, the BSU proposes to hold seminars and work shops and requested help from the BUF in obtaining permission from one of the local churches in the area to make space available for this project. Source advised that no final action was taken by the BUF in regard to the above request.

b7C

This source further advised that [] then announced that on May 30 and 31, 1968, the grand opening of the Drum and Spear Bookshop located in the 2700 block of 14th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., will be held. He described the bookshop as a project of the New School for Afro-American Thought and stated he hopes to have [] (phonetic) and [] present if at all possible. [] advised he hopes to obtain permission to rope off 14th Street, N.W., from about Florida Avenue to Fairmont Street, N.W., in order to stage a parade and show in the middle of the street. He stated in this regard that he needs money for the project and requested that any persons present who are heads of organizations sign a request which he stated he would present to proper authorities in order to obtain permission to go ahead with the above plans.

This source further advised that [] then was recognized by Stokely Carmichael and advised those present that the main topic of discussion at this meeting was the rebuilding of those areas in Washington which had been b7C [redacted] burned out during the recent riots. Source stated that one [redacted] (phonetic) inquired of [redacted] at this point if Stokely Carmichael and [redacted] were rehearsing things prior to the meeting. [redacted] stated that [redacted] apparently acts on a cue at such meetings. [redacted] and Carmichael exchanged a few words and then denied the accusation.

b7C Many speakers then talked about how to get started on rebuilding the riot torn areas, and [redacted] made a motion that BUF should request city officials including the Mayor and members of the City Council, the head of the Redevelopment Land Association, and others in authority, that a moratorium should be declared on all planning and building in the burned out areas of Washington until such time as a comprehensive plan had been developed.

This source further advised that [redacted] was then recognized and suggested that the above motion be reworded to state "rebuilding" instead of building. [redacted] accepted this change in his motion.

b7C [redacted] was then recognized and suggested that the above motion be reworded to specifically show that it applied only to riot torn areas and [redacted] also agreed to this. According to the source, [redacted] then suggested the motion be amended to state that the moratorium should apply to negotiations on rebuilding and [redacted] stated the motion should include a statement that the moratorium should stop payment of losses by the Small Business Administration to riot torn areas. [redacted] accepted both of the above changes and the motion as amended was passed by a majority vote.

According to the source, ways of enforcing the above motion were then brought up and it was agreed that a telegram should be sent to Mayor Walter E. Washington and all other city officials on either Wednesday, May 1 or Thursday, May 2, 1968, informing Mayor Washington and other officials of the above-mentioned BUF motion and requesting that all officials adhere to it. It was further agreed that after the telegram had been sent, a press conference should be called at which time the moratorium should be announced publicly. In regard to enforcement, if officials choose to ignore the request for a moratorium, an unidentified individual suggested that people in the street might enforce it. Stokely Carmichael then said that the street has been enforcing everything else but now might be the proper time for the BUF to start controlling the street. He stated if this was not done and burning started again, houses might be burned instead of stores. This subject was then dropped.

According to source, an unidentified Negro male then stated the city might begin to play politics and check into the membership of BUF. This individual stated he felt if this happened, and the city officials determined that the BUF membership was no more than 100 persons and that the BUF did not have the support of people who reside in the burned out neighborhood, city officials would simply by-pass BUF. Stokely Carmichael stated it was his opinion that this is the time the BUF has to take a calculated risk and find out who is willing to support the BUF and just what individuals are afraid to take a risk, even if it means that someone would have to be indicted and go to jail. Carmichael stated this is part of the risk and he and some others are prepared to take this risk.

Source advised that another unidentified Negro male then made a motion that a committee be appointed to work out a comprehensive program for rebuilding the burned out areas of Washington. This motion was adopted and [redacted] [redacted] was named [redacted] of the committee. [redacted] and 13 other persons were also appointed to this committee. It was further agreed that in addition to the 17 persons on the committee, all members of the BUF would be subject to call by the committee for advice.

According to the source, a committee was then appointed to set up a press conference regarding the above moratorium and [redacted] of SNCC and one person from each organization represented on the BUF was appointed to this committee.

b7C Source further advised that [] then stated he had learned that the United States District Attorney has subpoenaed all television film taken during the riots in order to show this film to the Grand Jury. He stated that he and three other people have protested to Mayor Walter E. Washington concerning this and have asked the Mayor to have the United States District Attorney withdraw the subpoena since he was of the opinion that some people on the film might possibly be recognized and indictments procured against them. At this point, [] stated he did not think anyone could be indicted on the basis of such pictures alone but remarked if the pictures show a person looting, it might be possible to obtain a search warrant and if stolen material was then found in an individual's home, that individual might be indicted by the Grand Jury. According to source, [] then suggested that everyone present spread the word that the Grand Jury will be reviewing television film of the riots and that if anyone believes his picture was taken, he should get rid of any loot he has at once.

b7D A [] confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, stated that during the discussion on rebuilding the riot torn areas of the city, [] gained the floor and in apparent reference to the events in early April, said "You know a lot of us--some of us--got out and acted, then there are those who did not burn". This was followed by laughter. [] then stated, "We are trying to get those who did act to join in the rebuilding plan and get suggestions from them. BUF will be open to suggestions from anyone with good plans for rebuilding."

Carmichael then asked, according to the [] confidential source, if anyone would like to make a suggestion either as an individual or on behalf of an organization. One unidentified Negro male then gained the floor and suggested building high rise, low rent apartments, with stores and commercial areas located on the first floor so that there would be an incentive for businessmen to operate a variety of businesses. He said if this could be done, with plenty of good business opportunities available, there would be no incentive for any further burning in the ghetto areas. This individual further remarked that it was impossible to ignore white investors or the backing of white people as it simply would not be good business to ignore this segment of the community. Another individual then advised that one obstacle in the rebuilding in the areas would undoubtedly be the extremely high cost of insurance.

b7C The source further advised that announcements were passed out at this meeting with reference to the appearance of [] in the Court of General Sessions [] asking that those present support [] who was arrested in the vicinity of 14th and U Streets recently on a narcotics charge. According to source, the leaflets passed out made reference to the dangerous honky gestapo cop who arrested []

b7D A [] confidential informant, who has furnished reliable information in the past, and who was present at this meeting, advised that at one point Carmichael became impatient with a speaker who stated that he feared another wave of burning might hit the city. According to the source, the speaker was objecting to the fact that sites were being cleared by the ABC Wrecking Company and that they would not desist in this operation. Source advised Carmichael stated that random burning was not effective.

Source advised that Carmichael closed the meeting shortly before 11:00 p.m. by stating that any and all proposals for the rebuilding of the city by members of BUF would be given careful consideration. He announced that the next meeting of the BUF would take place on May 22, 1968, at the New School for Afro-American Thought at 8:00 p.m. that evening.

[REDACTED]

He advised that the purpose of the meeting was to discuss what was to be done about [REDACTED]. According to the informant, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] for the purpose of organizing The Young Men's Progressive Committee. It was brought out at the meeting that [REDACTED] could not be accounted for by [REDACTED] and it was the belief of those present that [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] made a motion to vote on whether or not to allow [REDACTED] to continue as a member of The Young Men's Progressive Committee. A vote was taken, and [REDACTED] was ousted from the organization. [REDACTED] left the meeting and stated he would form his own group. It was further suggested by [REDACTED] this organization, that the name of the organization be changed to The Young Men Freedom Movement. This was agreed upon.

It was learned at this meeting that [REDACTED] who is a representative of SNCC, has been in contact with STOKELY CARMICHAEL and calls him by the nickname "SAM". She stated she was responsible for getting STOKELY CARMICHAEL to come to the Beulah Baptist Church on 3/14/68.

At this meeting a rough draft of a leaflet to be printed and distributed by The Young Men Freedom Movement was prepared by [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] furnished a rough draft of the proposed leaflet, which reads as follows:

"April 4, 1968 will be a day for every black Negro to remember, on this day MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. was shot down by an assassin's bullet.

"The white man had committed another murder to prove to the black man and woman that the establishment is still in control. The lone gunman did not kill Dr. KING that night in Memphis, but he had the backing of a million people.

MO 105-772

"A letter on the editorial page in the Birmingham News, from a white lady, supported the killer when she said in writing, 'It's good Dr. KING is dead, but I would like to say to you, my friend, did the shot that rang out open your eyes?'

"Have you ever wondered why it is so hard for some schools to teach Negro history. There are a lot of white people who think and act like white men.

"The American Indians, the true founder of this country, have been saying for years the white men speaks with forked tongue. The true American Negro have been denied from our history books. Do you know that actually nearly 200,000 black soldiers died during the Civil War? Do you know that a black man was among the first to set foot upon the North Pole? Do you know that during Columbus's discovery of the New World that a black man shouted out, Master, I see land?

"Think of the feats of GEORGE WASHINGTON CARVER; the wonders he did with the peanut. If he had been a white man like Dr. ALBERT EINSTEIN, he would have been called a genius.

"Wake up, my black brothers, and see the light because the white man still has most of you blind.

"What other crime does he have to do - kill every black man in America? Black soldiers are dying every day in Vietnam for the freedom of the country, but in their freedom they have been long overdue.

"It is high time for all black men to organize to live up to their heritage or go back to being slaves.

"My brothers, in order to become free we must seek it ourselves by all possible means, so consider this pamphlet and ask yourself, Do I want to participate or do I still want to be unfree.

This recommends we obtain the Federal income as well as the Federal income tax returns for [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, (SNCC).

BACKGROUND:

Stokely Carmichael was born in Port of Spain, Trinidad, West Indies, but is a United States citizen through his father's naturalization. He has been a dominant figure in SNCC since 1966 and served as its chairman from May, 1966, to May, 1967. He popularized the term "black power" which to him signifies "bringing this country to its knees" and "using any force necessary" to attain Negro goals. He has traveled throughout the country making highly inflammatory speeches on college campuses and elsewhere advocating guerrilla warfare and urging Negroes in this country to prepare for a bloody revolution.

Both of these individuals charged large fees as speakers. In the case of Carmichael, he reportedly gave many speeches during 1966-67 charging a fee ranging from $1,000 to $1,800.

It is felt that a review of Carmichael's and [REDACTED] income tax returns might reveal violations of the law.

[redacted] who has furnished insufficient information to establish his reliability, furnished the following information:

He has known Stokely Carmichael for a long time, and on the night Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was killed in Memphis, Tennessee, this source left his hotel and went to the vicinity of 14th and U Streets in Washington, D.C., where the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) had headquarters for the "Poor Peoples March." The source said that while en route he heard of Dr. King's death, and when he arrived at the SCLC office Carmichael was there and had just heard of King's death. He said Carmichael was in a condition of complete shock, as were all the others present. He said that Carmichael's reactions, both on this occasion and other occasions when he has been with him, were that of a person very much dedicated to the black man's cause, but that they have been completely normal reactions when considered in the light of Carmichael's convictions.

b2
b7D

[redacted] digressed from Carmichael at this point to mention that this was not the case with [redacted]. He stated he regards [redacted] as "crazy."

[redacted] said he saw Stokely Carmichael again on the day King was buried in Atlanta, April 9, 1968, and that following the funeral of King he attended a meeting in Apartment [redacted] in Atlanta, which meeting was held mainly for the purpose of talking to Carmichael and finding out what he intended to do following the death of King.

In conversation with Carmichael at this meeting, this source was told by Carmichael that "money is no problem to me, I could make all the money I want simply by working for one political group or another, but this is not what I would want to do." At this point, the source stated there were three main forces to be considered in determining Carmichael's motivation, and they are:

ENCLOSURE

100-446080-1513

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

- (1) Love of one's brother
- (2) A desire to make every Negro a black man
- (3) Total commitment

b7D [] stated that concerning number one above he has talked to Carmichael about this very subject and that Carmichael's feeling is that love of one's brother does include all men, and that Carmichael has remarked to him, "You can love one without liking him." The source stated that Carmichael has told him he feels the Negro is in an oppressed position and that the Negro must obtain his stature in society first before he can enter into a full relationship of love with the white man.

[] noted that Carmichael used the phrase "If they put their hands on me" quite frequently, and said that in talking with Carmichael he has learned that this phrase to Carmichael has a real meaning that his person must be respected equally as much as a white person, and that if his person was violated in any way he would have to resort to violence in defense of his ideals.

b7D In regard to number two above, [] stated that Carmichael's feelings are that every Negro in America must come to feel that in relation to his contacts with others he should give no consideration at all to the color of his skin, but should feel completely equal and should demand that the whites or others accord him absolute equality even in the processes of their thought, if they intend to have the confidence and love of the black man.

[] stated, in regard to number three above, that Stokely feels the Negro has to become an integral part of American society in every phase of life. He said for example that the 18 million black people in America had to have the same weight in guiding society that any other group of 18 million people would have. This meant that the black man would have to be represented on boards of directors, school boards, city councils, and so forth, in direct proportion to their number, and that until then total commitment would not have been accomplished.

b7D [] said that when Carmichael talks about "freedom now", he means that all the various shackles which hold the Negro would have to be removed now, and not that there has to be some miraculous change in the personal welfare of each Negro. He stated that some of this talk is directed to the Negro himself, in that Carmichael means that the Negro must develop the mental attitude of a free man. He said in talks with Carmichael he has learned Carmichael admits that there will be, as far into the future as any of us can see, certain mental shackles in the minds of both black and white men that will be a hindrance to bringing about full commitment, but that freedom now means that all the artificial shackles must be removed now.

This source commented that in his talks with Carmichael on the day King was buried, he got the impression Carmichael is becoming a very tired revolutionary at an early age. He pointed out that Carmichael is middle-class, not ghetto.

b7D [] said that when the conference got under way, Carmichael was asked what he planned to do in the immediate future, and Carmichael replied that he would support Reverend Ralph Abernathy as the new head of the SCLC. He noted that Carmichael has, to his knowledge, never opposed the black man directly, and that he would be very much surprised if Carmichael would make a play for power which would handicap the work of other black peoples organizations.

b7D [] stated that Carmichael has had many white friends in the past, and that he has on occasion dated white women. For this reason, [] does not feel that Carmichael could ever support a complete separatist theory.

The source stated that he feels sure Carmichael's energies could be channeled quite easily into constructive fields, if the proper approach was made. He stated that first one should review the manner in which King came to a position of prominence in the black community.

b7D [] pointed out that King was reluctant to support the bus boycott in Montgomery, Alabama, several years ago, and that it was only after urging by many people who knew him and after considerable delay that he finally decided to support the boycott. He pointed out that the history of King's development was one of his responding to the urgings of the crowd, or to put it another way to the needs of his people. He said King did not start off with a set plan as to what he was going to accomplish.

b7D [] said that Carmichael resembles King in his persuasive manner of speech, intellectual bent, and desire for leadership; however, Carmichael has one trait which the source felt King lacked, and that is a genius for organization.

[] again stressed the idea that King's development was one of chance and that the opportunities open to him indicated the direction which he would move. The source said that one thing which should be remembered about both King and Carmichael was that they both must lead, but that if Carmichael was given the opportunity to lead it would not matter too much what the direction was, as long as it resulted in bettering the lot of the black man.

b7D [] stated that in his opinion the proper way to handle Carmichael would be to get him involved in a philanthropically financed project which would captivate his mind and tie him up in administrative details, and then place persons close to him who could gradually move him in whatever direction would benefit those who were manipulating him.

[] stated that if he were working for a philanthropic group and had enough latitude to request that Carmichael submit a detailed plan of some program which he would like to head up for the purpose of benefiting the black man, he feels sure that Carmichael would take the bait and would offer a constructive program. He said that he would then surround Carmichael with individuals whose purpose it would be to guide him, and at the same time use his organizational ability and his persuasiveness with ghetto Negroes in order to carry out a constructive plan.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

[] was asked at this point if, in the light of some of the extreme anti-American statements Carmichael had made, he did not think Carmichael would be uncontrollable. He insisted that the statements, such as the one Carmichael made while in Hanoi about wishing America would be defeated in the Vietnam war, were calculated statements made to galvanize the following Carmichael has, and that he does not actually believe Carmichael would want a defeat of the United States.

[] stated he does not believe for several reasons that Carmichael would ever become committed to world communism as a cause. He said that for one thing Carmichael returned to this country broke, and he said he believes Carmichael was actually broke when he returned.

Secondly, source stated that he has talked on many occasions with Carmichael about communism, and that he can recall some actual quotes of Carmichael, such as: "Communism may be okay for some white nations, but it is no good for black men in America. What we want is a part of this system. We are capitalists and we need to work within the capitalistic structure." "Communism is a system of exploitation in which the peasants are exploited from the top by government people."

[] said that Carmichael always couples the second statement above with a statement to the effect that what needs to be done is that all exploitation must be stopped.

[] said that finally he would conclude that Carmichael would not be a communist for a very practical reason, and that would be that Carmichael realizes that if he attempted to be a leader of a communist movement in this country, he would be dead, and the source said he has often heard Carmichael remark that a corpse cannot lead.

Inquiry on 4/29/68, at [redacted] an apartment complex for Negro tenants, developed that [redacted] was confined in a hospital and unavailable for interview. A Negro mail carrier serving those addresses informed on 4/29/68, that he recalled [redacted] as a tenant at [redacted] who left Kansas City several weeks ago, leaving no forwarding address. One [redacted] an acquaintance of [redacted] moved several months ago from the apartments to an unknown address. Shortly after [redacted] left Kansas City, a girl friend, possibly white, from New York, picked up a television set at [redacted] apartment. The mail carrier had no additional information.

b7C

Reference is made to Washington Field letter 4/26/68 (WFO file 157-0) to Kansas City (KC file [redacted] captioned [redacted] RM (OO: KANSAS CITY)," based on information furnished by [redacted] to FBI Agents in Washington, D. C.

b7C

The non-specific generalities in that letter, attributed to [redacted] appear questionable for the following reasons:

b7C

Based on intensive inquiry in Kansas City, Kansas, 4/30/68, the [redacted] if one exists, is apparently [redacted] a Negro juvenile, age 16, residence [redacted] Kansas City, Kansas, who has been arrested several times by the Kansas City, Kansas, Police Department Youth Bureau, and supervised by Juvenile Court. He was carrying a "cap" pistol 11/4/67.

b7C

Since [redacted] was released from the U. S. Penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kansas, in June, 1967, and under supervision of the U. S. Probation Office, Kansas City, Kansas, until December, 1967, it is difficult to understand how he heard a rumor "in the street" while at Leavenworth that [redacted] had bought rifles from an unknown white male stolen from Gateway Sporting Goods Company, Kansas City, Missouri, in late 1967. (The burglary was actually of a main warehouse over Christmas holidays, 1967--the taking of numerous weapons, rifles and stock was publicized in the news.) The Kansas City Division conducted intensive investigation of this burglary b7C (KC file [redacted] The burglary was undoubtedly committed by white male adults who sold many weapons recovered at Columbia, Missouri, for $5,000, subjects undoubtedly being the fences which are pending state prosecution. Although all rifles were not recovered, it appears highly unlikely any were sold to a Negro juvenile in Kansas City, Kansas, when markets were readily available for valuable weapons at a lower but still "good" price. In any event, it is anticipated [redacted] will be interviewed in Kansas City file [redacted] Any pertinent developments will be notified to Washington Field in instant matter.

b7C It is noted [redacted] does not connect [redacted] with SNCC--only that [redacted] heard at the same time he heard about [redacted] there was a rumor a SNCC group was under development in Kansas City, Kansas. For the information of Washington Field, the only specific rumor and/or indication of a SNCC group in the Kansas City Division followed appearance of a news item 3/31/68, that a representative of SNCC was at an "open house" at a new Kansas City, Kansas, Police store-front center. This article was based on one [redacted] wearing a SNCC lettered jacket. Numerous sources, including knowledgeable Kansas City, Kansas, Negro police officials, doubt [redacted] claim that a SNCC group exists in Kansas City, Kansas, as [redacted] is a known "liar" and publicity seeker. Current inquiry has been underway regarding such a possible SNCC group.

b7C Based on the above, [redacted] veracity would appear highly questionable, at least during his presence in the Kansas City Division. No further inquiry is being made by the Kansas City Division in the absence of specific request from Washington Field. Should Washington Field develop specific information from [redacted] such as the time, date and circumstances of his alleged telephone call to STOKELY CARMICHAEL and [redacted] plane flight from Kansas City, Missouri, to Washington, the Kansas City Division could probably verify or negate such claims by [redacted] Personal observation on 4/30/68, of the offices of [redacted] in the New Federal Building, Kansas City, Kansas, reflected the presence of a young Negro female [redacted] whose desk bore the name sign [redacted] who apparently has been [redacted] since early 1967. Since [redacted] frequented the New Federal Building during his U. S. Probation Office supervision and later, he undoubtedly knew [redacted] office.

[redacted] telephone [redacted] was interviewed at his home, and he advised he is a freshman at Howard University, and resides at [redacted] at Howard University in Washington, D. C.

b7C

On April 5, 1968, a Friday afternoon, about 1:30, he went to a meeting at Douglas Hall on the campus of Howard University, where a group of students, campus leaders, were meeting and discussing Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.'s, assassination. When he arrived at 1:30 p.m., the meeting was already underway, and nearing completion. At about 1:40 p.m., STOKELY CARMICHAEL came into the hall and began making a speech. [redacted] stated that to the best of his knowledge, CARMICHAEL was not expected and was not brought there by any group. To the best of his knowledge, the following is a description of his talk, which lasted five or ten minutes:

"We lost our only non-violence leader, Dr. King. There was no reason for killing Dr. King, and you should tell your brothers and sisters (colored people) to stop looting at night. If you are going to loot, do it in the daytime as whitey will be shooting at night. If you ain't got no gun, you shouldn't be out on the streets at all."

b7C

During this speech, CARMICHAEL waved or displayed a gun, which [redacted] believes was a .38 caliber revolver, and described it as looking like the type of weapon carried by police officers. CARMICHAEL said in his speech, "If you ain't got a gun, don't be on the street. I got mine and I can use it."

[redacted] believes that CARMICHAEL left Howard campus right after speaking. He described CARMICHAEL's speech as being an emotional one, and the reaction of the students was one of cheering and clapping. The general consensus seemed to be they were all going to stay in their rooms, especially since stores where they might obtain guns were closed.

[redacted] Maryland, advised that on 4/7/68 about 9 to 9:30 PM he picked up a Cuban Radio Broadcast on the shortwave band of his portable radio receiver. On this program the comments of a number of individuals, including those of STOKELY CARMICHAEL, were broadcast. [redacted] said he made a tape recording of this broadcast. CARMICHAEL's name is mentioned at the beginning of the broadcast, but [redacted] inadvertently erased the announcer's introduction of CARMICHAEL at the beginning of CARMICHAEL's remarks.

The following is a transcript of that portion of the tape dealing with CARMICHAEL's remarks:

SPEECH MADE BY STOKELY CARMICHAEL AFTER THE DEATH OF DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

"Because Dr. KING was the one man who was trying to ask black people not to burn down the cities. Now that they've killed Dr. KING there is no black men who will ask black people not to burn down the cities. What it means is that we've gone full swing into the revolution. Last night 35 cities had major incidents. That was last night - 35 cities in the United States where there was burning and shooting and killing over the death of Dr. KING. It is clear that more of this will continue. It is going to become more and more a guerrilla, urban guerrilla warfare because it is clear that we cannot fend with the police in open rebellion. More people are now beginning to think seriously

TO : The Director

FROM : N. P. Callahan

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Pages S4978-S4991. Senator Byrd, (D) West Virginia, spoke concerning riots and civil disobedience and commented on the recent riots in Washington. He inserted in the Record various articles and editorials on this subject. Mr. Byrd made reference to the recent crime wave here and urged "that adequate steps be taken now by Mayor Walter Washington to restore order and a respect for law in the Nation's Capital City. I urge that the Justice Department take action against Stokely Carmichael and other revolutionists who incite to riot. I urge, most respectfully, that the President of the United States take a firm stand against those who intimidate peace-loving citizens and who commit crimes against persons and property. There is no reason to temporize with criminals, - - - -. It is time that we stop making excuses for the criminals - - - -. The excuses of unemployment and poverty have become hackneyed and they have never been truly relevant - - - -." Several other Senators joined Mr. Byrd in his remarks.

RACIAL MATTERS - STUDENT NONVIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE
SEDITION

By letter dated 4/6/68 the Attorney General requested the Bureau's assistance in developing information on the incidents involving Stokely Carmichael during the recent riots in Washington, D. C. The Director inquired, "What is status of our investigation of Carmichael which Department requested?"

To date we have furnished four reports to the Department totaling 675 pages containing the results of approximately 600 interviews. Included in these reports is detailed information obtained from witnesses who observed the activities of Carmichael in the vicinity of 14th and U Streets, N.W., Washington, D. C., the evening of 4/4/68. Several witnesses saw Carmichael in the possession of a handgun and one witness stated Carmichael said, "If you don't have a gun, go home and get one." Another witness stated he observed Carmichael on the evening of 4/4/68 as the leader of a group which requested business establishments in the area of 14th and U Streets, N.W., to close and Carmichael stated, "We don't want any violence as long as they close but if they don't, take it." Also included is a transcript of highly inflammatory remarks made by Carmichael at a press conference held at Washington, D. C., at Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee headquarters, the morning of 4/5/68, and the coverage given by the news media of this press conference.

Extensive information is set forth in these reports concerning Carmichael's activities at Howard University the afternoon of 4/5/68 where several witnesses reported

RACIAL MATTERS

Memorandum to Mr. W. C. Sullivan
RE: STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Carmichael exhibited a pistol to a group of students on the campus. Other information reported is a transcript of Radio Havana, Cuba, broadcast of Carmichael's telephone interview on 4/5/68 wherein Carmichael in commenting on the death of Martin Luther King stated more people are now beginning to plan a major urban guerrilla warfare "where we can move seriously to...serious revolutions with this country to bring it to its knees." Activities of Carmichael in the vicinity of the 4100 block of Wheeler Road, S.E., on the afternoon of 4/5/68 are set forth where he reportedly stated "We are going to get this area." Subsequent looting and destruction of business establishments took place in this neighborhood.

Our Washington Field Office has advised they have approximately 25 interviews remaining consisting primarily of Howard University students who have been out of town during school vacation. It is expected that these interviews will be completed in the immediate future.

It is noted that in addition to our specific investigation of Carmichael's activities during the recent riots, we have been conducting an extensive investigation of Carmichael's activities for possible violation of sedition statutes. In this regard we have furnished the Department voluminous information including over 30 verbatim transcripts of speeches containing highly inflammatory statements made by Carmichael.

We are continuing to press vigorously all phases of the investigation of Carmichael.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL
INTERNAL SECURITY - MISCELLANEOUS
SEDITION

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April 27, 1968, that Stokely Carmichael made a scheduled speech appearance at Newark, New Jersey, Central High School on Friday evening, April 26, 1968. His appearance was sponsored by the United Brothers of Newark, an organization which claims to be an alliance of Negroes in the Newark area for economic and political progress. Speaking for the United Brothers, John Henrik Clarke announced plans for a political convention of black people to be held in June, 1968, at Newark to select Negro candidates for available city elected positions. Clarke urged the audience to join United Brothers Party and stated there were membership applications available in the main lobby of the school.

Charles Kenyatta of New York City spoke in general terms regarding the desirability of black people taking over political offices in the United States.

Phil Butchings, Newark Area Coordinator for the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, urged the audience to support the United Brothers.

A characterization of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee is contained in the appendix hereto.

Kenneth Gibson, who unsuccessfully ran for Mayor of Newark in 1966, announced he would seek the nomination and support of the United Brothers for the same office in 1970.

Rev. Horace Sharper, Pastor, Abyssinian Baptist Church, Newark, spoke in general terms of Negro problems in Newark and urged support of the United Brothers.

Stokely Carmichael spoke for almost two hours. He spoke of experiences and talks he has held with officials in Havana, Cuba, and in China which have confirmed his belief that survival of black people in the United States can only be assured through Negro armament and destruction of white businesses. Carmichael's speech terminated the program at 12:25 a.m., April 27, 1968. He left Central High School and went to the residence of [redacted] Newark, New Jersey. At [redacted] residence members of the United Brothers and Carmichael held a conference. Their talks were concerned with Carmichael's having reneged on a prior agreement with the United Brothers not to make inflammatory statements during his speech or to urge Negroes of Newark to adopt a policy of violence and hatred. The United Brothers believe Carmichael was influenced by unknown personal reasons to make such statements. The source who furnished this information stated that the audience at Central High School did not respond enthusiastically to Carmichael's remarks promoting violence. b7C b7C At about 1:30 a.m., April 27, 1968, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed Carmichael and an unidentified driver leave [redacted] residence in a late model yellow Plymouth station wagon bearing New York license [redacted]. They proceeded to [redacted] New York. Carmichael entered the house at this address, and the driver left.

Page 3 of the July 19, 1967, edition of the "Newark Evening News," a Newark, New Jersey, daily newspaper, reflected LeRoi Jones and two other men were indicted by an Essex County Grand Jury in Newark on July 18, 1967, and they were charged with having two revolvers in their possession when they were arrested on July 14, 1967, during the Newark riots. Jones was freed on $25,000 bail.

On January 4, 1968, Jones was sentenced to two and a half to three years in prison. He and his two companions, who were also convicted on weapons charges, were subsequently released on bail pending an appeal of their conviction. They have filed suit against Newark Police Director Dominick A. Spina and seven police officers on grounds of alleged police brutality in connection with their arrest on July 14, 1967. In turn, Spina and the officers are countersuing the trio for alleged slander and libel.

On April 29, 1968, [REDACTED] Newark, New Jersey, Police Department, estimated the number of persons in attendance at Central High School on the evening of April 26, 1968, at between 800 and 900 people. The crowd was orderly, and there were no incidents of disorder.

Two additional sources of the FBI, with whom sufficient contact has not been had to establish reliability, advised on April 27, 1968, that Stokely Carmichael appeared at Central High School on April 26, 1968.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

STUDENT NONVIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE

Literature distributed by the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), headquartered at 360-362 Nelson Street, S.W., Atlanta, Georgia, describes itself as not being a membership organization, but rather an agency attempting to stimulate and foster the growth of local protest movements. SNCC was born out of the sit-in movement which erupted across the South beginning on February 1, 1960. A conference at Raleigh, North Carolina, that spring, brought together many of the demonstrating Southern students in a loose network of militant youth which was officially named SNCC in October, 1960.

b7C A source has advised that in May, 1966, Stokely Carmichael was elected National Chairman by the Central Committee. In May, 1967, Carmichael was replaced as Chairman [redacted] with Carmichael assuming the position of Recruiter and Organizer for the SNCC. In August, 1967, at the invitation of [redacted] Carmichael participated in the Organization of Latin American Solidarity Conference which was held in Havana, Cuba. Subsequent thereto, Carmichael traveled to Hanoi and other sections of North Vietnam. He returned to the United States in December, 1967, at which time his passport was picked up because of travel to unauthorized countries.

b7C A source advised that when Carmichael was elected Chairman of SNCC, the organization embarked on a program of eliminating Caucasians from its ranks. With the election of [redacted] in 1967, it embarked on a world-wide struggle for human rights and to take a firm stand against violations of these rights by the American Government and to strengthen its programs of opposition to the draft and to the United States involvement in Vietnam.

Literature distributed in February, 1968, identifies SNCC as an organization in the revolutionary vanguard. It advocates that to be successful it is necessary to develop a revolutionary ideology and revolutionary program.

On August 13, 1967, while addressing a group in the Watts area of Los Angeles, California, H. Rap Brown said "You better shape up America, or we'll burn you down." Later in February, 1968, in a publicized note, Brown wrote, "America, if it takes my death to organize my people to revolt against you and to organize your jails to revolt against you and to organize your children, your God, your poor, your country, and to organize mankind to rejoice in your destruction and ruin, then here's my life."

The above sources have furnished reliable information in the past.

According to a United Press International release dated 4/15/68 the current issue of the Knoxville College student newspaper, "The Aurora," carried an article by Stokely Carmichael. It was reported in the press release, that Carmichael stated the civil rights movement has failed to achieve goals more rapidly because it operates "from a position of weakness."

You should promptly obtain a copy of this article and submit it to the Bureau in a form suitable for dissemination. Include any pertinent information developed concerning the circumstances as to the publishing of this article in "The Aurora."

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Stokely Told Cubans of Guerrilla Plan

By Drew Pearson and
Jack Anderson

Here is the record of the amazing telephone conversation between Stokely Carmichael, the Negro rabble-rouser, and Havana, Cuba, at the height of the recent Washington race riots.

Carmichael had just come in from the streets where he had been crying for Negroes to get their guns. He was summoned to the overseas telephone by Mike Laguardia, a commentator for Radio Havana. This conversation follows:

"Stokely?"

"Yes."

"Oh, this is Mike Laguardia from Radio Havana Cuba."

"Hello," Carmichael greeted him cordially.

"Hello, sir," replied Laguardia.

"Say, Stokely," he said.

"Si."

"We would like to have a statement from you on Martin Luther King's assassination."

"Right."

"And what has been the reaction of the Afro-Americans in the face of this crime?"

"Right," repeated Carmichael. "A white America has Rap Brown (another black militant leader) in jail right now. An American killed Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. last night. When they killed Dr. King, they made a mistake, because Dr. King was the one man who was trying to ask, uh, black people not to burn down the cities. Now that they have killed Dr. King, there is no black man who will ask black people not to burn down the cities. What it means is that we've gone full swing into the revolution.

"Last night," Carmichael spoke on, "35 cities had major incidents. That was last night—35 cities of the United States where there was burning and shooting and killing over the death of Dr. King. It is clear, uh, more of this will continue. It is going to become more and more a guerrilla—urban guerrilla—warfare, because it is clear that we cannot win with the, uh, with the police, in an open rebellion.

"So," he continued, "More people are now beginning to plan seriously a major urban guerrilla warfare, where we can begin to retaliate not only for the death of Dr. King, but where we can move seriously to . . ." His next few words were indistinct. " . . . serious revolutions with this country to bring it to its knees.

"It is crystal clear to us," he declared, "that the United States of America must fall in order for humanity to live, and we are going to give our lives to that cause. To our brothers and sisters in Cuba, we want to say: 'Hello, my respects to you all.'"

"Thanks very much, Stokely," said Laguardia.

"We'll be coming back to you again in case something more shows up."

"Very good."

"Au revoir."

"Au revoir," said Carmichael. "Tell Prime Minister Fidel (Fidel Castro) I said hello."

"All right," promised Laguardia. "Bye, Stokely."

State Level Politics

The high-powered lobbying pressures brought on state legislators is illustrated in an election now taking place in the Cleveland suburbs. The race is between Ron Mottl, a member of the Ohio legislature, and State Sen. Francis Sullivan, whom Mottl seeks to replace. Both are Democrats.

Last year Mottl took a courageous stand against the most powerful bank in Ohio, the Cleveland Trust Company. He supported a law requiring cumulative stock voting which would have permitted minority stockholders to elect directors to the Cleveland Trust's Board.

It was a bitter battle in which the trust company retained as its attorney Dan Duffy, vice chairman of the Democratic Party in Cleveland. He registered the fact that he was paid $12,000.

Afterward Duffy moved to bar Mottl from the ballot in the upcoming Ohio primary. Duffy is a member of the board of elections as well as being vice chairman of the Democratic Party, and used this position of influence to strike Mottl's name. Mottl had declared as a candidate for the Senate against incumbent Sen. Francis Sullivan, who is regularly employed by Republic Steel at a salary of $9000.

Ted Brown, Ohio Secretary of State and a Republican, criticized the board of elections for its action. Mottl went to court and secured a ruling putting his name back on the ballot. It's there today.

Meanwhile, two interesting candidates announced that they were running against him under circumstances which looked as if friends of Sen. Sullivan or friends of the Cleveland Trust Company might have induced them to run.

The Parma election district outside of Cleveland is largely populated by Czechs, Slavs and Ukrainians, mixed with Irish. Sullivan automatically gets the Irish vote and Mottl, a Czech-American, was due to get the Slav vote.

But Michael Zaderecky, a Ukrainian, suddenly entered the Democratic primary, together with Richard Motousek, a Czech. Obviously they will siphon votes away from Ron Mottl rather than from Francis Sullivan, the Irishman.

On April 30, 1968, [REDACTED] residence address

[REDACTED] and engaged in a conversation and had a few drinks with an individual who identified himself as [REDACTED]. The conversation got around to racial problems in the United States and [REDACTED] indicated he was from the South and subsequently said he would pay [REDACTED] $10,000 to kill [REDACTED] or STOKELY CARMICHAEL. He mentioned the Ku Klux Klan and the Minutemen and said "we" will furnish cars or planes for carrying this out and any kind of gun wanted. [REDACTED] then said "The mark has been put on [REDACTED] STOKELY CARMICHAEL and ROBERT KENNEDY." He then gave [REDACTED] a business card from [REDACTED] and on the back wrote [REDACTED] then "Yes", "No" and "Where". [REDACTED] said he could be called at that place and that [REDACTED] was simply to answer "Yes or No" and where he could be contacted.

[REDACTED] said [REDACTED] had been drinking but did not appear to be drunk. [REDACTED] reported this matter several hours later and admitted he had been drinking.

[REDACTED] advised [REDACTED] was employed by him as [REDACTED] but that he has not seen him for about a week, that [REDACTED] owes him about $150.00 for merchandise, and reportedly is doing a lot of drinking. He said [REDACTED] is a "blow hard" and that he recalls that when Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., was killed [REDACTED] had remarked that he had been offered $5,000.00 to do this job four or five years ago. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] had previously been employed by [REDACTED]

STOKELY CARMICHAEL
INCITING TO RIOT - MISC.
(OO:WFO)

ReATairtel with LHM 4/25/68, captioned "STOKELY CARMICHAEL, IS-M; SEDITION."

In referenced LHM information is set forth indicating that [redacted] was in CARMICHAEL's presence the evening of April 4, 1968, at the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) headquarters in the vicinity of 14th and U Streets, N.W., Washington, D. C. (WDC) subsequent to the death of MARTIN LUTHER KING.

As the Atlanta Office is aware, WFO is currently conducting an extensive investigation to develop details of a possible violation by CARMICHAEL of a D.C. statute on willfully inciting to riot. The U.S. Attorney has requested the development of full facts surrounding CARMICHAEL's activities on the evening of 4/4/68, when he reportedly led a group of individuals in the vicinity of 14th and U Streets, N.W., WDC and spoke to various merchants in that area asking them to close their business in respect to Dr. KING and on occasion was observed to have brandished a weapon. This inquiry also embraces statements made by CARMICHAEL at a SNCC press conference the morning of 4/5/68, and facts surrounding his appearance, statements and actions on the Howard University campus the afternoon of 4/5/68.

Source indicated that there were an unknown number of Negro athletes who had been invited to attend the meeting, with the purpose to instruct these athletes to enter the coming Olympic Games. The black athletes were to receive instruction in their black heritage, and source stated that the following individuals were to instruct the athletes on that heritage:

Stokely Carmichael, according to the source, is to attend the meeting, but he thinks all black athletes should boycott the Olympic Games.

My memorandum this date (attached) sets forth the status of the investigation involving Stokely Carmichael's activities during the recent Washington, D. C., riots as requested by the Director.

It was noted that our Washington Field Office (WFO) has advised they have approximately 25 interviews remaining consisting primarily of Howard University students who have been out of town during school vacation. The Director instructed "Expedite and set a date for deadline."

The interviews of these students are delicate and must be conducted off campus. In view of the fact that most of these students have an extremely militant attitude toward the white race as indicated by their recent take-over of the Howard University Administration Building, our Washington Field Office has been utilizing Negro Agents to conduct these interviews. It is felt all these interviews can be satisfactorily conducted in time to meet a deadline of May 15, 1968.

ACTION:

That the attached airtel be approved instructing WFO to complete its investigation of this matter and to submit the results to reach the Bureau no later than May 15, 1968.

[redacted] was recontacted relative to information attributed to [redacted] in the LHM of 4/10/68. [redacted] pointed out, as that in the first instance, that [redacted] advised they were unable to attribute the statement of "Brother, tomorrow night we're gonna burn them" to any one particular individual in the crowd clustered around the automobile from which CARMICHAEL alighted in front of Paschal's Motor Motel on 4/9/68.

In addition, [redacted] advised that they are not acquainted with or no the identity of any of the other individuals who were accompanying CARMICHAEL. Inasmuch as [redacted] are not able to definitely say that CARMICHAEL made foregoing statement, an FD-302 is not being submitted on information attributed to [redacted]

It is noted that Paschal's Motor Lodge is located in a predominately Negro neighborhood and the conducting of investigation in that area to develop witnesses relative to CARMICHAEL's arrival in that area on 4/9/68 is not feasible.

Information secured from [] regarding CARMICHAEL's statement in the vicinity of the Ebenezer Baptist Church is included in enclosed LHM.

It is noted further that [] advised that after the services at Ebenezer Baptist Church and while the procession was en route to the memorial services for Dr. KING at Morehouse College, the rumor passing through the crowd was that CARMICHAEL had said, "Play it cool, after we bury the man then the riots will start".

On 5/1/68 this source was contacted relative to the possible identity of the individual passing this rumor around and the source advised that she attended the service alone and was not acquainted with or in a position at this time to identify any individual who might have passed this rumor on to her.

[] advised that STOKELY CARMICHAEL arrived in the vicinity of the Ebenezer Baptist Church, 413 Auburn Avenue, NE, at approximately 10:20 a.m. on April 9, 1968. The funeral services for Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., were already in progress. As CARMICHAEL walked toward the entrance to the church, and although not appearing to speak to anyone in particular, he repeated time and time again as he held up his hands, "Black Power, Black Power".

CARMICHAEL was dressed neatly in a black business suit and upon reaching the entrance to the Ebenezer Baptist Church found the doors had been locked on the inside.

After the crowd had shouted, "Let him in!" several times the doors were opened and CARMICHAEL entered the church.

Two (2) copies each are being furnished to designated offices since information is contained in the LHM pertaining to specific individuals who are listed as in attendance at one of the workshops which took place during the conference. Appropriate action with respect to the names listed in this attendance roster is being left to the discretion of appropriate offices.

Also enclosed herewith for the New York Office is a mimeographed five-page document entitled, "The Official Position Paper of the Harlem Black Anti-Draft Union, 1968" and a one-page mimeographed leaflet captioned, "The Position Paper of the Harlem Black Anti-Draft Union." These documents are not set forth in instant LHM since the New York Office may have already obtained copies of these documents since their contents pertain to a branch of captioned organization which is of particular interest to the New York Office. If not already obtained by the New York Office from other sources, that office may wish to treat this material in its own communication in this case.

He thought the persons making these remarks were joking and did not listen to the remarks seriously and he paid little attention to them.

Informant pointed out that the general conference area in the Ballroom of the hotel was in a constant state of general disorder and confusion due particularly to the lack of organization and particularly because those present were permitted to wander about and attend any of the workshops being held in the Ballroom area. As a result, there was a great deal of conversation at all times of one type or another.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April 16 and 24, 1968 that he attended the National Conference of the above-captioned organization held at the Hotel Diplomat, 108 W. 43rd Street, New York City, New York, from noon on April 12, 1968 until the evening of April 14, 1968.

This source described the conference as follows:

Approximately 500 persons were present during the course of this conference although this number was not all present at any one time. A large number of persons were present at the opening session at noon on April 12, 1968 but were not observed to be present during sessions held on the following two days. Source noted there were about 25 guards, all young Negro males, designated to maintain order at the conference; but they were not required to perform any special services since the conferences did not get out of hand.

NATIONAL BLACK ANTI-WAR
ANTI-DRAFT UNION
(NBAWADU)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The conference generally was poorly organized and much confusion existed during the sessions because the three or four work shops being conducted at the conference were all held on the floor of the Ballroom, and individuals were permitted to enter and leave workshop sessions at will and many did so.

The first session was highlighted by a more than two hour speech given by the former Chairman of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) STOKELY CARMICHAEL who came to the meeting from Washington, D.C. His speech was conducted generally in a much milder tone than some of his former speeches, and it was the impression of source that CARMICHAEL is now much less militant probably due to his marriage.

CARMICHAEL spoke of the role of SNCC in supporting the need for unity among black people and the need for better self-defense tactics. He said it was the responsibility of every Negro to obtain a gun to defend himself because it was obvious that the assassination of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. is evidence that the white race will eventually try to exterminate Negroes. He called the war in Viet Nam a system whereby the white were sending Negroes into combat to fight for the white people and that this was another method of race genocide. He called upon the Black people to resist military service and told them that they have the alternative of going to jail rather than to fight the war for the white race. He said a person going to jail will at least come out in one piece.

Although CARMICHAEL was not as militant as he has been in the past, he spoke of the need for Black people to "destroy the system," which was taken by source to mean the system of racism in the United States. Source pointed out that he did not understand CARMICHAEL to mean that the Negro should destroy the system of government or democracy in the United States. Source was also of the opinion that

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ANTI-DRAFT UNION
(NBAWADU)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

CARMICHAEL's mild manner of speaking is losing him many militant followers.

A characterization of SNCC appears in the Appendix attached hereto.

After the speech by CARMICHAEL, the conference broke up into a number of workshops all held in the Ballroom area dealing with Black Resistance to the Draft, the Role of Black Women in the Liberation Struggle, How to Relate the Nature of the War to the Black Community, and High Schools and Colleges. These workshops continued through Saturday. [redacted] [redacted] served as Chairman of the Workshop relating to women. [redacted] was the workshop leader on the nature of the war, and [redacted] and an assistant led the Draft resistance workshop.

b7C

Source obtained several documents which were hastily printed and run off at SNCC Headquarters in New York City for distribution on the final day of the conference. One document is headed, "Workshop: High Schools and Colleges." A reproduction of this document is contained in this report. A second document is page two of a workshop report on "How to Relate the Nature of the War to the Black Community" and set forth the resolution agreed upon by the workshop to present to the assembly on the final day. A copy of this document is included in this report. A third document captioned, "Role of Women in the Liberation Struggle," which is a six-page report, was also obtained. A copy is included in instant report.

Source advised it was his impression that the workshop on the "Role of Women" was the best organized and most militant of the workshops. This is borne out by the type of report submitted by this group to the convention. The workshop on Draft resistance, led by [redacted] was, for the most part, a presentation of Draft alternatives available to Selective Service registrants. Informant observed no effort on the part of workshop leaders to counsel Draft evasion or to go beyond the law but it was made clear to registrants what alternatives they might have.

There was distributed during this workshop a leaflet entitled "Hell No!" distributed by NBAWADU which outlined various deferments and alternatives open to registrants. A copy of this leaflet is attached as a part of this report.

The key speaker at the opening of the Saturday, April 13, 1968, session was [REDACTED] Source did not hear the opening part of this speech but recalled [REDACTED] urged Negroes to stop paying income taxes as a means of stopping the assistance the United States is rendering in the Viet Nam War.

After the workshops on the afternoon of this date, a speech was given by [REDACTED] who tried to wrap up the work of the workshops. He talked generally about the role of Black people in opposing the Draft and the Viet Nam War.

The conference resumed again on Sunday, April 14, 1968, shortly after noon and various proposals coming from each workshop were presented to the convention. This portion of the meeting seemed to be confused and disorganized, and very little positive action was taken on any of the resolutions. One particular proposal dealing with Black resistance to the Draft concerned the contacting of former servicemen, setting up training camps for Black people, and guerrilla warfare was regarded as too radical and was greatly watered down before it was accepted by the conference.

Source also noted the most militant group at the conference was the Harlem Black Anti-Draft Union.

During the course of the convention, there were films from North Viet Nam which informant learned were furnished by "The Resistance" from New York City.

The conference ended at about 7:00 p.m. on April 14, 1968. There were no violent incidents which required any kind of police action during the course of the conference.

14. Talk to people that have made trips to Asia and Africa

RESOLVED:

That the interest of Black African-Americans requires strong independent colored nations in Africa and Asia for our own protection and survival; That is the Black man's stake in Vietnam and in the Third World, What we have in common with colored nations elsewhere is the need to over throw white supremacy whether in Vietnam, South Africa or Newark, New Jersey.

The above was not voted upon but it was the general consensus of the workshop.

Workshop Leader --- Phil Betching

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Black women must play a definite role in the liberation struggle. Women are the ones who set the value system for the society and most important of all they help shape and status of our black brothers. If sisters make it a thing to praise the soldier with the uniform, then the brothers will wear the uniform; however if sisters move to the position that brothers must join the liberation army, then the brothers will move to do that. It is also important for black women to gather the will, return to our heritage and culture, go on back home, and then unveil for our people, unveil for the revolution. To help develop this attitude, to develop a revolutionary outlook for women, these references may be helpful:

Vietnamese Women--(Vietnam Studies)

 32 Hai Ba Trung--Hanoi--Vietnam
 Red Women's Detachment (Army)--The People's China
 Lenin and the Women Question--Clara Zetkin Guerrilla and Counter Guerrilla--William Pomeroy
 A Dying Colonialism--Frans Fanon

Program #1:

Survival Kits:

I. There should be a list of medical supplies which should be in all homes, not only for rebellion periods, but also for everyday living because the system is now trying to close in on the black community at every opportunity. We must at all times have emergency supplies in the home...aspirins, bandages, alcohol, ect.

II. Efforts should be made to contact black doctors to deal with this question, and if they should refuse we should move to boycott, "ice" these doctors. We need to move to learn how to remove bullets from the less sensitive parts of the body and the need of midwife techniques.

III. A group of women can ask the red cross to come into the community to have classes on simple first-aid techniques.

IV. GI's and black nurses who have been in Vietnam should have a responsibility to the black community. Efforts should be made to contact them.

V. The need to store large quantities of can goods, powdered milk, and food supplies. Where to store such goods is at the discretion of the sisters and brothers for safety reasons.

VI. Begin to check what medical supplies and medicines are in the local drug store. Ask doctors if you may have the samples they get free. Sisters must wage a propaganda campaign in terms of black people survival. Every day in the black community they should read leaflets, literature on the necessity of first aid for survival. We must saturate the community with this propaganda so when the shit hits the fan black people will realize the need for getting medical supplies when they get the colored TV. Our responsibility should also be in how do we STORE these supplies. Individual communities or persons, will have to make that decision.

Program #E

Communications: We must move to be of the people. We must move to do effectively grassroots organizing in the urban community. A BLACK PHONE In each community a phone with a tape can be installed which can tell all people who call the times, dates, and nature of events in the black community. This should be done in every black community. We must strengthen the grapevine in our community. Certain people should be responsible for passing on information via phone or mouth. We must perfect this great asset.

Home and Family Life: Program #3

WALL of RESPECT in every home, especially homes with children. Black people doing things, photographs, newspaper clippings, ect. and children should be educated around this. Children should be entertained by black events (Black Phone will do the communication of these events.) Because we have not been able to build schools, children on Saturdays should be gathered to have lessons on and in blackness. Those mothers who are moving in the revolution stage should write a handbook for mass dissemination on: "How To Raise Black Children"

Program #4--Dope:

We must move to picket and use other means to awaken the community about the dope and our children. There must be a concerted effort to deal with dope pushers in our community and with dope owners at city hall.

Education and Culture. Program #5

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

I. When black college students return home for the summer they should be mandated to hold classes (that is, if they have a proper perspective) for the young people.

II. Quan Mother Moore has donated her land in the Catskills to black children. We will organize young children (3+ on up) from across the country to visit the Mountain. (We must map out a program for culture, ect. for the children. This should happen every year when school is out: Black Children's Camp. A sub-committee will work out the details.

Program #6 Organizing other women:

We must move from the "cliche" stage of the movement. Our whole lives and social life must be within the framework of the revolution. Sisters must even at risks talk to people at the laundry mats, in the grocery stores, ect. We can organize sewing classes for older ladies and educated within that framework.

We must learn to be patient with those who do not yet understand. We must at all times show love for the misguided brother or sister, but refuse to deal with those when it may not result into something meaningful.

Vietnam and the Drafts Program #7

We must move from being against the racist, aggressive war in Vietnam by the U.S. to a position of supporting a victory for the National Liberation Front. Sisters who have dedicated themselves for the making of the revolution must at all times move in the black community and where there are brothers in army suits or police suits they should exclaim: SHAME! SHAME! SHAME! or the like. This may have repercussions, but in the long run it will serve as a propaganda tool.

Families who have lost sons in the war, sisters should go to the family for a visit. Help out in any way possible and at the same time talk to them about why their sons were killed. Our complete lives are political, even our deaths. At funerals for the brothers who have died we should attend, and quietly give out propaganda around their political deaths.

Mothers should go to the draft boards and tell the registrars that they are responsible for their sons, and it will be irresponsible to send them off to to death for nothing. Mothers can disrupt the draft boards on many levels. (Inciat that they will be drafted in their sons' places, etc.)

Sisters must move to provide refuge for the brothers who are on the run.

We must open up our homes for them when the man is after them. We must organize how brothers can be rotated from one place to another. We must have events for money for the brothers to help defray legal expenses (fashion shows)

We need to get next to the sisters who are in the armed forces or who are in in the red cross in Vietnam. We have talked too much about the brother who is a soldier and have not criticized the sister who is doing the same thing in Vietnam.

Sisters must begin to take classes for draft counselling. Mothers must also take classes in draft counselling, and then move to counsel our brothers who do not want to go into the army. This can be educational propaganda.

Program #8: Self-Defense, Armed Struggle

Sisters must understand that the system is also their enemy. We must move to support our men on all levels to fight the enemy. We must have mass propaganda in the black community about the need for self-defense, so again when the shit hit the fans important items will be liberated and properly confiscated.

Again, we must have an understanding of how and where we store guns. This can not be discussed here, but each community must deal with this problem.

Sisters must attend classes on judo, karate, with the realization that this may not work in all cases when the man has a .38 revolver; however, for some poses this knowledge is necessary. We must also learn archery (bow and arrow) within a revolutionary framework. We must move to get information on the gun laws in every city and state and get information from the National Rifle Association. Sisters must realize that they will ultimately be engaged in the armed struggle, and if they are not prepared to do so, then they must be prepared to get the ammunition.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Sisters must attend court sessions for brothers to strengthen moral help. We must also raise money to have with the defense. We also must begin to move and demonstrate around the country when brothers are locked up for struggling for black people's demonstration. We must have effective propaganda for great dissemination so that we can raise the level of consciousness to our people. We must move to allow them to feel the jailing of Rap, Herman Ferguson, Max Stanford, etc. We must through propaganda make our people respond to deaths and probability of deaths as with the cases of Huey Newton, Bobby Hutton, and other brothers.

Program # 2: Sterilization, Birth Control Pills, Genocide

The sterilization program carried on by the U.S. is a political decision to exterminate the world or those people who refuse to fall in line with a racist, aggressive policy. It is indeed a fact of genocide on the colored peoples of the world. The birth control pill was not discussed but it was mandated that brothers and sisters on local fully discuss the pill, and at the same time talk about the redefining of values of love, of life, of togetherness.

These programs are long-ranged programs which will take detail organization. Sub-committees have been set up to deal with the details on some of these programs. This means that each program in its final form will be an elaborated report for propaganda purposes for mass distribution. Each community is mandated to take on these programs and implement these programs within the context of their community. This is for the purpose of decentralization. Each community will send to the National Office a report of the actions from the programs and the National Office will in turn correlate this information for mass dissemination and for mass communication. 12-to the context of the programs and implementation of these programs within the community. This is for the purpose of decentralization. Each community will send to the National Office a report of the actions from the programs and the National Office will in turn correlate this information for mass dissemination.

We of NBAWADU feel that the draft is unjust because it binds the individual to action which may be contrary to his personal beliefs. Many American men are being drafted and forced to die and kill in unjust wars. Therefore we are making available all the information we have on draft alternatives in the hope that draft age men may benefit. Our fight is at home.

Although we will counsel you on any of the alternatives, the final decision rests with you.

For counseling or information on the draft Please write or call:

SOME ALTERNATIVES

ALWAYS REMEMBER

1. Before choosing a course of action seek expert draft counseling. Do not substitute neighborhood hear-say for valid information.
2. Never wait until the last minute to take action on your draft situation. The sooner you plan a course of action the more secure your plans.
3. Do not forget about the draft because it will not forget about you. Think of the draft as a reality in your life. You have as much right to plan your future as the draft board does. Remember there are alternatives to the draft.
4. Never assume you cannot be helped without receiving expert counseling.

1. You have the right to appeal the loss of any classification (2-S, 1-S, 1-Y etc.)
2. Conscientious objection (C.O.) classification. Being a C.O. means you feel that war is wrong. Do not believe gossip about the C.O. position; contrary to popular belief the C.O. deferment is open to both religious and non-religious.
3. There are 13 legal deferments to the draft - do not assume without having the benefit of draft counseling that you do not qualify for one or more of these deferments.
4. Hundreds of men refused induction into the armed forces last year - you should know the legal status and legal defenses of induction refusal.

SELECTIVE SERVICE

DEFERMENTS

- 1.) 1-A-O available for noncombatant duty only.
- 2.) 1-O-C.O. available for civilian work only

APPENDIX

STUDENT NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE

Literature distributed by the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) headquartered at 360-362 Nelson Street, S.W., Atlanta, Georgia, describes itself as not being a membership organization but rather an agency attempting to stimulate and foster the growth of local protest movements. SNCC was born out of the sit-in movement which erupted across the South beginning on February 1, 1960. A conference at Raleigh, North Carolina, that spring brought together many of the demonstrating Southern students in a loose network of militant youth which was officially named SNCC in October, 1960.

A source has advised that in May, 1966, STOKELY CARMICHAEL was elected National Chairman by the Central Committee. In May, 1967, CARMICHAEL was replaced as Chairman by H. RAP BROWN with CARMICHAEL assuming the position of Recruiter and Organizer for SNCC. In August, 1967, at the invitation of FIDEL CASTRO, CARMICHAEL participated in the Organization of Latin America Solidarity Conference which was held in Havana, Cuba. Subsequent thereto, CARMICHAEL traveled to Hanoi and other sections of North Viet Nam. He returned to the United States in December, 1967, at which time his passport was picked up because of travel to unauthorized countries.

A source advised when CARMICHAEL was elected Chairman of SNCC, the organization embarked on a program of eliminating Caucasians from its ranks. With the election of H. RAP BROWN as Chairman in 1967, it embarked on a world-wide struggle for human rights and to take a firm stand against violations of these rights by the American Government and to strengthen its programs of opposition to the Draft and United States involvement in Viet Nam.

STUDENT NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE (Cont'd)

Literature distributed in February, 1968, identified SNCC as an organization in the revolutionary vanguard. It advocates to be successful, it is necessary to develop a revolutionary ideology and revolutionary program.

On August 13, 1967, while addressing a group in the Watts Area of Los Angeles, California, H. RAP BROWN said, "You better shape up America, or we'll burn you down." Later in February, 1968, in a publicized note BROWN wrote, "America, it if takes my death to organize my people to revolt against you and to organize your jails to revolt against you and to organize your children, your God, your poor, your country, and to organize mankind to rejoice in your destruction and ruin, then here's my life."

ADDENDUM: GENERAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION: RIS:hcs, 5-3-68:

Based upon the information furnished, there appears to be no Federal violation over which we have jurisdiction. It should be noted, however, that it is a violation under the Federal Firearms Act for any individual who is under indictment or who has been convicted of a crime punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year to transport or cause to be shipped or transported in interstate or foreign commerce any firearm or ammunition.

The Domestic Intelligence Division in connection with its investigation of Carmichael should keep this statute in mind with a view toward possibly developing a violation provided the facts can be substantiated. It is also possible that such rifles could be stolen from the Government, thereby creating a possible violation of the Theft of Government Property Statute.

Stokely Carmichael

At 10:25 AM, April 12, 1968, Agents of New York Office observed Stokely Carmichael accompanied by [redacted] and two unidentified male Negroes arrived at La Guardia Airport, Queens, New York.

Carmichael and three companions departed airport and went to [redacted] residence of [redacted]

b6
b7C

Approximately 11:20 AM, Carmichael left [redacted] with the two unidentified males and took a taxi to the Hotel Diplomat, 108 West 43rd Street, New York City, where the National Conference of the Black Anti-War, Anti-Draft Union was underway. A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past made available a tape of Carmichael's press conference at the Hotel Diplomat. A transcript of this tape was made by a Special Agent of the New York Office and is as follows:

First Voice: The purpose of the press conference and the purpose of this conference is basically....the purpose of this conference with you is to explain basically what the conference that we are having here in the next few days is all about. The purpose of that conference is basically to begin to develop and to build the black anti-war, anti-draft base and to build a black anti-war, anti-draft base within the black community. The reason for doing that is that it's the metal (?) blow that we as a people can strike against the system. And I think that what happens is that if we able to destroy, if we able to destroy the military as far as a vast majority of black people are involved in the military, and if we are able to destroy that and compulsory (sic) constriction (sic), we'll be able to do a lot of things that the government won't like very well. And that's basically the purpose of this conference. Basically the reason why we organized this group the National Black Anti-War, Anti-Draft Union. And we have Stokely Carmichael here this afternoon, this morning, to speak to us to open the conference, he was our keynote speaker.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI and it is the policy of the FBI and its field offices to disseminate it only if it is not to be distributed outside your agency.

ENCLOSURE

Stokely Carmichael

Second voice: Mr. Carmichael....

Third Voice: Mr. (unreadable), call me Brother Stokely.
(laughter)

Second Voice: What is your reaction to some of the statements (words unreadable) about the King murder, conspiracy and the fact that there was a hot trail that now appears to be cold. What's your reaction?

Third Voice: I am amazed at the fact that...a...within hours after Dr. King was murdered, that he could come out and say it was not a conspiracy. As a matter of fact, the only statement that Honky made was that it was not a conspiracy. Which leads me to believe that there must be some specific reason why he has been trying so hard to prove that it is not a conspiracy..I have worked with Dr. King, and I know when Dr. King is in the South that he is surrounded by FBI agents. And a... it is impossible for a killer to get in, shot and get away. Where were the FBI agents? They spend 24 hours a day on my trail, doing nothing, maybe they ought to spend 24 hours a day on the trail of murderers in this country, and leave our black people alone, 'cause we haven't murdered anybody....yet.

Second Voice: Are you convinced that it probably is a conspiracy then?

Third Voice: I am totally convinced it's a conspiracy, because Dr. King's march to... aWashington D. C. his poor peoples march, was clearly going to turn this country upside down. And that march had to be stopped.

Question: On your recent trip to Hanoi....what specifically (unreadable) reforms which you got from this... as a lot of people who would normally assume that it was ideological, rather than....a....

Third Voice: No it was not only ideological, it was also emotional, I got a real sense of spirit of brotherhood with the brothers from Viet Nam. Because... a... they suffer just like us. Dr. King recognized that because as his wife said, he died not only for the garbage workers in Memphis, but for peasants in...a.... Viet Nam. And a.... the recognition is that all of us our oppressed people, are are oppressed by the same structure.

Question: How do you think it would be applicable to what you got from here?

Third Voice: Oh we'll put it to use.

Question: Ramsey Clark made some statements last Sunday about you and your actions in Washington investigating and so forth. What is your reaction to this?

Third Voice: I have nothing to say...a... my people were in the streets and that's where I belong in the streets with my people. As long as they are in the streets, that's where I'll be. Ramsey Clark and all his other people can investigate until they turn blue in the face. They can bring me to courts, and they can put me in jail, they can shoot me. I have no respect for them for their system of law, for their system of justice, because it is all unjust. I pay no attention to it, I have absolutely no regard for it. I will do what is necessary for the liberation of our people.

Question: Do you think now that they have Rap in jail, and not letting him out for the time being...are trying to get others...oh....SNCC leaders, black leaders to get them all behind bars?

Third Voice: Yes, but...a...it will not stop what has to be. They can kill who they think are the revolutionaries. They can imprison Brother Rap. They can imprison the rest of us. But it will not stop it. Black people will conquer without a doubt.

Question: What effect do you think the death of Martin Luther King is going to have within the black movement as such?

Third Voice: Well, I think the country made a mistake when they killed Dr. King. It would have been far better if they had killed Rap Brown or myself. Because then they could say to the black people that...a...we are preaching guns, and he who preaches...a...who lives by the sword will die by the sword. But they couldn't do that for Dr. King. Because he preached love. There is no possible way for them to make an excuse of Dr. King's killing. So when they killed Dr. King, they just opened up the eyes of a lot of black people who were afraid to pick up guns. But now they will pick up those guns.

Stokely Carmichael

Question: In other words you think there are a lot more revolutionaries among black people today as a result....

Third Voice:of Dr. King's death.

Question: (continuing)...of the assassination of Dr. King?

Third Voice: Absolutely, and when they tried to make the carnival they did and the hypocrisy they made out of his funeral, it just brought more black people more and more aware (?).

Question: What role will you play in the poor peoples march in Washington? Will you participate in a non-violent way, or what role will you play?

Third Voice: I will play the same role as we played when we spoke to Dr. King. We will give him our moral support. We may even help in other ways. But we will not march, because we will not be non-violent. We will not disrupt his march, and we hope that the honkies don't hit the brothers too hard. Because if they hit them too hard, we might get mad.

Question: Don't you feel that a certain platform must be correlated to unite all black men, and if so what platform could do this?

Third Voice: Well, we're working on that. We have three so far. The first is that we must begin to have an undying love for our people. Where we are willing to die for our people. Not die in Viet Nam, but if we must die, let's die in the streets of our cities for our people. We also think that we must begin to advocate that every Negro is a potential black man so that we will stop the in-fighting inside our community. And Thirdly, we should begin to recognize that for black people, the question of community is not just simply a question of land but it is a question of our people and where we are. And wherever our people are, we're at home. Now we then break down the national structures that have been imposed upon us by the honkies, and we begin to see that black people are nine hundred million strong in the world. And we're part of that nine hundred million force.

Stokely Carmichael

Question: During the last few days, there have been a number of incidents in a number of American cities.... a...tenement burnings, fires that officials have said arsonists have set fires. And some people in the black communities have said that black revolutionaries are doing this. What's your reaction?

Third Voice: Well I don't know. You know, black people are basically a biblical people. The bible was handed down to us by the white man and we believe it. And the bible says that fire is a purifier. So...a...may be really, the people who are doing the burning are good Christian who recognize that...a...the country needs to be purified.

Question: What about the viewpoint taken by some black that in order for this thing to succeed it shouldn't be basically started in a black community because you're really destroying the homes that...you know...you mentioned upstairs some basic things that we needed. Shelter, food, and...a...

Third Voice: In the District of Columbia this last weekend there were only 20 families that were put out of homes. And that's because those 20 families lived above stores. All of the places that were burned were white owned establishments. There were two stores of brothers that were accidentally kicked into. All the other stores that were burned belonged to people who did not live inside our comm Question: What about those 20 people?

Third Voice: Well, we found places for those 20 people to live and all of them are in high spirits, and they (?) now are all fine. Because we will not make our people (unreadable) for this weekend. That's what the honkies want us to do. They want black people to feel sorry. We cannot feel sorry. We should be proud.

Question: Mr. Carmichael, the mayor of Newark at first said then somewhat backtracked, but at first said that possibly white racists could have been behind some of the fires in his city. Do you agree with this at all?

Third Voice: I agree wholeheartedly with him. All of the trouble in this country comes from white racists. All of it. So I agree wholeheartedly with him. I don't think the specific fires may be caused by white racists, but all the trouble is from white racists.

Question: As far as the Black Anti-War, Anti-Draft Movement, is this...do you think that the war is giving the black movement a chance to get itself together. Or is the war the real issue?

Third Voice: No the war is not the real issue. The real issue is the black people being liberated. That is the only issue. The war is tangential (sic) in that it hinges upon that. The second point is that black people are now clearly fighting for their survival, because it is clear in our minds that white America intends to commit genocide against us. And the war again is very tangible in the sense that it shows very clearly that White America is preparing with (sic) her genocide.

Question: What do you think is going to happen in this country when all the black boys in Viet Nam now start coming home (words unreadable).

Third Voice: I think that's when the real revolution can get on.

Question: (Unreadable)...wouldn't it be sort of like a (unreadable) to allow black men to get into the army to get this training?

Third Voice: No we've got enough training. And there comes a time when you pull out.

Question: I mean the technical weapons...because...a you men are (unreadable).

Third Voice: We have enough training.

Several Unreadable voices.

Third Voice: We have enough training now. Yes.

Question: About...(unreadable)...like the (unreadable) structure that was able to pull up (unreadable) in Saigon, and bring (unreadable) the (unreadable) to take over the (unreadable) you know like you didn't discuss (unreadable) you know like there was no (unreadable) ideas that was thrown out...

Third Voice: You do not discuss organization publically. the brothers who pulled off the Tet offensive didn't talk about it publically. You prepare a people ideologically for what has to come about....and they will....

Question: What I'm trying to get at is again, you do (unreadable) most of the ideas of people who are (unreadable) blamed, you know revolutions of people...

Third Voice: I did not. I threw away the Marxist ideology.

Question: Well, what about Lenin, who inspired...

Third Voice: ...He writes.....

Question (continuing): (unreadable)...and who inspires Ho Ch~~a~~ Min? Ho Ch~~a~~ Min was an avowed Communist, and the same with Chariman...

Third Voice: Ho Ch~~a~~ Min is first a Nationalist...

Question:a Nationalist?

Third Voice:then a Communist.

Question: Right. But I'm not talking about Lenin, I...

Third Voice: Lenin was first a Communist, then....

Question:I'm talking about....

Third Voice:what are you talking about then. Are you talking about ideology? There's the ideology. There's a difference. Ho Ch~~a~~ Min is first a nationalist, then a communist, right. Lenin was first a Communist, then a nationalist. There's a difference, a big difference. I am a black nationalist....I am a black nationalist....

Question: (unreadable)....organized....

Third Voice: You do not discuss organizational tactics publically. You cannot do that.

Stokely Carmichael

Question: (unreadable) about whether you thought the killing of Dr. King would drive many people into the militants camp

Third Voice: Oh I'm sure it will, because....a...if they had killed Rap Brown or myself, then a lot of people who are still asleep, they could say to them, well a....they preached the sword, and he who lives by the sword, dies by the sword. I mean that's what they said for Brother Malcolm X. But a....when they killed Dr. King, they couldn't say that, because Dr. King preached love and forgiveness and mercy. And he was really the last to do that of any prominence.

Question: Do you feel that from here on in they will have to deal with a militant or....

Third Voice: No, No. I mean. They killed....If they... If Dr. King died by the sword, then he preached love, then you might as well preach the sword and go out and get it, you know. Because, Dr. King did all that and still got a bullet in his neck. (unreadable) is coming first. Well I know what is coming to me. Before I go I'm going to do as much as I can. It ain't going to be yelling (unreadable).

Question: Stokely, what do you think the direction of the black community should be now?

Third Voice: I think we have to begin to place each other, and look to each other for our own protection and our own survival. There is no other way.

Question: In other words armed camps?

Third Voice: We have to find liberation by any means necessary. We have advocated and still advocate that every black man in this country must have a gun. Must have many, many guns. Many, many, guns. Not only for their protection, but for the protection of their people. If you believe in equality, then you believe that black people should have guns, because white women are arming themselves. If you believe in equality, if white women got guns, black women should have guns. That's equality.

Stokely Carmichael

Question: Stokely, many of us black college students are convinced that this was a conspiracy. Now we find Medgar Evers was killed before he started into Mississippi. We find that Malcolm X was killed in 1964 before he could form a black political party. And we now find that Dr. Martin Luther King has been killed before he turned the economic of the system upside down. Would you address yourself to that particular problem? The problem of conspiracy. How Americans are afraid, particularly about the conspiracy.

Third Voice: Well, I think it's clear. I mean our remarks earlier prove that. The very first thing they said about Dr. King's death, before they said anything was that it was not a conspiracy. And I was very amazed to find out, without even finding the killer or finding anything, how could they first come up with the fact that it was not a conspiracy. How could they possibly come up with the fact that it was not a conspiracy?

Question: Are there any implications that the United States Government in any way shape or form has had anything to do with the killing of Dr. King?

Third Voice: Well, seeing that the United States Government kills people wherever it goes, just murdering Viet Nameese left and right, I don't see why it would not consider killing Dr. King if he were stopping in their path. The Viet Nameese are stopping them in their path and we see what they are doing to the Viet Nameese. If Dr. King was to get in their path, I know what they would do to him. And he was getting in their path. Three weeks ago, Lyndon Johnson said very clearly, as far as he was concerned, the streets was not the place to bring, a discussion. It must be brought to him, to the courts. That's what he said.

Question: Stokely, is the non-violent movement, dead? Did it die with Martin Luther King?

Third Voice: I'm afraid I have to agree with Brother Mc Kissic. Yes. I think that Dr. King was...a...see Dr. King is different from other black people in the United States who talk about non-violence. Dr. King not only talked about non-violence, but he was always on the front lines of a march, when violence was to be faced. All the black people in this country who talk about non-violence are not on the front lines. They're not willing to sacrifice. Dr. King was willing to sacrifice. So when Dr. King was on the front lines, when he talked about Mau Maus, he was on the front lines. So at least, there was respect for him, from people who did not believe in non-violence. But there is no respect for these other people jumping up on TV now, talking about non-violence. There can't be no respect for them. Because they have never been on the front lines.

Question: (unreadable).

Third Voice: Because I believe, every negro is a potential black man, and because I'm trying to have undying love for my people...and try to...a...all people who we consider Uncle Toms, give them a chance and try with love to bring them home. I'm not going to mention names.

Question: But Stokely, because by your own admission, the people you call Uncle Toms....

Third Voice: You never said that. You never heard me say that.

Question: Now, Now, the people who some call Uncle Toms are a sizable segment of the black community, still. Do you think the black community is going to (unreadable) the future, to be able to get itself together, as you would like to see it.

Third Voice: Oh yes. We are going to get ourselves together, because we are a beautiful people. And we will survive America.

Question: Two questions please, two questions.

Question: Stokely, two hundred thousand brothers and sisters were busted in the last week. That if according to the man's figures, are correct, that's one percent of the black population in the United States.

Third Voice: Two Hundred Thousand?

Stokely Carmichael

Question: Two hundred thousand. (unreadable).

Question: Unreadable.

Third Voice: No, I think you....twenty thousand.
Twenty thousand.

Question: What are your activities for the next week or so? Where do you go from here?

Third Voice: I stay in Washington, working with the Brothers and sisters.

Unreadable

Question: ~~Leroy Jones~~ is a militant, and (unreadable). Now he seemed to take a different approach. He was out in the streets trying to cool it in Newark, and he was talking about getting rid of the power (unreadable). Do you think that message would be of value over here? Do you support that type of (unreadable)?

Third Voice: I would support all types of methods that would bring our people together. As long as it's working to bring our people together, then I'm for it. I know Brother Jones. He's proven himself time and time again, to be out on the front lines whenever there's anything. If the brother was trying to cool it, then he wasn't cooling over the press, he was cooling it in the streets. He was only doing it for the protection of other brothers.

Question: Stokely, you mentioned earlier that this is not a political war, it's not an economic war, but it's a question of black and white. And you also said that the only things that are required are food, clothing and shelter. Now just how do you propose for the black community to obtain these necessities?

Third Voice: We'll find ways to obtain them. We'll have to outline a plan. But we've found ways every time we needed to before. We found ways in slavery to survive. We found ways in reconstruction to survive. When they came with their Klu Klux Klan, and their white night riders, we found ways to survive. During the depression, we found ways to survive. After World War Two, when they kicked us out of the big cities, and put us on unemployment and welfare rolls, we found ways to survive. We will find ways to survive.

Question: Do you think there has to be a revision of the whole country, including the government, perhaps even the constitution.

Third Voice: There has to be a complete destruction of the American system as it now is. If black people are to live. Black Human beings.

Question: Can we cut it off here? I think (unreadable) End of reel.

1.

STUDENT NONVIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE

Literature distributed by the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), headquartered at 360-362 Nelson Street, S.W., Atlanta, Georgia, describes itself as not being a membership organization, but rather an agency attempting to stimulate and foster the growth of local protest movements. SNCC was born out of the sit-in movement which erupted across the South beginning on February 1, 1960. A conference at Raleigh, North Carolina, that Spring, brought together many of the demonstrating Southern students in a loose network of militant youth which was officially named SNCC in October, 1960.

A source has advised that in May, 1966, STOKELY CARMICHAEL was elected National Chairman by the Central Committee. In May, 1967, CARMICHAEL was replaced as Chairman by H. RAPP BROWN, with CARMICHAEL assuming the position of Recruiter and Organizer for the SNCC. In August, 1967, at the invitation of FIDEL CASTRO, CARMICHAEL participated in the Organization of Latin American Solidarity Conference which was held in Havana, Cuba. Subsequent thereto, CARMICHAEL traveled to Hanoi and other sections of North Vietnam. He returned to the United States in December, 1967, at which time his passport was picked up because of travel to unauthorized countries.

A source advised that when CARMICHAEL was elected Chairman of SNCC, the organization embarked on a program of eliminating Caucasians from its ranks. With the election of H. RAP BROWN as Chairman in 1967, it embarked on a worldwide struggle for human rights and to take a firm stand against violations of these rights by the American Government and to strengthen its programs of opposition to the draft and to the United States involvement in Vietnam.

Literature distributed in February, 1968, identifies SNCC as an organization in the revolutionary vanguard. It advocates that to be successful it is necessary to develop a revolutionary ideology and revolutionary program.

On August 13, 1967, while addressing a group in the Watts area of Los Angeles, California, H. RAP BROWN said "You better shape up America, or we'll burn you down." Later in February, 1968, in a publicized note BROWN wrote, "America, if it takes my death to organize my people to revolt against you and to organize your jails to revolt against you and to organize your children, your God, your poor, your country, and to organize mankind to rejoice in your destruction and ruin, then here's my life"

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC.

"The Southern Patriot," a monthly publication, shows that it is published by the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF).

"The Southern Patriot" was cited as an "organ" of the Southern Conference For Human Welfare (SCHW) by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, on the SCHW, June 12, 1947.

The SCHW was cited as a communist front by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 12, 1947.

An amendment to the charter of the SCHW changed the name of that organization to the SCEF, and listed its purpose as being to improve the educational and cultural standards of the Southern people in accordance with the highest American democratic institutions, traditions, and ideals. The amendment was dated April 26, 1946.

A source advised on March 2, 1961, that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, a Communist Party functionary, stated at a meeting of the Communist Party in Baltimore, Maryland, on February 25, 1961, that the Communist Party is not connected with any progressive movement but indirectly they do have some influence in the SCEF.

A second source, who is familiar with some phases of Communist Party activity in the New Orleans area, advised on May 28, 1965, that during the time the SCHW was in existence, Communist Party (CP) members have not been encouraged to work in the SCEF. The source stated the SCEF is a progressive, liberal organization, which he considers a CP front organization because it has gone along with the Communist Party on certain issues, particularly on the racial question.

On May 28, 1965, the second source advised that in the past he has considered [redacted] of the SCEF, to be a communist, if not an actual Communist Party member, because he followed communist principles.

b6
b7C

The second source also advised on May 28, 1965, that many people who are officials and members of the SCEF, while liberal in their views, are by no means communists.

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 5/14/68

Stokely Carmichael, former Chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, was scheduled to visit Gainesville, Florida, May 11-13, 1968, to raise funds for three jailed militant black nationalists.

Information in the attached indicates Governor of Florida declared that if Carmichael visited Florida he would be arrested for sedition. As a result of this, Carmichael upon the advice of his attorney William N. Kuntsler cancelled his trip to Florida.

Information in the attached will be furnished to the Inter-Division Information Unit and the Internal Security and Criminal Divisions of the Department.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

A confidential source with whom contact has been insufficient to determine reliability, advised on May 3, 1968, that the Malcolm X Black Hand Society of the World, Inc. (BHS) is reportedly a member organization of Black Consortium of the Black United Front (BC). BHS will hold its first meeting May 19, 1968, at the Afro-Arts Theatre, 3947 South Drexel Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois. BHS also has a mass celebration scheduled for 7:00 PM, May 20, 1968, at the Senate Theatre, 3170 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

On May 1, 1968, an anonymous caller apparently a Negro male, who refused to identify himself further for fear of his life, although vigorously pressed to do so, and who indicated he had previously contacted the Chicago Office furnished the following information:

Stokely Carmichael, former national director of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) has been invited to attend a public hearing in Chicago on May 18, 1968, sponsored by the BC. Carmichael will be honorary chairman of this event. It is anticipated Carmichael will come to Chicago because [redacted] will be in Chicago for a singing engagement which will end on May 19, 1968.

On April 19, 1968, a second confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that a black power group calling themselves BC has formed as a result of the recent Chicago westside disturbances. BC is convening a black tribunal to investigate these disturbances and will hold a tribunal hearing on its findings in the latter part of May, 1968. Leading personalities in BC are [redacted] associated with the Urban Training Center, 40 North Ashland Avenue and [redacted] of ACT, inactive militant westside Negro organization.

On April 5, 1968, a third confidential source, an agency that collects security information in the Chicago area advised that the Urban Training Center at 40 North Ashland Avenue, Chicago, is a local civil rights training organization sponsored largely by the Chicago City Missionary Society. The Urban Training Center sponsored a conference in preparation for a community action training program which began January, 1968, and continued through March, 1968. They called together 60 Negro persons known for their expertise in community planning which included Negro pastors, organizers and their known activists. Their goals were to develop a comprehensive plan for the survival of black people in the ghetto as a development toward the control of the ghetto by indigenous citizens and to seek to insure that such changes would be for the good of all black people of Chicago. Also to improve relationships with black

The February 15, 1966, issue of the "Chicago Daily Defender", daily newspaper oriented toward Chicago Negro community, contained an article entitled "Calvin Lockridge Tough 16th Ward Race." It stated he was a candidate for alderman from Chicago's 16th Ward. It described him as having been born in Columbia, Tennessee, and educated at Morehouse College, Atlanta, Georgia, Atlanta University, University of Maryland, and University of Heidelberg. He has been employed as a teacher, soldier, civil rights and youth leader and is presently a sales representative for the Charles Pfizer and Company, manufacturers of chemical products. He is a Negro, 35 years of age.

Information concerning SNCC may be found on the following attached page. Sources utilized have furnished reliable information in the past.

STUDENT NONVIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE

Literature distributed by the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), headquartered at 360-362 Nelson Street, S.W., Atlanta, Georgia, describes itself as not being a membership organization, but rather an agency attempting to stimulate and foster the growth of local protest movements. SNCC was born out of the sit-in movement which erupted across the South beginning on February 1, 1960. A conference at Raleigh, North Carolina, that Spring, brought together many of the demonstrating Southern students in a loose network of militant youth which was officially named SNCC in October, 1960.

A source has advised that in May, 1966, Stokely Carmichael was elected National Chairman by the Central Committee. In May, 1967, Carmichael was replaced as Chairman by H. Rap Brown, with Carmichael assuming the position of Recruiter and Organizer for the SNCC. In August, 1967, at the invitation of Fidel Castro, Carmichael participated in the Organization of Latin American Solidarity Conference which was held in Havana, Cuba. Subsequent thereto, Carmichael traveled to Hanoi and other sections of North Vietnam. He returned to the United States in December, 1967, at which time his passport was picked up because of travel to unauthorized countries.

A source advised that when Carmichael was elected Chairman of SNCC, the organization embarked on a program of eliminating Caucasians from its ranks. With the election of H. Rap Brown as Chairman in 1967, it embarked on a worldwide struggle for human rights and to take a firm stand against violations of these rights by the American Government and to strengthen its programs of opposition to the draft and to the United States involvement in Vietnam.

Literature distributed in February, 1968, identifies SNCC as an organization in the revolutionary vanguard. It advocates that to be successful it is necessary to develop a revolutionary ideology and revolutionary program.

On August 13, 1967, while addressing a group in the Watts area of Los Angeles, California, H. Rap Brown said "You better shape up America, or we'll burn you down." Later in February, 1968, in a publicized note Brown wrote, "America, if it takes my death to organize my people to revolt against you and to organize your jails to revolt against you and to organize your children, your God, your poor, your country, and to organize mankind to rejoice in your destruction and ruin, then here's my life."

Re Bureau letter to Knoxville dated 5/10/68.

Enclosed to Bureau are 11 copies of letterhead memorandum pertaining to an article by STOKELY CARMICHAEL appearing in the March 8, 1968 issue of "The Aurora."

Copies have been disseminated to WFO and Atlanta. Copies have also been disseminated to local intelligence agencies and Secret Service, Nashville.

[REDACTED] stated "The Aurora" is published by the students at Knoxville College (KC) with the assistance of a faculty advisor. They are free to publish anything they desire as long as it is not detrimental to KC. Both stated that if they do not have a legitimate objection to some article, nothing is done about it, and it is their belief that if anything were brought up concerning publishing of an article in this paper, it would give the students an opportunity to create an incident. Both stated that the students connected with the newspaper are almost given complete freedom to publish what they desire.

What We Want

by Stokely Carmichael

One of the tragedies of the struggle against racism is that up to now there has been no national organization which could speak to the growing militancy of young black people in the urban ghetto. There has been only a civil right movement, whose tone of voice was adapted to an audience of liberal whites. It served as a sort of buffer zone between them and angry young blacks. None of its so-called leaders could go into a rioting community and be listened to. In a sense, I blame ourselves — together with the mass media — for what has happened in Watts, Harlem, Chicago, Cleveland, Omaha. Each time the people in those cities saw Martin Luther King get slapped, they became angry; when they saw four little black girls bombed to death, they were angrier; and when nothing happened, they were steaming. We had nothing to offer that they could see, except to go out and be beaten again. We helped to build their frustration.

For too many years, black Americans marched and had their heads broken and got shot. They were saying to the country, "Look, you guys are supposed to be nice guys and we you beat us up, why don't you give us what we ask, why don't you straighten yourselves out?" After years of this, we are at almost the same point — because we demonstrated from a position of weakness. We cannot be expected any longer to march and have our heads broken in order to say to whites: come on, you're nice guys. For you are not nice guys. We have found you out.

An organization which claims to speak for the needs of a community — as does the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee must speak in the tone of that community, not as somebody else's buffer zone. This is the significance of black power as a slogan. For once, black people are going to use the words they want to use — not just the words whites want to hear. And they will do this no matter how often the press tries to stop the use of the slogan by equating it with racism or separatism.

An organization which claims to be working for the needs of a community — as SNCC does — must work to provide that community with a position of strength from which to make its voice heard. This is the significance of black power beyond the slogan.

Black Power can be clearly defined for those who do not attach the fears of white America to their questions about it. We should begin with the basic fact that black Americans have two problems: they are poor and they are black. All other problems arise, from this two-sided reality: lack of education, the so-called apathy of black men. Any program to end racism must address itself to that double reality.

Whites will not see that I, for can't, on p. 5, col. 3

example, as a person oppressed because of my blackness, have common cause with other blacks who are oppressed because of blackness. This is not to say that there are no white people who see things as I do, but that it is black people I must speak to first. It must be the oppressed to whom SNCC addresses itself primarily, not to friends from the oppressing group.

As for White America, perhaps it can stop crying out against "black supremacy," "black nationalism," "racism in reverse," and begin facing reality. The reality is that this nation, from top to bottom, is racist; that racism is not primarily a problem of "human relations" but of an exploitation maintained — either actively or through silence — by the society as a whole. Camus and Sartre have asked, can a man condemn himself? Can whites, particularly liberal whites, condemn themselves? Can they stop blaming us, and blame their own system? Are they capable of the shame which might become a revolutionary emotion?

We have found that they usually cannot condemn themselves, and so we have done it. But the rebuilding of this society, if at all possible, is basically the responsibility of whites—not blacks. We won't fight to save the present society, in Vietnam or anywhere else. We are just going to work, in the way we see fit, and on goals we define, not for civil rights but for all our human rights.

(OO:WFO)

The "Washington-Afro American" newspaper, a semi-weekly Washington, D.C., publication, contained an article on Page 13, in the 5/4/68 edition entitled: "STOKELY WEDS SINGER MAKEBA." The article went on to state: "STOKELY CARMICHAEL, age 26, former chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee and Miss MIRIAM MAKEBA, South African singer, were married Monday. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. DOUGLAS MOORE, 2628 Monroe Street, N.E., and witnessed by ARTHUR E. BROADDUS. The couple applied for the license on April 22. In answer to a question asking the color of the applicants, both wrote, 'beautiful black.' Miss MAKEBA noted a former marriage on the form and listed her age as 36. The couple will reside in the 5000 block 16th Street in upper northwest, informally called the Gold Coast."

Dear Mr. Director:

I wish to call to your attention an article in the Drew Pearson-Jack Anderson column carried in the Washington Post on May 4, 1968. A copy of the article is enclosed.

The article purports to give a verbatim account of a conversation between Stokely Carmichael and a man in Havana, Cuba during the recent riots in Washington, D. C.

I would appreciate receiving your comments on the article. I am particularly interested in knowing whether the alleged conversation was monitored by the United States Government.

With best wishes and my kind regards, I am

Stokely Told Cubans of Guerrilla Plan

By Drew Pearson and
Jack Anderson

Here is the record of the amazing telephone conversation between Stokely Carmichael, the Negro rabble-rouser, and Havana, Cuba, at the height of the recent Washington race riots.

Carmichael had just come in from the streets where he had been crying for Negroes to go get their guns. He was summoned to the overseas telephone by Mike Laguardia, a commentator for Radio Havana. This conversation follows:

"Stokely?"

"Yes."

"Oh, this is Mike Laguardia from Radio Havana Cuba."

"Hello," Carmichael greeted him cordially.

"Hello, sir," replied Laguardia.

"Say, Stokely," he said.

"Si."

"We would like to have a statement from you on Martin Luther King's assassination."

"Right."

"And what has been the reaction of the Afro-Americans in the face of this crime?"

"Right," repeated Carmichael. "A white America has Rap Brown (another black militant leader) in jail right now. An American killed Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. last night. When they killed Dr. King, they made a mistake, because Dr. King was the one man who was trying to ask, uh, black people not to burn down the cities. Now that they have killed Dr. King, there is no black man who will ask black people not to burn down the cities. What it means is that we've gone full swing into the revolution.

"Last night," Carmichael spoke on, "35 cities had major incidents. That was last night—35 cities of the United States where there was burning and shooting and killing over the death of Dr. King. It is clear, uh, more of this will continue. It is going to become more and more a guerrilla—urban guerrilla—warfare, because it is clear that we cannot win with the, uh, with the police, in open rebellion.

"So," he continued, "More people are now beginning to plan seriously a major urban guerrilla warfare, where we can begin to retaliate not only for the death of Dr. King, but where we can move seriously to . . ." His next few words were indistinct. . . . serious revolutions with this country to bring it to its knees.

"It is crystal clear to us," he declared, "that the United States of America must fall in order for humanity to live, and we are going to give our lives to that cause. To our brothers and sisters in Cuba, we want to say: Hello, my respects to you all."

"Thanks very much, Stokely," said Laguardia.

"We'll be coming back to you again in case . . . shows up."

"Very good."

"Au revoir."

"Au revoir," said Carmichael. "Tell Prime Minister Fidel (Fidel Castro) I said hello."

"All right," promised Laguardia. "Bye, Stokely."

State Level Politics

The high-powered lobbying pressures brought on state legislators is illustrated in an election now taking place in the Cleveland suburbs. The race is between Ron Mottl, a member of the Ohio legislature, and State Sen. Francis Sullivan, whom Mottl seeks to replace. Both are Democrats.

Last year Mottl took a courageous stand against the most powerful bank in Ohio, the Cleveland Trust Company. He supported a law requiring cumulative stock voting which would have permitted minority stockholders to elect directors to the Cleveland Trust's Board.

It was a bitter battle in which the trust company retained as its attorney Dan Duffy, vice chairman of the Democratic Party in Cleveland. He registered the fact that he was paid $12,000.

Afterward Duffy moved to bar Mottl from the ballot in the upcoming Ohio primary. Duffy is a member of the board of elections as well as being vice chairman of the Democratic Party, and used his position of influence to strike Mottl's name. Mottl had declared as a candidate for the Senate against incumbent Sen. Francis Sullivan, who is regularly employed by Republic Steel at a salary of $9000.

Ted Brown, Ohio Secretary of State and a Republican, criticized the board of elections for its action. Mottl went to court and secured a ruling putting his name back on the ballot. It's there today.

Meanwhile, two interesting candidates announced that they were running against him under circumstances which looked as if friends of Sen. Sullivan or friends of the Cleveland Trust Company might have induced them to run.

The Parma election district outside of Cleveland is largely populated by Czechs, Slavs and Ukrainians, mixed with Irish. Sullivan automatically gets the Irish vote and Mottl, a Czech-American, was due to get the Slav vote.

But Michael Zaderecky, a Ukrainian, suddenly entered the Democratic primary, together with Richard Motousek, a Czech. Obviously they will siphon votes away from Ron Mottl rather than from Francis Sullivan, the Irishman.

Drew Pearson will predict the outcome of the Indiana primary in his broadcast with Jack Anderson over radio WTOP, at 6:40 p.m.

"The Washington Post" dated 5/15/68, page A-14, in the "Letters to the Editor" column contained a letter from Paul Segre, Brown's Town, Jamaica, wherein Segre was critical of columnist Drew Pearson repeatedly referring to Stokely Carmichael as having been born in Jamaica, West Indies. According to Segre, Carmichael was not born in Jamaica and has never been to Jamaica. The Director inquired, "Where was Carmichael born?"

Carmichael was born 6/29/41 in Port of Spain, Trinidad, West Indies. He received derivative United States citizenship on 4/27/53 as a minor upon naturalization of his father in the United States District Court at New York, New York.

Letters to The Editor

Jamaican Disclaimer

Your syndicated columnist Mr. Drew Pearson has repeatedly referred to Mr. Stokely Carmichael as having been born in Jamaica, West Indies. The qualifying epithets have usually been "Jamaican rabble-rouser," "militant Negro from Jamaica," or, most recently, "young firebrand from Jamaica who took advantage of an American college education." For Mr. Pearson's information, Mr. Carmichael was not born in Jamaica, has never been to Jamaica, nor has he ever insinuated any comments to this effect. Jamaican students who come to your country are usually under tremendous economic and emotional pressures and should not have their hardships compounded by the assertions of irresponsible journalists who ally them with controversial personages.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

100-439190 (SNCC)

100-446080 (Stokely Carmichael)

At the specific request of the Department, we are conducting an investigation of Stokely Carmichael, former chairman of SNCC, who is presently working out of the Washington, D. C., SNCC Office. Under Carmichael's direction SNCC, since early 1967, has changed from a civil rights organization to a group advocating violence and guerrilla warfare. We are currently conducting an investigation of SNCC and its members. It is believed an observation post of Washington, D. C., SNCC headquarters will provide valuable information in our coverage of Carmichael and other SNCC members in the Washington, D. C., area.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the attached airtel be approved authorizing WFO to [REDACTED] [REDACTED] for the purpose of establishing an observation post of Washington, D. C., SNCC headquarters with full security assured.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL
INTERNAL SECURITY - MISCELLANEOUS
SEDITION

On April 26, 1968, Stokely Carmichael, of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), made a speech appearance at Central High School, Newark, New Jersey.

A characterization of SNCC is contained in the appendix hereto.

A source [redacted] [redacted] taped Carmichael's remarks. This tape was made available to the Newark Division, a transcript prepared, and is set out as follows:

b7D

100-446640-1593
ENCLOSURE

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

I know that you are tired because I am and I think you ought to forgive the people who run the program that kept you so long, but in a way you are to blame too because they feel they can't get you out and when they do, they have to give you everything at once. If you would come out all the time we could give a little at a time. (Applause) So that we ought to begin to understand that if we come out our programs would not have to be so lengthy. It is unfortunate that the program is this lengthy because we do have a lot to talk about. Before I do, I want to say something to you. Brother Rap Brown was unable to come tonight. He sends his love, he sends his good wishes, and everything else. (Noise from audience).

Tonight we want to talk about a lot of things. I hope I do not hurt anyone by what I say. Mainly I say things to help you to see this through self contradiction. I hope you just hang into the program beyond the points as they come.

Since Dr. King's death a lot of you are asking what does SNCC intend to do about it. Do they intend to fill the gap and preach nonviolence? (Laughter)

Since everybody has been quoting the Bible, I've found two quotes I'd like to give which is going to be SNCC quotes.

The first is, I come to bring you a sword not the shield. I come to bring father against son, daughter against mother, nation against nation, for where there is injustice there shall be no peace. (Applause)

The second quote is Acts 17, verse 6 or 7 depending upon which version of the Bible you read. Acts 17, verse 6 or 7 - it says, these are the men who were sent to turn the city upside down and the city authorities were afraid of us. (Applause)

I gave you the verse and the chapter because I want you to check it out yourself, so you know we're coming straight from the Bible. (Laughter and Applause)

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Now we have to begin to do a number of things in this country as a people. I want you to understand something with Dr. King's death. They've turned it into the biggest carnival and the biggest parade that this country . . . (Inaudible - Applause)

What they did to Dr. King was a clear insult to every black man in this country. Dr. King's last statement, I want to quote it to you, he said, "I have been on the mountain top, I have seen the promise land, I may not get there with you, but I tell you that we as a people are going to make it". He didn't say black people, he said we as a people are going to make it. (Applause) And that's what you've got to understand. We're talking about a people - a people. Dr. King didn't have any white followers cause if he had any they would have thrown a brick when he died. They didn't do nothing. Cause everybody did something who loved him, everybody. It's a people thing. It ain't no political thing, it's a people thing. And that's what we want to talk about.

We have to build in this country a concept of peoplehood. In order to do that we have to begin to advocate three, just three simple steps, to begin to form an ideology.

The first one is that we must have undying love for our people. Our people, not the country, our people. (Applause) We must have undying love for our people. That means we don't die in Vietnam, we die in the streets of Newark, our people. (Applause)

The next thing that comes out of that concept is first our people then and only then you and me as individuals. I want to repeat it, first - our people, then and only then you and me as individuals. That means everything goes out the window. Our People Comes First. Its About Time! (Applause)

Now then you must begin to understand that you cannot be for your people and also be for America because America is, always has been, and always will be against our people. (Applause) So that if we say we are for our people, we are against America, as hard as those words seem. (Applause)

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Now then the second concept that we have to deal with is going to be very hard. It is hard even for me. Every Negro is a potential black man. (Applause) That is very very important. Every Negro is a potential black man and if you believe every Negro is a potential black man then he's your potential ally and you will not alienate a potential ally. You work with them, you bring them home, and make them a warrior. (Applause) (Joke) (Laughter)

We've got to wake each other up, if we don't the white man will use us against each other. Every Negro Is A Potential Black Man! If you love your people you would work with them and bring them home instead of spitting on them, cursing at them, and scorning them. Every Negro is a potential black man. We've got to wake up! (Applause)

I tell you why that's hard, you see, cause sometimes I get upset myself. The weekend of Dr. King's death I really got upset. I've never seen so many Niggers run to white folks in my life who I thought would be together. I've never seen (inaudible). They running to them, begging to them, y'all do this, y'all do that, when you know damn well these Niggers (inaudible) (Applause)

But they're potential black man and we're going to talk to them, we gonna try, we gonna try, and we gonna try, and if they don't come home, we're not going to talk to them, they're traitors, we'll kill them. (Laughter and Applause)

You should not laugh very loud for killing your people because if you love them it will hurt you when you have to kill them. (Outburst from audience)

That's the problem with us, we're always so happy to jump on each other because we've been trained to hate, to cut, to kill, and to shoot each other, that the minute we get a chance to doubt each other, we do it. We must think positively as a race of people. We must! (Applause)

I'm tired hearing people get up and talk about how they gonna kill this Uncle Tom and that Uncle Tom, and they running around with governors, and presidents, and mayors and everybody else. I'm tired, I'm tired! (Applause)

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

We ought not be talking about killing our people. We ought to talk about bring them home. If we love them, anybody who gets in our way gets to go, gets to go. Ain't no ifs, ands, or buts about it. Now we shouldn't talk about killing our people. If you really love somebody, you got to save them. If you got to kill them it hurts you, but you got to kill them.

Third concept. Very difficult. For black people the question of community is not simply a question of land, it is a question of our people and where we are. I'll repeat that. For black people the question of community is not simply a question of land or geography, it is a question of our people and where we are. That is to say that if I went to New York I would not be home until I was in Harlem cause that's where my people are; if I went to California, Los Angeles, I wouldn't be home until I was in Watts; Chicago - Southside; Newark - Central Ward, Washington, D.C. - the whole city. (Laughter and Applause)

Now if we begin to understand that concept then we can break down the national barriers on technical bull that the white man has thrown at us. If the question of community is wherever our people are - then if we go to Cuba, 65% of Cuba is black, we're home! If we go to Panama, 60% of Panama is black, we're home! Guatemala, 60% of Guatemala is black, we're home! Haiti, the whole island is black, we're home! The West Indies and when we get to Africa, we know we're back where we came from. (Applause)

If we can begin to understand that concept and we must, we can break down these concepts this white man talking about of American Negro, Canadian Negro, Afro-Cuban, (obscene) that. We're one people from the same person, same class, same blood. We were first. Ain't no doubt about that. We are the same people. We must understand that concept because if we do we understand that there are nine hundred million Africans in the world today and that we are 50 million apart of that nine hundred million Africans in the world today. (Applause)

We have got to understand that concept because it is for our survival. The concepts we talk about is not to build a political party, we don't want a political party, the concepts we talk about is for the survival of black people. Cause that is what we're faced with today. Not a mayor, not a governor, not a senator, we are faced with survival. Why are we faced with survival? We are faced with survival because the "honky" is getting ready to wipe us out once and for all. (Applause) That's the problem we're faced with. Now we say the "honky" is getting ready to commit genocide against us. The people say, oh no, he ain't going to do that. (Laughter) Alright, let us assume he is not going to do that. (Laughter) We say, it is better to be prepared than to not be prepared. (Applause) (Joke) (Laughter and Applause)

It is always better to be prepared than not be prepared. But let us examine why we must talk about survival today.

The trials and tribulations of black people in this country has been nothing, but sorrow. That's all. We were brought here for a specific purpose. To make this "honky" a country, to make him the best country in the world, and we have served him well, served him well. (Applause) Now we have served our purpose. We have built this country. They no longer need us. When you don't need something you store it. If it becomes too expensive to store it, you destroy it. Brothers right now they're getting ready to do us in. We've got to wake up! (Applause)

But still some black people will say, it is not possible, they're not going to wipe us out. Well let us check out the man and the history book. The "honky's" country was conceived in genocide. He killed the indians and took it from them, and he taught everybody about genocide. . . . (inaudible) on television, cowboys and indians, he tells you how glorious, how beautiful it was to wipe out a race of people and take the country from them. He doesn't even know what he has done. That's the type of animal we are dealing with. But let us not in America. As we begin, let us stop in South America. The Aztec Indians took him in. They thought he was a human being. (Laughter) They said come brother. Here's our silver, these are our religious monuments, these are beads our people wear. He spotted the silver, stole it, and wiped them out. He went to Africa. He spotted us. We were laying beside trees, eating, getting high, giving gold to our women. (Laughter) We said look, this is all our stuff. We ain't putting no value on nothing cause gold don't look anything as when its on somebody black. It's beautiful. (Applause) Not only did they steal our gold, our diamonds, our copper, our zinc, our oil, he stole us. (Laughter and Applause) He wasn't satisfied. He went to Asia. The Chinese took him in. They said dig brother, what you have? I have gun powder. They wasn't even making guns for it. They said we use this to set off fireworks on our anniversaries and festivities. He spotted it, took it back, made guns, came back and conquered Asia. Where has this white man gone where he does not rule today? I ask you to tell me one place that he has gone where he hasn't shown his true nature. (Laughter) Whether the majority or the minority, he rules! He rules in America. He rules in South Africa. He rules in Asia. He rules in Latin America. Wherever he has gone he has disrupted civilization. He has disrupted every type of nation and human rights. He has destroyed his own . . . (inaudible) Everybody bows down to him. We've had it! That's enough. Time to quit. Lets get it on. (Applause)

This is not only the concept that comes out from fanatics, extremists, etc., it is a real live problem. The world today is divided on color, nothing else. Pure-d color. In England they can't be helped. In France, where the folks began the so-called State of Israel, they're building missiles for the Zionists. Everywhere we go that white man help the white man out and trying to keep us divided. The world is divided on color.

(Long break in tape)

They went there and took the land from the Palestine Arabs. Took it! Didn't say do you want to sell it, how much money you want. Took it! Kicked them out! Kicked them out and established a state, and they want everybody to feel sorry for them cause Hitler messed over them. Cause Hitler messed over you, get your guns and fight Hitler! I ain't done nothing to you. Leave me alone! Leave me alone! Leave me alone! (Applause)

Don't let those Jews run the story down on you cause we been persecuted. Yeah we been persecuted. But who persecuted us. The white man persecuted us. We ain't never put a finger on you, not a finger! (Applause) The Russians persecuted them, the Germans persecuted them, the Poles persecuted them, the Americans persecuted them, the English persecuted them, the French persecuted them, but go ahead and fight them. The Arabs ain't never did nothing to them, nothing! Why they want to become the Nazis of the Middle East? Why? Can you honestly talk about you supporting Israel. You don't know what's happening. You don't know what's happening. The so-call State of Israel, they talk about Israel belongs to them according to the Proclamation of David. Egypt is over 4,000 years old. We had it then, its ours! It is ours! They ain't telling you Jewish boys they should leave America to go fight for Israel, which he said belongs to them from David's time. That Egypt been ours, been ours, was the best civilization, best civilization! If you go to Egypt, in the museums you see the 4,000 year old statutes of black men of you and me, and you've got to really fight for Egypt, they're marching on Egypt now. And we sit here talking about why those Arabs hate the Jews. Well now. (Laughter) Because they are educated! (Laughter) I'm your Nigger and I support the Arabs. (Applause)

. . . . (inaudible) It makes my heart feel so good. (Laughter) So good, so good. Yeah, I want them Palestinian Arabs to get the whole thing back. It belongs to them.

Now there's one other point we must discuss. Now you know how they confuse everybody. Now they talk about well it was like that, we didn't get the land correctly, we took it, but now that we're here we have to do something about it. Don't go for that joke. Look here. If you had a house which you built with twenty rooms in it and I come in and you have one room and lets say that your children bikes and all that junk and I threw all the bikes out and I take the room, and you come back and say I want my room, and I say no, no, before I get out we've got to discuss this. (Laughter) Before we discuss this you got to get out my room. If I want you back in I will let you back in. Let you back in. (Applause)

Don't be carried away with those intellectual arguments. Just ask if you think from the heart you won't ever go wrong. Take my word for it. Take the white man to talk about you got to think it out. I don't have to think nothing out, when I fall in love I'm in love. Ain't got to think nothing out. Ain't got to think nothing out. No sir! Ain't got to think it out. When you know you're right you just go ahead and you do what you're suppose, cause good thinking will always mess the black man up when its the white man doing the thinking. (Applause)

There are three more points that I wish to run through real quickly. We've got to (outburst from audience - inaudible)

Yeah, well my wife is waiting for me. (Laughter)

There is communism versus capitalism. Now we want you to understand both of them, and where each is coming from. Communism speaks to the question of people who are exploited, it does not speak to people who are colonized. You've got to understand this. Communism speaks to people who are exploited, does not speak to people who are colonized. If we are colonized people, communism does not seek of us. Understand that, now we're not against communism, it just can't help us, cause all communism says is that if there is one guy, two guys on top working everybody and they are poor and they say that poor guys ought to get together, beat up the few rich guys, and spread the money around. That will appeal to the white people, but as we said, for us it's not a question of money, it's a question of methods, so we must find an ideology with features beyond communism. Beyond communism. For we must get to the essence of that. So when they talk about are you a communist we only waste time answering any of them. Don't be getting caught in no debate with any of them, are you this, are you anything. I'm for my people that's all. Whatever they're for, I'm for. Period. Period. (Applause)

We all understand it. We don't need you. The people need you. That's why we put the press out. We're not talking to the press, we're talking to our people! The cultural revolution is a necessity for us at this point. It's a necessity because we are so confused, w are going through so many different ways. We have to keep reaching, finding out where it is. The world is moving much too fast for us to even keep up with it that we did the most technological thing. Everyday something world shaken happens. Everyday. We must have a cultural revolution that binds us closer and closer together as a people. Because in a final analysis, it will only be the love of our people that will save us. Undying love for my people. There are no interests in all the governments. We must be prepared for them, they are prepared for them. Outside many people crying. I'm serious! In Washington, D.C., eleven people got killed. Everybody else says look at you preaching the (inaudible). Eleven of your people are killed. Nigger you got a thousand million dollars dying everyday! They died for nething! Eleven died in D.C. and they brought the community to the government, and lets praise those eleven that gave their lives for us. (Applause)

We must . . . (inaudible) 43 people died. On any given holiday we have 800, 900 people die on highways. 43 people died to bring our people together and everybody else - don't do that no more. Don't drive on a holiday cause you're going to die. (Laughter) That's right. Y'all talk about death. But I'm not afraid to die, and if your're dying for your people you ought to say that you'll be happy to do it. We're much betteroff than white people in the country today. They have nothing to die for. We have our people to die for. We're way ahead of them. We don't (inaudible) as they do that's why they've got to turn against us. We have had over 22,000 heros in jail over the past three years. We should praise them. We should write (inaudible), and we should sing their praises for what they have done to help bring our people together. And it does bring our community together much better than a thousand Martin Luther King's speeches got us all together. Together much better than a thousand Leroi Jones or Rap Browns preaching to the same people. Those are natural facts. And we must begin to recognize that. And that is all, that is all, eleven died, and we are thankful that only eleven died for their people. More perhaps died. Let us recognize that. People just don't say, why don't you burn downtown. Nigger why don't you organize and help me burn downtown? (Applause) If you want downtown burned, I'm ready, lets organize, lets go downtown to burn. Don't come pointing your finger to me about why did you go downtown to burn, there's no need to burn. Nigger it's your fight too, it's not just mine. It's, it's all our fight. whether you want to admit it or not, it's all our fight. Cause if I go out tonight and throw a brick in a window downtown, they gonna come down on the entire black community. The persecution is not gonna be on me its gonna be on the entire black community. (Applause)

Now suppose for the minute that you want this. Do you understand this concept of black versus America? And that's what a lot of people going around here saying I'm an American Negro and I'm proud of it. That's okay. I can understand that. I understand it. That's okay. I remember . . . (inaudible) about young Jews who were trying to get the people awake . . . (inaudible). That's okay they woke up dead the Germans and the Jews. So you know about American Negroes, that's okay, we gonna wake up dead American Negroes. I may wake up a dead black man, but I'll have done enough that I will be satisfied with a bullet in me. (Applause)

If they kill me tomorrow I'm satisfied because I've done everything I could do until that day when they killed me, and until they kill me I'm gonna keep doing everything I can so when I go my death will be worthy of the bullet. When you get the bullet Nigger, what is it worth? What have you done to deserve the bullet. If you gonna get it, do something. If you can't do nothing Nigger, sit, sit! (Laughter and Applause)

Now as the final concept, I wanna talk about this thing love or hate. You gotta understand it very very clearly. A lot of people will say . . . (inaudible). They're preaching hate. We're not preaching hate, we're preaching love. We are preaching love for one's people. Now you got to understand it. There's two types of philosophy in this world. Y'all excuse me if I get kind of heavy. (Laughter)

There is metaphysical philosophy and there's dialectical philosophy. Metaphysical philosophy is always constant and there's this change that goes on although the changes remain constant. Dialectical philosophy sets up opposites. And as these opposites react, that's how we get the changes. Obviously dialectical philosophy is correct. There are opposites for laughter, there's crying, for joy there's sadness, for hot there's cold. There are opposites in everything. For black there's white, for love there's hate. If you say you love and you do not hate or you don't know about hate, you do not love. Because unless you know about hate you cannot know about love. Cannot know about love! If you don't hate then you love everybody, then you'll have to marry everybody. (Laughter) But if because you know about hate then you can distinguish between those who you like, those you like a little bit more, those you like a little bit more, and those who you finally love. But if you do not hate I'm going to tell you something, don't get upset. But if you do not hate, you do not love. When Dr. King got shot I went out and wished I could kill every God damn white man alive. I hate them! Old man downstairs said no son I don't hate. I said you don't hate cause you don't love Dr. King. Cause if you love somebody you have to destroy that which is trying to destroy the one you love. You got to do it! Your mother, your father, you got children, you love your children. If I try to destroy your children, if you love them, you'd destroy me. You said you love black people, you know God damn well . . . (inaudible) black people, you've got to hate this country for what's it doing to your people, if you love them. If you loved your people you'd have to. Don't you just go crazy seeing the way they shoot us down. If you love you'd have to go and save them. You just have to do something. But because you have no love for your people then you have no hatred for that which is destroying your people. I love my people and anything that tries to mess over my people I'll kill them. If you loved your people you'd destroy anything that tries to mess over them. Thank you. (Applause)

APPENDIX

STUDENT NONVIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE

Literature distributed by the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), headquartered at 360-362 Nelson Street, S.W., Atlanta, Georgia, describes itself as not being a membership organization, but rather an agency attempting to stimulate and foster the growth of local protest movements. SNCC was born out of the sit-in movement which erupted across the South beginning on February 1, 1960. A conference at Raleigh, North Carolina, that Spring brought together many of the demonstrating Southern students in a loose network of militant youth which was officially named SNCC in October, 1960.

A source has advised that in May, 1966, Stokely Carmichael was elected National Chairman by the Central Committee. In May, 1967, Carmichael was replaced as Chairman by H. Rap Brown, with Carmichael assuming the position of Recruiter and Organizer for the SNCC. In August, 1967, at the invitation of Fidel Castro, Carmichael participated in the Organization of Latin American Solidarity Conference which was held in Havana, Cuba. Subsequent thereto, Carmichael traveled to Hanoi and other sections of North Vietnam. He returned to the United States in December, 1967, at which time his passport was picked up because of travel to unauthorized countries.

A source advised that when Carmichael was elected Chairman of SNCC, the organization embarked on a program of eliminating Caucasians from its ranks. With the election of H. Rap Brown as Chairman in 1967, it embarked on a worldwide struggle for human rights and to take a firm stand against violations of these rights by the American Government and to strengthen its programs of opposition to the draft and to the United States involvement in Vietnam.

Literature distributed in February, 1968, identifies SNCC as an organization in the revolutionary vanguard. It advocates that to be successful it is necessary to develop a revolutionary ideology and revolutionary program.

On August 13, 1967, while addressing a group in the Watts area of Los Angeles, California, H. Rap Brown said "You better shape up America, or we'll burn you down." Later in February, 1968, in a publicized note Brown wrote, "America, if it takes my death to organize my people to revolt against you and to organize your jails to revolt against you and to organize your children, your God, your poor, your country, and to organize mankind to rejoice in your destruction and ruin, then here's my life."

SUBJECT: STOKELY CARMICHAEL
RACIAL MATTERS - STUDENT NONVIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE
SEDITION

By letter dated 4/6/68 the Attorney General requested the Bureau's assistance in developing information on the incidents involving Stokely Carmichael during the recent riots in Washington, D. C.,

My memorandum dated 5/8/68 advised we have furnished four reports to the Department totaling 675 pages containing the results of approximately 600 interviews. Included in these reports are statements from witnesses who saw Carmichael in the vicinity of 14th and U Streets, N.W., Washington, D. C., the afternoon of 4/4/68 in the possession of a handgun and making inflammatory statements. Also included is a transcript of remarks made by Carmichael at a press conference on 4/5/68 in Washington, D. C. [REDACTED]

(S) [REDACTED] Both of these transcripts also contain highly inflammatory statements.

Extensive information concerning Carmichael's activities at Howard University on the afternoon of 4/5/68 where several witnesses observed him exhibit a pistol and his activities in the vicinity of the 4100 block of Wheeler Road, S. E., where he reportedly stated, "We are going to get this area" is also set forth.

Pursuant to the Director's instructions "to expedite and set a date for deadline" our WFO was instructed to complete its investigation of this matter by 5-15-68.

We have now received a fifth report from WFO completing the investigation of this matter. This report contains interviews of additional witnesses including three persons who saw Carmichael at Howard University on the afternoon of 4-5-68 displaying a handgun. Also included is information concerning the scope of news media dissemination of Carmichael's remarks at the press conference held 4-5-68, Washington, D. C. This report is being disseminated to the Internal Security Division and the Criminal Division of the Department and a prosecutive opinion is being requested of the Criminal Division.

In addition to the specific investigation of Carmichael concerning his participation in the recent riots, we have been conducting an intensive investigation of Carmichael's activities for possible violation of the Sedition statutes and have furnished the Department voluminous information in this regard. We are continuing to vigorously press the Sedition investigation of Carmichael and pertinent information developed is submitted to the Department on a daily basis.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

On May 2, 1968, a confidential source, who has not been contacted sufficiently to determine reliability, but who is known to be acquainted with the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) activists and sympathizers in Chicago, made available the following verbatim transcript of a speech by Stokely Carmichael, former National Director of SNCC made at the Afro-Arts Theatre, 3947 South Drexel Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois, on March 25, 1968.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. It is the property of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Stokely Carmichael: Good evening brothers and sisters...I can wrap some coats on to you. We have a lot to talk about tonight. We want to take our time and understand what we have to talk about tonight. I think in part if you see any black man you see Negroes, we all the same.

Response from audience.

Carmichael: Now then tonight we have to be very very serious and we have to understand very clearly what is happening in this country. It is crystal clear that the honkies are preparing to commit genocide against this beautiful race of people.

Person from audience: Peace brother.

Carmichael: That's clear and we want to go over that because what we're talking about tonight is not political, not economic, not poverty program. We're talking about survival, survival, survival, and survival is entirely different from old, poverty program, education, and all that junk. After you have survival you can play with that, but when your talking about survival you're talking about food, shelter, clothing, that's all. Now there are some of our brothers and sisters who do not believe that white people will or getting ready to commit genocide against us. So we have to be clear in our minds when we say they are getting ready to commit genocide against us, that we can at least explain that from grounds over which they can see the light. Now it is very easy. All we have to do is to let our brothers and sisters read the man's history. If you read the honkies history you'd see wherever the honkies got they disrupted societies, disrupted societies. We can explain to brothers that the honkies came to this country. The Indians took him in and fed him, showed him how to plant corn, to hunt, fish, how to adapt to this country and when the Indians showed him that he wiped him out. We have to demonstrate to our people exactly what is going on because if we do not break off we're going to be dead. We can explain to the brother that when the honky went to South America he saw the Aztec Indians with their silver and their copper and all of their monuments. The Aztec Indians took him in showed him the silver. He fight, stole, it and wiped them out.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

We are not teaching it tonight, we're giving facts. We'll tell you what we're preaching.

The honkies went to Africa. We were milling in Africa. We were the greatest there was. He came, he got mad. He stole our gold, stole our diamonds, stole our copper, stole our zinc, and turned around and stole us as well.

He went to China. The Chinese had gunpowder. They used it for fireworks on their days of festivities. They sold it to the honkies. He refined it, made a gun, and came back, shot them all. I ask you to read the honkies' history and show me where he has gone where he has not conquered, where he is the majority or the minority.

What we're dealing with today is the final showdown, the confrontation between the black and white around the world especially inside the United States, and since we're dealing with a final confrontation of black or white, we have to ask ourselves how will we survive, but brothers and sisters you don't have to worry because we're gonna survive, and therefore he is capable of doing it. We must prepare ourselves... preparation. I always tell a little joke about the brother in Alabama. This honky came into a juke joint and just started hitting on his brother and kicked him all down the floor and the white man jumped up, he said, "Nigger if I had my gun I'd kill you. The brother said "slide up against the wall here. White man you mean to tell me you have... (rest of joke unintelligible because of large response by audience).

It is always better to be prepared than to be not prepared and it is always better to have you than caught without it, but there is another reason why we say he is getting ready to commit genocide against us. He brought us here for a specific reason to build this country. We have built this country so it is the most powerful and richest country in the world. We built it. He no longer has need of us. When you don't need something destroy it.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

If its costing you much money destroy it. You get rid of it. Now if we say that he is getting ready to do this thing to us and if we are talking about survival, then some of the conferences we lost last year, we must go beyond.

We have three very important concepts which we must all understand very clearly in our minds, and these concepts are going to help to build the type of ideology that is going to bind us together as a group..to shoot this white man once and for all, that's very important. The first concept: We must have undying love for our people. I want to repeat that we must have undying love for our people, and that's the most important thing we have. If we have undying love for our people we would not be dying in Viet Nam. We would be dying in the streets of Chicago. We do not have undying love for our people because he has transferred the love that we once had for each other for relative things like this country. So we are willing to die for his country but we are not willing to die for our people.

Response from audience.

...first our people then, and only then you and me as individuals. Our people must come first. The only thing is that an undying love of our people is going to be very hard, because we hate each other so much, and we hate each other so much because we are taught how to hate each other; and if we are talking about building an undying love for our people we must begin to want..All of those things he taught us, the first thing he taught us was to hate black because that's us. It is no accident that we have such...statements about the blacks he taught us...Even today some of our people still want to be called Negro rather than be called black. It is because we have a hatred of that which is black that we hate ourselves, because black is like us which is why we do the things we do to each other. If we are going to turn it around, we must say we love the blacks.

Response from audience.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Unless we get him to understand that concept he will continue to demind us. We must have such a strong love for our people that..cannot disrupt us, cannot disrupt us. We must have such an undying love for our people that if a brother should have to go to Viet Nam we love him so much we will break his legs, and we must do it in a spirit of love, not hate. We must have such an undying love for our people that when a brother says he does not want to go to Viet Nam that when the MPs come to get him, he got to get all of us.

Large response from audience.

Response from audience.

We must have such an undying love for our people that we no longer say anything negative about our people. Nothing, from now on everything we say about our people must be positive. We cannot say anything, it must be positive.

The second concept which is very important, flows from the first, and says every Negro is a potential black man, and we have to work with that concept to make all our brothers who is a slipping Negro yesterday, today he's a black nationalist...if the brother is a nationalist then who should help that brother see the light and come on home. If we do not help that brother see the light the honkies are going to use him against us, but even more important than the honkies using him against us is that he is our people, flesh of our flesh, blood of our blood, and the honkies can't have any more they had enough. So we have to understand that concept. We must understand because too many people are running and talking about the toms...we never was no tom, we was a traitor not an uncle tom; but we don't have any more...we do not have it because we do not have an undying love for our people. If we had an undying love for our people there...we would say to ourselves...we would work together in a spirit of love, a total friendship, and we would work for them. If they don't come home they are traitors to...kill traitors, but we do not want to emphasize killing our own people. That is negative. We want to emphasize bring the Negro home and making him black. That is what we must emphasize because we cannot fight our people and the enemy. We cannot. That is what we must emphasize because every Negro is a potential black man and that means he is a potential ally and you do not alienate your potential ally. We must understand that concept. The brothers and the sisters who are still wandering. Let us take time, let us take love brother and bring them home, because if you got a converted Negro brother you got a strong black man. And let us remember that it was not too long ago that brother Malcolm X was speaking to us and we were kicking at him. Let us remember that black power is only two years old and we were kicking at that when it first came out. Let us remember where we were and we'll help everyone. We must bring all of our people home.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Now then the third concept and the most important concept and perhaps the most difficult concept is one we must spend some time with because it really is important. For black people the question of commuting is not just simply a question of land. It is a question of our people...for black people the question of commuting is not just a question of land it is a question of our color our people, and where we are, that is to say that when you go to a place you're not home until you're with your people. If you went to Los Angeles you would not be home until you moved to Watts. If you went to New York you would not be home until you moved to Harlem. If you went to Detroit, you would not be home until you were on Riverside. Chicago, you would not be home until you were on the south or the west side. Pretty soon it will be the home city, and in Washington, D. C. the whole city is our's, but now we have to understand these concepts because if we understand these concepts we can break down this giant national barrier and it is honkies...In Cuba 65% of the population is black. In Puerto Rico...In Panama 45% of the population is black. In Santo Domingo 50% of the population is black. In Guatemala 50% of the population is black. In the West Indies the whole West Indies is black and when you in Africa the whole, the whole (unintelligible due to large response by audience). If we can begin to understand that concept we break down this giant thing the honkies have...you American Negro, you Canadian Negro, you Negro Negro...all of us because if we recognize that we would recognize that the black man in the world today is 900,000,000 strong...We got 900,000,000 strategic, 900,000,000 strategic placed situations in the Western Hemisphere. The biggest mistake this white man made was to mess with the African. He's going to pay for it.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Now then we have to talk about the concept of Negro versus African, because people are going to analyze... When we were in Africa we were Africians. We were black men. We were free. After he stole us from Africa when he brought us to the United States, we became slaves. We became Negroes. Understand this concept clearly. The Negro and the slave are the same thing. We want to work with the concept a little bit more because we have to...now he stole us from Africa and more when he says we didn't steal you, they sold you out, and then we go around saying our people sold us out. The only reason he is saying that is to keep us divided because if you believe your people sold you out wouldn't organize with them. You wouldn't organize them. We'll get the white concept out of our mind. We have to say no Africans sold anybody out, hunkies you stole us all.

Response by audience.

Now the only reason we have to say that is because we need it for our own psychological uplift. We got to say it because its true. Let me ask you a question...Africa. He ain't had nothing, nothing. Where's the gold come from, Africa. Where's the diamonds come from?

Audience: Africa.

Where's the copper come from?

Audience: Africa.

Where's the zinc come from?

Audience: Africa.

What does he have?

Audience: Nothing

The honky then have nothing, nothing at all.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

As a matter of fact he stole us to pick the...What the honky buy us with trinkets? Our women were wearing the best gold and diamonds there is to buy. What did the honky buy us with fire water? The best booze and the best pot comes from Africa. I know what I am talking about. I am just laughing (unintelligible due to audience response). It is obvious that he had no currency, nothing whatsoever to buy us with, but he had the straight attitude. Let us think: 1) that we couldn't come together because we don't trust each other if we sold each other out; and 2) He's got to say this because he can't admit that he would do all that stealing by himself. So he's got to...(unintelligible due to audience response). So we must understand that concept because if we say we're African, you say you're a free people. If you say you Negro you say to began in slavery. If you say you began in war that means you searched your ancestors back into slavery and if your beginning was..you cannot grow up to be nothing but a good slave. Because that's where you began, a slave. It follows that your going to be a slave, but if you said you were African and you would say that you went to the first university in the world, the University of Timbukto.

Large response from audience.

If you said you were an African you would come from people who are warriors like Hamibal, like (lists names of other warriors, but names unintelligible) you would be somebody.. If you want to say the blood of Africa was on you, you would have given civilization to that white man. You give it to a people who say your an African. Your civilization began in the Mesopotamian Valley and...(unintelligible due to audience response). If you ever say you're African you could say your ancestors roamed this world and all of its..and your ancestors would fight the sun before they would bow down to anyone. If you would say you're African then they would not be able to debate us the way they...jive talk about the Africans don't like you and you don't like the Africans, cause they got...If anyone say you got justice you say...people what you think about Stokely Carmichael.

Large response from audience.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

He has divided us up that we do not know who we are, where we came from, what our ancestry is. He divided us as he saw it. He dropped us in the West Indies. He dropped us in Cuba. He dropped us in Brazil. He dropped us in Guatemala. He dropped us in Panama. He dropped us in Santo Domingo. He dropped us in Puerto Rico. He dropped us in the United States, even in Canada we are..what did he do this white man wanting to do this to us as a people.

We have to understand man, and we're talking about color today and nothing else. The world is divided and the country that is pushing it the most is the United States of America. Let me say the divided of our brother. You know we came back into the country. We tried to talk to black people...don't you sit down and talk to us Stokely Carmichael...Communist. That's O.K. communism is a white thing we're coming from a straight black thing. We don't get you and immediately we got to take some time and explain alot of things to unite.

Now the honkies..responsible Negroes those.. communists blah, blah, blah. Before we left this country about 8 months ago...what a good thing it is that these white people are setting down together to return..in harmony with each other. It is the United States and Russia that are setting down today to develop...and that ain't nothing but a white fight. We must understand that all the Eastern communist world is breaking off to denounce China. So all the whites are going to come closer together. There's a direct flight from New York to Moscow right now, leaves every day. I think Pan American has got it. What we have got to understand is that white force is moving closer together. It was the United States of America that voted for South Africa to join the Olympics, the United States of America. Like I said the white man witch doctor in South Africa..He was trained in the United States of America. When they brought him over here to put him on.. telling folks we don't have to kill them we can use some of them to steer cars. It is strictly a question of power and the United States is moving closer and closer to it and we have some of our brothers and sisters who are arguing about whether or not they should run for this honky in the Olympics.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

What are you going to get from the Olympics, a gold medal. The gold is coming from South Africa, its ours. Its ours. Its ours. All he's doing is burning his heart out for gold that belongs to him. The honky stole it all, and when the honky gives him...and says thanks alot nigger, and then we people..debate about the Olympics....I'll tell you honky you'll lose and that's enough for me.

Large response from audience.

Don't be afraid to tell them, if we want you to lose, because you been using us to sin for you and you been against us and we not going to to nothing for you no more.

Response from audience.

Now then we want to move into areas specifically about trying to corrupt our movement, cause it is very clear that nowhere it is good. We know where it is going just some of us scared to get up and say so, but we going to get our people and going to get up because this is the most beautiful race of people in the world and we going to get up to kill..The United States works on what is called the 3 M's, the missionary, the money, the marine. That's right. Everywhere I've gone that's how they count it. They send the missionary...They send the money in and its fizzling out. The next comes the marines for protecting some...

Large response from audience.

That means that we are a disease to all these Hack men and all black women. You got to get...(unintelligible due to response of audience). We have got to get some guns. We have got to get some guns to the news for the benefit of our people against our enemies. We have got to get those guns. I will tell you why we have to get guns,,not only because we need protection when you..., but we need it because of all of the programs that is run by the...will not solve our problems. Because our problem is the white man..Let us examine then the...so when I couldn't stop he decided he would refine it. So he..black power. Well black power means...black power means the vote. If you got the vote then you going to get everything. Brothers and sisters let me tell you something. The vote now has never been, nor ever will be relevant to the survival of black people in this country, and I'll prove it to you. We have not been able to vote in Mississippi, Alabama, South Carolina, Virginia, Georgia, North Carolina, and even Washington, D. C. We have been surviving without a vote. Not only that, the vote doesn't help us a damn....You know that beautiful man from Atlanta, Georgia...got elected to his position. They didn't like what he said. They kicked him out, and could survive for 2 years without the... You know brother Adam Clayton Powell. He's been out of office for almost 2 years now...The vote does not mean anything because of the...political power from out of the barrel of....They count everything because they... and they have us thinking enough for them. It time for us to pick up the gun for our people. It is not the question of the vote, it is the question of the gun. It is a question only of the color. If it is not a question of the gun, it is a question of the will of people to fight to the dying end.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Large response from audience.

Response from audience.

So we must understand the vote in its proper perspective. If we vote today we do it only for one reason to bring our people closer together. That's all, that's all. We do not expect a vote to win us anything because it will win us nothing in Gary, Indiana, it will win us nothing in Cleveland, but some people are going to be up or you sleep, because we are all waking up today and got to get other people to put us to sleep. We have got to wake up the Stokes and the Hatchers. The votes mean absolutely nothing unless we get the gun. Give us a pride in ourselves, tell us about our history, our culture and developing love for our people. That's what education is all about. If you had that in you, you could conquer the world. If you had that in you chemically, physically...but its because we have a sense of nothingness, cause we're Negroes, cause we're slaves. You can use slaves for white trash, then we are in a way completely white-washed, dehumanized, and asleep. In order to wake up we must take over the education system in our schools, and we must start off by saying to our brothers black is beautiful. It is so beautiful to be black. We must give them a feeling that they are somebody with trust and dignity. The whites boy gives it to his children and to us. Everytime he says these things he may not think the white man is superior. He doesn't have to say that. He tells you Christopher Columbus discovered America. Marco Polo discovered China. A white man discovered everything. If white people discovered everything god damnit, they got to be superior. He may not have to come out and say iheir superior, but he tells you everyday, he tells you. The most beautiful and richest country in the world is the United States of America, whose running it. White folks. So whose the most beautiful and richest in the world, white folks. Cause this ain't our country, I know we got over that.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Audience: Peace brother.

So we have to understand this concept of education...plenty.

Now the first and the last they are going to be the most difficult for us, is the one we really have to work hard on is this thing about economics. I say they got these people down...saying black power means green power, and they got all these preachers jumping up saying that's right green power first, green power, that's what we need. Now look here we don't need money all that bad, I'll tell you why, because the most materialistic concept he has is in the dollar. He will kill his mama for the dollar. and here comes some preacher...that we should fight for the dollar. He just like the monkey killing for the dollar. Ain't that some junk. We not fighting for no dollar. There's something more important than the dollar. Its our people, that's more important than the dollar. Everywhere they yell, get green power, you get green power you get black power. Black power is talking about people. What they saying is you get money you can buy bpeople. Its the same old concept. We cannot be fighting for green power. It is the poverty program that's disrupted all of our communities across the country when we were coming together.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Response from audience

It is the poverty program that has done it. The poverty program was aimed to do two things: stop the rebellion, we'll fire the niggers, stop the rebellion we'll fire the niggers, stop the rebellion we'll fire the niggers and that's precisely what they have done, because in any race of people the warriors are your youths. The poverty program is geared for nobody but the youths. Get them off the streets, put them in the parlor, put them anywhere, get them off the streets and give them $50 a week, give $100 a week, give $200 a week, keep them off the streets. But the poverty program began its concepts saying that the black family was divided. The father was unemployed. He was away and he had no moral image. Remember when they ran that junk down on us. Now they say that and when they come to solve the problem they give the money to the youths. Now think what it does to our fathers. My father 40-45 years old, I'm 17, 18, 19, 20, 21 and every week I come and through down $70, $90, $100, $200. He's sitting there. I'm supporting the family. What does that do to my father... They should give the money to our fathers who are in fact the rulers of our family and they are solving the problem.

Response from audience.

So we got to understand the poverty program. If we get involved in the poverty program we do so only because we're going to use it as an organizing tool to bring our people together.

Now we want to move in to begin to internationalize a little, and we have to talk about this thing with both sides cause a lot of people don't really understand the difference between both whites and black people. The difference is that there are two types of oppression. There is exploitation. There is colonization. Exploitation is where one race of people exploits or oppresses other people in the same race. That's to say that if I a black man who is exploiting all of you who are black people then there would be exploitation, because we're the same people and all I'm taking from you is money and I'm exploiting you. Colonization is when one race of people totally oppresses another race of people. Cause when they do that not only do they rid them of their money they rid them of their humanity. Because they have to destroy the culture, the history, the language, the ways of life of the people they oppress so the people... can you take that its very deep. We got to understand. We got to understand.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

We have to understand because there is a difference between colonization and exploitation. White people are fighting for more money. They have the same culture, the same history, the same city, the same way of life as Lyndon Johnson..Lyndon Johnson cause they not Lyndon Johnson, that's all, that's all. Black people are a colonized people. We have been dehumanized. We are fighting for our humanity..There's the difference. Its a big difference. We're fighting for our history, our culture, our own way of life. We are fighting for our humanity because we have been dehumanized. Our history is not the same as the honky's history. There is no use playing games. The history the honky can write our history because to write it for us is to admit that we gave him civilization and he will never do that.

Response from audience.

We've got to undersstand that because the fight between us and the fight between white people are two entirely different things. That is not saying we can't use their fight. Sure, when the Democratic Convention comes here I would advise every black man to sit home and fight each other, its about time that ...(unintelligible due to audience response). I don't need for any black person to get involved in that convention. It ain't going to do any good and don't let Kennedy put you to sleep. He's just a honky like all the others, and the only reason anywhere because they want to put us to sleep. That's the only reason. Kennedy ain't going to do nothing more than his brother, which was nothing more than Johnson or any other honky ever did. We have got to make a clean sweep because if we believe that Kennedy passed the civil rights bill. Kennedy did not do anything for the civil rights bill. It was the bodies of four black ladies in Birmingham, Alabama that passed the civil rights bill.

Response from audience.

Response from audience.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

It was thousands of our young brothers and sisters out in the street...bricks and bottles that passed the civil rights bill. Kennedy didn't pass the civil rights bill. Kennedy never passed it. He was just the smart one. He recognized that if they didn't get the civil rights bill the war was going to come much sooner.

If we understand those two sides of oppression then we begin to see who are our allies. Brothers and sisters our allies are the colonized people of the world.

Response from audience.

That's to say that we are allies of the third world... (unintelligible) due to audience response), and we must be allies again because they..like us are fighting for our humanity. H-U-M-A-N-I-T-Y. Its different from money. A lot different from money. The brothers and sisters who threw bricks and bottles against tanks, they're not throwing it for a dollar they're throwing it for their humanity. Maybe all they're saying is god dammit if all I can do nigger, get off of your feet and die like a man you been living in this slum far too long. Its for humanity of our people that they threw those bricks and bottles. Can you not hear them yelling, nigger do something die like a man on your feet. If that's all you can do for them die like a man, die like a man.

Response from audience.

We must understand that concept because if the United States move to start more of a war and you going to get whipped more and more. We got to understand whose side we going to be on.

Response from audience: Negro

The next one is going to be the middle East. We must be on the side of the Arabs, of the Arabs. We cannot be on the side of the Zionist. We must be for the poor. We must be for the Arabs because there's is a just fight. They are fighting for the land that was taken from them by the Zionists, the British, and the United States of America.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Response from audience.

We must be for the Arabs because they are fighting in Africa. Africa is our mother land. This is important. A young Jewish boy....1948 where Egypt 4,000 year ago, millions of years ago and we going to let them march into Egypt sit here and talk about them Arabs sure is bad. Them Arabs ain't done what they supposed to do. They should drop them into the sea.

Response of audience.

You've got to understand what is going on in the world today. A Zionist has no business in Palestine. The land belongs to the Arabs. The land belongs to the Arabs and the longer you sit out there before the Zionists you cutting out your own eye, because they moving into Egypt and Egypt is ours.

Now we going to come to a very very important concept. This concept of love and hate. Now you know people say that the reason all like Rap Brown is cause he preaches hate, and that's right. Now they don't understand Rap Brown, since the brother in jail and since he is my leader, I might be able tonight to explain a little to you about the brother. Brother not talking about hate. The honky recognizes what he is talking about. The honky recognizes that in every black man and every Negro there is some Rap Brown.

Response from audience.

He recognizes it, that's why he won't like Rap Brown, because he knows Rap Brown...why else does he put Rap Brown in jail. Rap ain't steal nothing. Rap ain't had..shot none of them. He ain't seen Rap lite no fires. Rap ain't broken no laws. Rap is wrapped in the truth and the trust...(unintelligible due to audience response). Now we got to understand this concept of hate, because I will tell you when those brothers... walk out of my house in Washington, D. C. and a fellow came up to me asking...I said yes, I said I him. He said, Well I don't hate nobody.

Response from audience.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

I said well I hate those white folks for what they did. He said he don't hate no white folk. He's right he doesn't hate no white folk, because he does not love his people, and I'll tell you why we cannot have such a thing as love and not have such a thing as hate. There's a thing the honkies call dialectic philosophy, which says there are opposites for everything. There's a boy; there's a girl. There's joy; there's sadness. There's laughter; there's tears; There's cold; there's hot. For everything there is an opposite, and as these opposites react that's how you get changes in the world. If you got love you got to have hate.

Response from audience.

If you got love you got to have hate cause you would not be able to differentiate. You could love, you could hate. Some people you don't like too much. Some people you dislike. Some people you hate. If you didn't have it you couldn't tell who to dislike, you couldn't tell who to marry cause you'd be in love with everybody. So there must be an opposite, but if you say you don't have no hate ;you say you don't have no love because if you love your people you would hate anybody who would try to mess with them. Yes you would.

Response from audience.

If you had an undying love for your people anybody who touched them you'd kill them on the spot, for if you a mother and a father and you have children and you love those children and somebody come to hurt your children you would want to take care of them. Even an animal would protect its own. This man has dehumanized us and...he just snaps his fingers and we come back wagging our tails. We are human beings, we're people with emotions. If we love our people and...(unintelligible due to bongo playing in audience), We cannot stand up on our feet if, god dammit, we hate you. You can say it to him, but we cannot say it to our people. (mimicing) I hate the niggers down there. I hate them all they do is shooting. I hate them, but I don't..because I don't have hate in my heart.

Response from audience.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

It is because we do not have love for our people that man do the things he does to us. If we had love, if we had undying love, if we had undying love (large amount of response from audience). If we had undying love for our people when they touch one they would have to touch all. That then say specifically some things about Chicago. There are a lot of so-called Negro leaders in Chicago. They do not care about their people. They care only about themselves and the few choice niggers around them. They do not.

Response from audience.

I will tell you why they do not care about their people. They do not care about their people because in the last week they seen 18 of our brothers and sisters have been wiped out by each other in these gangs....They have not gone down to talk to the young brothers and sisters because they are afraid of their own people. They are afraid of their own people. Rangers are fighting Disciples and fighting the Saints and fighting the Loves to fight the Viceroy's and all of these Negro leaders aaaa't got time to go out and beg them to stop killing each other.

Response from audience.

Last night when we were trying to speak to some of these gangs one of the brothers ...got shot in the face. We couldn't find one black leader to go to the hospital to meet with those gangs to stop the gang war that is going on. Couldn't find one. They didn't even know the name of the gang and they suppose to represent us in the city. Where are the ministers of our community. Where are the ministers who are quickest to condemn us when we rebel against whitey. Why can't they...when we rebel against ourselves. Why can't they do that. Where are the ministers who beg us to love the white man, but can't teach us to love ourselves. Where are the ministers. Where are the ministers. Where are the ministers, who say they are teaching the preachings of Jesus Christ. who said of all the commandments I give you this is the most important, "Love thee one another." Where are our people, where are our ministers. Where are these black men if you can find them with their pork chop faces...and when we need them we can't find them. Where are our leaders in Chicago. Where are they.

Response from audience.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Eighteen of our people died. Eighteen of our young glorious died and they don't give a godndamn and they call themselves Negroes. They call themselves Negroes, and why aren't you talking to our young brothers and sisters. Their flesh of our flesh and blood of our blood.. They are the warriors of our race. They are the ones who never compromise. They fight that honky war every single day of their lives, every day of their lives. You want leaders. I'll give you leaders. Get the Blackstone Rangers fighting for their people and you got some leaders..(unintelligible due to audience response) You want leaders. I'll give you leaders. Get the Vice Lords, get the Roman Saints, get all those groups together to the black club to fight for their people and we got the leaders. We'll have some leaders because they will fight to the death. They fight to the death now for no reason just because they hate the white man and just because they're individually frustrated.

Response from audience.

If we can teach them to fight the white man not because they hate him but because they love their people we can have this situation lock stock and barrel, without...(unintelligible due to audience response).

What are you feeling so moral about. We know the honky got everything. He got it by stealing it. He not gonna give you anything. We got to take it. We got to take it. We got to take it.

Response from audience.

And these brothers on the streets everyday take it, but they're taking it for themselves. Lets organize them and let them take it for our people. But the preachers and the leaders are afraid of most black people in their community, The gang fighters, the gang fights, because the gang fighters may not have any politics, they may not have education, they are not glorifying the poverty program, but their hearts are black. Their hearts are black cause when something comes down they black and fight. They don't try to stop it they want to help and people we must understand that we must have an undying love for our people. We must begin to love our people so much that we will not let anyone touch one hair on their happy head.

Response from audience.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

We are not preaching about hate we are preaching about love. because if you love your people you will destroy your people's enemies.

Now there's one last thing I want to do before I leave. I want to ask you not to applaud until I raise my hands. I want you to listen very carefully to what I am going to read. Brother Rap Brown is in jail. After I read the statement you may applaud. I will not beg for any money. You will simply pass the baskets. You will give as you so desire. I am not a preacher. I don't beg for money. Rap Brown is in jail not for money but for love of his people. If you have love for you people you will put some money in the basket to help get....

Response from audience.

I want to read a statement that was written by my leader. The man I'll die for in a minute because he's ready to die for me. Rap Brown, the brother, wrote the letter while he was in jail. I want you to listen to it very closely because I don't care what you say...

STUDENT NONVIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE

Literature distributed by the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), headquartered at 360-362 Nelson Street, S.W., Atlanta, Georgia, describes itself as not being a membership organization, but rather an agency attempting to stimulate and foster the growth of local protest movements. SNCC was born out of the sit-in movement which erupted across the South beginning on February 1, 1960. A conference at Raleigh, North Carolina, that Spring, brought together many of the demonstrating Southern students in a loose network of militant youth which was officially named SNCC in October, 1960.

A source has advised that in May, 1966, Stokely Carmichael was elected National Chairman by the Central Committee. In May, 1967, Carmichael was replaced as Chairman by H. Rap Brown, with Carmichael assuming the position of Recruiter and Organizer for the SNCC. In August, 1967, at the invitation of Fidel Castro, Carmichael participated in the Organization of Latin American Solidarity Conference which was held in Havana, Cuba. Subsequent thereto, Carmichael traveled to Hanoi and other sections of North Vietnam. He returned to the United States in December, 1967, at which time his passport was picked up because of travel to unauthorized countries.

A source advised that when Carmichael was elected Chairman of SNCC, the organization embarked on a program of eliminating Caucasians from its ranks. With the election of H. Rap Brown as Chairman in 1967, it embarked on a worldwide struggle for human rights and to take a firm stand against violations of these rights by the American Government and to strengthen its programs of opposition to the draft and to the United States involvement in Vietnam.

Literature distributed in February, 1968, identifies SNCC as an organization in the revolutionary vanguard. It advocates that to be successful it is necessary to develop a revolutionary ideology and revolutionary program.

On August 13, 1967, while addressing a group in the Watts area of Los Angeles, California, H. Rap Brown said "You better shape up America; or we'll burn you down." Later in February, 1968, in a publicized note Brown wrote, "America, if it takes my death to organize my people to revolt against you and to organize your jails to revolt against you and to organize your children, your God, your poor, your country, and to organize mankind to rejoice in your destruction and ruin, then here's my life."

EXCLUSIVE

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

"Our ultimate objective: to attack the capitalist structure of the United States"

The Marxist-Leninist Communist Party of France lends its political support to the historic struggle being waged by the Afro-Americans against the capitalist and racist power of the United States that is exploiting and oppressing them. Even though it does not share all the present positions of the Black Power leaders, it does not thereby consider them any less authentic or valuable fighters in the worldwide struggle against American imperialism. The struggle of the American blacks is an integral part of the united worldwide struggle being waged by the peoples oppressed by imperialism and by the proletariats in the capitalist countries themselves, who are being oppressed by their own governments. It is in that spirit that we are pleased today to publish the following exclusive interview by one of our African friends, himself a militant, of the Afro-American leader Stokely Carmichael, given during his last visit to Paris.

The great wave of fighting spirit now spreading through the large American cities, arousing the great Afro-American masses in heroic combat against reactionary rifles, the victims of racism against the established capitalist order, marks, within the imperialist citadel itself, the beginning of the "final struggle." It also demonstrates the emptiness of the integrationist myth invented by the American bourgeoisie.

The outlook is now clear: Memphis has shown that non-violence by the oppressed cannot save them from the bloody violence of American capitalism. Memphis therefore marks an important milestone in the struggle of the peoples, particularly the Afro-American people, which has realized that only revolutionary violence can break the bloody cycle of counter-revolutionary violence.

But imperialism, with its back against the wall, is attempting, in a last-ditch effort, to cast discredit on the just struggle of the Afro-American people by likening it coarsely to a "dance of fires and looting," and describing its leaders as "psychopaths publicly inciting to murder" (New York Times, April 12, 1968). But the capitalists' bad faith has its limits. They are forced to acknowledge, in impotent rage, of course, that "the voice of the Stokely Carmichaels is heard even louder in the land" (The Economist, London, April 11, 1968).

What is that voice saying? What struggle is involved?
Is it a simple clash between two races, or is it important in some other way? Why must all Marxist-Leninists and other progressives support it and publicize it?

Some answers come to light in the course of the interview recently given to us by Stokely Carmichael, which we now publish for the first time. Sometimes, his answers were awkward; but they all express unshakable faith in final victory. Other answers will come as this struggle, now only beginning, develops. We wish to present the answers that were given in the course of the interview.

Stokely speaks as a leader. There is nothing extravagant about him, contrary to the suggestions of a certain segment of the press. He was very simply dressed. He hadn't had the time to comb his hair; we arrived just as he was getting up. On the night before, we had spent the evening together. We were five comrades in all; we spoke very freely. An Afro-American comrade, living in Paris, made sure the translation was correct. The interview lasted four hours.

Kimba

STOKELY: The situation affecting the Afro-American people appears to be mainly a new form of domestic colonialism. The situation is almost original, and it implies that our struggle has two main objectives:

Objective No. 1: To eliminate the colonial oppression that is directed at us as black people on the economic, social, and political levels;

Objective No. 2: To attack the capitalist and imperialist structure of the United States.

Obviously, objective No. 1 will basically be fought for by the Afro-Americans alone. Objective No. 2 will concern all American revolutionaries. It is a job for all.

The relation between these two objectives is expressed in two major problems, the problem of racism and the problem of exploitation.

I indicated before that objective No. 2 was a job for all, because it means solving a problem that isn't peculiar to black people--the problem of man being exploited by man. That isn't necessarily connected with skin color.

But we can say that the problem of racism is specific to the black man. We can even make the following equation: black = proletariat of the world. Just because of his color.

White Western man can't deny that he has made gains through the sweat of the black man. Take the French, Dutch, or British West Indies. They're all the same. Take the United States in past centuries. Take the United States today. Take Africa. History is eloquent on the subject.

White Western man finds his justification as a Western man in the negation of the black man as black man. They made the black man a sub-human creature so as to rationalize exploitation of the black man, so as not to be humiliated as men.

Yes, of course, there was Colbert's Code Noir [Slave Law]. But all the same, the exploitation of the black man can't just be an example of applied psychology, since racism is clearly a manifestation of the class struggle. You have only to look at the examples.

STOKELY: First, there is an immediate problem, the awakening of the victim when he faces the executioner. We intend to fight as black men.

In the United States, even a "well-to-do" black man can't escape racism. You have only to read the American press to be convinced of that. In that case, the problem of a racism isn't necessarily connected with the problem of exploitation.

Racism is part of the ideological and practical arsenal of American imperialism. The black people are more exposed because White Western man has destroyed the African cultures of the black man. The black people of the world speak the language of their masters.

As Fanon says, culture is a "cohesive force." So they have to resist this imposed culture (Pidgin English, Pidgin French).

Among the Afro-Americans, it takes the form of Christianity. Christianity is an imposed culture--that is, essentially, an imperialist culture, because it is bound up with the idea of the universal worth of the master. You must know something about that in Africa, with your history of forced conversions.

In fact, cultural liberation is a very important thing. It must aim at duplicating the master's educational system (the final stage of imposed culture). Capitalist education is intended to renew and perpetuate capitalist society.

In practice, how can all that be achieved?

By organizing the black people. Historically, we all come from Africa. By dispersing us all over his world, white Western man has taught us--negatively of course, but he has taught us--to appreciate unity. We now know that unity is power. And it was in order to fulfill the imperative of unity that we decided at an early stage to fulfill ourselves culturally by rejecting Christianity (an imposed culture, bound up with the idea of the supremacy of white Western culture).

The problem ahead of us is to create black revolutionaries.

For us, that means three objectives:

1. Adoption of an African national language, Swahili, for example;
2. The destruction of Christianity;
3. The rediscovery of Africa, but scientifically, in order to draw our own heroes from there, instead of accepting the white Western heroes.

In short, we want to re-create our culture in order to turn it into a cohesive force.

We want to develop a common political ideology. In this regard, the experience of the Chinese revolution is rich in stirring examples.

Our job is to struggle to acquire a correct ideology which can unify all black people.

The essential thing is to contribute to developing the awareness that will lead the American black man to resist. That awareness is necessary.

What kind of awareness?

It has to be a political awareness.

One of the objective limitations of the leaders who preceded us is this: they appealed to the oppressors, not to the oppressed. We appeal to the oppressed. We tell them: "If you want to be free, you must fight!" Chairman Mao Tse-tung rightly states that "power is at the end of a gun." That's right. We will match our liberating guns against the racist guns of American imperialism in its own cities.

We will force it to fight as we want to fight, as our Vietnamese comrades do. If they want to use napalm and rockets on their own cities, we have no objection to that. But we will fight; that much is understood.

Do you see any connection between your struggle and the struggle of the Vietnamese comrades and of other peoples fighting imperialism, mainly American imperialism?

Obviously, every time that the bases of imperialism are undermined abroad, our struggle gains by that much.

We would like there to be one African country that developed by its own efforts, and not by begging from white Western man.

We would have used it as a psychological and tactical model for the mobilization of the masses. But no one can say that there is any revolutionary country in Black Africa now. That is why the O.A.U. is paralyzed. If American black people today had to go into exile to Africa, no African country would accept them, for the simple reason that all those countries are under the yoke of American imperialism.

All those counter-revolutionary petty bourgeoisies in power in Africa are vassals of Johnson, and exploit their own black brothers.

What is your main job now? What takes priority?

First, eliminate our enemies--I mean all the counter-revolutionary movements that want to become integrated into white capitalist society.

Then we must organize our people so that they will develop offensive drive, an essential condition to change the present status quo.

That is all that the defensive struggle of Luther King and others was.

To win, you must attack. That is the minimum.

SUBJECT: Stokely Carmichael Interview in French pro-Chinese Newspaper

REF

Attached is the text of a purportedly exclusive interview with Stokely Carmichael that appeared in the April 25 issue of the pro-Chinese weekly newspaper Humanité Nouvelle, organ of the French Marxist-Leninist Communist Party (PCMLF). Carmichael says among other things that (a) American Negroes are subjected to "interior colonialism"; (b) racism is part of the ideological and practical arsenal of American imperialism; (c) the problem is to create "black revolutionaries" and for this three objectives are implied: (i) adoption of an African language like Swahili, (ii) the destruction of Christianity, (iii) rediscovery of Africa; (d) Mao is right in saying that "power is at the end of a gun"; (e) the first task is to eliminate enemies, that is "all the counter-revolutionary movements wishing to integrate with white capitalist society"--and to organize a "biting (mordant) offensive" to break the status quo--for it is the status quo which the defensive battle of Martin Luther King and others stands for.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

The following summary of pertinent activities of Stokely Carmichael from March 27 to April 15, 1968, are being set forth as follows:

On Wednesday, March 27, 1968, Carmichael and [redacted] returned to Washington, D. C. (WDC) from the Chicago area where he had filled speaking engagements and she had made public appearances. Upon returning to WDC, they went to Carmichael's residence, 2200 12th Street, N. W., WDC. Subsequently in the afternoon they visited several areas of N. W., WDC, where they appeared to be looking for housing. Later they returned to his residence and in the evening, he went to the headquarters of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), 1234 U Street, N. W., WDC, where he remained into the evening hours.

A source advised that [redacted] had previously rented a house at [redacted] through [redacted] which she and Carmichael planned to occupy [redacted]. However, the negotiations with the realtor about the house failed to materialize and as of March 27, 1968, they were again looking for a place to live.

On Thursday, March 28, 1968, Carmichael was at his residence in the morning. In the afternoon he departed his residence with [redacted] and entered a blue Opel sedan bearing Georgia license [redacted]. They drove to SNCC headquarters. [redacted] later appeared at SNCC headquarters with Carmichael. In the evening Carmichael and [redacted] left SNCC and went to an apartment building at [redacted] where they spent the evening.

He later returned to SNCC headquarters. Prior to returning to his residence in the early evening, he stopped at the U Street Barber Shop, 1320 U Street, N. W., WDC.

According to a source, [redacted] opened at the Coconut Grove, Ambassador Hotel, Los Angeles, California, on the evening of April 1, 1968.

b6

On Tuesday, April 2, 1968, Carmichael departed his residence about noon and went to SNCC headquarters. In early afternoon he entered a 1966 Mustang with three other males and one female. They proceeded in this car into Virginia.

A source advised that Carmichael, with a total group of about 15 in several cars departed WDC 1:05 p.m., April 2, 1968, en route to Richmond, Virginia, to attend an alleged court proceeding involving a hearing for H. Rap Brown, the SNCC National Chairman. According to source, they were under the impression Brown was to be in Richmond that date.

Officials in Richmond advised that no such hearing was scheduled on that date for H. Rap Brown and that he was at that time incarcerated in New Orleans unable to make bail on charges against him. The source further advised that Carmichael and a group visited Virginia Union University in Richmond on the afternoon of April 2, 1968, where a student protest was taking place, prior to returning to WDC. Carmichael reportedly spoke to the group.

According to an article appearing in "The Evening Star", a WDC daily newspaper, dated April 3, 1968, approximately 300 students had seized the administration building, at predominantly Negro Virginia Union University, on April 2, 1968, and vowed to occupy the structure for "a long, long time". The article continued that whites were warned to stay away from the building by the students who enthusiastically welcomed black power advocate Stokely Carmichael as a visitor. Carmichael was reportedly in Richmond to attend a bond hearing for H. Rap Brown and remained in the administration building for about a half hour. The students reportedly took control of the building after talks between boycotting students and officials broke down.

Upon returning to WDC, Carmichael went to SNCC headquarters and then later visited the law building at Howard University in early evening.

[redacted]
[redacted] advised that at approximately 8:15 p.m., April 2, 1968,

b6

[redacted] a private security guard at Peoples Drug Store, 14th and U Streets, remonstrated with three juveniles who were pushing against the outside window of the drug store. The juveniles took offense to [redacted] remarks, followed him into the store and physically attacked [redacted]. Two porters in the store came to [redacted] assistance. The juveniles were taken into custody by the MPD and were later released in custody of their parents to appear in the United States Attorney's Office, WDC, for a hearing.

At about 9:00 p.m. other security officers from the [redacted] arrived on the scene and a crowd gathered. One of the crowd broke a whiskey bottle on the sidewalk. A window glass and entrance door glass were broken.

According to [redacted] Stokely Carmichael appeared on the scene about 9:30 p.m. and attempted to disperse the crowd.

[redacted] Peoples Drug Store, 14th and U Streets, N. W., WDC, advised on April 3, 1968, that he was working in the rear of the store about 8:00 p.m. on April 2, 1968, when he noticed a uniformed store guard wrestling with a boy about 16 years of age in the front area of the store space. The guard managed to push the boy out of the store. Several minutes later, the boy returned with another boy and they engaged the guard in scuffling and pushing. Another youth appeared to join in assisting the other two. Several store porters went to the assistance of the guard. The crowd outside appeared to become boisterous and several glasses in the entrance door were broken. A general melee appeared to be erupting. The police were summoned and six or seven officers of the MPD arrived. The police took the three youths into custody and a police patrol wagon that had been summoned to transport them appeared on the scene. The police removed the youths from the area for questioning. The police urged the crowd outside to clear the area in front of the store and restored order appeared to be under way.

Stokely Carmichael shortly thereafter entered the store and approached [redacted] appearing somewhat indignant and stated, "See man what I have been talking about. I have been trying to talk to you about this for two weeks. I have had it up to here (pointing to his neck). Now it is you." Carmichael then went back outside. [redacted] then locked the door to the store and began trying to clear out the customers. One male customer with a dog, a doberman pinscher, tried to get out of the store. As he went out, the crowd mingled near the doorway. The dog lunged as if frightened or else urged toward the crowd by the owner, which caused additional reaction from the crowd. They began throwing objects at the store front which resulted in one of the large windows being broken. At the same time, a store employee was attempting to board up the previous windows that had been broken.

[] kept the store closed for a short period of time until such time as he thought that the crowd had dispersed. Upon unlocking the door, however, several other individuals began mingling again and attempted to force their way in. He had to again close the store. After Carmichael's visit inside the store he went back outside and urged the crowd to disperse stating that, "We will take care of it our way. No point in getting arrested." The crowd began to disperse and there were no further incidents reported. b6 b7C

[] stated Carmichael had visited the store on several different occasions in the past three weeks questioning him about store policy in keeping uniformed guards on premises. Apparently Carmichael began showing an interest in the matter after a young woman had been arrested for shoplifting earlier. Carmichael complained guards were not kept in Peoples Drug Stores in white neighborhoods. [] told Carmichael there should be, because thefts were occurring in both white and black neighborhoods.

In evaluating the matter [] stated that irrespective of the fact Carmichael had warned him previously to get rid of the special policeman he did not know whether the disturbance on the night of April 2, 1968, had been instigated by Carmichael. He stated the incident at the outset could have probably erupted without having been organized by anyone and after it had gotten under way, other individuals stepped in to foment further activities.

On Wednesday, April 3, 1968, according to a source, Carmichael traveled from WDC to Baltimore on what source described as a "pleasure trip". He left SNCC headquarters, WDC, about 10:20 a.m. with another individual by car and arrived in Baltimore about noon. In Baltimore, according to source, they went to a bar and restaurant located at 1500

Pennsylvania Avenue where they spent most of the day. While in the bar, Carmichael reportedly met one [] and one [] last names unknown to source. Carmichael left the bar with these two individuals and returned several hours later. Upon returning, Carmichael reportedly stated they took "a ride to look over some places." [] claimed to have met Carmichael two years previously in Atlanta. Carmichael returned to WDC about 7:25 p.m. Upon his return he spent the remainder of the evening assisting others in moving the office effects of SNCC from 1234 U Street, N. W., WDC to 2208 14th Street, N. W., WDC, the previous location of the New School for Afro-American Thought, which had moved to 2115 14th Street, N. W., WDC. md

A source advised Carmichael and [] agreed to take a one-year lease on a residence at 5015 16th Street, N. W., WDC, with an option to buy. The expected date of occupancy was not known. According to source they planned to rent the premises for three months at $450 per month, and would then exercise the option to buy, paying $48,500 cash. Source reported that [] would take title to the property in her name only and would provide the money for the purchase including $1,000 which she put down. Source continued they reported they planned to be married in New York City in a civil ceremony on April 27, 1968.

On Thursday, April 4, 1968, Carmichael departed his residence at 2200 12th Street, N. W., WDC, in the early morning accompanied by [] They went to the new location of the SNCC office, 2208 14th Street, N. W., WDC. He remained at SNCC into the afternoon.

[] Peoples Drug Store, 14th and U Streets, N. W., WDC, mentioned previously, advised Carmichael entered his store about 3:40 p.m. and spoke to [] and the assistant manager stating, "This store seems to be causing me a lot of trouble. It is putting brother against brother" [] replied that the majority of the people in the neighborhood were good and only a few caused trouble. Carmichael stated, "There was a store in Chicago that burned down last week" and then he left the store.

The following is being set forth regarding reported activities of Stokely Carmichael on the night of April 4 and the afternoon of April 5, 1968, as furnished by [redacted] and [redacted] of the MPD:

b6

"Washington, D. C.

"I, [redacted] Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), Washington, D. C. (WDC), voluntarily make the following statement to Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation [redacted] and [redacted]

"I know that this statement may be used in a court of law. I have been on the police force approximately [redacted] years, and I am assigned to the [redacted] at the 13th Precinct.

"During the evening of Thursday, April 4, 1968, I was assigned to plain clothes duty in the vicinity of the Peoples Drug Store located in the 2000 block of 14th Street, N. W., WDC. At approximately 8:50 p.m., while sitting in a private automobile in the 2000 block of 14th Street, N. W., I was joined by [redacted] MPD, WDC.

[redacted] stated he had been inside the headquarters of Martin Luther King's Poor Peoples March, and had heard Stokely Carmichael say he was not going to wait for any verdict, but was going to get his boys.

"Shortly thereafter, I observed Carmichael, followed by approximately fifteen to twenty unidentified persons, proceeding south on the west side of the 2000 block of 14th Street, N. W. I readily recognized Carmichael from newspaper photographs, although I have not previously observed him in person. The group entered the Peoples Drug Store in the 2000 block of 14th Street, and I observed an unidentified person or persons in conversation with the manager of the store. I was not close enough at this time to determine who talked with the manager.

"The group then exited the Peoples Drug Store and proceeded diagonally across 14th Street, N. W., to the 1900 block, where they stopped briefly at a Safeway Store. Inside the Safeway Store at this time were two or three employees and some special security officers. I did not observe the group to enter this store and do not know if any conversation ensued between the employees and members of the group.

"The group, with Carmichael in front, continued south to the Wings Carry Out located at 14th and Wallach Place, N. W. There Carmichael was confronted by an individual I believe to be [redacted] photographs of whom I had previously observed. After a brief conversation, Carmichael appeared to brush [redacted] aside and entered the Wings Carry Out Shop. At this point, the group had grown to approximately eighty to one hundred in number. A small group of individuals followed Carmichael into the Wings Carry Out Shop.

"Shortly thereafter, the group, with Carmichael in the lead, departed the Wings Carry Out Shop. I thereupon overheard Carmichael say to the group: 'We don't want any violence, as long as they close. But if they don't, take it.' The group, with Carmichael still in the lead, then crossed 14th Street to the west side. The group proceeded to the Pig N' Pit Restaurant in the 1900 block of 14th Street, N. W., and a small part of the group entered this restaurant. I was unable to observe if Carmichael personally entered this restaurant. After departing the Pig N' Pit, the group continued north to the Wings and Things Restaurant, also located in the 1900 block of 14th Street. Some of the group entered this restaurant, but again I was unable to observe if Carmichael himself went in.

"Upon exiting the Wings and Things, the group proceeded north on 14th Street to U Street, crossed 14th Street and continued east on the north side of U Street. In the 1300 block of U Street, Carmichael and part of the group entered a delicatessen, the name of which I cannot recall. Upon departing the delicatessen, they proceeded to the vicinity of the Republic Theater, also located in the 1300 block of U Street.

"At the Republic Theater, Carmichael remained outside on the sidewalk, while part of the group filed through the lobby and into the theater itself. The group broke windows at the Republic Theater, and again I overheard Carmichael say: 'We don't want any violence as long as they close. But if they don't close, take it.'

"The group then proceeded east on U Street to the Lincoln Theater, located in the 1200 block of U Street. Some of the group, which now numbered approximately 150 to 200 persons, entered the Lincoln Theater. At this point, my attention was distracted by the presence of an unidentified white male, who was standing on the south side of U Street and carrying a camera and camera case. The group also spotted this individual and about eighty to one hundred members of the group rushed him, shouting 'kill him,' and 'get him.' The unidentified white male was thrown to the ground by the mob, and I yelled to the mob to let him go. At this point, I was identified by several persons in the crowd as a 'roller' (street language meaning policeman). I then heard someone in the mob shout, 'Get the film.' The unidentified white male thereupon opened the back of this 35 milimeter camera, and an unidentified member of the mob snatched the film from it. The white male was then assisted to his feet by an unidentified Negro male, and he and I then pushed our way through the crowd and led the white male to safety. I last saw the unidentified Negro male and white male running north across U Street and west on U Street towards 14th Street. I did not observe Carmichael as being part of the group that attacked the unidentified white male.

"At this point, I noticed that the group, now split in two sections with Carmichael leading the front section, proceeding west on U Street towards 14th Street. They went north on the west side of 14th Street and unidentified persons within the group began throwing objects, such as coke bottles and rocks, at passing automobiles bearing white persons. As these incidents occurred, I observed Carmichael to be leading the group, although I did not observe him to personally throw any objects. The group continued north on the west side of 14th Street, and some windows were broken in a drug store located at 14th and Clifton Streets and other premises, the names of which I cannot recall. I also observed unidentified persons looting the drug store window at 14th and Clifton Streets.

"Subsequently, the main part of the crowd stopped at the corner of 14th and Chapin Streets, and led by Carmichael, reversed direction and proceeded south on 14th Street. At this point, I heard two gunshots. I was, at this time, one block north of the crowd around the corner at 14th and Clifton, where I had attempted to telephone the precinct. I did not see who fired the shots, and did not at any time observe Carmichael in possession of a gun. While following the group subsequent to the incident in the 1200 block of U Street, I received several threats against my person from unidentified members of the group.

"After hearing the shots, I crossed to the east side of 14th Street and walked south of the group. Carmichael and the group stopped in front of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) Headquarters, 2208 14th Street, N. W., and I crossed back over 14th Street at U Street. I then walked back to the 13th Precinct and was assigned to duty in a police cruiser.

B. APPROX [REDACTED]

"The only members of the group that I recognized and knew by name is one [REDACTED] Negro male, about [REDACTED] years of age. I observed this individual outside the Peoples Drug Store with the Carmichael group, and I immediately recalled that I had arrested him Tuesday night, April 2, 1968, for throwing an object in the direction of the store.

"At approximately 11:35 p.m. on April 4, 1968, I arrested one [REDACTED] Negro male, age [REDACTED] [REDACTED] at 14th and Belmont Road, for B. APPROX [REDACTED] looting.

"During the movement of the Carmichael led crowd on the evening of April 4, 1968, I noticed that the group engaged in much handclapping and chanting of 'black power.'

"During my undercover assignment, I was in the headquarters of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) located on the corner of 14th and U Streets, N. W., WDC. Shortly after 8 p.m., approximately fifteen to twenty persons were present in the headquarters of SCLC inasmuch as Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., had been shot in Memphis, Tennessee. At this time I observed Stokely Carmichael sitting quietly in a chair also awaiting the outcome of Dr. King's condition. I can positively identify this individual as Stokely Carmichael because in the past I have had occasion to see and listen to him when he was making speeches throughout the WDC area. In addition to Carmichael, also present at SCLC headquarters were an elderly white couple and a young white male and female and other Negro males and females, both adults and juveniles, whom I cannot identify by name.

"Prior to the announcement on the radio that Dr. King was dead, Carmichael appeared to become impatient, got up from his seat, and said something to the effect, 'I'm not going to wait for a final verdict. I'm going to get my guys.' After Carmichael's departure, the elderly white couple in SCLC headquarters appeared to be frightened and made attempts to leave when a Negro male, whom I could not identify, advised them not to leave inasmuch as they were more welcome at SCLC than was Stokely Carmichael. The couple remained.

"Sometime after Carmichael's departure, I departed SCLC and entered the People's Drug Store located next door on 14th Street. In the People's Drug Store there were approximately twenty people listening to a radio news broadcast about Dr. King.

"Almost immediately after the announcement that Dr. King had died, Carmichael, accompanied by ten to fifteen young Negro males, entered the People's Drug Store. Carmichael, within earshot of an employee near the front of the store, asked 'Where's the manager? We're going to close this store because when Kennedy was shot the businesses were closed and they are going to be closed now that King's dead.' Carmichael and the individuals following him then proceeded to the back of the store and after a few seconds returned and walked outside. Carmichael left People's Drug Store and I followed him and the young Negro males to the southeast corner of 14th and U Streets. They proceeded south and some of the group entered various business establishments, requesting them to close, and continued to Wallach Place, N. W. At this time, they crossed to the west side of 14th Street and proceeded north, again entering business establishments for the same purpose. At the intersection of 14th and U Streets, Carmichael and his followers crossed over to the northeast corner and proceeded in an easterly direction on the north side of U Street. Carmichael then entered a theater in the 1300 block of U Street, N. W. Upon re-appearing, his group was interspersed by a number of people who were coming out of the theater at this time. Due to this, it was impossible to estimate the size of the crowd. While the crowd was gathered in the vicinity of the theater, a plate glass door was broken; but I did not observe who had broken it or how it had been broken. Carmichael stopped and said, 'We don't want any damaging. We just want the stores to close.' He then continued east towards 13th Street and I remained in the vicinity of the theater. Shortly thereafter, Carmichael returned and then proceeded in a westerly direction on the north side of U Street, and when he and his group arrived at the intersection of 14th and U Streets, they proceeded to the side where People's Drug Store is located (west side of 14th Street) and walked north.

"At this time I observed no other destruction of property or any looting in the general area of 14th and U Streets.

"I then left Carmichael and the group with him and made a phone call to the 13th Precinct, MPD. When I returned, the group and Carmichael were at the intersection of 14th and W Streets, N. W. As they went north on 14th Street, the crowd appeared to be approximately 200 in number and as they passed business establishments, I was at the rear of the crowd and noticed windows broken at a television and radio store along the route. Carmichael at this time was at the front of the crowd. They then proceeded to the 2400 block of 14th Street, which is located between Belmont and Chapin Streets, N. W. At the corner of 14th and Chapin, Carmichael stopped and the crowd stopped behind him. As he faced the gathering, a Negro male described as five feet ten inches, 180 to 195 pounds, approximately thirty years of age, heavy set, and wearing his hair in natural bush style, approached Carmichael and said something to the effect that he was wrong in what he was doing. Carmichael turned to this individual and asked him, 'Do you have your gun?' The individual replied, 'No,' and Carmichael then said, 'Well I have mine.' At this time Carmichael removed a small caliber handgun which appeared to be a .32 from inside his waistband and held this weapon above his head. After this, Carmichael turned and began walking south on 14th Street, on the west side, and the group, which had been with him, began going in different directions. It appeared he had no control of them. At this time I heard two shots fired, and I then observed windows being broken in a Safeway store located on the east side of 14th Street in the 2400 block. I also observed that windows of Eddie Leonard's Sandwich Shop and the Belmont Radio and Television Shop, both located on the west side of 14th Street within the 2400 block, were broken. During this period I noticed that two white males in a blue Volkswagen, who were parked in an alleyway behind Eddie Leonard's, were attacked by stones and other flying objects which hit the car as they attempted to leave the area. I further saw a Negro couple sitting in a car on the east side of 14th Street, when someone hit the windshield with a rake, smashing it and causing the Negro female to fall on the seat for protection.

"On April 5, 1968, I was on the campus of Howard University, WDC, at approximately 1:30 p.m. A group of students numbering between 500 - 700 were gathered near the steps of Douglas Hall, where they were being addressed by a small group of young people concerning the death of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

"Stokely Carmichael appeared through the crowd and walked to the steps of Douglas Hall. He then addressed the crowd by saying, 'They should not have killed Dr. King. They have killed the wrong man, they should have killed me.' He further stated, 'Do not be out on the streets for looting tonight. We mean business. If you don't come out tonight with your gun, stay home.' While making these remarks, Carmichael waved a small caliber gun. His appearance before the group was very short in duration and at the conclusion of the above remarks, he was observed leaving the campus.

"Prior to Carmichael's appearance the mood of the crowd appeared very hostile, and when he (Carmichael) left, I heard voices in the crowd saying in effect, 'Do you have your gun?' 'I have mine or I wish I had mine.'

"During the time Carmichael made his statement I could not identify any person within the crowd; however, on the steps of Douglas Hall from which he spoke, I recognized [redacted] both Negro males. [redacted]

"I then left the area and returned to the 13th Precinct, prior to departing I observed no fires in the immediate area where Carmichael had traveled.

A press conference was called for 10:00 a.m., April 5, 1968, by the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) to be held at SNCC Headquarters, 2208 14th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

The following is a transcript of a tape recording of remarks made at the press conference prepared by [redacted] [redacted] at the above time and location.

Commentator: I want you people to listen clearly. This press conference will be only five minutes. And...as soon as the press conference is over, you gentlemen will not leave anything here that you didn't bring in here. Your films, your cigarette butts, you take them to clean it up. Ah...we will have a few questions...of two minutes questions. To my right, extreme right, is Mr. Cleveland Sellers, Director of the Orangeburg, South Carolina, project of SNCC. To my right here, immediate right, is Stokely Carmichael, who is on staff here in WDC. And to my left is Mr. William Hall, who is also a member of the staff in Washington. And Lester McKinnie, Director of the Washington SNCC office. Mr. Carmichael will speak to you for five minutes.

Carmichael: As you may or may not know, this press conference was called before Dr. King was murdered. We called it then to deal with our Brother Rap Brown because we were very upset that Brother Brown had been in jail for 41 days and Governor Agnew of Maryland still seems to persist with his nonsensical charge and so the Brother can't get out of jail. Now we want the Brother out of jail...ah..next week when he comes to trial. Now, as to Dr. King's Murder, I think white America made its biggest mistake when she killed Dr. King last night, she killed all reasonable hope. When she killed Dr. King last night, she killed the one man of our race in this country, in the older generation, which the militants and also the revolutionaries and the masses of black people, would still listen to, even though sometimes he did not disagree..ah..(interrupts and says)..agree with them they would still listen to him. When...When white America killed Dr. King last night, she opened the eyes for every black man in this country. When white America got rid of Marcus Garvey (phonetic), she did it and she said he was an extremist, he was crazy. When they got rid of Brother Malcolm X, they said he was preaching hate, he deserved what he got. But when they got rid of Brother Martin Luther King, they had absolutely no reason to do so. He was the one man in our race who was trying to teach our people to have love, compassion, and mercy for what white people have done. When white America killed Dr. King last night, she declared war on us. There will be no crying, there will be no funerals. The rebellions that have been occurring around the cities of this country is just light stuff to what is about to happen. We have to retaliate for the death of our leaders. The execution of those deaths will not be in the court-rooms...they are going to be on the streets of the United States of America. When white America killed Dr. King last night, she made a whole lot easier for a whole lot of black people today. They no longer needs to be intellectual discussions...black people know that they have to get guns. White America will live to cry that she killed Dr. King last night. It would have been better if she had killed Rap Brown and/or Stokely Carmichael. But when she killed Dr. King, she lost. That's it.

Unidentified: Before any questions, I would like to give one statement from the organization. We the students of the Nonviolent Coordinate Committee wish to extend out condolences to the family of the late Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., who was brutally murdered today in Memphis, Tennessee. In his death there is a lesson which white America has taught us many times before. This lesson was clear in the murder of our four brothers in Orangeburg. This lesson was clear in the murder of a 16-year-old, Larry Payne (phonetic) in Memphis. This lesson is clear in the day-to-day torture of black people by white people in America and throughout the world. It was to end this torture that Dr. King bravely faced death many times, nonviolently. Dr. King was a brother who dedicated his life to liberate his peoples through nonviolence. Dr. King was a symbol of nonviolence and white America shot him down.

Carmichael: There is one last comment about these new things-- about last night. We will tell you where we were last night. Last night, we led all of those youngsters up and down the streets to close every store in this area because Dr. King was shot and they should have closed those stores. Now, some of them kicked glass store windows in. We are not stopping them from kicking in the store windows. We are stopping them from coming out on the streets without guns. When they come out on the streets, we want them with guns. If they don't have guns, we're not gonna let 'em throw bricks and bottles at guns. But when they get guns, we'll be on the streets.

Unidentified: Question (me) if you have any questions.

Unidentified reporter: Mr. Carmichael, don't you believe the vast majority of Americans feel just as badly as you do about what happened in Memphis?

Carmichael: The white press and that's from a "honkey" Lyndon Johnson to "honkey" Bobby Kennedy will not co-opt (phonetic) Dr. Martin Luther King. Dr. Martin Luther King fought for his people. It was not but four weeks ago when Johnson told King that if he came marching into the District, he would meet a force because he should bring his troubles to him. And now tonight he is trying to make as if Dr. King was his hero. He fools no one. Bobby Kennedy pulled that trigger just as well as anybody else. Because when Dr. King was down in the South and Bobby Kennedy was Attorney General, every time a black person got killed, Kennedy would not move because he wanted votes so he is just as guilty...all of white America killed Dr. King. And those who feel sorry ought to feel sorry.

Unidentified reporter: Mr. Carmichael, what do you intend to do...what actions do you intend to take relative to Rap Brown and your intent to get him out of jail?

Carmichael: We decided at our central committee meeting that if Maryland persists with this (nonsensical) charge, even though the reports said that Rap did not incite any riot in Cambridge. Well then Governor Agnew, he ain't seen nothing if he thinks he saw something on that Bowie State thing. We will take our troops back into Maryland and all of us are veterans from Cambridge, Maryland, and from Baltimore, Maryland, and we will turn that State inside out and upside down. And we've got Louisiana to get. We've got some brothers working in Florida. We've got some brothers working in Ohio and we are gonna get Richmond, Virginia.

Unidentified reporter: Mr. Carmichael, what do you think will happen to the poor people's campaign now?

Carmichael: I understand that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference will carry it on and as we said before we will be glad to give them any support. Whatever Southern Christian Leadership Conference asks for today, we will give to them. Except our tears. We will give no more tears for any black man killed in this country.

Unidentified reporter: Mr. Carmichael, do you see anybody replacing Dr. King as a nonviolent leader?

Carmichael: No, that's why America lost when she shot him down last night.

Unidentified reporter (woman): Mr. Carmichael, is there any truth to the rumor that you are going to call a general strike here in town?

Carmichael: We are waiting for what the Southern Christian Leadership Conference wants us to do.

Unidentified reporter: When you say the execution of those deaths will be, not in the courtroom, but in the streets, can you be a little more specific about the course of action you expect?

Carmichael: I think that is quite explicit.

Unidentified reporter: Do you expect an organized rebellion?

Carmichael: I think it is quite explicit.

Unidentified reporter: Mr. Carmichael, suppose a lot of black people have to die...(garbled). (What would it do to please you--This is thought what the reporter said.)

Carmichael: That they take as many white people with them as they can.

Unidentified reporter: Yes, but what about the black people who have to die?

Carmichael: Ah...we die every day. We die in Vietnam for the "honkeys", why don't we come home and die in the streets for our people. We die everyday. We die cutting and fighting each other inside our own communities. Why cut and fight each other and kill each other off? Let's kill off the real enemy. Black people are not afraid to die. We die all the time. We die in your jails, we die in your ghettos, we die in your rat infested homes. We die a thousand deaths every day. So we are not afraid to die. Today we are going to die for our people.

Unidentified commentator: I would like to say this before we have any more questions, that on Monday our Chairman, H. Rap Brown, will be in Richmond, Virginia, according to "honkey", Federal Government, and there will be a car caravan from all directions leading to Richmond, Virginia, on Monday morning. We are urging all our black brothers and sisters to come to Richmond.

Unidentified reporter: Mr. Carmichael, what is the alternative to the kind of retribution in the streets that you are talking about? Is there any way to stop it?

Carmichael: I don't think so. I do not think so. I think white America is incapable of dealing with the problem.

Unidentified reporter: How will Dr. King's death affect your leadership as you see it, Mr. Carmichael?

Carmichael: Well Dr. King's death will not affect my leadership or affect me as a black man. Because he was my brother, flesh of my flesh and blood of my blood. You see, the mistake they made when they shot Dr. King was even though Dr. King talked about nonviolence he was always in the streets. Ready to lead a demonstration. All of the other so-called leaders who are...talk about nonviolence and are not on the streets with their people. Many people respected Dr. King even though they didn't agree with his philosophy 'cause at lease he was in the streets. So now there is really no one else to respect who talks about nonviolence because the people who talk about nonviolence are not in the streets.

Unidentified reporter: Mr. Carmichael, are you declaring war on White America?

Carmichael: White America has declared war on black people. She did so when she sold the first black man from Africa. The black man has been sufficient, has been patient, has been resisting and today the final showdown is coming. That is clear. That is crystal clear. And that black people are going to have to find ways to survive. The only way to survive is to get some guns. Cause that is the only way white America keeps us in check is because she's got the guns.

Unidentified reporter: Stokely, what do you see this ultimately leading to? A blood bath in which nobody wins?

Carmichael: First, my name is Mr. Carmichael, and secondly, black people will survive America.

Unidentified commentator: Last question.

Unidentified reporter: What accomplishment or objectives do you visualize from the retaliation that you speak? What do you think you will accomplish?

Carmichael: If black man can't do nothing in this country then we gonna stand up on our feet and die like men. If that is our only act of manhood then God dammit we gonna die. We're tired of living on our stomachs.

Unidentified reporter: Do you fear for your life?

Carmichael: Hell with my life. You should fear for yours. I know I am gonna die. I know I am gonna die. (Applause) piece of clothing of his remaining was a turtle neck sweater after the store had been looted during the riot. Carmichael, upon hearing that his clothing had been looted, became angry and left the store carrying only his sweater.

Unidentified commentator: There is still a possibility that there will be a general strike throughout the United States. So that our black brothers and sisters can take off that day from their slavery and working for the masters and to think about and to re-analyze what the "honkeys" are doing to the black people in this country and me. And perhaps then something can be done. That is the end of the press conference.

A source advised that Carmichael departed WDC later on April 8, 1968, in order to be in Atlanta the next day for the funeral of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. A source further reported on April 8, 1968, that Carmichael arrived in front of Paschal's Motor Motel, 830 Hunter Street, S. W., Atlanta, Georgia, in a 1965 blue and white Dodge sedan bearing an unknown South Carolina license plate, at approximately 11:40 p.m. on April 8, 1968. Immediately upon his arrival and the recognition of him by several people in the immediate vicinity, a congregation assembled around the automobile from which he was alighting, and the remark "Brother, tomorrow night we gonna burn them" was heard coming from the crowd surrounding Carmichael.

On Tuesday, April 9, 1968, a source advised Carmichael arrived in the vicinity of the Ebenezer Baptist Church, 413 Auburn Avenue, N. E., at approximately 10:20 a.m., where the funeral services for Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. were in progress. As Carmichael walked toward the entrance to the church, and although not appearing to speak to anyone in particular, he repeated time and time again, as he held up his hands, "black power, black power."

Carmichael was dressed neatly in a black business suit, and upon reaching the entrance to the Ebenezer Baptist Church found that the doors had been locked on the inside. After the crowd had shouted "let him in" several times, the doors were opened and Carmichael entered the church.

According to a source, after the services at the Ebenezer Baptist Church and while en route to memorial services for Dr. King which were to be held on the campus of Morehouse College, the rumor through the crowd was that Carmichael had said, "Play it cool, and after we bury the man, then the riots can start."

At approximately 10:35 p.m. on April 9, 1968, the crowd in front of Paschal's dispersed and Carmichael was not known to have engaged in any activity or speech making up to that time.

On Wednesday, April 10, 1968, sources in Atlanta advised Carmichael had departed to return to WDC, believed to be by auto.

On Thursday, April 11, 1968, Carmichael and several companions returned to WDC by automobile. En route they visited Richmond, Virginia, where a hearing was taking place on April 11, 1968, involving H. Rap Brown, the SNCC National Chairman before the U. S. Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals concerning Brown's request for setting of new bond and a request for issuance of a writ of habeas corpus. Near the end of the hearing Carmichael appeared in the courtroom. The court affirmed the previous judgments of the U. S. District Court, Eastern District of Virginia, concerning refusal of new bond and refusal to grant a writ of habeas corpus. The court granted leave for the U. S. District Court to reconsider the amount of the existing bond.

After the hearing adjourned, Carmichael and four companions, together with Brown's attorney, [redacted] drove to the Federal Reformatory, Petersburg, Virginia, where authorities allowed only attorney [redacted] to visit Brown.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

AT MOBILE, ALABAMA

On May 17, 1968, [redacted] made available a letter received by him from [redacted] Mobile, Alabama, dated May 14, 1968, in which [redacted] indicated STOKELY CARMICHAEL would be in Mobile some time during early part of June 1968. [redacted] inquired of [redacted] as to whether [redacted] still desired to debate with CARMICHAEL on the subject of The Constitutionality of His Words and Deeds, and stated that if [redacted] still desired to debate CARMICHAEL, he, [redacted] would contact CARMICHAEL with the proposal. [redacted] advised that during June 1967, he had discussed with [redacted] the possibility of his debating CARMICHAEL on this subject. [redacted] advised that he wrote [redacted] a few days after May 14, 1968, that he was still desirous of debating CARMICHAEL under certain specified conditions. On May 27, 1968, [redacted] advised that he had heard nothing further from [redacted]

b7C

On May 28, 1968, [redacted] advised that he had originally conceived the idea of a debate between [redacted] and CARMICHAEL with the idea of promoting the debate and making a fee out of it. He said that during June 1967, he had been talking with [redacted] in the County Courthouse and the discussion included a public charge previously made by [redacted] indicating that CARMICHAEL was guilty of sedition. [redacted] thought that a public debate between the two would have considerable appeal. He said at that time [redacted] agreed to the debate. [redacted] envisioned promoting the debate and selling it to some broadcasting network. Nothing further developed concerning this situation during 1967.

b6

[redacted] advised that a few weeks prior to the date of interview, he had heard a rumor that CARMICHAEL was coming to Mobile during June 1968 and, accordingly, he

ALA

On May 31, 1968, [] NOW advised that, during late April or early May 1968, at a Board meeting of NOW, it was decided to invite CARMICHAEL to Mobile and a letter was sent to CARMICHAEL. An answer was received advising the dates CARMICHAEL was available for the trip to Mobile but he did not recall the dates. He advised that he has no further information as he is no longer president of NOW.

b6

On May 31, 1968, [] advised that when he recently took over as President of NOW, he was made aware of the fact that a letter had been sent to CARMICHAEL and a reply had been received giving the dates CARMICHAEL was available for a Mobile appearance. He said the letter had been sent without the knowledge of the membership of NOW and that it had not been properly voted upon. He said that some members of NOW felt that they did not have a powerful leader or speaker in Mobile who could unify the Negroes and wanted an outsider to come in. [] and another group felt that calling in an outsider would be considered only if all else failed. [] said that as of May 31, 1968, CARMICHAEL had not been invited to Mobile and there were no plans to invite him.

CARMICHAEL resides at 5015 16th Street, N.W., WDC, a private single family dwelling. This is traditionally a residential area except for several churches and Doctor offices. Several diplomatic establishments are located in the immediate area which is just south of the Carter Barron Amphitheatre.

CARMICHAEL spends considerable time at his residence while in WDC. He has a number of visitors at his residence.

CARMICHAEL has a red Volvo sedan he uses regularly which he parks in the vicinity of his residence. He also has several cars always seemingly available to him which are usually parked in the area. Due to the coming and going of CARMICHAEL and his acquaintances at the residence, it is felt essential to have an observation post to cover his activities.

"500 SHARE JOY WITH MIRIAM, STOKELY

"Black Power, national and international politics, and the 'greatest human struggle in the history of the world' took a back seat to love and marriage here Saturday. (MT. Vernon, NY)

"While these and other topics punctuated the multi-accented words and phrases of nearly 500 people, an 'African lady' and an 'African gentleman' dominated the spotlight of adulation.

"The 'African lady' was Miriam Makeba, a daughter of South Africa.

"The 'African gentleman' was Stokely Carmichael, 'a son of Africa living in America,' as they were described in the original text of the unique ceremony celebration.

"They were married in an unprecedented wedding hosted by the palatial Tanzanian Embassy nestled in the bosom of Mt. Vernon, haven of New York's power elite.

"Stokely and Miss Makeba were 'technically married' a few weeks ago, explained the Rev. Douglas Moore, who conducted the colorful ritual.

"They repeated the exchange of vows Saturday because, Stokely said, 'we wanted our friends to share in our happiness.'

"Their invitation said 'a few friends' were being invited to the 'private reception.'

"Before the downpour of rain chased guests from the rambling lawn and into the mansion-like embassy, the collection of a 'few friends' had grown to nearly 500 people, linked to nations from all points of the globe.

"Stokely, the panther-like supreme commander of the Black Movement, cut a figure of African royalty as he greeted admirers. He was regal in a flowing, brilliantly white 'grand Bu bu,' a gift from President Sekon Toire of Guinea.

"Miss Makeba, the fiery songstress dedicated to liberation of South Africans, was gowned in a radiant beige 'Bu-bu,' made by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Mabel Carmichael.

"To the howling approval of their guests, Stokely and Miriam embraced following the exchange of vows and tears trickled down the glowing ebony face of the bride.

"Ambassador Marof Achkar of Guinea presented the couple to the Rev. Mr. Moore, a Methodist minister of Washington, who had earlier performed the 'technical ceremony.'

"A hush fell over the miniature United Nations assemblage at 30 Oberhill Rd. as Tanzanian Ambassador His Excellency Akili B.C. Danieli, the host, opened the proceedings.

"The ambassador lauded the 'linking of two contingent in matrimony and prophesized that it would hasten the day of freedom for 'all black people of the world.'

"Ambassador Achkar taking note of the large contingent of white guests, called the occasion the 'beginning of human brotherhood.'

"'We have given a sister to an Afro-American and we have received an Afro-American as our son,' Ambassador Achkar declared to thunderous applause.

"The Rev. Mr. Moore, who said he founded the Washington chapter of the Student Non-violence Coordination Committee, SNCC -- one chaired by Stokely, read the text of the ceremony written by the bridegroom.

"It Follows:

"'Before the first black cargo of slaves bowed its head in the restless bosom of the Atlantic, a beautiful people had made their mark on the world.

"On those ships of agony were the best of Africa's kingly lives, royal houses, delicate craftsmen, head men of the forest, plain plain coast, weavers, drummers, and strong black women.

"The young glory of Africa was sent into a new world of terror. Black men in the bush by the muddy rivers, near the edge of the deep forest lamented for those stolen brothers and sisters. Prayers for their return were offered, but to no avail.

"And in the midst of slavery, our wish to go back found expression in "My Home Is Over Jordan."

"The blood lines of all our people flow through Stokely Carmichael from turbulent rivers; from mountains of sadness; from cities of despair.

"Now our seed of hope has come and stands before us. In him we see the beauty of our people; their comely blackness; their vibrant manhood; their audacious assault upon the order of tyranny; their indomitable spirit to survive and create new form. He is the veritable young prince, now destined to be our chief.

"He has lived and worked among us as a servant in the dusty delta of Mississippi and the black belt of Alabama. The waste places of Washington are well known to him.

"He has seen the suffering of our people. He has heard their cry. He has felt their pain and his tears for the fallen have saturated the earth.

"Now he stands as the epitome of our black manhood. And he has found a wife from the daughter of Africa. She who stands beside him comes out of a noble tradition. 'A tradition that has been brutalized by a cruel satanic system. Her journey to freedom has been long and torturous.

"Armed with only the gift of songs, she has kept the fire of freedom alive. Her struggle for her people and all black people is known.

"She has not forgotten the insults, the cries of agony that come from the land of her birth. Now she comes to share a love with him and a sacred tradition with us.

"Her songs speak to us and her resources support the struggle on every front and now her love, her greatest asset, has found an intimate expression in Stokely Carmichael.

"And we, through her, with him, will re-discover and re-instate the beautiful ways of our people.

"This is a blessed day. A significant and sacred day. A day of remembrance for us -- black people of Africa and America.

"It is significant for us as a people. Their love now serves as a link between black people of two continents.

"Our common suffering, our common capacity to survive, our common culture have provided us with enduring links.

"This link of love will strengthen the unity of black people on two continents.

"In the presence of this gathered community, they have come to say to us what they have already said to each other.

"What they will now say is an affirmation of what was first said in the presence of their God and our creator."

"At this point the Rev. Mr. Moore injected a new substitute for the traditional vows exchanged between bride and bridegroom.

"What is a wedding?" he asked Stokely.

"The bridegroom answered:

"A wedding is a time for our friends to come together and enjoy themselves. They come together to witness us publicly acknowledge our love for each other."

"When did you marry each other?" the minister intoned.

"We were married when in our hearts we recognized we loved each other," the bridegroom said quietly.

"Then why did you come here?" the Rev. Mr. Moore asked.

"We came here because we want our friends to share with us our happiness. After several years of wandering, we have finally found each other.

"Because we love our friends we want them to share our happiness. There is so little to be happy about these days, we would like them to have some of this happiness.'

"The dialogue between the minister and bridegroom continued:

"Minister - 'There are many who do not want to share in this happiness. Many speak ill of you. What do you say of this?'

"Stokely - 'We wish they could find one-tenth of the happiness we have found.'

"Minister - 'Are you sure you are in love with each other?'

"Stokely - 'As sure as Mother Africa is the beginning of civilization. As sure as our ancestors are praying for the end of our oppression.

"'As sure as the gods will right the wrongs. As sure as we breathe. As sure as we live. We are quite sure we love each other.'

"Minister - 'Do you expect a happy life?'

"Stokely - 'Our lives are busy, but what little time we have will be precious and our love will grow.

"'Our love will not be selfish. We have to work for the liberation of our people -- each in his own way.

"'Because our love is so strong, our lives, when we are together or apart, will be very happy.

"'And if we grow weak, we have our family and friends to give us strength. Yes, our life, long or short, will be a happy life. '

"'Stand now and make public to your friends your affirmation,' the clergyman instructed.

"With tears trickling down her face, Miss Makeba called 'Zanie' in the rites whispered:

"'I have found you and I need no other.'

"'I have found you and I need no other,' Stokely repeated.

"The Rev. Mr. Moore spoke again:

"'Now, in the presence of this gathered community, our ancestors and God, do you take the responsibility of loving this woman?'

"'Do you promise to protect her from fear, poverty, and loneliness?'

"'These rings that encircle your fingers are precious symbols. They symbolize that a man loves a special woman and that a woman loves a special man.

"'Beyond that it symbolizes the unity of our people,' the minister said, halting for a reply from the couple:

"'I have found a love and she wears my ring,' Stokely said solemnly.

"'I have found a love and he wears my ring,' Miss Makeba answered softly.

"A cup of wine was handed the couple by the minister who explained:

"The cup that is before you is a cup of blessing. It is a cup of sacrifice to our ancestors. It is a cup of participation of the gathered community.

"It is the cup of love shared by Stokely and Marian and with the gathered community of love."

"A shower of applause greeted the newlyweds' mutual sips from the cup and the massive embassy echoed the sounds of gayety as the bride led the audience in an African ballad, written specifically for the occasion.

"It was past midnight when guests reluctantly made an effort to leave while the sounds of African drums drifted from the great building into the damp air of Westchester New York's most fashionable living quarters.

"It was a 'Stokely Spectacular!'"

On Wednesday, May 22, 1968, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed Carmichael board Eastern Airlines 5:00 p.m. flight for Washington, D.C. at LaGuardia Airport, New York City. Carmichael was traveling alone and [redacted] who saw him off at the airport, remained in New York City. Upon arrival in Washington, D.C., Carmichael went to SNCC headquarters. b6 b7C

A source advised that a BUF meeting was held on May 22, 1968, at the New School of Afro-American Thought, 2115 14th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.

According to source, approximately 120 persons were in attendance at the meeting, which began at approximately 8:45 p.m.

According to this source, Stokely Carmichael presided as the meeting began and Lulu Stroud was asked to read the minutes of the BUF Steering Committee meeting which was held on May 15, 1968.

According to source, these minutes disclosed that Charles Jones had been elected by the Steering Committee to serve as co-chairman of the BUF and to act as chairman in the event Carmichael is absent. Jones will also handle all administrative matters pertaining to the BUF.

These minutes also revealed that the BUF desires to set up its own office, purchase office equipment, and issue membership cards.

It was further revealed from a reading of these minutes that the Steering Committee had discussed a press conference which had been held at 7th Street and Florida Avenue several weeks ago regarding the rebuilding of the riot torn areas of Washington, D.C. and the committee which had been assigned the task of presenting a program for the rebuilding of these areas. It was pointed out that a member of this committee had arranged for a rally to be held May 18, 1968, and used the name of the BUF in connection with this rally. The Steering Committee reported it had ordered this rally cancelled and had passed a motion that no member of the BUF was to arrange for any type of a rally or call a press conference with the inference that it was being sponsored by the BUF until such a proposal had been cleared by the BUF membership as a whole.

Source advised that Charles Jones then was recognized and gave a short summary concerning the press conference mentioned above. Jones stated that the members of the BUF Rebuilding Committee has had meetings with the Redevelopment Land Association (RLA), the Alcohol Beverage Commission Board (ABC), the Department of Licenses and Inspections, the Small Business Administration, a representative of Mayor Walter E. Washington's office, as well as a meeting with Mayor Washington.

RE: STOKELY CARMICHAEL

According to Jones, the RLA has denied any responsibility for the riot torn areas other than 7th Street, N.W. Harry Quintana interrupted at this point to say that RLA also has jurisdiction over 16th Street and H Street, N.E. Reverend Douglas Moore and Reverend Channing Phillips both advised Quintana he was in error, according to source. Jones then continued his report by stating that the ABC Board had advised that the whole situation concerning liquor stores was under study and the ABC Board acknowledged that there were probably too many liquor stores in the ghetto areas.

Jones further stated, according to source, that the Department of Licenses and Inspections had agreed to do all in its power to see that Negro demolition get some of the work which will have to be performed in the ghetto areas before rebuilding can begin.

Source stated that Charles Cassell then remarked that Negro demolition companies would have a difficult time obtaining finances and performance bonds for this task.

Source advised that Reginald Booker then was recognized and announced that the Emergency Transportation Committee, at its last meeting, had reached the conclusion that O. Roy Chalk of the District of Columbia (D.C.) Transit Company had built a sprawling financial empire on the backs of poor black people. He stated that his committee wanted to force Chalk into bankruptcy or get him to sell the D.C. Transit Company to the city of Washington. Booker stated his committee had proposed, therefore, to begin a series of selective boycotts of the buses and he asked the BUF to support this movement.

Source advised that Carmichael refused to hear a motion regarding this, stating that Booker's proposal was too vague and indefinite. Booker then announced his committee would carry on alone. ✓

Charles Cassell was then recognized by Carmichael, according to source, and announced that his committee had received no proposals for rebuilding the city. He requested permission from the BUF to allow his committee to draw up such proposals. This was put into the form of a motion, which carried without opposition.

At this point, according to source, Reese James stated he believed the project would run into trouble. James pointed out that many neighborhoods have block leaders and small churches which have assumed leadership in the community. He said these block leaders and the members of the churches who have assumed positions of leadership would resent a BUF committee coming into the neighborhood.

After a short discussion regarding this point, according to source, Carmichael appointed the Reverend Douglas Moore to meet with all other ministers who are members of the BUF (Reverend Channing Phillips, Reverend David Eaton, Reverend Walter E. Fauntroy) to form a ministerial Alliance Committee whose purpose will be to contact all other ministers in the city so that when the BUF Rebuilding Committee has its program drawn up, these ministers will allow a representative of the BUF to come into their churches in order to outline the BUF program.

Source advised that James Moon gained the floor and announced that he had heard on a television news program that H. Rap Brown had been convicted. Moon suggested that a motion be passed to the effect that the

DC
BUF supported Brown. This set off an argument among those present with Calvin Rolark finally being recognized by Carmichael. Rolark attempted to amend the motion to include a fund-raising campaign for Brown. Marshall Brown then asked that the motion as amended be tabled, pointing out that H. Rap Brown was well aware that the black people all over the United States were behind him.

Carmichael then spoke up, according to source, and told the members of BUF to forget the whole thing because SNCC had decided to forget about the courts in the United States. Carmichael said SNCC "will do its battling elsewhere" and suggested that if the members of the BUF wanted to raise money, it should give it to him (Carmichael) so he could purchase some dynamite.

Source advised that after much discussion, a motion was finally passed calling for a rally for H. Rap Brown which would include support for Cleveland Sellers and various other "black heroes." The BUF will attempt to raise money at this rally.

Source advised Carmichael again spoke up and said that 10% of the funds raised should be turned over to him so that he could purchase dynamite.

Carmichael then went into a detailed recital of Brown's legal troubles, according to source, and advised those present that although he considers such a rally as hopeless, he would nevertheless support it. Carmichael then appointed Lester McKinnie chairman of the H. Rap Brown Rally. Roena Rand objected to McKinnie's appointment but refused to say why. Carmichael then appointed Rand chairman of this committee and she accepted the appointment. Rand, who is to appoint her own committee, instantly set the date of the rally as June 3 or 4, 1968. h.c.

Rand then gained the floor, according to source, and asked for support for "Resurrection City" and help in the form of money and supplies. Carmichael objected to these, according to source, pointing out that the BUF had voted to support the Poor People's Campaign but not to participate in it. Carmichael said that support and other forms of aid by members of BUF would have to be a personal thing. He pointed out that the Reverend Ralph Abernathy had not come into the black community to ask for support, further that if the campaign is a success, Abernathy would become a big political figure and if the campaign fails, the failure will be laid to the black community and the reason for the failure will be cited as lack of support from the black community.

RE: STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Robert Rippy then stated that he was living in "Resurrection City" and he confirmed that there was a need for supplies. He told those present he was working hard on this project. Source advised that Carmichael then compromised and said that as long as an individual did not use BUF's name, then that individual should be allowed to help in any manner he believed appropriate.

Julius Hobson then was recognized, according to source. After thanking the BUF for sending him fruit while he was hospitalized, he stated he was holding a rally at the Lincoln Memorial Congregational Temple for Federal Employees Against Discrimination at 8:00 p.m. on May 23, 1968. He stated he was trying to obtain sufficient information from Federal employees to establish that the United States Government discriminates against the Negro. If he is successful, he will then bring a class action into court.

Hobson also said, according to source, that he believed all the talk about building black was nonsense, pointing out he did not believe white merchants would give up valuable land or buildings they owned. Hobson expressed the view that many Negroes apparently have ideas about becoming black capitalists and replacing white capitalists, whereas they should be forgetting about capitalism altogether.

De
Tom Beard, who was recently fired by Safeway Stores for refusing to shave off his beard, then spoke, according to source, and told of events leading up to the loss of his job. He stated he had received no outside support in his fight. Carmichael stated he would accompany Beard to the Safeway Store, which is located at Piney Branch Road and Georgia Avenue, N.W., on May 23, 1968, to get Beard's job back if Beard wanted to go. Source advised nothing was decided on this.

On Thursday, May 23, 1968, Carmichael was not observed to depart his residence during the morning. In the afternoon, he went to SNCC headquarters. Later he went to Baltimore by car.

"The Evening Star," a Washington, D.C. newspaper, in an article dated May 27, 1968, reported as follows:

"CARMICHAELS BID ON HOUSE

"Black power advocate Stokely Carmichael and his bride, African folk singer Miriam Makeba, are negotiating to buy a $70,000 castle-like house in the verdant 'Gold Coast' area of upper Northwest Washington, on the eastern edge of Rock Creek Park.

"The owner of the house has accepted a written purchase offer from the Carmichaels, subject to further discussions on financing and other matters, according to sales manager Archie Kennedy of the Floyd E. Davis real estate company.

"The three-story, four-bedroom house, at 4331 Blagden Ave. NW, sits amid about an acre of well-kept gardens. City Councilman William S. Thompson lives two doors away at 4343, and prominent investment broker Belmont Ver Standig lives next door at 4329.

"The owner of the house, F. Vic Guidice, said yesterday that negotiations with 'some singer from New York' had been in progress for about a week.

"Guidice, who is retired, said he and his son have been living in the house and plan to move out of the city.

"Kennedy confirmed that the singer is Miss Makeba, 35, who was married to the 27-year-old Carmichael here early this month. Her lawyer is to contact the real estate firm tomorrow or Wednesday to discuss 'a certain situation that we have to get straightened out,' Kennedy said.

"One of the contingencies is financing,' he added, but he refused to be more specific about the tentative purchase agreement.

"It's all up in the air,' he emphasized. 'We don't know what the situation is.'

"Kennedy said the house had been on the market at $70,000 for about six weeks. Miss Makeba expressed her interest in a telephone call to Kennedy about a week ago, he said, but he did not recognize the prominence of her name until later.

"The Carmichaels 'probably looked at the house one Sunday' but were not recognized by the agent, he added.

"The house, which Guidice said is about 30 years old, is just west of 16th Street NW a short distance from the Carter Barron Amphitheater, where Miss Makeba has performed.

"Carmichael, who popularized the black power ideology and became head of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, is now a Washington-based field secretary for the organization.

"There have been several recent reports that Carmichael and Miss Makeba were seeking a house in the upper 16th Street area. A recent newsletter of the GOP Congressional Committee pictured another upper Northwest house that the Carmichaels purportedly were buying.

"In New York, one of Miss Makeba's agents at Associated Booking said he knew nothing of her 'personal' business. Neither Miss Makeba nor her personal manager was available to comment on such a matter, he said.

"Carmichael reportedly was in Washington today preparing for a West Coast trip but could not immediately be reached.

[] stated he is not acquainted with Stokely Carmichael and that he is not involved in any way with SNCC. He described his son as a person ardently interested in civil rights for Negroes, but he was not aware b6 that his son is actively involved in SNCC or is a militant of b7C any persuasion.

On February 17, 1968, LeRoy Eldridge Cleaver was publicly identified at the Huey Newton Defense Fund rally at the Black Panther Party For Self Defense (BPPSD) held at the Oakland Municipal Auditorium, Oakland, California, as the Minister of Information of the BPPSD.

The November 23, 1967 issue of "The Black Panther Party - Black Community News Service," official publication of BPPSD, listed Kathleen Neal as the assistant editor of that publication and listed the editor of that publication as Minister of Information (Underground).

The January 25, 1968 issue of the "Daily Californian," University of California at Berkeley student newspaper, on page 3, column 1, identified Kathleen Cleaver as the Communications Secretary of the BPPSD.

A characterization of the BPPSD is found in the appendix.

On June 28, 1968, an unidentified male employee of the Roxbury YMCA, Warren Street, Roxbury, Massachusetts, advised that Stokely Carmichael had entered the YMCA about 8:15 PM on that date and was attending a meeting in one of the conference rooms in the YMCA. This meeting concluded at 10:50 PM.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY FOR SELF-DEFENSE (BPPSD)

A source advised that the Black Panther Party For Self-Defense (BPPSD) was formed by HUEY PERCY NEWTON, Minister of Defense, and [redacted] in Oakland, California, in December, 1966, as a militant black nationalist political organization to combat "police brutality" to unite militant black youth, to determine the destiny of black communities, and to educate black people in African history. The political philosophy of the organization was taken from the writings of MAO Tse-tung of Communist China and black militant writers. b6 b7C

The official BPPSD publication "The Black Panther - Black Community News Service" indicates the leadership of the BPPSD advocates the use of gun and guerilla tactics in the violent revolutionary program to end oppression and to oppose the drafting of black men to fight in Vietnam.

A second source advised that in early 1967, [redacted] NEWTON, and their associates carried carbine rifles and holstered pistols in plain view on the streets of Oakland and elsewhere while on "defense patrols." b6 b7C

[redacted] was one of the persons arrested by the Sacramento, California Police Department on May 2, 1967, when members of the BPPSD invaded the California State Legislative Assembly in Sacramento while in session, carrying loaded guns to protest restrictions on the carrying of guns. b6 b7C

A Grand Jury of Alameda County, California, Oakland, California, on November 13, 1967, indicted HUEY PERCY NEWTON on charge of murder of an Oakland, California police officer on October 28, 1967, in Oakland, California.

The first source advised [redacted]

b7D

The November 4, 1967 issue of "The Sun Reporter," a San Francisco, California Negro community newspaper, states that a HUEY PERCY NEWTON defense fund has been established and that the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) through the national offices have pledged their complete and continuous support to the defense of HUEY PERCY NEWTON.

STUDENT NONVIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE

Literature distributed by the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), headquartered at 360-362 Nelson Street, S.W., Atlanta, Georgia, described itself as not being a membership organization, but rather an agency attempting to stimulate and foster the growth of local protest movements. SNCC was born out of the sit-in movement which erupted across the South beginning on February 1, 1960. A conference at Raleigh, North Carolina, that Spring, brought together many of the demonstrating Southern students in a loose network of militant youth which was officially named SNCC in October, 1960.

A source has advised that in May, 1966, Stokely Carmichael was elected National Chairman by the Central Committee. In May, 1967, Carmichael was replaced as Chairman by [REDACTED] with Carmichael assuming the position of Recruiter and Organizer for the SNCC. In August, 1967, at the invitation of Fidel Castro, Carmichael participated in the Organization of Latin American Solidarity Conference which was held in Havana, Cuba. Subsequent thereto, Carmichael traveled to Hanoi and other sections of North Vietnam. He returned to the United States in December, 1967, at which time his passport was picked up because of travel to unauthorized countries.

Literature distributed in February, 1968, identifies SNCC as an organization in the revolutionary vanguard. It advocates that to be successful it is necessary to develop a revolutionary ideology and revolutionary program.

On August 13, 1967, while addressing a group in the Watts area of Los Angeles, California, H. Rap Brown said "You better shape up America, or we'll burn you down." Later in February, 1968, in a publicized note Brown wrote, "America, if it takes my death to organize my people to revolt against you and to organize your jails to revolt against you and to organize your children, your God, your poor, your country, and to organize mankind to rejoice in your destruction and ruin, then here's my life."

Memorandum

TO : The Director

DATE: 6/6/68

FROM : N. P. Callahan

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Pages E5017-E5020. Congressman Broyhill, (R) Virginia, placed in the Record the text of a newsletter he mailed to his constituents concerning his position on Vietnam, crime and civil disorder, the economic situation, and welfare problems. Mr. Broyhill, in commenting on crime and civil disorders, stated "When Stokely Carmichael, early in the Washington riots, urged his black power followers to 'go get your guns' he was attempting to create a reign of violence. He is now under investigation by the Attorney General's office—and I must say rather half-hearted investigation, although the evidence dug up by the FBI is clear and complete."

BLACK UNITED FRONT

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on July 4, 1968, that a meeting of the Black United Front (BUF) was held on Wednesday evening, July 3, 1968, at the Douglas Memorial Methodist Church, 11th and H Streets, N.E., Washington, D.C. (WDC) from 8:30 p.m. to 11:15 p.m., attended by approximately 75 people.

According to this source, the following items were discussed:

The activities of Poor People's Campaign in Washington, D.C.

The use of tear gas by Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) at 14th and U Streets, N.W., WDC, on June 24, 1968.

The proposed four percent sales tax on groceries in WDC.

The shooting of two MPD officers on July 2, 1968, and the resulting death of one of them.

A second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, also advised on July 4, 1968, the following information in addition to that set forth above:

ENCLOSURE

BLACK UNITED FRONT

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

In attendance at this meeting was Stokely Carmichael who stated from the floor that in regard to the shooting of the policeman on July 2, 1968, a fund should be established to raise money for the defense of the individuals accused of this shooting. According to this source, Carmichael further stated that the BUF should publicly endorse their actions as heroic, that their actions were justifiable because when white policemen shoot blacks it is always justifiable homicide, therefore it should be justifiable homicide when blacks in defense of themselves kill policemen. This source further advised that Carmichael stated that BUF should establish an educational program to arouse the people in the black community that such action was heroic and to encourage them to take the same action when white policemen come into black neighborhoods to make arrests. A vote was taken to publicly endorse the action in which the policeman were shot and resulted in five individuals dissenting. A committee of eight was then selected to draft a resolution along these lines. After retiring to a side room the committee returned with a draft stating that the action of the three individuals arrested for shooting the MPD officers was justifiable homicide, calling for Negro policemen for Negro communities and the elimination of white colonialism in Negro communities. This resolution was then unanimously adopted.

This second source also stated that the BUF will hold public hearings regarding the excessive use of tear gas of the MPD at 14th and E Streets, N.W., on June 24, 1968, sometime in the future.

A third source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that at the BUF meeting held on July 3, 1968, Stokely Carmichael was instrumental in having a resolution passed declaring that the actions of the individuals accused of shooting a policeman on July 2, 1968, should be considered justifiable homicide.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL
AT MOBILE, ALABAMA

On July 8, 1968, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that

b7D

On July 8, 1968, [redacted] Mobile Municipal Auditorium, advised that [redacted] came into the auditorium that morning and arranged to rent the main municipal auditorium arena for the evening of July 26, 1968, for a political lecture. [redacted] made a cash deposit of $250, representing one half of the base rental for the auditorium. The rental was made by Neighborhood Organized Workers, of which [redacted] listed himself as president. [redacted] said that [redacted] had originally tried to rent the auditorium for July 19, 1968, but the auditorium was booked on that date. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that [redacted] did not identify the speakers for July 26, but said that this information would be obtained later this date. Subsequently, on July 8, 1968, [redacted] advised that [redacted] had advised that the principal speaker for this occasion would be Stokely Carmichael and that the entire program was expected to begin at about 8:30 p.m. and would last for approximately three hours. b6 b7C

COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM
BLACK NATIONALIST - HATE GROUPS
RACIAL INTELLIGENCE
(BLACK UNITED FRONT)

This is to recommend that attached item concerning Stokely Carmichael's control and manipulation of the Black United Front (BUF) to create tension in the Washington, D. C., Negro community [REDACTED]

b7D

BACKGROUND:

Considerable publicity has been given by the press to a resolution passed by the BUF on 7/3/68 that a white policeman's slaying was "justifiable homicide." What has not been reported is the fact that the resolution was the brainchild and work of Stokely Carmichael, according to [REDACTED]

b7D

Carmichael is the individual who is responsible for changing the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) from a civil rights group to a revolutionary black nationalist organization. He has repeatedly disclaimed that the Negro must resort to violence to gain his "rights."

Memorandum to Mr. W. C. Sullivan
RE: COUNTERINTELLIGENCE; BLACK UNITED FRONT
157-8471

After an extensive trip abroad Carmichael established a Black United Front of militant and moderate Negro leaders in Washington, D. C. However, despite any "new look" he may endeavor to project, Carmichael remains committed to violence and irrationality. Carmichael has indicated any soft line taken on black power is merely an attempt to convert Negroes into SNCC followers but if they do not convert they will be treated and handled as traitors.

By letter dated April 6, 1968, the Attorney General requested the Bureau's assistance in developing information on the incidents involving Carmichael during the recent riots in Washington, D. C. We have submitted five investigative reports to the Department totaling approximately 800 pages containing the results of over 700 interviews. By letter dated May 17, 1968, we advised the Department we had completed our investigation and requested a prosecutive opinion concerning this matter. By letter dated June 11, 1968, we again requested the Department's prosecutive opinion. In view of the lapse of time, we are once again asking the Department when a prosecutive opinion will be forthcoming.

APPENDIX1.STUDENT NONVIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE

Literature distributed by the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), headquartered at 360-362 Nelson Street, S.W., Atlanta, Georgia, describes itself as not being a membership organization, but rather an agency attempting to stimulate and foster the growth of local protest movements. SNCC was born out of the sit-in movement which erupted across the South beginning on February 1, 1960. A conference at Raleigh, North Carolina, that Spring, brought together many of the demonstrating Southern students in a loose network of militant youth which was officially named SNCC in October, 1960.

Literature distributed in February, 1968, identifies SNCC as an organization in the revolutionary vanguard. It advocates that to be successful it is necessary to develop a revolutionary ideology and revolutionary program.

On August 13, 1967, while addressing a group in the Watts area of Los Angeles, California, [REDACTED] said "You better shape up America, or we'll burn you down." Later in February, 1968, in a publicized note [REDACTED] wrote, "America, if it takes my death to organize my people to revolt against you and to organize your jails to revolt against you and to organize your children, your God, your poor, your country, and to organize mankind to rejoice in your destruction and ruin, then here's my life!"

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

A summary of pertinent activities of Stokely Carmichael from June 4, 1968, to June 18, 1968, is being set forth as follows:

On Tuesday, June 4, 1968, during the morning, Carmichael returned to Washington, D.C. (WDC), from a trip to California. Carmichael was met at National Airport by four unidentified males upon his arrival and was joined later by Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) associate [redacted]. They departed National Airport in a red Volvo sedan bearing Georgia License [redacted]. Later, Carmichael visited briefly the headquarters of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), 14th and U Streets, N.W., WDC, the sponsor of the Poor People's Campaign (PPC). Carmichael and [redacted] returned to National Airport where they met [redacted] at 11:00 a.m. apparently arriving on an incoming flight. [redacted] was accompanied by two females possibly members of her musical group, one of whom was believed to be [redacted]. [redacted] her husband, was also believed to be present. Carmichael, [redacted] entered the abovementioned red Volvo sedan. The other individuals mentioned above entered a late model white Dodge. Carmichael with [redacted] returned to their residence, 5015 16th Street, N.W., WDC. Carmichael was not again observed to leave his residence on that date. A source previously advised [redacted] is a SNCC associate of Carmichael.

The records of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, Atlanta, GA. disclosed the above mentioned Georgia license ID-57915 registered to Carmichael.

Prior to Carmichael's departure for California on May 28, 1968, a television program entitled "NET Journal" featuring Carmichael, Bobby Seale of the Black Panther Party (BPP), and Mario Savio, former leader of the Free Speech Movement at Berkeley was broadcast from 9:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. over WETA, Channel 26, on May 27, 1968. The program was rebroadcast on the afternoon of June 2, 1968, before his return. The comments by Carmichael which were reportedly excerpts from past speeches are being set forth hereinafter:

"TRANSCRIPTION OF STATEMENTS
BY STOKELY CARMICHAEL
TV CHANNEL 26, MAY 27, 1968
WASHINGTON, D.C.

"I was told all the time that I was an exceptional Negro. I was an intelligent boy. I had scholarships to go to all the Ivy League schools and that I could get into that society if I played by their rules, but that really bothered me because I found myself becoming less free. You see, I think that the freest people in this society are the people from Mississippi because they have not been caught up in the structure of watching your 'Ps' and 'Qs,' so I was very worried about that, so I wanted to go South just to see how free they really were and what the threat was to the whole power structure. I got caught up in the Freedom Rides and decided that Mississippi was where I'd like to stay and work. I learnt (sic) from the people in Mississippi. I learnt from the people in Mississippi what I never learnt from the most brilliant professors I've sat under. They taught me how not to be ashamed. They taught me how to say what you want to say whenever you want to say it.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

"We've been so riddled and inculcated with that American dream (and) nonsense which we were never a part of and could never hope to be a part of. I think that's what the problem with America's now facing with the youth both black and white that we're all beginning to question why is it that she's the richest country in the world. Is it that she exploits other countries, is it that she steals, murders, and plunders, or is it that she's so smart that she can develop her resources to yield the amount of productivity that it does, and I think that most of you are beginning to see that the United States has been exploiting other countries and that we have been enjoying that good life at the expense of other countries and that when you match that with the American dream which talks about honesty and equality and a fair share for everybody to recognize that you talk that nonsense at the expense of somebody in Vietnam or South Africa, or Latin America, Asia, Japan, just makes you sick to the stomach. You want to puke. it's time that you use your mouth to say no and begin to use your knowledge for the good of black people who surround your campus.

"For once they get someone who's speaking directly to them who's beginning to challenge what has been defined as success for them on their college campuses. Deep down they've always felt this, but they haven't been really sure how to express it because they were afraid they might be called racists or black nationalists. They finally begin to see that they have that release so that I think you get the catharsis there but then an awakening and a beginning to re-think what success is all about.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

"In this country you were to think that white people were God; that they had the right to give us our freedom and so what we had to do was to beg them or to act the way they want us to act before they gave us our freedom. We must stop seeking to imitate white society. We must create for ourselves to save our very humanity because the fight for black power in this country is indeed a fight to civilize a barbaric country - the United States. We have to be able to gather the strength, you must be able to get the (goods?) as the intellectuals of the black society to say: 'We are black, our noses are broad, our lips are thick, our hair is nappy, and we are beautiful - and we are beautiful - and we are beautiful - yes - yes - beautiful (speaker drowned out by applause and the taking up of the chant, "We are beautiful.")'

"I think that black students have never heard anyone tell them that they are black and beautiful. White people like Negroes, but they have a role for them. They like them like maybe they like their pet dogs, but they like them to that extent. Now they have that role. Now when they break out of that role there's a threat, I guess the sociologists would call that a threat to status, or what have you, but there is that and then they have to react to that, but that isn't just in the South, I mean it's in the whole country. It's in the whole country. It's in the whole country.

"You ought to tell 'em clear, 'If you don't want any trouble, keep your filthy white hands off our beautiful black girls - keep 'em off - keep 'em off - keep 'em off (drowned out in crowd response) ...'

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

"You want to talk about this thing called violence that everybody is so afraid about. Here you are talkin' about you afraid of violence and the Honky draftin' you out o' school to go fight in Vietnam... (drowned out by crowd). Or, you gonna sit in front of your television set and listen to LBJ tell you that violence never accomplishes anything, my fellow Americans. This is the most violent society there is.

"I think that the society is headed toward suicide, and I really don't think that America could share in the guilt. I don't think we could ever see ourselves a country, and that people have to see themselves as individuals. And that is particularly true, I think, for white America, that she must see herself as individuals. That's the death trap for most liberals. You know, the first thing they say to you is that 'Well, I'm not like the rest of them.' Like their first phrase to you, because they recognize for them to share in the collective guilt they would just have to drink themselves to death. And I think that the people who even just touch on the collective guilt of white America must drink themselves to death, just have to, cause you just woke up one morning and without any reason at all you were burning babies, and you didn't have anything to do with it, not any reason at all - burning babies, even to stop communism, burning babies, man you go crazy, you gonna blow your mind. (Speaker drowned out by miscellaneous background comments, mostly unintelligible.)

"We are not only opposed to the war in Vietnam, we are opposed to compulsory conscription, we are against the draft. Now, we are against the draft for anybody, black or white. When you are called to serve you have a choice, either you say no and face the possibility of going to jail or you become a hired killer, you inflict suffering on somebody.

"It is more honorable to suffer. We must save our humanity, we cannot allow ourselves to be used as the black mercenaries in that war. You should join the greatest, Mohammed Ali, and tell them, 'Hell, no! I ain't going! Hell, no! We ain't going.'" (Drowned out by background applause.) (It appears the speaker is furthering the applause with repeated statement, 'We ain't going,' while audience repeatedly says, 'Hell, no.')"

An article appearing in "The Washington Post," a WDC daily newspaper on May 31, 1968, reported that a new book store specializing in Negro culture would be opened on that date with ceremonies at 8:00 p.m. According to the article several individuals including Stokely Carmichael were to be among the participants at the opening activities. The article continued that the book store would be named the Drum and Spear.

At 7:15 p.m. on June 5, 1968, Carmichael and [REDACTED] departed their residence and went to the Zanzibar Restaurant, 2017 14th Street, N.W., traveling in the previous mentioned red Volvo sedan. They remained at the Zanzibar Restaurant for a short period and then went to the New School of Afro-American Thought, 2115 14th Street, N.W., WDC. b6 b7C

A source advised that a Black United Front (BUF) meeting held June 5, 1968, at the New School of Afro-American Thought, 2115 14th Street, N.W., WDC.

According to source, approximately sixty persons were in attendance at the meeting which began at approximately 8:45 p.m.

According to this source, the meeting began with a showing of a film by [redacted] stated concerned the struggle of Malcolm X to obtain freedom. After showing this film, [redacted] then introduced a Negro male, name [redacted] who was identified as the author who compiled the autobiography of Malcolm X. [redacted] told those present that he is now working on a big project which will assist Negroes in tracing their lineage back to Africa.

[redacted] who acted as Chairman at this meeting, according to source, called upon [redacted] to read the minutes of the previous meeting of the Board of Conveners but she refused and [redacted] was forced to give an oral report.

[redacted] advised those present that the following subjects had been discussed by the Board of Conveners:

- 1 - Appointment of a task force to organize and solicit membership in all black communities. [redacted] said plans were made to re-organize the whole membership procedure and to issue new applications for membership in the BUF to all present members by mail.

- 2 - Received a report from the task force on the rebuilding of the city.
- 3 - Discussed the position BUF should take regarding the Washington Federal City College and the Washington Technical Institute.

At this point in the meeting, according to source, some "bickering" started. [] made a motion that a task force be appointed immediately to begin organizing the entire black community. This motion was seconded, according to source, but Stokely Carmichael said the BUF would have to be very careful because people would start asking questions concerning the purpose of organizing. According to source, Carmichael said his idea of organizing was to cover everything from the conservative to the revolutionary. He pointed out that in the process of soliciting memberships in the black community the people should be told they are only joining the BUF and not committing themselves to any particular ideology. The motion that was passed was worded to express the ideas set forth by Carmichael.

b6

According to source, approximately six people then volunteered to serve on this committee.

[] then presented a Negro male named [] (phonetic), from San Francisco, who stated that with the help of Stokely Carmichael he had just organized a BUF in San Francisco. He gave a short address on unity of the black people.

b6

A Negro male named [] spoke next. He stated he represented Blacks for American Dream (BAD), which is a group of professional men who live in the upper Northwest section of WDC. Source advised that it was evident from the discussion that [] and Carmichael have been talking to representatives of BAD to get them to join BUF. [] advised the BUF that BAD has not made any decision as yet in regard to joining BUF and that he was not there in any official capacity.

Source advised that [] Build Black was recognized next and inquired about the relationship between the Board of Conveners and the total membership of the BUF. [] explained this to him whereupon [] said [] had organized about three years prior to the riots and was first known as the Cardozo Men's Council. [] said his organization had been working in the Cardozo area for a long time and was a great deal older than BUF. He said he believed that if older organizations joined BUF, they should be represented on the Board of Conveners.

b6

Carmichael then stated he had talked to [] three times and [] had talked to [] Carmichael accused [] "of hemming and hawing and coming in late."

b6
b7C

Source advised that [] tried to appease Storey, saying that as BUF went along, the Board of Conveners would be expanded. This did not satisfy Storey, according to source and he and four members of Build Black walked out of the meeting.

b6
b7C

A Negro female who, according to source, was on a committee headed by [] which was planning a rally for [] spoke and said that the committee had decided not to hold a local rally as such, but were searching for an appropriate day that has some significance to all Negroes. This individual said, according to source, that the committee had decided to try to get about seven cities on the East Coast to arrange and conduct one big rally at WDC. Those present agreed to accept this report.

b6

Source advised that an unidentified man working with the task force on rebuilding reported that this committee had had no meetings with any officials of the Government since the last BUF meeting but that the task force was still working on the rebuilding plans.

Source advised that [] then announced that his personal office at 900 Florida Avenue, N.W., is now being used as the administrative office for BUF, and all business could be transacted through his office. He stated he is also working on a magazine which he will call "Black."

b6
b7C

Source stated that [] had again submitted her resignation and Carmichael made a remark to the effect forget about her and get a new secretary. A young lady named [] (phonetic) volunteered to act as a temporary secretary.

b6
b7C

Source advised that [] came in at the very end of the meeting and read off a list of churches who have agreed to let the BUF use their facilities for meetings. Source advised these churches are: Lincoln Memorial Congregational Temple; John Wesley AME Zion; Franklin P. "CARMICHAEL SAYS
SHOWDOWN HASTENED

"Detroit, June 8 - Black power advocates Stokely Carmichael said today the death of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy has hastened 'the bloody confrontation between blacks and whites.'

"Carmichael, who arrived here late this afternoon to address a rally, said Sen. Kennedy was the most popular white politician among Negroes because of the 'clever public relations job of his brother.'

"Now that Robert Kennedy is dead, Carmichael told a news conference, there is nobody who can placate Negro anger. For that reason, he said, the inevitable confrontation between blacks and whites will take place sooner. He did not say when that might be.

"Carmichael said of Sen. Kennedy, 'We call him the last of the good whiteys.' He said he doubts any other white political figure can inherit the popularity Kennedy enjoyed among black people.

"Speaking of the deaths of Sen. Kennedy and the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Carmichael said, 'The lines are now less blurred as the liberal sector disappears.'

"Urban Violence

"Carmichael also predicted that the urban violence of previous summers would not occur on as large a scale this summer.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

"That was something we tried and it didn't work and now it is time to try something else," he said.

"Asked what the new tactic might be, he said 'a lot of people go to jail for what they say. I am not going to jail for what I say, but for what I do.'

"Carmichael said he doubted that any conspiracy links the deaths of either of the Kennedys and Dr. King. 'The same groups could not be responsible for King's death and the Kennedys' deaths.'

"Carmichael, now a Washington field secretary of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, said he hopes the Poor People's Campaign succeeds 'because they are our people,' but he added:

"'If it doesn't work, then we know where we have to go.'

"No White Alliances

"He said that when the armed confrontation that he anticipates does come, black people 'have no one to rely on but ourselves.' He emphatically ruled out the possibility of white alliances.

"Asked by a reporter if his confrontation did not seem like a 'death wish,' Carmichael responded that there is a difference 'between being ready to die and wishing to die.'

"Carmichael is here to speak in support of several black nationalists groups in this city,

"Appearing relaxed in a maroon cardigan and white turtleneck sweater, Carmichael said the fight in this country is not going to be along class lines. The fight is going to be clear black against white."

On Sunday, June 9, 1968, Carmichael with SNCC Associates

[redacted] returned to WDC at National Airport at 4:46 p.m. via Northwest Airlines Flight Number 338 from Detroit. Carmichael and [redacted] went to their residence at 5015 16th Street, N.W., WDC. They were not again observed to depart their residence on that date.

b6
b7C

On Monday, June 10, 1968, Carmichael was not observed to leave his residence during the morning. A panel truck of Lawson Brothers Carpeting was parked near the residence and two workmen were observed carrying carpeting inside. A source advised that carpeting was being installed in the Carmichael residence by the workmen.

In the late afternoon, Carmichael with [redacted] and [redacted] departed his residence and visited the location of the Drum and Spear book store, 2701 14th Street, N.W., WDC. Carmichael later went to SNCC headquarters where he remained into the evening hours.

b6

An article appearing in "The Washington Post" dated June 19, 1968, stated as follows:

"CARMICHAEL LETS QUESTIONS GO BY

"Washington's snappiest young newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Stokely Carmichael, flew in from California last night and showed up an hour later at an Embassy of Guyana garden party.

"I'm here with my wife to enjoy myself,' the bridegroom kept telling people who kept asking him such unromantic questions as whether he has any plans for Solidarity Day today. Then he referred all questions on all subjects to his wife, folk singer Miriam Makeba.

"That's ironic for a West Indian,' said the Ambassador of Barbados, Hilton Augustus Vaughan.

"Carmichael, who was born in Trinidad, laughed and agreed and then hastily added, 'Actually, we're Africans-we were just dropped off in the West Indies.'

"Mrs. Carmichael's statement was that as a foreigner, she does not interfere in the internal affairs of the United States. A refugee from South Africa, she is now a citizen of Tanzania.

"Carmichael spent much of his time at the party signing autographs. 'SNCC could use the money,' said the former chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee when someone suggested that he could get a good price for those signatures.

"The party given by the Ambassador of Guyana and Lady Carter was in honor of the Jazz-at-Laurel Festival Aug. 2, 3 and 4 at the Laurel Race Course. Rufus Harley, with his wild bagpipes and quintet, played on the porch for the party and will perform at the festival.

"So will Miriam Makeba, although she wasn't aware of the fact until someone pointed out her name on the program. 'I can't keep up with everything,' she said.

"She was smilingly accepting bestwishes on their marriage, but was annoyed when people congratulated her on having bought a house on Blagden Avenue.

"That's all a rumor,' she said. 'We live on 16th Street.' (She wouldn't give the address.)

"Carmichael's was not the only Nehru suit at the party, but it was the only double-breasted one. And he certainly had the only shirt trimmed in velvet, gold and black braid. Mrs. Carmichael wore a flowing print dress she had designed herself and a tall black hat.

"After he had talked with the caterer's manager, Wallace Mason of the Barnett Catering Service, Carmichael was quick to point out that he knew him as a friend and not professionally. Mason added that he has catered for Carmichael as well as 'Kennedys, Senators and everybody else.'"

STUDENT NONVIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE

Literature distributed by the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), headquartered at 360-362 Nelson Street, S.W., Atlanta, Georgia, describes itself as not being a membership organization, but rather an agency attempting to stimulate and foster the growth of local protest movements. SNCC was born out of the sit-in movement which erupted across the South beginning on February 1, 1960. A conference at Raleigh, North Carolina, that Spring, brought together many of the demonstrating Southern students in a loose network of militant youth which was officially named SNCC in October, 1960.

A source has advised [REDACTED]

A source advised [REDACTED]

Literature distributed in February, 1968, identifies SNCC as an organization in the revolutionary vanguard. It advocates that to be successful it is necessary to develop a revolutionary ideology and revolutionary program.

On August 13, 1967, while addressing a group in the Watts area of Los Angeles, California, [REDACTED] said "You better shape up America, or we'll burn you down. Later in February, 1968, in a publicized note [REDACTED] wrote, "America, if it takes my death to organize my people to revolt against you and to organize your jails to revolt against you and to organize your children, your God, your poor, your country, and to organize mankind to rejoice in your destruction and ruin, then here's my life."

b6
b7C

BLACK PANTHER PARTY FOR SELF-DEFENSE (BPPSD)

A source advised that the Black Panther Party For Self-Defense (BPPSD) was formed by HUEY PERCY NEWTON, Minister of Defense, and [REDACTED] Chairman, in Oakland, California, in December, 1966, as a militant black nationalist political organization to combat "police brutality," to unite militant black youth, to determine the destiny of black communities, and to educate black people in African history. The political philosophy of the organization was taken from the writings of MAO TSE-TUNG of Communist China and black militant writers.

b6
b7C

The official BPPSD publication "The Black Panther - Black Community News Service" indicates the leadership of the BPPSD advocates the use of guns and guerilla tactics in the violent revolutionary program to end oppression and to oppose the drafting of black men to fight in Vietnam.

A second source advised that in early 1967, SEALE, NEWTON, and their associates carried carbine rifles and holstered pistols in plain view on the streets of Oakland and elsewhere while on "defense patrols."

[REDACTED] was one of the persons arrested by the Sacramento, California Police Department on May 2, 1967, when members of the BPPSD invaded the California State Legislative Assembly in Sacramento while in session, carrying loaded guns to protest restrictions on the carrying of guns.

b6
b7C

A Grand Jury of Alameda County, California, Oakland, California, on November 13, 1967, indicted HUEY PERCY NEWTON on charge of murder of an Oakland, California police officer on October 28, 1967, in Oakland, California.

The first source advised that the headquarters office of the BPPSD at 5624 Grove Street, Oakland, California, is closed and that no membership meetings have been held since August, 1967.

The November 4, 1967, issue of "The Sun Reporter," a San Francisco, California Negro community newspaper, states that a HUEY PERCY NEWTON defense fund has been established and that the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE) through the national offices have pledged their complete and continuous support to the defense of HUEY PERCY NEWTON.

Dear [Redacted]

Your letter of July 28th, with enclosure, has been received and the interest which prompted you to write is appreciated.

Regarding your comments concerning Stokely Carmichael, the FBI is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government and, as such, does not determine whether prosecutive action will be undertaken in any situation. Such decisions concerning violations of Federal law are within the province of the Attorney General. Voluminous data regarding this individual has been furnished to the Attorney General and you may wish to contact him.

I can assure you, however, the FBI is aware of its responsibilities with respect to the internal security of our country. We will continue to make every effort to carry out our duties with the greatest thoroughness and efficiency.

Sincerely yours,
J. Edgar Hoover

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Stokely Carmichael

With all due respects, sir, for you & your position as head of the country's law enforcement agency, the F.B.I. - Can you please tell me truthfully, why, just why, this revolutionary, this traitor, this anarchist, this thing, is not imprisoned? As a loyal American, a former soldier, a government employee, and just plain John ^Q citizen & taxpayer, what in the hell, may I ask, is going on?

Do you people have to wait until the revolution this man urges, actually happens? Do thousands have to die & suffer before you can take action. I admit that I am highly incensed. What decent person wouldn't be? Can't law & order prevail anymore? In the name of God, what goes on? I am concerned for this country believe me. Please tell me the truth, on why this man Carmichael is still walking around free.

Respectfully

Stokely Urges Guerrilla War

Mobile, Ala. (AP)—Black power advocate Stokely Carmichael said Friday night that Negroes should wage guerrilla warfare to cause maximum damage with a minimum loss of black lives.

At a rally sponsored by the Neighborhood Organized Workers, N.O.W., Carmichael shouted, "Don't pray for power, don't beg for power, take it with a gun barrel."

The remark received resounding applause from the estimated 600 persons packed into and standing outside an Afro-American school in the Mobile's predominantly Negro North Side. About twenty white persons attended.

"Black people are not in a revolution here (in the United States), it hasn't started yet," Carmichael said. "We are only at the beginning of a revolution—the armed stage."

Synopsis:

CARMICHAEL established residence, Washington, D. C., on January 4, 1968, and continued affiliation with the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) as an "organizer," using Washington, D. C., SNCC Office as headquarters. CARMICHAEL sponsored establishment of Black United Front (BUF), Washington, D. C. (WDC), January 9, 1968, an organization of representatives of black organizations and individual memberships to effect unity among black people. CARMICHAEL was appointed temporary chairman of the BUF. As an activist in SNCC and the BUF, he has participated in various activities in those organizations as well as appearing to act independently. CARMICHAEL has made speeches and public appearances condemning the United States and its history, particularly about the race question, the war in Vietnam, public officials and racial problems. CARMICHAEL has castigated the white race referring to them as "honkies," and reportedly urged Negroes to get guns and arm themselves. CARMICHAEL has accused the United States and white Americans with racial prejudice, speaking often of violence in connection therewith and alleging it to be inevitable. CARMICHAEL participated in racial disturbances in WDC following the assassination of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., during April, 1968. [REDACTED]

b7C

[REDACTED] In connection with activities, CARMICHAEL has traveled to other United States cities since establishing residence WDC. CARMICHAEL CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS.

I. BACKGROUND

A. Employment and Residence

CARMICHAEL is affiliated with the Washington, D. C., office of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), 2208 14th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., as an "organizer," with national headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia. Prior to April, 1968, the Washington, D. C., office of SNCC was located at 1234 U Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. [REDACTED]

b7C
b7D
[REDACTED] CARMICHAEL's duties at SNCC are not specifically defined. He appears to act on his own volition and does not appear to take orders from any specific SNCC official, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Similarly, the duties of SNCC are not clearly defined and the term "SNCC" representing Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee is no longer descriptively accurate as there are few actual legitimate students left in the organization.

CARMICHAEL is also affiliated with the Black United Front (BUF) with temporary offices at 900 Florida Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., as temporary chairman. The office functions and meetings of the BUF were carried out previously utilizing SNCC headquarters, the premises of the New School for Afro-American Thought, and other premises including churches and private residences made available to the BUF. CARMICHAEL presides over general meetings of the BUF, attends meetings of the Steering Committee and handles other administrative functions.

CARMICHAEL is not known to be gainfully employed otherwise. He is not known to receive any salary of significant proportion from SNCC or the BUF.

B. Record Checks

The files of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), Washington, D.C. (WDC), disclosed STOKELY CARMICHAEL was born June 29, 1941, at Port of Spain, Trinidad, British West Indies. His father, ADOLPHUS STANDIFORD CARMICHAEL, now deceased, was born in Port of Spain, Trinidad, British West Indies (BWI) on February 1, 1913. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

b7C

[REDACTED] ADOLPHUS STANDIFORD CARMICHAEL entered the United States at New York, New York, on July 15, 1945, as a transient to the BWI and on March 28, 1951, an order by the Assistant Commissioner of the Immigration and Naturalization Service that his deportation as an alien who had remained for a longer period than authorized be suspended and that his case be referred to Congress. The suspension was based on a finding of economic detriment to his lawful resident alien wife, should he be deported. A Concurrent Resolution of Congress, CR-29892, approved the action. A record of entry for permanent residence, retroactive to July 16, 1946, was created on January 28, 1952.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL entered the United States for permanent residence on June 15, 1952, and was destined to his father. STOKELY CARMICHAEL automatically became a citizen of the United States on April 27, 1953, the date of the naturalization of his second parent under provisions of Section 321 (a) of the Immigration and Naturalization Act.

WFO 100-43503

CARMICHAEL applied for a derivative certificate of citizenship and after being interviewed with his parents, was issued Certificate A338082 on April 17, 1958, by Immigration and Naturalization Service at New York, New York.

The files of the United States INS, 20 West Broadway, New York City, [redacted] U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service file number [redacted]

[redacted]

The records of the District of Columbia Court of General Sessions, WDC, disclosed that STOKELY CARMICHAEL [redacted] [redacted] filed an application for a marriage license on April 22, 1968. In applying for the license CARMICHAEL furnished information he was a resident of WDC, twenty-six years of age, of the "black" race and had no previous marriages. [redacted]

II. ORGANIZATION AFFILIATION

A. Affiliation with the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC)

CARMICHAEL was previously the national chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), 1966-1967, with headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia. He was replaced by H. RAP BROWN as national chairman in May, 1967. He then did "organizing" work for SNCC in Lowndes County, Alabama. From July, 1967, to December, 1967, he visited Cuba, North Vietnam, and other Communist countries, in addition to other Asian countries, Europe, Africa and the Middle East. During these visits, according to news accounts, by exploiting the race issue in the United States, he made numerous speeches and comments highly inflammatory and critical of the United States, including statements against the war in Vietnam. He met numerous Communist officials in the countries visited, including Cuban Premier FIDEL CASTRO. He returned to the United States in December, 1967, at John F. Kennedy International Airport, New York City.

In January, 1968, CARMICHAEL established residence in Washington, D. C. Since his arrival in Washington, D. C., he has continued an active affiliation with SNCC on a local and national level.

b2

A characterization of SNCC is set forth hereinafter in the Appendix.

"The Evening Star," a Washington, D. C., daily newspaper reported in an article, dated December 12, 1967, that STOKELY CARMICHAEL returned to the United States on December 11, 1967, and was met by U. S. Marshals who confiscated his passport for traveling to Communist countries without authorization. During his trip, which began July, 1967, CARMICHAEL reportedly visited Czechoslovakia, Sweden, France, England, Tanzania, Egypt, Algeria, Spain, Cuba, Guinea, and North Vietnam. CARMICHAEL's passport was revoked according to U. S. Government spokesmen because he violated a section of the U. S. Code forbidding unauthorized travel to Cuba, North Vietnam, North Korea, Communist China, and Syria.

B. Affiliation with the Black United Front

In addition to being active in the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), CARMICHAEL is also affiliated with the Black United Front (BUF), an organization established under his sponsorship since taking up residence in Washington, D. C.

A characterization of the BUF is set forth hereinafter in the Appendix.

III. ACTIVITIES

The following includes pertinent activities of CARMICHAEL from January 4, 1968, to July 1, 1968.

In connection with and in addition to being active in SNCC and the BUF, CARMICHAEL has continued to make statements as well as speeches of an inflammatory nature about the United States and its history, especially the race question, public officials, the war in Vietnam, and current racial problems. He has castigated the "white race," referring to them as "honkies," and has repeatedly urged Negroes to get guns and arm themselves. He has repeatedly accused the United States and white Americans of racial prejudice. He has spoken of violence frequently in discussing the racial question, alleging it to be inevitable. In connection with CARMICHAEL's activities and statements, he has traveled to various parts of the U. S. while using Washington, D. C., apparently as a base of operation.

According to an article appearing in "The Evening Star," dated December 15, 1967, CARMICHAEL stated that while on a visit to Howard University, WDC, that he was planning to make Washington his home. He reportedly stated to students present that he would return in two or three weeks to live and commented, "I'm coming back to Washington to stay, baby. This is our town, our town." He stated during the visit that his plans were indefinite. He added "The whole world is moving against the honkie."

On January 4, 1968, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed CARMICHAEL arrive in WDC in a 1967 blue Dodge sedan, bearing New York license was accompanied by [redacted]

[redacted] as well as three other unidentified Negro males who returned to New York City. Upon arrival, Special Agents observed CARMICHAEL to unload luggage into SNCC headquarters then located at 1234 U Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. Subsequently that date he moved the luggage to 2200 12th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., where he established residence.

Subsequent to his arrival in WDC on January 4, 1968, he has been observed at the headquarters of SNCC by Special Agents of the FBI on numerous occasions. This includes the current location of SNCC, 2208 14th Street, N. W., as well as the former location, 1234 U Street, N. W., WDC. He has also been observed on numerous occasions at the temporary headquarters of the BUF, 900 Florida Avenue, N. W., WDC. He has also been observed at his current residence 5015 16th Street, N. W., WDC, as well as his former residence, 2200 12th Street, N. W., WDC.

The "Washington Post and Times Herald," a daily WDC newspaper, in its issue of January 9, 1968, reported that STOKELY CARMICHAEL would hold a meeting of local Negro leaders on January 9, 1968, at the New School for Afro-American Thought, 2208 14th Street, N. W., WDC. According to the news account, CARMICHAEL stated the purpose of the meeting was to unite Negro organizations in WDC into a solid, unified Black Front in connection with civil rights.

On January 9, 1968.

[redacted] advised that he attended the above-described meeting at the New School for Afro-American Thought held on January 9, 1968. He advised the meeting commenced at approximately 9:20 p. m. after the press and other individuals not invited to attend the meeting were excluded. There were approximately twenty individuals present at the meeting representing civil rights organizations and about 80 other persons who were vouched for by officials of the New School for Afro-American Thought.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL was the chairman of the meeting who outlined the purpose of the meeting which was to formulate an organization to unite the black community in the WDC area. CARMICHAEL stated at the outset of the meeting he desired the meeting to be an orderly one with no name calling, bickering or in-fighting. He stated that further meetings were contemplated; the purpose of which would be to implement the plans of the new organization and these meetings would be scheduled in the future.

Following CARMICHAEL's introductory remarks, various comments were made by other individuals present. The substance of the remarks by the other individuals dealt with the problems involved in forming a United Black Front as proposed by CARMICHAEL. Questions were raised regarding the role each individual civil rights organization would play in the Black Front and who would be chosen and how they would be chosen to run the new organization. Comments were also made as to whether the represented civil rights organizations would be willing to participate in the BUF.

During the meeting a Steering Committee was formed from nominations from the floor whose specific task was to check with their own organizations to determine their willingness to participate in the new organization.

WFO 100-43503

During the meeting on January 9, 1968, mentioned above, minutes of what had transpired were prepared. According to the minutes, CARMICHAEL stated at the outset that the object of the meeting was to unite all organizations into a united front. In the united front anyone aside from the militants and revolutionaries would retain their own ideology. CARMICHAEL stated that out of necessity the militants and revolutionaries must be willing to forego their own ideologies and let collective conservative ideology dominate at the present.

b2

He stated everyone must be clear about the fact that without militants and revolutionaries in the racial movement, there would be no poverty programs. The poverty programs need the militants and revolutionaries just as the militants and revolutionaries need the conservatives. Without one there is no other. CARMICHAEL then stated that one of the reasons a united front is needed is because it tends to act as an umbrella for the organizations within; if the police move against one who is in a united front, the others will react. In this front they want to pull together the black bourgeois and the black militant. He stated that they should not waste their energies fighting each other but come together. CARMICHAEL then stated a second reason for the united front is to show the black community one positive aspect of black people unifying their forces; that they must show their own people that on this level they are talking about organizing for the right to live as human beings with self-determination. He added that the white man has pitted Negroes always against each other and this has kept them continuously divided. He stated that when one black man is against another, he has to be stopped at any cost. He added that if they were united they could stand together in resistance of a new proposed anti-crime law; adding that they could begin to move in force against the racist influences and stop the "police brutality" that exists.

Before finishing CARMICHAEL emphasized that he did not want organizations attacking each other and that they merely state what the organization planned to do or what the organization might be pointing out; if one group said it is for integration and there is opposition, there should not be any arguments.

A discussion was held about the establishment of the new organization, and it was agreed that the past should be forgotten in respect to individuals and organizations fighting each other; that the first step in forming the united front was trust in each other.

Other comments were made by CARMICHAEL which were that the pressure of the united front would force the black businessman to support the black community. When CARMICHAEL was asked how he envisioned the united front with respect to structure and so forth he replied by stating that he did not intend to impose his ideology on the group but rather sought their views. Following the above discussion CARMICHAEL again spoke at length. He stated that their major enemy is white America, its organization is racist, that they could not fight the real enemy if they are fighting each other. He stated the white manifestations of power in black communities are the enemies; that the black man who is against them, has been mesmerized by the white man. He stated that this particular black man had to be led and shown the right way. He added that among those present at the meeting were many individuals representing different organizations; that there were four or five organizations geared toward the cultural aspect of black people; that the one that gets the most following will move to control.

Included in the discussion of whether a united front should be established CARMICHAEL said that everyone present at the meeting felt that what they were doing was worth doing and that what they must be concerned about are the masses of black people who were not present. Further that if a united front is acceptable they will want a collective ideology, black in structure to propagate as they become more established. A Steering Committee was established to call meetings, plan the agenda, issue statements and guide the organization toward a permanent structure. STOKELY CARMICHAEL was made temporary chairman of the Steering Committee.

Before the meeting adjourned, CARMICHAEL requested every organization represented that wanted to be included in the Black United Front to mail a prospectus and program about what it had been doing to the SNCC headquarters, 1234 U Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. He stated that by February 9, 1968, all individuals and organizations wishing to join the Black United Front must have so indicated.

b2

An article appearing in the "Washington Post and Times Herald," dated January 11, 1968, reported leaders of Negro groups in Washington, D. C., had formed a "Black United Front which would begin a massive campaign to organize all Negroes in the city." The coalition was "prodded" into being by civil rights activist STOKELY CARMICHAEL at a meeting held on the night of January 9, 1968. The article reported that as details of the proceedings seeped out, CARMICHAEL made it clear to the 100 or so who attended - all Negroes - that they and their organizations represented but a tiny fraction of the city's Negroes and that they must get together first then organize all the city's black people to preserve the cause of advancing civil rights. The article reported a diverse group of leaders were called together ranging from his militant SNCC to the Urban League and the NAACP. The article also reported CARMICHAEL who arrived in Washington, D. C., the previous week almost began immediately to assemble the meeting. In addition, other SNCC leaders reportedly had been gathering in Washington during the past few months to get ready for the organizing effort. CARMICHAEL according to the article, reported "it was a beautiful meeting--- we were really together."

The "Washington Afro-American," a Washington, D. C., semi-weekly publication, dated January 13, 1968, reported that STOKELY CARMICHAEL in his first public statement about his two week trip to North Vietnam told a small group before his "black unity" meeting that he was impressed by the great concern the North Vietnamese had for black people in the U. S. "We are upset about what the whites are doing to your people," CARMICHAEL quoted them as saying. "Even amidst the bombing and wanton murder, they were concerned with oppressed peoples around the world," CARMICHAEL said. The article stated CARMICHAEL gave his impressions of North Vietnam at the New School for Afro-American Thought before he convened the meeting of the "Black United Front," a coalition of the city's black leaders. He also stated that he was impressed by the organization, the willingness to fight and the optimism of the North Vietnamese. He stated that everywhere in Vietnam, everyone is organized doing something. "They work close to the earth. It is said that the poor can never be crushed because they work close to the earth." He emphasized the ability of the North Vietnamese to combine modern techonology with their own type of medicine. He said they could cure bomb victims within a period of two months using their hybrid form of medicine. "In Vietnam, you never see death," said CARMICHAEL passionately. "With the North Vietnamese, you see life," he said. He said he was impressed by the efficiency of the North Vietnamese in rebuilding a hospital in an area he was visiting.

[redacted] advised a meeting of the Steering Committee of the BUF was held [redacted]

[redacted] Washington, D. C., which was attended by STOKELY CARMICHAEL along with about ten members of the BUF Steering Committee. A discussion was held during the meeting concerning the possibility of creating a 21 member board to run the BUF organization; the creation of a rotating organizational chairman to serve for a one month duration. In addition to this, a discussion was held regarding whether individuals without organizational attachment should be allowed to participate and belong to the BUF. The above matter was not settled; however, it was agreed that if such membership was permitted these individuals could not hold executive positions.

Radio station WOL, Washington, D. C., on its program, "Speak up," moderated by Dr. DAVID EATON, had as its guests STOKELY CARMICHAEL, LESTER MC KINNIE, Washington Director of SNCC, and COURTLAND COX of SNCC. The program was on the air from 11:00 p. m., Sunday evening, January 14, 1968, to 1:00 a. m., Monday morning, January 15, 1968.

Dr. EATON began the program with a brief interview of his guests, with emphasis on how they became acquainted with each other and how they became involved in the civil rights movement. The questions and answers then began. The following is a verbatim transcript of the comments of CARMICHAEL in response to questions asked him:

EATON:

Listening audience the phone number is 462-8150. And tonight we're interviewing Mr. Stokely Carmichael, Mr. Lester McKinney and Mr. Cortland Cox. Let me throw this question to you, all of you have in common, being at Howard University and on this program we have had several of the Professors who have been kicked out of Howard and one of the student, student at law school. What was his name? Green I think and now he is at Yale. Let me ask you this question? What help if any, in formulating your opinions about life, what was some of your more positive impressions of Howard University? Or what is your critique, that's a better idea of Howard University. How would you answer that?

CARMICHAEL:

Well, I think it is changing a little at Howard University, my biggest problem at Howard University is that it was trying too much imitate white society. I mean all of its criterion came all from white society. It was so caught up in imitating white society, it never took time to look at their own people, their own culture. I mean they just never really questioned things. They don't today, I mean they talk about education. It is crystal clear to me, education means being able to fit into your community. And Howard University is incapable of doing that, I mean the students who attend Howard University can't even mix who surround their very community. They got to have police dogs to fight what they call block boys, and that's just absurd to me, because that's the same people, same black people, flesh of the same flesh and blood of the same blood. And if Howard University couldn't prepare me to help live in that community or change that community, then that education was absolutely wasted. I think that more than anything else (garbled) with Howard, I mean I

I am not even going into the petty nonsense of the administration, they are trying to be so white and the petty nonsense of some faculty members. The whole institution just in its attempt to imitate lock-stock and barrel, white society and to make us white. I think what caused to rebel, cause were all first generation college, you know our parents didn't go to college, they didn't even finish high school. And if we didn't get scholarships, we wouldn't be able to go to college.

EATON: You got a good point, let me put it this way. You say, it is not only true of Howard, I don't think also, the whole educational system.

CARMICHAEL: Right.

EATON: But isn't it natural if the black man finds himself the minority, the largest minority in a seas of whiteness or the white majority. Is it not natural to have this type of imitation? What is your feeling about that?

CARMICHAEL: Man, I just want to pick up on that. I think that's a line the Honkies just use, you know telling us that we're not any relationship to Africa, man that's not true. First of all for black people the question of a community is not geography it is a question of color, that happens to be a fact, I mean you go in this country, wherever you go, if your black you're going to the same community, it doesn't make a difference where its located, if its in Washington, D. C., if its in Harlem, if its in Southside Chicago, if its in Watts in Los Angeles, wherever the brothers are thats naturally where you're going to be. And the same thing is true outside of the country, the same is true for example in the West Indies, the same thing is true in Africa. Well now the white folks got to say that nonsense because look what they've done to us. They have scattered us all over the Western society because they felt like it. They came to Africa they took us, they dropped some of us in the West Indies, they dropped some of us in Cuba, they dropped some of us in Brazil, they dropped some of us in Columbia, in Peru, in Panama, in Santa Domingo, in Puerto Rico, in the United States, and they just scattered us as their will, I mean we're 900 million strong in the world today and if the black man ever recognized that he was 900 million strong in the world today and recognized that we're flesh of the same flesh and blood of the same blood because we are...

EATON: He'd probably faint.

CARMICHAEL: No, he wouldn't faint, the Honkie would faint. If the black man recognized that the Honkie would faint.

EATON: Okay, lets take a few calls, the number is 462-8150, and we're having a informal discussion here tonight with Mr. Stokely Carmichael, Mr. Lester McKinnie and Mr. Courtland Cox. If you care to join it they are willing to answer any questions that you put to them other than those they rule out of bounds and we decided that when we went on the air. Lets take a couple of calls, gentlemen. WOL speak-up please.

CALLER: Alright, well may I just say you have such lovely participants on there I would love to hear them talk much more to the community, you know, rather than asking so many questions at first. And I agree with these gentlemen. I just wish they could give us a better education, black people, I'm not concerned about what white people think about us. I think if we could do one of these things to more educate the black people that they are black and what they are, I would appreciate any comment anybody has about that. We're going to waste our time trying to teach the white man that we're black and we're Africans we can forget it because its going to take too long.

EATON: OK. Thanks very much. Any of you care to react to that?

CARMICHAEL: Let me just pick up on that because I think a point that the lady I think the point that the sister made was very important. Because every time black people move in this country the first thing they decide is what is the white man going to say about this.

COX (?): You're right.

CARMICHAEL: Yeah. And we have to change our entire way of thinking. We must begin to say first our people, first our people, we are concerned with what is good for our people, and later for anybody else.

CALLER: Stokely at one of your meetings, you know, I was there and you said that ah...never knock your brother or never knock your brother's organization. There's another organization (around)....in the (), you know. But suppose your brother knocked you, you know, knowing its gonna hurt you, you know, what actions should he take behind that?

CARMICHAEL: OK, now understand this, we gotta understand this its very, very important. Look I'm gonna tell you something brother if we don't understand it all of us are gonna be wasted. Now dig, if a brother attacks another brother and the other brother's mind is messed up, his mind is messed up because the white man messed his mind up. Right?

CALLER: True.

CARMICHAEL: So that means our primary enemy is the white man who has messed up our brothers mind. Our job is to begin to be as humble as we can with our own people, to try and bring them along to the point where we have reached because look a lot of people talking black now but remember when brother Malcolm was talking about black just think where we were.

CALLER: Yeah.

CARMICHAEL: And all of us have to grow to that point. And if people are not willing to help the brothers and sisters who are behind we're going to get wasted because they'll be able to divide us. We have to give our brothers all the slack in the world, I mean cut them a whole lot of slack to bring them along slowly. Use any methods necessary to bring them along except force. We must begin to...begin to use as a law that we do not use force on our own people, as a matter of fact when they insult us we just go to them and take the insults and just keep going slowly. I mean wherever our people are thats where we go and thats how we try and move against them so that we begin to unite everybody in our community, I mean everybody in our community got to be united, from kids six years old all the way up to the old folk we people say minds cannot be changed but thats not true, we got to work..... with them because unless we have a totally united community (isn't ?) going to be able to get us. But if we take our time with our brothers and when they make the mistakes we just go on after them, you know, like we all grow up in the church, remember Jesus Christ went after the one lost lamb, and thats who we got to go after, we got to go after our lost brothers whose minds are not straight, who are fighting us every time we say the word black, who are getting upset every time they hear Black Power, and take time out to un-brainwash what the Honkie did to them. Now it offers a challenge for us because the challenge is can we ...are we better and are we smarter with our own people than the white man? If the white man brainwashed our people can we un-brainwash our people and bring them home? And I think we're bad enough to do it. And that's what we have to do. And that's why we have to take time and don't get upset, you know, when brothers say things that we know they don't really mean because they don't know what they're talking about, and cut them all the slack in the world to bring them home. We got to bring our people home and you got to remember that every Negro is a potential black man. I job is to make black man.

CALLER: Why can't Stokely Carmichael tell us his real name: And who is paying him?

EATON: (to CARMICHAEL) The question is why can't you tell us your real name? And who is paying you?

CARMICHAEL: My real name is Stokely Carmichael and I'm paid by the Student Non-violent Co-ordinating Committee when I get paid.

EATON: (to caller) Alright, thanks very much.

EATON: WOL, speak-up, please.

CALLER: So mighty glad to see that Mr. Carmichael come speaking to the community because I feel the community needs to be educated, expecially or even our so called upper class. We are all nothing but Negroes.

Some of them there seems to be indifferent or (). What makes the white man mad is when we are united and solid unity and speaking the things that should be spoken. And I think this is a very good idea.

EATON: OK, thanks very much. There is one question that comes out of two or three of the listeners and I would like to throw open and also get the listeners reaction. Should the black man become involved, not only in the destiny of his own community but the destiny of America, and if so, why? (Cox answered - Carmichael continued the answer.)

CARMICHAEL: I mean you could carry it to the present date.

EATON: Mr. Carmichael.

CARMICHAEL: We do not want to get involved in a black united front but lets use that as an example. Now, we got together in D.C. We said, alright, we're living in a black community. We have different ideologies, you know, we have different organizations but we're all working for the benefit of the black man, why don't all of us get together, sit down and try and work out areas where we can work together and stop fighting each other. Now that seems to.....me to be what anybody would be happy to have done. But every white newspaper, every white television station, every white radio station in this city came out against such a move. They don't even want the black man to get together. Didn't any body say anything about what they're were going to do, all they said was we're calling a unity meeting, we discuss things by ourselves away from the press because we know what they do to everything we do, they always misinterpret and continue to mess up the minds of our people. And yet even something as simple as having a unity meeting among black people, and white people are trying to destroy it. The press is making all these stories about whats going on, who's fighting who and all that nonsense, and the reason they are doing this is because they don't want the black man to come together because they know if the black man comes together its all over for them.

EATON: OK. Lets take a few more calls. In other words what you are simple saying is that if the black man looks after his...own..best interests in becoming a better individual in terms of ownership of property, being responsible for the property he owns, developing businesses and sharing that this....by the very act of doing this will have meaningful consequences on the statue and the position of America.

CARMICHAEL:(?) Yeah, but not only that see....if the black man becomes....

EATON: In other words some basic changes will have to be made.

CARMICHAEL(?): Yeah, but look if the black man just began to think for himself then they couldn't control us anymore. For example if any serious black man started to think for himself he knows he has no business in Vietnam. He's not going to Vietnam, if the black man don't go to Vietnam then this country is messed up.

EATON: Right. Ok, lets take a few more calls and gear in on some of the areas that we've just discussed.

CALLER: I would like to ask my black brother, Carmichael, a couple of questions.

EATON: Ok, go ahead. He is listening.

CALLER: When he was over in North Vietnam what did the leader over there think about our black brothers, boys over there fighting, our black brothers whom they are fighting with. What did they think and what did they say about them?

EATON: I think the question is, When you visited North Vietnam what did some of the leaders think about the black men in America?

CALLER: Fighting over there?

CARMICHAEL: I think that they recognize the black man is being used in that war. I think they recognize it very clearly. They recognize it for a number of reasons. Now before the United States moved in against Vietnam, the Vietnamese were fighting the French used to take the Algerians, Algeria is in North Africa, and they used to make the Algerians fight in Viet Nam against the Vietnamese. Now what the Vietnamese would do, when they captured an Algerian prisoner, they would take him and put him in a separate cell from a French prisoner and they would begin to talk to the Algerian prisoner and they would say, now look brother, why are you fighting us? This man in France has got your country up tight, you can't move out of the country, you can't own anything in the country. He owns everything and he makes you come and fight me and I haven't done anything to you. I haven't tried to take your country. I don't rape your women. I don't make them....prostitutes. So why are you fighting me? And they would begin to work a re-educational program on the Algerians. So what happened was that all the Algerians when they got out of jail from Vietnam, they formed the inner left, the National Liberation Front. And they are the ones who carried on the long guerrilla warfare in Algeria against France.

EATON: Thanks very much for your call.

CALLER: Can I ask one more?

CALLER: This is very important, Dave.

EATON: Ok, go ahead.

CALLER: Actually, I want to ask him, did he read this statement when he was over there, he would like to see United States get defeated?

EATON: Let me tell you, one ground rule we have established at the beginning, we don't want to get in one of these type of controversies, so I am not going to allow any question did he say or didn't he say. We won't get too much accomplished then, OK?

CALLER: OK.

EATON: We are trying to share thoughts, trying to find out who these people are, these three individuals. OK? Thanks very much. WOL, speak up please.

CALLER: I would like to ask Stokely who helped finance his trip abroad?

EATON: Mr. Carmichael, who helped finance your trip abroad?

CARMICHAEL: Different peoples.

EATON: Mr. Carmichael's response, did you hear?

CALLER: Different peoples.

EATON: WOL, speak up please. Your on the air.

CALLER: I would like to ask Stokely Carmichael and the rest of the men who are there why aren't they doing anything about the right of Negroes to vote in Washington, D. C.? Because I am pretty sure that the reason is because the majority....of the people in Washington are Negroes and eighty percent of the home population would be Negroes, and thats the reason we are not allowed to vote. I mean I agree with all these other things that are going on, you know, and I know (garbled) Negroes (garbled) D. ? C. should have the right to vote. So why aren't (?) we doing anything about this?

CARMICHAEL(?): OK. I think that COX is going to take that question. (Cox answered-Carmichael continued.)

CARMICHAEL: Yeh, but there's another follow up to that brother. Number one, you just don't wanna get the vote, just like that, see. Cause you get the vote then the man mess you up with that vote, see.

CALLER: Yeh, I agree brother.

CARMICHAEL: Yeh, what we want to do is to begin to rebuild a community feeling in our community which has been broken down by all of the forces that work against us, that are put on us from white society. Like, for example, now you walk on down 7th and T or you walk on down 14th and U, you see us out there fighting each other, cutting each other, shooting each other. We have to begin to address ourselves to problems where black people stop taking out their hatred on each other, where we begin to build a feeling of community where we'll hustle on each other. So that when we get the vote, cause we gonna take the city, I mean there aint no if, ands or buts about that, but when we get the city we will have developed a feeling of community. So that whatever we use the city for it will help the community, the masses of our people, not just a few people who are running for offices and fighting each other. And that's more important for us than the vote. The vote is a trick bag the white man put out here brother.

CALLER: Will I (garbled) saying, if we had the vote and (unintelligible) elect our school board, I mean, don't you think we could start educating Negro children like, you know, show them the part that Negroes, black Americans, did play in this country.

CARMICHAEL OK, dig brother, See, if you go elect somebody to the school board, they gonna function the way the school board functions now. It's not gonna work. You got to talk about changing the whole education system in this country. Now I'll tell you why. An education, see, it's supposed to prepare you to live in your community, right.

CALLER: The white community.

CARMICHAEL: Yeh, that's what it's doing now. It's preparing us to live in the white community, cause it doesn't speak to the problems of our community. Let's look at our community. Our community is full of rats, roaches, prostitutes, dope addicts, preachers, gamblers; it's also full of maids, it's full of gangs, it's full of young fellas out on the street fighting each other. Now if I go to school, see, if that's the community I live in, that school should teach me to be a good prostitute or a good dope addict or a good preacher or a good whatever in my community. If it can't teach me that, then it's got to teach me how to change my community. And the schools aren't doing any of these things man. It's teaching.....

EATON(?): Not where it's not teaching you how to live and it's not teaching you how to change.

CARMICHAEL: Right. It's not teaching you how to live in our community, it's not teaching you how to change our community. What's it teachin us to do is to perpetuate the system that we live under and that's why electin a black man to the board is not going to begin to solve our problems. We have to talk about our parents takin over the schools, takin over the school boards, and dictating to schools the type of education that our children get. Cause that's the only solution to the problem brother.

EATON: OK, thanks very much for you call, we're moving on.

CALLER: Radicate (ph) among us, you know, among, I call myself an American now, of course I'm not, but since I'm here it's been a benefit, and I'm definitely Negro (----?), I don't hesitate to say it. And it just burns we up when another Negro or soul brother or black man (looks it??). I have so much of Indian in me, you know, it's an instinction (??), you know, you really get mad.

CARMICHAEL: Look here sister.

CALLER: You have to club these people into.....

CARMICHAEL: Look here sister, that's true, what you say it true. It's just our job to begin to help them. There's not need to get.....They're our people. They're flesh of our flesh and they're blood of our blood and we've got to help them, no matter how long it takes, no matter how tired we get we've got to keep goin. I mean, let's just remember again brother Malcolm X when he first started about black. everybody said, man shutup, we don't want to hear that nonsense. He kept pushing. He kept plugging. He kept pushing along and he kept pluggin till a lot of us began to open our eyes and we have to do the same thing with our brothers and sisters. And we cannot afford to get hostile with them because when we get mad with them they gonna run to the white man and that's another one we lost. We got to be....

CALLER: (Interrupts) That's a good point and it really takes a lot of patience. You see (unintelligible).

CARMICHAEL: (Interrupts) The black man is the most patient man in the world. We been patient for 400 years. We can take patience with our own people if we took all that patience from the white man. (Woman caller was trying to talk at same time Stokely was.)

CALLER: Yes, I'd like to ask Stokely your doing all this talk about black power has he stopped to think just where will be get, once he get this black power, how many of our people own (?) any shares in the utilities here in the District? Have you stopped to think about that yet?

CARMICHAEL: I'm sorry ...

EATON: We didn't quite understand the latter part of your statement, would you repeat it?

CALLER: Of all these utilities here in the District has he stopped to think how many people, how many Negroes, own shares in this? If we were to get the black power, where do we go from there?

EATON: Right, the word that we are missing is utopia something, what was that word?

CALLER: The utilities here.

EATON: Utilities, right?

CALLER: That's right, the water, the electricity, all of these. Where we going from there, once we get the black power? How're we going to maintain it?

Now you doin all this kickin (?) about black power, now how is he going to maintain once he gets the black power?

CARMICHAEL: See brother, you saying the white man is the only man who can maintain a water system and all that other utility stuff you talk about?

CALLER: No. (both talk) How you going to maintain it?
How many Negroes in the District own any shares in anything?

CARMICHAEL: I don't think many of us own any shares in anything. Why don't we own it? That's a question you ought to ask yourself. Why don't we own shares in it?

CALLER: Why because we haven't (?) stopped (?) long (?) enough (?) to train this ignorant Negroes that really need the training. The only (Stokely interrupts).

CARMICHAEL: Brother, there are no ignorant black people, there are no ignorant black people.

CALLER: Have you stopped to think about all the black (?) of ourselves who haven't been (----?) that you really haven't....

EATON: (Interrupts) I think maybe that---let me interrupt and see if I can clarify this. Correct me if I'm wrong, but what you three gentlemen are talking about in terms of the black community and black people playing the major or proportionate share of the decision making process including in the black community. This is not negating, as I understand it, and association in terms of dialogue and communication with whites, I don't think we're talking, and correct me if I'm wrong, about some type of black enclave within America. Are we not talking about a type of real equality rather than the facade of equality in terms of communication and stature.

CARMICHAEL: I don't think that...

EATON: (Interrupts) I think that's what, you know, cause he assumes that white people won't be working and, you know.

CARMICHAEL: Yeh, but that is not the way we should go to the question. I mean, why is it that whenever we talk about our people we got to go back and talk about white people? Does it necessarily mean that, if you do things for black people, you have to step on white people? We're concerned with our people. We're not saying we don't step on white people. I mean but the...

(Someone says OK and Eaton said, that's what I wanted you to clarify)

Stokely continues with--No brother, no. See I don't waste my time talking about that. We're talkin about gettin black people together, organized, united, so we can have the power that was stolen from us by the white man. That's all we're talking about.

CALLER: What did you have stolen from ya?

CARMICHAEL: My life, he stole me from Africa, git to that.

CALLER: So you free to go back why don'tcha go back?

EATON: OK, rather than debate this one moot point, we're going to have to move on because we have five more minutes before the news break. OK, thanks very much.

CALLER: Yes, I would like to direct this call to Mr. Carmichael.

EATON: Go right ahead, he's listening.

CALLER: All right, I was thinking, I been thinking this (?) ever (?) since (?) the program came on the woman from the West Indies more or less, you know, kinda brought it home. Don't you find that women as a whole are more hard to understand, you know the problems. I think women are...well I think that this is where the big problem comes in at.....

EATON: OK. While he's.....

CALLER: Probably but, you know men, they and...they have more foresight they can look further into the future and the women just wants to argue all the time. And another thing that I'd like to know, what can women who is really interested in going to, you know, get our people together.

CARMICHAEL: I'm not sure that's true because I think that the person who has carried the bulk of the black race in certainly the centuries before, has been the black women. I mean that I just don't think that's true. I mean that it was my black mother who had to carry me when my father couldn't get a job and carry the five of us, you know, all five of us, so I just don't think that's true. I think that our young men ought to be thankful for our black mothers that they were able to survive through all the crap that they had to take from the white folks. I'm thankful for black women, I think that they are the most beautiful women on the earth, because they were .....able to survive through what no other race of people would have been able to survive through. They not only took care of white people's children they took care of their own children. They fed their own and they breast fed white people, they clean their own houses and clean white people's houses, they cook supper for their children and cook supper for white people's children and they were still able to give us a feelin of humanity through all of that nonsense. Be thankful for the black woman sister.

EATON: OK, thank you very much.

EATON: The thing that is puzzling me, I'd like to get your reactions on this, and this is a genuine puzzle I had. I can't see, and I'm speaking ---I'm trying to speak objectively, I can't see why persons in America, I don't care whether they're black, white or green, can't see the value and real contribution to this country that can be made if the black man becomes more solid more united in his efforts. And I really can't understand why people can't understand this. Can you speak to that? In other words, I know that the white community has traditionally attempted to fragmentize the black community and has succeeded, but looking at it as objectively as possible, I can't understand why people don't realize that by the black community coming closer together, having more genuine communication, have more real understanding of each other how that cannot be a more positive contribution to America. Can you enlighten me?

CARMICHAEL: Well I think David that it's just a known fact, the white man recognizes that if the black man gets together there's going to be trouble because the whole system of this country is based upon keepin the black man where he is. So if he gets together he's, it means, automatically, he's gonna upset the applecart. Cause the way the country is fitted now, the black man is programmed in every area of his life.

EATON: OK

CARMICHAEL: And with the program goin.....

EATON: Now I want you to challenge me, as I know you will, but here's what I'm saying. My fervent feeling is that if America is to be saved then the black man has to save her. That's my feeling. If America is to be saved, the black man has to save her. Now, speaking purely in a humanitarian way and trying to be objective, if the value system in America can be changed by the black man, being concerned with his blackness and accepting it and loving it, then ostensibly, oh that's a big word, then this would have in a final form a positive input to the whole American system.

CARMICHAEL: I got to do it brother. You my (.....) boy, you know, but we got to go.

CARMICHAEL: The black man cannot be concerned with America. He must be concerned with his people. To be concerned with black people in this country is not to be concerned with America. It is to be the opposite of America.

CALLER: I'd like to ask Mr. Carmichael a question in regards to his connection with the Nation (ph) of Islam (ph). I have been listening to him tonight and I've been keeping up with him for some time. I'm a student of the black revolution here in America and I noticed that many of the things he is saying and teachin was taught in the Nation of Islam, I believe, even before Mr. Carmichael was born, so I was wondering what connection, if any, he has with the Nation of Islam and, if no connection, what are his thoughts and views on the Nation of Islam here in America.

EATON: Mr. Carmichael, you got that?

CARMICHAEL: Yes I did. Brother, I'm not a member of the Nation of Islam, but I have the highest respect and regard for the Nation of Islam because I think that they were one of the first organized groups in our period, our lifetime, to begin to really organize our people and begin to teach them self respect and a dignity and to begin to uplift our (?) system (?), face of the whole confrontation with white society that they have to face. I have nothing but a great deal of respect for the Nation of Islam.

EATON: OK, thanks very much.

CALLER: I'd like to know, can you tell me exactly what happened on (?) thata Rufus Mayfield and that meeting?

EATON: I'm sorry but I don't know anything about that, does any of you gentlemen know? What meeting, I don't know what she's referring....

CALLER: Unity meeting, with Rufus Mayfield, when he was there exactly what happened?

CARMICHAEL: That was a.....

EATON: That was a no comment, I think wouldn't it?

CARMICHAEL: Yes, no comment.

CALLER: I can't tell you how happy I am that I heard the program this evening because now that I hear these gentlemen especially Carmichael, at first hand. I can see that the white community has nothing to fear, just nothing at all. They want much better housing, they want better education, they want this and that and who are they going to get it from,....from the white community. You know it is too bad that Carmichael instead of going over to North Vietnam and getting his information over there, he should have taken a walk over to Chinatown, to see first hand how a non-white community is able to educate themselves, make themselves prosperous and live with peace and harmony with everyone around them. Now would they like to comment about that?

EATON: On what, anybody want to comment? I don't think about an answer forth coming.

CALLER: Well why not?

EATON: I said no one seems to want to comment.

CALLER: They're three articulate gentlemen.....

EATON: Nobody cares to comment.

CALLER:(something?) in their own defense.

CARMICHAEL: There is no defense. I mean what you mean in my own defense, what defense? I'm not defensive about anything.

CALLER:You know you three people have been played up as () in the newspapers.

CARMICHAEL: As what?

CALLER: You've been played up as (olgies??), actually the three of you have no power, the newspapers have built you up, you are what the Chinese would call a Paper Tiger. You can form your fronts from now until dooms day and you'll never get anywhere because this is a white man's country, the white man had the dream, built the industries and employed the Negro, and until you do something on your own, which I doubt you ever will do, you'll never get anywhere.

CARMICHAEL: OK, now dig this.

CALLER: (if you are....)

EATON: OK, let him react to your quarry.

CARMICHAEL: Alright now dig this, Honkie, I'm going to tell you how you Honkies built this country. You came to America....

EATON: Let's take it in order now, let Mr. Carmichael speak and if you want to come back then after we leave you can call in again.

CARMICHAEL: Be cool, if you listen you might learn something. Now dig this, you came to the United States of America, the Indians were here, you landed on Plymouth Rock, the man took you in he showed you how to grow corn, he showed you how to live in this country and after he showed you all that you wiped him out. You went to South America.....

CALLER: Now let me tell you this.

EATON: Listen he's got to finish.....

CARMICHAEL: You went to South America, the Indians showed you their gold, the Aztecs showed you their gold, their silver, their copper, you stole it, you wiped them out. You went to Africa, our brothers, our sisters took you in, you came in there we showed you the happy life we had, you took us, you put us in chains, you brought us here. You went to China, the chinese took you in, they showed you what they had in Asia, you went you stole what they had and you enslaved them, and you talk about what you did. All you've ever done is rotten through and through, you have stole, you have cheated, you have killed, you have murdered, you have plundered, you have raped. And you have the dastardly courage to sit there and talk about what you have built. You built off of the sweat of other people, and baby what you sow, that you shall reap.

CALLER: My question is directed to Stokely Carmichael or either one of the others.

EATON: OK, go right ahead.

CALLER: I want to ask about how is his new coalition group, Black Leaders, going to co-ordinate with the coming of Martin Luther King in April?

CARMICHAEL: Dr. King is flesh of our flesh, blood of our blood, he's our brother and we're working with every brother who is out there.

CALLER: I would like to answer the white man's quarry to the three guest you have. Remember this now, everything this country has built up () Negro blood. Back in the 1800s even the 1700s this whole country's economy was built on cotton, who picked that cotton? Who had the stamina and the ability to go out there and pick that cotton, while they were in chains, while being beaten and driven by slave masters? The Negro has done something in this country and the white man is trying to, right now, is trying to hide it under stones and rocks. And any Negro who tries to bring this up to his black bosses that the black man has built this country, his blood is in France, his blood is in Germany, his blood is in Japan, its everywhere, its in Korea, its strung in the Hawaii Islands, and this white man has the audacity to call up and say the Negro can't do anything for himself. Look at the city, man, who laid out the water pipes, I've never seen a white man in a ditch in this city, he stands over the ditches in this city and he tells the Negro what to do, who has the know how? Who laid out this great city of Washington" A black man. I mean a black man laid this city out. And a white man's going to call in and ask your three () did they want to answer it. Why can't they answer this man?

EATON: They did answer him, brother, but I think also that they preferred a man like you to call in and and talk to him. And thanks very much for calling.

CALLER: Thank you, brother.

CARMICHAEL: Keep on preaching, brother, we gonna get it up tight, we gonna get it because we gonna survive.

CALLER: I have a couple of statements I would like to make and I'd like to direct them at Mr. Carmichael. First of all I want to ask him if I'm correct in saying that it was a white man who got up off of the black man's neck, I know he bought us as slaves, but I want him to answer yes or no did the white man get up off the black man's neck or did he take his freedom?

EATON: The question is did the white man get off the black man's neck or did the black man take his freedom?

CARMICHAEL: The white man is still on his neck.

EATON: (to caller) Did you hear that response?

CALLER: No, I didn't hear it.

CARMICHAEL: The white man is still on our necks.

CALLER: OK, now I'm going to ask another question. Isn't it a fact that he can take a hundred dollars in his hand right now and go to Africa and buy his cousin from Africans right now?

CARMICHAEL: No that is not a fact.

CALLER: Well then why do the United Nations have twenty different countries on their agenda in trying to get them to consider...ah reconsider abolishing slavery in () right now.

CARMICHAEL: Oh, you see, you don't understand, the countries they are talking about are countries that are still controlled today by the white man. I mean, you have all of South Africa today, brother, where our brothers and sisters are enslaved by the white man, you've got Zimbabwe, you've got Angola, you've got Mozambique, you got South Africa, you've got South-west Africa, you got Portugese Guinea, all of those countries, brother, today are controlled by white men who walk around.....

CALLER: (Interrupting) I'm talking about the West Africa, in West Africa in fact...

CARMICHAEL: Like where?

CALLER: On the network here...whose that...one of the radio networks they had a documentary, a film documentary and you could write to the United Nations and get facts and figures, the fact is that in Africa the descendents, the children of the slaves who sold your mother, my mother, into slavery are still selling slaves, the white man do not have no control over them, its the understanding that the government, even the government of that particular part of Africa (has) been because of the fear of losing out (in some sort of an interest there).

EATON: (Interrupting) Alright let me ask you this question, this is Eaton, the moderator, since we are questing for truth here in all dimensions let me ask you this, do you know the countries in which you are talking about?

CALLER: I know its in West Africa. I can find out.

CALLER: I'd like to tell Mr. Carmichael how beautiful I think that his movement is. His actions are in this black movement in America, that I'm a young 21 year old Negro myself, fellow and really believe in all his (band), and I have....I know all my friends feel the same way that I do when I....that if Mr. Carmichael wants this United States to be straight I think that by him being educated the way that he is that he know the proper way for us to do it and

I say that I follow him and back him up all the way.

EATON: Mr. Carmichael

CARMICHAEL: Brother thank you, but don't follow me and back me up all the way, you just come on along up here beside of me because we got to do it together.

CALLER: Don't you feel that in the way that the Negroes are trying to prove their peace by riots and all are hurting them?

EATON: Who would like to get to that?

CARMICHAEL: Let me get the Honkie.

EATON: Right, Mr. Carmichael wants to.....

CARMICHAEL: Look here Honkie, what are you doing in Vietnam?

CALLER: Well, we're trying to help the Vietnamese.....

CARMICHAEL: You are rioting, you are burning down their houses, you are shooting their babies, you're bombing their hospitals, you're killing their children. Why are you rioting in Vietnam?

CALLER: I beg your pardon.

CARMICHAEL: Why are you rioting in Vietnam?

CALLER: Well we really feel that the Vietnam war is helping the United States in any way.

CALLER: Good evening, I want to say....I want to compliment Mr. Carmichael because I really think that he is doing a good job and what he said to a certain extent, that slavery is not completely over because Negroes today, this minute, are being exploited in this city, and I'm a living proof of it. I have two young men here now, that two weeks ago went out to find a job, and honest young men and they got this job and they..... salesmen, and they were told that they would get a certain amount over what they sold. Two weeks of labor they used their own time and car fare and they still have not got a cent you see but all this () and it really burns me up just to hear other people who don't know the inside of what's actually happening and.....

EATON: Thanks very much for your comments, WOL speak up.

CALLER: I'd like to ask brother CARMICHAEL what does he think personally about the way Rap Brown had people doing in the summer burning down their homes.

CARMICHAEL: Brother I don't think that my good brother and my leader and the chairman, Rap Brown, had anybody burning down their houses.

CALLER: Well in his speeches he had the black man out here burning.....in these riots their own houses instead of going out and burning up the white man's houses that should have been burned down.

CARMICHAEL: I don't think that Brother Rap had anybody burning down anybody's houses.

CALLER: Well why did the black man burn down his own house then?

CARMICHAEL: I don't think the black man burned down his own house. He don't own no house.

CALLER: I'll put it this way, the houses that he lived in why did he burn them down that puts him out on the street.

CARMICHAEL: OK, look here buddy, do you ever read the Bible?

CALLER: Yes, I do.

CARMICHAEL: Then if you read the Bible then you know that the Bible says that fire is a purifier, it cleanses, it cleans, that when things have become so crummed up so that the only thing you can do is just cleanse it and fire is a cleansing agent sometimes.

EATON: You're really taking that out context, brother Stokely, now you know if we're going to get into scripture here tonight I want to go into Biblical criticism.....

EATON: (to caller) Thank you very much for your call.

CARMICHAEL: The Bible does say that doesn't it brother.

EATON: Right, WOL speak up please.

CALLER: Mr. Carmichael.

EATON: Right, he's listening, go right ahead.

CALLER: I'm glad your here and I'd like to know something. Are you going to put some protection on yourself? Cause you know what happened to ---- you know, brother Malcolm(ph) ah Malcolm.

CARMICHAEL: Brother the Lord is with me at all times.

CALLER: Well I'm glad to hear that and I'm gonna keep fighting for my people all I can.

CARMICHAEL: You got to do it brother. Remember, our people are the most important thing to us. Our people first.

CALLER: Mr. Carmichael?

CARMICHAEL: Yes sir.

CALLER: Did you see the game today?

CARMICHAEL: We was together brother. I didn't.....I had to miss it because we had a meeting (?). It (?) was together.

CALLER: Did you see Bob (?) Adderly (PH)? What did he do to the honky?

EATON: Thanks very much for your call, sir.

CALLER: Hello, I'd like to address this question to Carmichael, please.

EATON: Right, he's listening, go right ahead.

CALLER: The answer to his definition of a radical today. I hear, often hear, conflicting views about what a radical is. Could you define that term for me, please?

CARMICHAEL: I don't know brother, the only definition I can think of is the classical definition, radical comes from latin word which means root, that is to get to the root of the problem. But I'm not sure that a definition used today to describe a radical is really a radical.

CALLER: Yeh, but this is what I'm referring to, when you had the conference in New Jersey you said there were only two sides to the question, your either radical or your the Uncle Tom. Now you moved from the side of radical and by the definition in New Jersey you moved toward the Uncle Tom side.

CARMICHAEL: I'm sorry brother, I wasn't.....

CALLER: Wait a minute, now hold it, hold it. I've read every manuscript that've been put out by you, I think you movin, I think the white man, as you know, is sort of usin you now. Don't allow yourself to be used at this point, your doin good my man, but keep it up. Don't be like Marion Barry he took Rufus Mayfield's job, which is very dirty lowdown, took his job from him.

EATON: OK, thanks very much for your comments. We gonna....

CALLER:I continue....

EATON: Right. We gonna try to move on, if you.....

CALLER: Wait a minute. You won't let me continue fact I'm tellin the truth.

CALLER: Let me rap (??) (or) rat (??). Let me rap (??).

EATON: Go ahead, rap (?).

CALLER: OK, I'll think of a very dirty--ah--what Marion Barry did. He took Rufus Mayfield's job. Just like in all revolutions middle class has already benefited from (?) the (?) lower class. Carmichael I hope you will keep these people in (?) line (?) and help the lower classes to progress, not the middle class.

EATON: Mr. Carmichael please respond to that one.

CARMICHAEL: Brother we got to understand what we're trying to do in this city. We're trying to organize everybody in our community from the man in the streets to the black bourgeoisie. That is the only way we're gonna survive as a people, when all of us are organized. Now we have to understand what we're working against. We're working against 400 years of brainwash, all of us suffer from brainwashin brother, all of us do. We're trying to help each other as we try to clear up our minds and get ourselves together. That means that as we go along there're gonna be people who're gonna make mistakes. I don't think, brother, that you should depend upon me to keep everybody in line. You a black man, you should be out here with us fightin and tryin to strai...and keep it straight.

CALLER: I'm over here witcha, I'm witcha baby, all the way.

CARMICHAEL: Well, brother, if you with me, together we gonna do it.

CARMICHAEL(?): I know we gonna do it.

CALLER: If you keep people like, you happen to keep people like Marion Barry in their place and won't (?) try to use the lit.....I mean, exploit the little people like Rufus Mayfield. We shoulda joined on to the round up and marched to the Capitol and told Broyhill (??) to have seen that we gonna keep Rufus Mayfield and Marion Barry wasn't gonna git his job. I think it was a very low-down dirty thing we allowed him to do.

WFO 100-43503

CALLER: I'd like to ask him why he goes into an area and incites (?) a riot and leaves and people that he leaves are the Negro that he ahh.....the people that he gets together, they are without jobs?

CARMICHAEL: Well, they have to show me where I incited to riot and where I ran away and caused all the problems you say I caused.

EATON: Do you know of any instances where Mr. Carmichael has done this?

CALLER: Well, he went into Nashville, Tennessee.

EATON: Did they have a riot in Nashville?

CALLER: Yes they had a riot at Fisk University and Tennessee State University.

CARMICHAEL: And who started the riot, as you call it, brother?

EATON: He started it.

CARMICHAEL: He who?

CALLER: Stokely started it.

CARMICHAEL: Well, that's whose talking.

CALLER: He instigated the students at Fisk University and Tennessee State University.

CARMICHAEL: I did?

CALLER: Some of them were kicked out of school. Some of them had to go home and what not. I just wanted his comment on that.

CARMICHAEL: Let me give you the comment but let me include to you some facts which you don't know anything about concerning the Nashville incident. Number one, the people who incited that rebellion as has been the case of all the rebellions in the major cities are the policemen..The policemen are the ones who create rebellion.

CALLER: I see.

CARMICHAEL: Brother, I can't create a rebellion. If you lived in a good house and you know, you livin a good life and I came and talked to you about gettin together to take care of business, what would you do?

CALLER: Probably tell you come in an have a coke.

CARMICHAEL: Of course (?). I don't create rebellions. It is the system under which we live that creates....

CALLER: All right (?)

CALLER: I would like to direct my questions to Mr. Carmichael.

EATON: He's listening, go right ahead.

CALLER: I'd like to know (?), do he know anything about the black political party called Slant (ph) and another party called Us (ph).

CARMICHAEL: Yes, Slant (ph) is headed by my good brother, Tommy (ph) Jeket (ph), and Us is headed by another good brother, Ron Coringa (ph), out in Los Angeles.

CALLER: And...Is there any way of gettin in touch with these people?

CARMICHAEL: Yes, I'm afraid I don't have the address with me but I'm fairly sure you could get it if you just call information and ask for it in Los Angeles, Us and Slant.

CALLER: I see, all right, thank you very much.

CARMICHAEL: OK, brother. It's good that you get in contact with them, we need to contact other brothers who, you know, doin other things around the country so we can begin to move to get a national organization going so we can take care of business.

CALLER: I see, thanks a lot.

EATON: WOL, speak up please.

CALLER: Yes, Stokely, don't you think that possibly a fear of mine (?) that the ninety percent of the white community is going to be against people who ah, incidents, really I should say, of burning and of violent speech and of your use, a couple of times, of the word honky. They don't like that and they're going to react to it. Probably they're numerically more, all because you say, they're more powerful. So just by (?) chance, I think that your taking a chance on ruining yourself when you (garbled) the black community as a rule (?).step up and refuse to harbor people who say honky, well that's not too bad, but people who really thought burning down houses and other things like that. Doesn't seem right to me. Your going to alienate all this white community, I don't think you want that. I think you need their help.

CARMICHAEL: Well, I don't need any help. The people who need help in this country are white people. The white people need help in straightenin out themselves for what they have done to us. That's who needs help. I don't need any help. All I need is the white man to get off of our backs and we will go ahead. Now you talk about the ninety percent gettin upset just because we say honky, don't you think we should get upset for what they have done to us for 400 years.

CALLER: Yeh, but none of those people are still alive, that's why they don't want to pay you. It's very hard to find a white man whose willing to admit in the first place and, in the second place, it's very hard to find a white man who is alive and who owned slaves for some time, see. That's why he doesn't feel he owes you a debt.

CARMICHAEL: Is it hard to find a white man today whose a racist in the United States?

CALLER: Well, I don't think it's too terribly easy, I doubt that most white people are racist. I don't think they are.

CARMICHAEL: You don't think they are. Do you think the institutions.....

CALLER: I think the white people who passed the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and 1965 aren't racists.

CARMICHAEL: Why did they need to pass a Civil Rights Act if we were citizens?

CALLER: Got (?) to one of their problems.

CARMICHAEL: Of course, their problem, not mine.

CALLER: I'd like to speak to Stokely Carmichael. Stokely, I was listening to you a few minutes ago when you mentioned that interpretation about the Bible. I think that Jesus stressed that more because I read the Bible a couple of time myself and the interpretation of the Bible is strickly under the white man's influence. This all....., I believe this to be a part of the reason for the New Testament coming about, you know, and I'd like to ask some kind of way that I can get into contact with you, you know face to face because there are a lot things that I's like to ask you about.

CARMICHAEL: Well brother I'm usually right around the corner 1234 U Street at the SNCC office.

CALLER: 12 what?

CARMICHAEL: 1234 U Street, N.W.

CALLER: What time are you there usually?

CARMICHAEL: Well, I'm in and out because I'm doing a lot of work you know, but if you call the number is 387-7445, you know maybe we can get together but now in order for us to get together now you got to be doing something because we just can't.....

CALLER: I beg your pardon.

CARMICHAEL: 387-

CALLER: I'm talking about in order for us to get together.

CARMICHAEL: In order for us to get together you got to be doing something now because the time for talking is over. We got to move now in order to organize our people.

CALLER: Yes, well you see, I'm ready to make my move. I've been ready you know.

WFO 100-43503

CARMICHAEL: Beautiful, beautiful, then we can get together.

CALLER: I'd like to direct my question to Carmichael.

EATON: Go right ahead he's listening.

CALLER: I'd like to know----enough of this philosophical dissertation, as a black woman I'd like to know what is his program specifically advocate that black people do now that all other efforts have failed. I'd like to know what he really would like for us to do. Just what does he advocate specifically for the black man to do?

CARMICHAEL: Well, in the first place I don't think that all efforts have failed, sister. Number one, I think that the first thing we have to do as a people is to begin to understand how we have been divided. That's first and foremost. And that we must begin to organize all sections of our community to come together, to aid each other, that's first. Once we begin to do that then secondly we can move to take over those institutions which are inside our community which we do not control. We should start first with the police force. We don't control the police force, that's why there's so much police brutality. If we controlled the police force, there would be no police brutality. We have to move to control the Board of Educations in our community. We do not control them, that's why the schools are in such conditions. We have to move to control the Welfare Department. We do not control them, that's why our mothers on welfare get the treatment they get. We have to move to control all of the institutions inside our community which are manifestations of the white power structure. We have to control and own them. Then we also have to move to take over the ownership of all of the economic industries inside our communities from the local five and ten cent store all the way up to the big industrial complexes in Watts.

CALLER: Hello Americans to you Africans (garbled) teaching (?) in America. A man came on this show and he said that average----the American Negroes live better than any other black people in the world and I want to tell him that it is completely false. We people in Africa are free, we want those here to be free too. But if those among the American Negroes down here (?), they do not kid (?) themselves that there's freedom somewhere, they'll never get freedom here because they are being destroyed by the whites and they still think that Africa is jungles and (-----garbled-----). I think Stokely Carmichael should go out and teach his people that Africa is free, it is not as bad as some people say. And I think that wherever those Negroes in United States want to be free they should fight for it. This is the time to fight for it. They should go out and fight. Just (?) don't (?) sit down and talk.

CARMICHAEL: And brother there's only one thing I'd like to say and that is don't call us American Negroes because we're flesh of the same flesh and blood of the same blood. You my brother and I'd die in the streets of Philadelphia or Washington, D. C., just as quick as I'd die in the streets of Angola (ph), Mosambique (ph) or South Africa.

CALLER: Well, we are all the same. I agree with you but the colored man in United States say he is different. He say he is more civilized than those in Africa and, therefore (?), that's why I said American Negroes. But they think they are different, but (?) we are all the same.

CARMICHAEL: Your right brother and that's the brainwashing that the white man has whipped on us. That's the game (?) that he put on us but today we are beginning to recognize that we are all the same and no matter how many trips Humphrey takes to Africa to try and clean up, it ain't goin to work because today black people are coming together around the world..

CALLER: Yeh, we all the same but lets go out and teach other peoples, the other blacks, that we are the same. They do not understand. They don't know what they are about.

CARMICHAEL: It's true brother, it's going to take a long time but a lot of us are out here fighting and I want you, since you're from Africa, cause when every time you walk the streets don't be runnin near those white folk. You come on into the community and you walk down the streets, you just grab a brother. You say I'm from Africa, I'm your flesh and I'm your blood and you just keep on talking to him and we goin to get it on.

EATON: OK gentlemen, thank you very much, we have about five more minutes and I'd like, if you wish, to have a closing statement or something that you would like to say. Mr. Carmichael.

CARMICHAEL: Well, I just got the address for the brother who called in earlier for ask(?) for Slant (ph). I just got a card with the address on it. The address is 1673 East 108th Street, Los Angeles, California 90002. In closing I just think that, well, we have to recognize there are a number of things. The first is that we lost brother Malcolm (ph). Now we lost brother Malcolm not because of what he was doing but because of what he was saying. If we are going to move on today, we cannot allow the honkies to waste us for what we're saying. We must be wasted today, if we are going to be wasted, for what we're doing and what we must be doing is getting our people together to survive inside this hell hole. That's what we have to be doing. That must be our major concentration today, getting our people together. All of our people beginning to teach love, beginning to teach respect for each other. The love and respect that has been broken down, that's been trampled upon in our community for 400 years. Our concern must always be our people first. First our people, first our people, then and only then me and you. We must begin to recognize that individualism is a luxury that black people can no longer afford. Secondly, we must begin to recognize that in coming together many of us are going to have to go. That's just a fact of life, but we must be willing to shed our blood for our people. That is the only way we're going to come together to survive in this country, and, lastly, we don't have anything to worry about for a black man has survived, the black man will survive. After all they've done to us we still here, we will be around. You don't have to worry, black people will survive America, black people will survive America. And like Curtis (ph) Mayfield say --- Our blessed day has come, we don't care where you come from we just go moving up because we are winners.

"The Evening Star", article of January 17, 1968, reported STOKELY CARMICHAEL who had formed a coalition of District moderates and militants said he expected to meet Mr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., within a month to discuss KING's plans for a "massive civil disobedience campaign" in Washington, D. C., for income and jobs. According to spokesmen, KING was coming to Washington, D. C., from Atlanta and would meet with leaders of the black community including CARMICHAEL. CARMICHAEL stated "Dr. KING and I are going to have a long talk about the problems in Washington, D. C." The article stated a 17 member Steering Committee of the newly formed Black United Front (BUF) met for the first time to map strategy on how to organize the black community around the Front. A tight lid of secrecy had reportedly been kept on their activities, according to the article.

Radio Station WOL, Washington, D.C., on a special recorded program, moderated by WOL News Director, Ron Pinkney, had as its guests Stokely Carmichael and Rufus "Catfish" Mayfield, former Chairman of PRIDE, Inc. The program was reportedly taped on January 17, 1968, at WOL Studios, 2000 P Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., and was broadcast from 7:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. on January 21, 1968.

Also on the program were Robert Maynard of the "Washington Post", John Lewis of Afro-American and Bernard Garnett of Johnson's Publications, which includes "Jet" and "Ebony", magazines, who acted as interviewing panel of Carmichael and Mayfield.

The following is a verbatim transcript of the comments of Carmichael and response to questions by the interviewing panel:

OPENING BY PINKNEY - "Mr. Carmichael is making his second trip to WOL in about a week; he appeared here last Sunday on WOL's Speak-Up. Mr. Carmichael recently returned from what has been called, 'unauthorized trips to Cuba, Hanoi, Sweden and France' and here in Washington, he has started an organization called the Black United Front. He is former chairman of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee and graduate of Howard University."

MR. MAYNARD (Q) - "Mr. Carmichael, would you be willing to outline some of your plans for the Black United Front and SNCC here in Washington?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "No sir, I am unable to do that at this time."

MR. LEWIS (Q) - "Mr. Carmichael, when I saw you last winter, you indicated that you were going to be organizing in one of the major cities in this country; you came here recently to begin organizing in Washington. What made you pick Washington as a target city?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "Well, there are a number of reasons; seems to me that Washington represents the clearest contradictions of black and white in this country, maybe because black people are a majority in this city and all of the institutions of power in the city are run by whites, controlled by whites and for benefits of whites. Washington is the nation's capitol; it seems to me it must begin to represent clearly in the minds of people around the world, precisely what this country is about, its relationship to the internal colonies, black people inside the country, so that we can hook up and develop strength with our brothers in the third world. So that they will not be brainwashed by the United States, for example, Humphrey just took a trip to Africa, his job was once again to fool our brothers in Africa and if in Washington, D.C. the contradictions are hiding my brothers in Africa will see through all that nonsense that the Honky's are trying to put down."

GARNETT (Q) - "Yes, is Washington then supposed to be a springboard for maybe moving out in other cities eventually with similar Black United Fronts?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "No I think there will be a coordinated effort around the country today because black people recognize more and more the necessity for unity if we are going to survive in what Rev. King calls Babalon."

QUESTIONER

UNKNOWN (Q) - "Speaking of Rev. King, Mr. C., you might have noticed recently in the press the stories about his camp-in in Washington in the first week of April. Do you see a role in your organizing effort coinciding with his?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "Dr. King is a black man, he is flesh of my flesh and blood of my blood. Dr. King is working for the betterment of the black man and anybody who is working for the betterment of the black man, our organization is more than happy to work with.....we have worked with brother King in the past and we will continue to work with brother King because we are all trying to find the solution for our people to live with a decent life as human beings."

QUESTIONER

UNKNOWN (Q) - "Mr. C. as organizer of the Black United Front here in Washington, D.C., so far nothing has come up of your meeting to the public newspapers, reporters, radio and T.V. reporters have tried in vain to just find out what you are doing. Why is it that you don't want to display what is happening in these meetings to the public that you feel that the average citizen would like to know just what is going on, especially the black citizens in the city?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "Mr. Pinkney it is a fact that the average black man needs to know precisely what is going on in the city as with the Black United Front, unfortunately for the black man, the way that

CARMICHAEL

CONTINUED (A) - "we communicate is controlled by the white man and he never represents truly what we are trying to do, every movement that we start the Honkies have always disrupted it. Let us go back for example, when Black Power first came up; when Black Power first came up, every Honkey and his momma was interpreting it telling people what it meant so that they could divide black people and keep them apart. Now fortunately for us the Black Power Slogan was strong enough to go over that, so that the Honky has to develop new tricks, but everytime we say something he takes it and tries to keep us divided. In an attempt to stop that division, we must find new ways of communicating directly to our people what we are doing. In order to do that, we must isolate the Honky on what is going on, and since they control the press media, it means they have to be isolated. While we develop some way of getting it to our people."

MR. GARNETT - "Mr. Carmichael, I go back....."

CARMICHAEL - "We are brothers, just call me Stokely, O.K.?"

MR. GARNETT (Q) - "Oh, O.K. I would like to go back, something you said a few minutes ago, about the reason about the present time that nothing the Black United Front does behind closed doors is being told to the press, you mentioned that you don't want to take the chance of giving the white press something to distort, how does this relate to the black press, which is black controlled? Do you feel that some kind of distortion on this interpretation?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "The only black control press we have in Washington is the Afro."

MR. GARNETT - "We have a () of another one."

CARMICHAEL - "Which is the Bureau in other words. . . .? Johnson's Publications."

MR. GARNETT (Q) - "Yes, these are two black controlled. . . . What qualms would you have, say talking to the.... even just to the Afro?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "If you can begin to isolate the white press and keep everybody isolated for a while, then you can move in with the solid black press, you can begin to build that black press inside our community where it becomes a real voice for the community. That is a fact that the only black controlled paper in this country that focuses through the masses of black people in this country is Mohammed Speaks. Whether one agrees or disagrees with the ideology is irrelevant it is the only newspaper where the masses of black people can read the type of ideology where they are not afraid to say what they have to say to the black man in this country. And until we can build up other press agencies which are willing to do precisely that. So even though there are some black controlled agencies, they do not speak to the black man the way that they have to speak to the black man, they know it, I know it and we all know it. And we have to build up a black press which are going to speak to the needs of the black people and tell it like it is."

MR. PINKNEY (Q) - "Do you think that these publisher and editors could be persuaded in one way or another by you or the reporter to bring it down here to the..?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "No, they have to be persuaded by the masses of our people and they will only be persuaded by the

CARMICHAEL

CONTINUED (A) - "by the masses of our people when the masses of our people begin to look for the stuff that should be said, when that stuff is not there, they stop buying those papers."

MR. PINKNEY (Q) - "Stokely, I would like to follow up that question about the black press. When you held the initial meeting of the Black United Front, as I understand it, you made arrangements to sell pictures to a daily paper at a high price. It was not that daily paper but another daily paper that broke the original story about the Black United Front, would serve to give the Black Unity meeting a kind of publicity that I understand that you do not want it to have. Why did you exclude the black media from the Black Unity meeting and then turn around and sell photographs to the white press?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "We are trying to do two things. We are trying number one to begin to control all of the press that comes out, all of the news media that comes out of our community. We are incapable of doing that at this point, for example, the leaks in those stories that were not really leaks you see because most of all of the leaks were incorrect, but that there were reporters who do what you call speculative reporting, what they think is going on they write down so that they can have something to say but they.... no, no, there were no leaks because all of the information was incorrect, for example, the Post ran a story about the fifteen member of the (steering)??? committee and a lot of them were incorrect completely incorrect, a lot people who they said were on that fifteen were not even on the steering committee and they left out a lot of other people, people who are unknown to the public, but people who were powerful

CONTINUED (A) - "within their own section of the Washington area. So that those stories were incorrect. Now what we want to do is to begin to play those press against the other. I mean that is what the Honkies have been doing to us and now we are just going to organize and do the same thing, play them against each other. We want again to exclude the black press at this time until we begin to build up a strong communication where we can also begin to dictate to the black press what should be said. I mean that it is a fact that in many cases the black press takes its stories from AP and UPI about the black community and AP and UPI are Honky controlled, Honky written and here is a black press who comes back and takes these stories as they appear on the Honkies press and put it in the black press without giving an interpretation to the black community of what all those things are about, and when we begin to build stronger and stronger we can begin to force those black newspapers to come around because they are being held down too. We have more control over the black press than we do over the white press."

MR. PINKNEY (Q) - "Of course, but what is the reason for denying black papers entrance into the meeting and then selling photographs to a white paper at a price a black paper could not afford?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "We would sell them to black papers, too. We contacted many of the publications in here and a lot of them said that they were not interested."

QUESTIONER

UNKNOWN (Q) - "I was at the beginning of the meeting when you made a short talk on you impressions of North Vietnam. I talked with some of the photographers there, I asked for photographs for my paper. Later I was told that these photographs were sold, were given at that point to a daily paper. A

UNKNOWN

CONTINUED (Q) - "few days ago the same photographer as I understand it, that sold the photographs to the daily paper through of SNCC and the Black United Front called up and offered the same photographs, six days later, to the paper that I represent."

CARMICHAEL (A) - "Now that was a misunderstanding. He was not offering the same photographs, he was offering other photographs. However, if we made an error, I apologize to you brother John, and I promise you that from now on the black press will have priority on these pictures."

MR. PINKNEY (Q) - "Stokely, how do you feel, do you feel that you have a task ahead of you? You are trying to bring together Black Unity in the city, do you feel that you have a task ahead of you swaying the moderates to your side or having the moderates go to the militants side? How do you feel about this?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "My feeling is that we are a people wherever we are. We are a beautiful black people, now some of us are more black than others and there are a lot of us who are brainwashed, but all of us were brainwashed at one time, so that some of us who are no longer brainwashed must begin to help those who are brainwashed by the white man. Now they are brainwashed by the white man so our real enemy is not our brother, but the white man who has brainwashed our brother. So we are going to have to take time with our brothers who are what the white man call moderate and begin to bring them into our community so that they can begin to see and work for the benefit of our community and not for the white man. That means that it will be time but I think that slowly and slowly, our people will come along and begin to see the light."

QUESTIONER

UNKNOWN (Q) - "Can you give us any idea why you are trying to get some sort of overall organization that involves both the moderate and militants. I understand that this is caused a fair amount of difficulty for some of the so-called moderates and allegedly there are some (strains?) within the coalition. First of all, do you concede that there are such (strains?) and secondly, can you tell us something of the philosophy that went into the establishing of such a coalition here?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "There are no (strings?) at all. It is important to note that where the black people get together, white people begin to condemn that unity. Yet white people get together, George Wallace can have a meeting with Lyndon Johnson; James O. Eastland can have a meeting and set up some sort of coalition with any other 'Honkey' and nobody in the black community ever questions their right to come together and sit with whom they will please. Johnson has a meeting with Grynoko (ph), nobody in the black community says you can have a meeting with Grynoko, because he is a Communist, but they have a meeting, they sit for hours, they talk about setting up a direct flight from Moscow to New York. Black people can't say anything about it. Why in the hell does the Honkey think he has the right to say something about when we get together. Who is he? What right does he have to condemn us if we get together? All of the people in this community are the flesh and my flesh and blood and my blood. And we have to live in this community. This is ours. When that white man comes into this community he doesn't see a moderate, a revolutionary, a radical, a conservative, he sees a black man! That's all he sees! And because of that, we have to come together. That is the philosophy for the Black

CONTINUED (A) - "United Front, unless we unite we are not going to be saved. They are meeting 100 police chiefs - are meeting in March in this country. I have never known a black man to condemn the fact that 100 police chiefs are going to meet together and decide how to wipe our race. Yet when we meet together, they scream for holy hell that we should meet together. The only reason they scream is because they do not want Black Unity. Because they recognize that Black Unity is going to mess up their entire system and allow black people to live like human beings."

QUESTIONER

UNKNOWN (Q) - "Do you plan to go in with Dr. Martin Luther King and his civil disobedience plan on the first of April? The first week in April?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "As we said before, Dr. King is flesh of our flesh and blood and blood. We have been talking and will continue to talk with Dr. King and we will work out all of these things when we get to that bridge we will cross it. I will say this we will never publicly attack or publicly oppose Dr. King. Never."

QUESTIONER

UNKNOWN (Q) - "Well, Stokely, some of my observations, I have noticed that one reason that people, I am not talking about our people now, still don't go with these black power or anything, or any of its connotations, is that they sort of see it as some hairy animal. I would like to ask you on thisdo you think that such things as your being seen going to church in public a few days ago here, that if more of this was seen that people would not see black power as some black immoral hippy movement or whatever they...? What do you think you could do about the black power image, in other words?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - I don't think that people could see black power in terms of my image because black power is not my image. Black power is the image of 15 million black people in this country. My image is totally irrelevant to the image of black power and so that is what the white person done. The Honkeys have tried to make black power my image, but it can not be done. I mean black power to me is a (wreath of Franklin?), Black Power is () of impressions () moving on up. Black Power is James Brown dancing on stage. Black power is Jimmy Brown running a hundred yards. Black power is Mohammed Ali in the ring. Black power is a beautiful black scientist developing things, like Dr. Reed. I mean black power is all the assemblance of the creativity and the skills that black people have put together to make us live like human beings. I...the press doesn't know when I go to church, it is none of their business if I go to church. That's totally irrelevant to the image of black power. Everywhere I organize I go to church because black people are in the churches. It happens to be the one collective place that our people are. If one is organizing one must be where ones people are. I go to church. I went to the Howard theatre last night. That's none of their business of the press. And I will go again, when Smokey and the Robinsons are coming because that's black power. That's part of our culture and that's where our people are. I don't think my image is important."

QUESTIONER

UNKNOWN (Q) - "How about the middle class Negro working in the government? The middle class Negro in the White House or Capitol Hill? Do you consider that black power?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - I consider the creative skills of those black people a part of black power. I think of what

CARMICHAEL

CONTINUED (A) - "they produce, however, goes to serve as white society and therefore, cannot be considered part of black power."

MR. LEWIS (Q) - "Stokely, I would like to read something to you that appeared in the December 5th edition of the National Guardian. Now this was a conversation that you had in a hotel there with a representative of the Guardian and the representative of an Italian monthly newspaper. This is a quote from that article, "Before you create revolution you got to heighten contradictions. As long as there is hope, people are not going to fight. They won't fight unless you push. So push. You create disturbances. You keep pushing the system. You keep drawing off the contradictions until they have to get back." This is where I would like to ask you, Stokely, when you created the Black United Front, when you convene the conference, was part of your thinking to get the moderate leadership in this city to understand what happens when you keep pushing?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "I think it is pretty clever brother John.... That is very sharp.....very sharp. It is crystal clear as a matter of fact..... That maybe some of the people who represent us do not really see clearly the contradictions.... and if you can get them more and more involved with the matters of our people then they can see the contradictions clearer, then they must decide. You see there is no doubt there are some black traitors in our community. There are an awful lot of black traitors in our community. But I think there are a lot of people who say things that traitors would say, are really genuinely confused. They think that they are doing the right thing. For example, many people felt

CONTINUED (A) - Integration was the best way to solve the problems of the black people several years ago. They genuinely thought this was the solution until they...many of them have found out that this not the solution. Some of them still have not found out.... So that those people may be genuinely confused. They believed they are doing something to benefit the black man but in fact they are not. So that our job is to slowly begin to bring those people together and heighten the contradictions so they can see clearly. I mean it can be done very easy in the District of Columbia. The official figures by the Honkeys say that 93% of this community is black in the elementary schools. That means, according to their figures, 7% are white. You can't talk about integration in Washington, D.C. unless you talk about getting your children up at 6:00 a.m. and sending them to Virginia or to Maryland... Which we know is not going to happen. What we must be concerned with is how we conduct schools. Schools which are going to teach our children what we wish to teach them. That simply means we have to take over the schools. Our parents have to take over the schools and begin to teach the things that are necessary to be taught to our children. The education that they have been getting has been hindering them. That's correct. Our community is loaded with pimps, hustlers, preachers, an gangsters, gangs, prostitutes and people who work in factories. If I go to high school, that high school must either teach me how to be a good pimp, good hustler, a good gangster, a good preacher, a good factory worker, a good maid or a good whatever that come out of my community. It is not going to teach me how to be one of those things then it must teach me how to change my community so that it becomes

CARMICHAEL

CONTINUED (A) - "better. Our high schools are not getting near that problem. They don't even teach kids how to be good hustlers. And they don't teach them how to change the community so that people don't have to live as hustlers. Therefore, we have to junk the entire education program and our parents must be ready to take them over so that our children can be taught how to change our community."

QUESTIONER

UNKNOWN (Q) - "How do you compare the school system here in the years that you have been here, to that of other cities? Do you see any difference or is it worse?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "It is the same for the black man. The question of community is not a question of geography. It is simply a question of color. Wherever you are, if you are black, you make up a community and therefore, you would suffer the same indignities no matter what part of the country you live in.... But for us, the question of community has never been geography, it has been a question of color. If you go to Africa today and you sit with black people, you feel at home. If you go to England or France and you see the white people there, you feel uncomfortable, but when you get and when you meet some other Africans you feel once again at home. Because for us the question of community has never been geography, it has always been the question of being with our people."

QUESTIONER

UNKNOWN (Q) - "Stokely, the first time I saw you here was in 1966, you were conducting a rally at 10th and U. One of the things that impressed me, that I never had read this anywhere before you mentioned that

UNKNOWN

CONTINUED (Q) - "you advised the people who were there at the rally, along with the black power thing, at least along with the black power thing as it is recorded politically and economically, etc. To also clean their neighborhoods and quit, I think your phrase was quoted something like ah... quit cutting your brothers on Friday and Saturday night and let's get together. What do you think it is that the other side is reporting more than this side?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "Well, it is clear that the white press is not going to talk or to give any advertisement that is going to help bring the black community together. I mean every one knows that...they started off their petty anti-nonsensical poverty program which was aimed at doing precisely what it has done in the community, split it. You have now factions fighting over factions, the crumbs and that is precisely what they meant to do. They have no intention of uniting the black community and everyone who thinks they do is absolutely absurd. It is clear that whenever a poverty program moves within the masses of our people that program is always cut off and as long as they can keep the community divided, they will continue to function and to send that money in. Now the United States works on what we call the three M's: the missionary, the money and the Marines. That's how they have worked everywhere around the world when they went to conquer people. Now they sent the missionaries into our communities. We have sent them out with all of those little white kids. Now they are sending the money in and they are beginning to draw that out. After the money, come the Marines."

QUESTIONER

UNKNOWN (Q) - "Mr. Carmichael, when you...your trip abroad... the white media reported that you are going to Cuba, Hanoi and a few other places that you are planning or getting information on how to go at black guerilla warfare. How true is this? Or is this false?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "Well, the first thing let us say Brother () is that the United States tries to tell me, a man who is born free, where I can go and where I can not go, that is absolutely absurd, I will go wherever I want to go, I will see whomever I want to see and I will talk with whomever I want to talk. So this nonsense about you're banned from going to Hanoi, you're banned from going to Cuba, you're banned from going to Egypt, you're banned from going to Algeria, you're banned from going to Syria doesn't effect me. It effects people whom the white people control, they don't control me. I will go where I want to go, when I want to go and how I want to go. And I will say what I want to say, when I want to say and where I want to say it. So I pay no attention what so ever to anything they say."

QUESTIONER

UNKNOWN (Q) - "One final question, we got about a minute. Are you going to make Washington your permanent residence?"

CARMICHAEL (A) - "It's going to be my home for a while, as long as they let me live. As long as I'm living and there's breath in my body, I'm going to work to bring our people together."

MR. PINKNEY

- "Stokely Carmichael we certainly want to thank you for being our guest on WOL. This has been a WOL Special presented by the News and Public Service Department, Stokely Carmichael in Washington."

On January 25, 1968, STOKELY CARMICHAEL departed National Airport, Washington, D. C. aboard Eastern Airlines Flight 646 at 7:35 p. m. He traveled to Boston, Massachusetts, under the name of V. WFLCH. He returned to Washington, D. C., on January 28, 1968.

During January 28, 29 and 30, 1968, CARMICHAEL spent considerable time at the headquarters of SNCC, 1234 U Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. He appeared to be making the SNCC office his headquarters while residing at Apartment 3, 2200 12th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. On January 30, 1968, he also visited the Law Building of Howard University, Washington, D. C.

The "Washington Afro-American" in an article dated January 30, 1968, reported that STOKELY CARMICHAEL wanted to get his confiscated passport returned to him. It stated lawyers were getting ready to file a suit in Federal court in New York to obtain the seized document. CARMICHAEL's attorneys reportedly stated the Government had no right to take away the passport because travel to a restricted area is not a crime. The article noted the passport was ordered seized by the U. S. Department of State because CARMICHAEL had traveled to Cuba and North Vietnam without permission.

CARMICHAEL called a meeting of the office staff members of the Washington office of SNCC to be held on February 2, 1968. CARMICHAEL announced the meeting was being held to discuss primarily SNCC fund raising programs and to set policy as to what part SNCC would play in the forthcoming Washington project of Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING. The meeting was held at CARMICHAEL's apartment, 2200 12th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., on February 2, 1968. The meeting was informal in nature and members of the Washington SNCC Office were in attendance. A discussion was held of various things affecting the work of the local SNCC office. Specific attention was directed to matters concerning fund raising and various proposals were made as to how to raise money. It was noted that the SNCC office in Washington was three months behind in paying its rent on the office premises located at 1234 U Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., and on February 1, 1968, the SNCC office received a notice to vacate the premises within eight days. This did not appear to disturb CARMICHAEL to any extent. CARMICHAEL reportedly always seemed to have some money available to him; however, the amount of money available or the source of his funds were not known. SNCC members do not generally appear to have much money if any, but on the contrary CARMICHAEL always seems to have some money even if a small amount. The SNCC office does not apparently have a lot of money or a big bank account. They discussed the possibility of employing a full time female office worker in the local Washington SNCC Office but decided they did not have the money available at that time. CARMICHAEL then spoke about unifying the "black people" in the community. He stated that this must be done to relieve them of their economic oppression. He commented about the necessity of Negro people spending their money within the Negro community. He stated that further efforts should be made in behalf of the BUF to organize the Negro community. He did not mention, however, any specific plans for the BUF or how previously discussed plans of the front would be implemented.

CARMICHAEL also spoke of maintaining the security of information available to SNCC members and particularly the security of the Washington SNCC office. He emphasized employees should be aware of people who visit the SNCC office and should be wary of each other. CARMICHAEL also mentioned regarding Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING's forthcoming Washington project concerning the poor, that SNCC would not openly support KING's programs. He advised that he had heard a radio news program that when KING began his project CARMICHAEL and SNCC would work for KING. The Washington SNCC office issued a denial that SNCC would work for KING. A discussion was then held about membership in SNCC and how a person could become a staff member of the organization. CARMICHAEL stated that a staff member must have been in the organization for at least six months and have attended at least one national staff meeting usually held in Atlanta. He reported that the names of SNCC Washington staff members were being reported to the SNCC National Office in Atlanta, Georgia, for information.

A meeting was held at the Church of the Redeemer, 15th and Girard Streets, N. W., Washington, D. C., on the evening of February 6, 1968. The meeting was held in order for Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) and STOKELY CARMICHAEL of BUF to discuss matters of mutual interest and also the Washington project for the poor planned for early April, 1968, by Dr. KING and the SCLC. The meeting was presided over by KING who discussed the proposed poor peoples project explaining that Washington, D. C., residents would be called upon to provide assistance in the form of food, shelter, clothing and related support. When the initial meeting by Dr. KING was ended, the church was emptied and only those were allowed to re-enter who were personally known to representatives of the SNCC who stationed themselves at the entrance. In addition, admission was granted to a few who were vouched for or who were satisfactorily able to explain their reason for attending. Admission was denied to all representatives of the press and no tape recorders were allowed in the meeting. The meeting was held in the main portion of the building and was attended by approximately 200 persons. Of those in attendance, approximately 150 were representatives of BUF and SNCC while approximately 50 represented SCLC.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL and [redacted] of SNCC were in attendance but neither made any type of formal speech or presentation. The meeting was presided over by KING who restated what he said in the meeting earlier. In addition he said there were people in the audience who did not agree with his project for the poor and asked that these people not hinder the project even though they were not in agreement. KING then reminisced about past demonstrations and projects of the SCLC and their effect.

"The Evening Star" in an article dated February 8, 1968, reported that the Reverend Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., met privately for two hours the previous night at a Washington motel with black power leaders, STOKELY CARMICHAEL and H. RAP BROWN to discuss plans for KING's massive civil disobedience campaign to take place in Washington during the spring. KING described the meeting as fruitful but declined to say whether he had received or even sought support from BROWN and CARMICHAEL. About twenty aides of the three civil rights leaders participated in the meeting on the second floor suite at the Pitt's Motor Hotel. "We went through our program with the leaders of SNCC," KING said. "We talked about our goals and objectives and some of our tactics. We have been doing this with a number of people. There were areas of agreement and disagreement." He refused further comment. BROWN and CARMICHAEL upon leaving the meeting declined to comment and referred all questions to Dr. KING.

On February 7, 1968, Special Agents of the FBI at approximately 11:30 p. m. observed CARMICHAEL and [redacted] arrive at Cox Municipal Airport, Dayton, Ohio. In purchasing his ticket, CARMICHAEL used name, "Mr. WEBSTER." Later, when returning to Washington by air, CARMICHAEL traveled using name, V. WELCHER.

[redacted] meeting of the Black United Front (BUF) was held at the New School for Afro-American Thought, 2203 14th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. (WDC). Invitations were extended to most of the individuals who had been previously invited to attend the first meeting of the BUF on January 9, 1968. Approximately 100 individuals were present and all were checked at the door upon entering the building.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL called the meeting to order at approximately 8:00 p.m. and introduced [redacted] a "Memorandum of Purpose" of the BUF that was previously prepared by the BUF Steering Committee. The "Memorandum of Purpose" stated that the BUF was formed to extend the lines of communication between black people, to obtain a proportionate share of representation in the Government of the District of Columbia and to obtain a proportionate share of economic control within the black community. The Memorandum reportedly sets out the standards for qualification for membership in the BUF and the procedures to follow in making application for membership. Further, it stated that only all black organizations working for the benefit of the black community in general were eligible for membership. Those eligible according to the Memorandum would have to furnish in writing the name of the organization, its officers and a statement regarding the purpose and program of the organization. The application would then be referred to the Steering Committee and would be voted upon by the group. The Memorandum also pointed out that members of the BUF should conduct themselves in such a manner as to bring unity to the black community.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL then opened the meeting to discussion of further activities of the BUF and the position the BUF would take on community problems. These included a discussion regarding the proposed program of Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., for the poor, welfare, rezoning and freeways and urban transportation. The group voted to extend their support to the efforts of Dr. KING in the Poor People's Campaign, then being planned to be held in the District of Columbia. After the completion of discussion on the other matters mentioned, CARMICHAEL adjourned the meeting after announcing the day of the next scheduled meeting to be held by the BUF.

On February 14, 1968, Special Agents (SA) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), observed that the BUF held a press conference at the New School for Afro-American Thought, 2208 14th Street, N.W., WDC. The conference was opened at approximately 2:15 a.m. by BUF member CALVIN POLARK who reviewed the organization since January 9, 1968, when it was began. He stated that the seventeen member Board of Conveners (Steering Committee) was selected to draft a "Statement of Purpose" of the BUF and that it had been made available in a memorandum published by the BUF. He added that STOKELY CARMICHAEL had been named Temporary Chairman of the Board of Conveners and he then distributed a memorandum to the members of the press setting forth the aims and purposes of BUF as mentioned above. CARMICHAEL was present during the above press conference, but declined to make any comment. After a discussion of other matters of BUF interest, POLARK concluded the press conference by stating that the BUF would become active in all aspects of community life.

"The Washington Post and Times Herald" in an article dated February 14, 1968, reported CARMICHAEL had discussed "Negro problems" with 600 students at Roosevelt High School the previous day. He was invited by the student council according to the article and students vied among themselves to ask questions while others giggled and CARMICHAEL's voice was drowned out in clatter. CARMICHAEL raised his voice "beseechingly" and said, "We have got to get serious, because our people are at stake." The students continued to murmur and move restlessly in their seats.

SAs of the FBI verified the departure of CARMICHAEL from Dulles International Airport via United Airlines flight number 57, at 8:45 PM on February 15, 1968, en route to San Francisco, California.

WFO 100-43503

On February 28, 1968, SAs of the FBI determined that STOKELY CARMICHAEL traveling under the name A. KUTTATI, arrived at Dulles Airport, Washington, D.C. (WDC), via Delta Airlines Flight Number 106 at 6:24 p.m. from Atlanta. Upon arrival he traveled to the headquarters of the SNCC, 1234 U Street, N.W., WDC.

During February, 1968, STOKELY CARMICHAEL, former National Chairman of SNCC, had reportedly recently indicated an interest in organizing the "Soul Brothers" in the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), WDC. CARMICHAEL felt that in the event of trouble these "Soul Brothers" would support him.

[REDACTED] claimed the prostitutes and their "pimps" were backed by mobsters. According to information, STOKELY CARMICHAEL proposed a plan which he claimed had been working successfully in WDC for about nine months and put in effect there by CARMICHAEL. This plan called for the creation of a black mafia. This group reportedly warned prostitutes to discontinue their activities. If they refused, then the "muscle boys" stepped in and taught them a lesson. According to information, this would arouse the prostitutes "pimp" to action in which case the "muscle boys" would handle him.

On March 7, 1968, during the evening a meeting of the BUF Board of Conveners was held at the Lincoln Memorial Congregational Temple, 11th and M Streets, N.W., WDC. The meeting was previously scheduled for the evening of March 4, 1968, but had been cancelled due to lack of attendance. STOKELY CARMICHAEL, Temporary Chairman, suggested that another member serve in the capacity of chairman for this particular meeting which was devoted to three main issues namely, (1) membership (2) organizational procedures (3) meeting places. During the meeting CARMICHAEL objected to a proposal that a membership fee of $10.00 be charged for each organization which wanted to become affiliated with the BUF and $1.00 or $2.00 for each individual. He contended this was no way to form an organization and the fact a fee was being charged would turn many individuals away from the BUF. The proposal of charging a membership fee was passed over the objection of CARMICHAEL who attempted to raise several parliamentary procedures to defeat the issue. A discussion was had regarding organizational procedure centered around whether or not the BUF was to be regarded as an organization or as a "mass movement." This issue was not settled and was held open for further discussion by the general body of BUF. A discussion was then had about meeting places and several locations for future meetings were discussed.

Regarding the BUF, it was formed in Washington, D.C. on the evening of January 9, 1968, at a meeting held at the New School for Afro-American Thought, 2202 14th Street, N.W., WDC. This meeting was called by STOKELY CARMICHAEL and was attended by some 100 persons. At the outset of the meeting, CARMICHAEL explained how BUF could attain its goals and in so doing compared such organizations in the United States with the accomplishments of [REDACTED]

b7D

[REDACTED] It was highly unusual CARMICHAEL should use these two men as examples in a meeting of this matter knowing both represent communist ideologies. So far as it was ascertained, this example went unnoticed by others attending the meeting and in view of this the statement went unchallenged by anyone present. Subsequently a discussion was held about various aspects of what the BUF was to accomplish and what it was to represent. A Steering Committee composed of seventeen individuals was established which later became known as the Board of Conveners.

Regarding the SNCC and STOKELY CARMICHAEL, it was reported that CARMICHAEL was not communicating his thoughts or plans to anyone including [REDACTED] [REDACTED] The SNCC followers are regarded as the most militant of any of the organizations affiliated with the BUF and this is due to CARMICHAEL's influence in SNCC. CARMICHAEL is associated with SNCC members in WDC and they accompany him to BUF meetings.

b7D

With regard to CARMICHAEL's trip abroad during the summer and fall of 1967, it was impossible to understand how CARMICHAEL could have made some of the comments he did about the United States especially if he had observed some of the horrible conditions in the Socialist countries he visited. CARMICHAEL probably only saw what the leaders of these countries wanted him to see. On one occasion CARMICHAEL was observed on television while traveling abroad and the definite impression was developed that CARMICHAEL was not acting like himself and could have been under the influence of some drug.

With respect to CARMICHAEL's sources of income, he apparently received royalties from his speeches which had been released and were being sold in Europe; his books; and his speaking engagements in the United States. In the latter instances his expenses are paid for by the organization sponsoring his appearances which is the customary method of handling these matters. CARMICHAEL may be getting a few dollars from SNCC, but if he does so it would not amount to much since the organization is practically bankrupt.

In evaluating the BUF in its earlier stages it has taken a moderate view on most issues. It is believed the BUF would be against any form of racial violence and the BUF membership for the most part would desire to accomplish their aims through the election of black candidates to public office and economic betterment. The latter mentioned above is to be attained through ownership of business establishments and better jobs, particularly in the black community. It is absurd to think of the black man completely taking over a police or fire department in a large metropolitan area because there are just not enough qualified Negroes at this time to do so. The same principle applies to colleges and universities due to the fact there are not enough qualified black professors in the scientific and technical fields.

"The Washington Post and Times Herald", in an article dated March 15, 1968, reported as follows:

"SINGER MIRIAM MAKEBA AND STOKELY TO MARRY"

"Black Power advocate Stokely Carmichael and South African singing star Miriam Makeba are engaged to be married, it was announced today.

"A spokesman for Miss Makeba, 35, said no date has been set for the wedding. The songstress, whose latest "Top Ten" recording was popularization of the South African folk song 'Data-Data,' is currently in Nassau, the Bahamas.

"Carmichael, 27, former Chairman and now Washington-based field secretary of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), has not been married previously. Miss Makeba's marriage to Hugh Masakela, a South African recording star, terminated in divorce. She has a daughter, Bongie, 17.

"Miss Makeba came to the United States in 1959 as a protege of calypso singer Harry Belafonte."

at 6 p.m., where he gave a speech at the invitation of the Fellowship Forum of the Church. Approximately 350 persons were present which consisted of both Negroes and whites. The audience was composed primarily of adults with some teenagers present.

CARMICHAEL introduced his remarks by stating that what he had to say related to Black unity, black power and the survival of the black man. He commented the remarks that he would make he has made many times before and will make them many times in the future. He stated the white man and primarily white western civilization has historically and systematically "colonized" the Negro, the white man has also attempted to "dehumanize" him. He stated that the white man has always had an evil motive in dealing with black people.

He stated the black people in the United States must connect up with the other 900 million black people of the "Third World" in order to liberate themselves from the control of the white man. He described the "Third World" as including black people in Cuba, West Indies, Haiti, South America and Africa. He emphasized the survival of the Negro is at stake in America as the United States is planning genocide against them and for this reason Negroes should arm themselves. He commented he did not mean a .22 caliber either. He stated he was advocating simply that every black man in the United States get a gun and that the only reason the "honkie" is able to rule is because he has "the gun." He stated that if Negroes obtained an arsenal, relations between whites and blacks would be equal. He commented that this is "why the brothers on the block call the gun an equalizer."

CARMICHAEL stated he realizes many black people do not agree with his ideology and that there are a lot of "Uncle Toms" in the Negro community. He disclosed his group proposes that when they develop information about a person "being that way" that someone sit down and talk with them in an attempt to get them to change their minds. After, "they call him in and talk to him, if he does not change his ways, he will be considered a traitor to his community and all traitors die."

CARMICHAEL emphasized black people must develop an undying love for their race, not their country. Further that they must be willing to die for their race and if they must die, they should die in the streets of the United States, not in Vietnam. He commented he was willing to die for his people.

CARMICHAEL further stated that the right to vote in the United States means nothing to black people and that they would not be able to develop any power through bloc voting. He stated that if "you're white, the vote means you can play games with Kennedy, Mc Carthy, Johnson and Wallace. But they're all the same when it comes to us." He quoted from Mao Tse Tung, Chairman of the Chinese Communist Party that "Political power comes out of the barrel of a gun."

CARMICHAEL also advised that black people should support the Arabs in any conflict that might develop between them and the Israelis. He stated that this stand has caused many Jewish people to call him anti-semitic but that this is not true because the Arabs are also a semitic people according to racial origins. CARMICHAEL continued that while the Negro has many problems Communism is not the answer to solve these problems because of the fact that his problem is more racial than political. CARMICHAEL stated that a lot of people questioned the need for a Black United Front (BUF) but that the need for this type of an organization was necessary regardless of ideology so that black people could sit down and talk together and reach an understanding as to their problems. He commented that the only reason the press had been barred from the past meetings was because of the fact the press has a tendency to distort the truth concerning efforts for the Negro to unify himself. He commented that the D.C. Public School System is 93 percent Negro and that the curriculum must be changed to be made more relative to the Negro community. He stated that "we must take over the school system," as it is not teaching what should be taught to black people.

An article appearing in the "Washington - Afro-American" dated March 19, 1968, reported as follows:

"VOTE WILL GET BLACK PEOPLE
NOWHERE, CARMICHAEL SAYS

"Some 400 persons listened Sunday night as Stokely Carmichael warned Afro-Americans: 'If you believe in the vote, you will end up in Bimini, if you can afford it!'

"Speaking on 'Black Unity and American Power,' at the monthly Fellowship Forum of the Church of the Redeemer, Carmichael further advised black people that white America is 'talking genocide' and the only way to prevent it is to be aware of the threat, and arm for it.

"Arguing that the white man has enforced his 'superiority' on non-whites the world over through force of arms, Carmichael asserted that in order to attain the 'equality' inherent in the democratic philosophy, the black people must secure the 'equalizer,' the gun.

"He pointed out that although the white man may not always have the gun, physically or visibly, 'in the final analysis it is the knowledge that he has it that gives him power.'

"Carmichael told the audience, which was about one-third white, that the white people of America are bent on the extermination of the blacks. 'The only way they can do that,' he said, 'is if we are not aware of the threat.'

"THE THREE important concepts related to the 'survival' of black Americans, he pointed out, are: an undying love for one's people; putting aside all the things that whites have used to divide blacks in the past; and for black people to realize that 'community' to them is not a question of geography, but color.

"'There is a difference between dying for our people and dying for this country. This country has been, and still is, against the blacks. We must not die in Vietnam, but in the streets of this country,' he said.

"The reason black Americans have been oppressed, CARMICHAEL proposed, is that they have not realized that one's people must come first, and only then, the individual.

"The important distinction between 'Negro' and 'Black,' he emphasized, is the fact that until they were brought here as slaves, 'Negroes' were known as Africans or Blacks. Consequently, attending to being a 'Negro' is saying that one's history begins in slavery, he said.

"Explaining 'community' as a question of color, he said: 'If you went to Los Angeles, you would not be home until you got to Watts. If you went to New York, you would not be home until you got to Harlem. If you went to Chicago, you would not be home until you got to the West Side. and here in D.C., you are home in the entire city!'

"ALL DECISIONS relevant to black people were decided by the white man, Carmichael said. 'He decided where to place us, what to call us, what our language would be. We must begin to redefine ourselves.'

"We will not get the gun just to shoot the white man - but just in case he decides to play with us. Every black man in this country must get a gun, but he must carry it for his people, not for himself!"

"If the vote were necessary for survival in the United States as so many people claim, Carmichael said, then black people would not have survived. 'If we use the vote today, we can only use it as an organizing tool to bring our people together,' he said.

"He emphasized the need for public school education which 'perpetuates our type of system.' Since the present system does not teach black students how to fit into the society they are forced to live in, nor does it teach them how to change the same unfit society, then the system must be changed.

"The Black United Front he said, is an effort to get all black people 'to sit down and discuss our problems. If we decide to integrate, or to separate, let us do it by ourselves, together.'

"The Black United Front is a necessity," he continued. "We are going to take the city. Why should we, 93 percent of the population, have somebody else run it?" "Because that sounds like hate, let's talk about hate."

"Resorting to certain principles of philosophy, he argued that since the world is made up of opposites, then, 'If you say you have no hate, you have no love. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]"

b7C

b7D

"He concluded with a Bible verse, which he said described the role of Black Power advocates: 'These are the men who were sent to turn the city upside down, and the city officials were afraid.'

"He chided black people who are afraid of the Black Power slogan, and said, 'You are not the city officials, so why are you afraid?' 'Those who are afraid realize what we have to do, but don't have the guts to face up to it.'"

On the evening of March 19, 1968, a Black United Front (BUF) meeting was held at the Lincoln Memorial Congregational Church, 11th and R Streets, N.W., WDC. STOKELY CARMICHAEL convened the meeting at approximately 8:20 p.m. During the course of the meeting a resolution was made to establish a Board of Arbitrators within the BUF to settle arguments, problems and controversies arising between black people and black organizations. In this connection considerable argument took place as to how the arbitrators should settle differences and disputes involving black people which arose. CARMICHAEL said that he believed that in order to be effective and carry out their mission, the Board of Arbitrators would have to have some kind of powers to enforce decisions. A suggestion was then made from the Board that a police committee be formed and members of this committee carry guns, since force would be needed to meet force in carrying out the decisions of the Board of Arbitrators. The general feeling of those present was that it would be unnecessary to carry guns and that a police committee should be part of the arbitration committee and assist the committee in carrying out decisions. The matter was referred to another committee appointed to further study the matter.

In addition, at the March 19, 1968, meeting of the BUF, it was resolved that the terms of office of the members of the Board of Conveners of the BUF be for one year and that the membership of the BUF could re-elect any or all of the conveners after they had served one year's term should the members of the BUF so desire. Among the members elected by the BUF to serve on the Board of Conveners from March 19, 1968 to March 20, 1969 was STOKELY CARMICHAEL.

[redacted] advised that on March 30, 1968, CARMICHAEL visited the office of the Dixie Realty Company, Incorporated, 1417 L Street, N.W., WDC, where a controversy developed about the leasing of a residence [redacted]. CARMICHAEL wanted additional repairs made to the premises which Dixie Realty Company declined to do. CARMICHAEL became loud and boisterous. A heated argument ensued which resulted in the police being called. CARMICHAEL demanded the deposit money placed [redacted] be returned to him which was done by the Dixie Realty Company.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL appeared on television program "Controversy 14", broadcast from 7:00 to 10:00 PM on March 20, 1968, by station WFAN, Washington, D.C. The program was moderated by JOHN HIGHTOWER who advised it was a discussion in nature involving CARMICHAEL and others. HIGHTOWER advised the program was on the air from 7:00 to 10:00 PM, but CARMICHAEL did not appear during the full time. HIGHTOWER also advised a tape was not made of the first 15 minutes of the program due to an oversight.

Statements made by CARMICHAEL on the program are as follows:

CARMICHAEL:
(CAR:)

because in the West Indies there were more Africans than there were white folks. There were a lots of us, a lot of slaves, a few white folks, so one day in the middle 1830's all the Africans got together and wiped out the white folks and took the island. So that was that, there was no more problem, I mean there was no emancipation, we drove the white folk out of the island.

Commentator:
(COMM:)

It was like then, the take-over in Haiti.

CAR:

Right, Haiti and right on. After it spread in Haiti all around the West Indies. And so the African heritage was always stronger, it was passed down. My grandmother, on my fathers side was a Zulu and she maintains from her grandmother a lot of the Zulu's heritage which she passed on to me, so that I know that one part of me is Zulu.

WFO 100-43503

COMM: Well then how would you relate that to other people that are "hibos" (ph) or "houses" (ph) or what ever?

CAR: Well the same is true I mean, we are tribal people of African descent and Africa is the richest country in the world. It has the richest language in the world. For example, in Africa a child 6 years old speaks three different languages, by the time they are six, they speak three different languages. They are to be found in one country, as many as 30 rich languages.

COMM: Mr. Mack, you have been sitting off stage, sir, you live in the Shaw area?

ROLAND

MACK:

(MACK) Yes, I do. I'm speaking specifically for the Alabama tenant Association, the tenant group within the Shaw area.

COMM: Could you say what they had to say or have they given you a message that ought to be heard in Washington?

MACK: Well you recently heard about Sidney Brown up here at Clifton Terrace.

COMM: Yes, sir.

MACK: Now down here at the Alabama.....

COMM: Sixty days, is about a year or two or three or more than that, too light a sentence?

MACK: Would like to put the owners of our building in for a little bit longer.

COMM: Who owns your building?

MACK: This Carl S. Vollmer (ph)

COMM: Varman (ph).

MACK: Vollmer (sp).

COMM: And what are the conditions that are in your building?

MACK: Well, in 1966 we had 500 housing code violations in our building; in 1967 we had 800 housing code violations in our building. And the recent inspection which took two weeks this year, we had 1000 housing code violations....

CAR: They ain't burned that place down yet?

MACK: I don't think I have to say anything else....

COMM: What was your question, Stokely?

CAR: That place should have been burned already, fire is the purifier says the Bible, and fire would do that building some good.

COMM: And where will those people live.

MACK: I don't think we're going to burn the building down. What I think we're going to do, since we have a tenants organization that's very well organized, I have one spokesman from the tenants organization here, he's on stage right now and I am the President so I suppose I'll have to be the spokesman more or less. But we're negotiating with HDC, we're working with "Curac" (ph), with UPO and other organizations. And we would like to take over the building we live in, have it rehabilitated and turn it into....

COMM: You mean like a co-operative..

MACK: Like the co-operatives, yes.

COMM: How much money would this cost.

MACK: The estimates that I've heard so far run between 150 and 200 thousands.

COMM: Do you think that the tenants in the building are going to be able to afford this between them?

MACK: No, the thing is that the tenants will not definitely be able to afford this, we can't afford it but we would very much appreciate Federal assistance and we think that any loan or grant that the Federal government could give us, we could repay within 5 years.

COMM: Stokely, what do you think about a move like that?

CAR: Whatever the brother is doing to help our people, I am in favor of.

COMM: Does this go against your way of doing things?

CAR: We have different ways but the brother is doing it his way, I will back him one hundred percent.

COMM: This is really what you are looking for, isn't it? Self-determination on a local level.

CAR: That is absolutely correct, I'm looking for us to rule ourselves. The laws that govern black people must be made by black people. And what the brother is doing is good, if we can help in any way, we would. I think that ah....what did you say the "cats" name was?

MACK: Carl S. Vollmer.

CAR: I think that it's a crime that a man like that is able to live, you know really.

COMM: You're not advocating killing him, are you?

CAR: Let me ask you a question, man. If somebody forces somebody to live in sub-human condition like that, what would you advocate they do to him?

COMM: Well, I would imagine put him in jail as these people are undoubtedly going to attempt to do....

CAR: For 60 days?

COMM: I don't know.....

CAR: If a black man...

COMM: I'm not the () and I'm not the judge.....within a given system.

CAR: Right, let's work within this given system. If a black man 16 years old went into a store and stole 300 dollars and he got caught, do you think that they would send him to jail for 60 days?

COMM: No, I don't.

CAR: How long do you think they'd send him to jail for?

COMM: I have no idea.

CAR: Come on, take a guess.

COMM: Alright what is it, armed robbery? Strong arm robbery?

CAR: Alright, let's say it wasn't even arm robbery. Let's just say he just snatched 300 dollars out of the cash register.

COMM: He'd probably get a year.

CAR: He'd get a year. Now here's a honky, who has a 1000 violations on a house.....

COMM: How does that term come about?

CAR: Forget that. Here's this honky whose got a 1000 violations on a house and he's forcing our people to live in this house in these run down conditions, the laws hasn't picked him up, if the Judge ever picks him up he goes to jail for 60 days and comes back out and do the same thing. In order for the people to get the building they got to put up 150 or 200 thousand dollars. Now this honky has already made flat 200 thousand dollars, probably in one month off of our people. He shouldn't be walking the streets. Now, you can figure out what should be done yourself.

- COMM: What do you think about the difference one bureau wants, you know, between Marion Barry attempting to low rate Mr. Mayfield by trying to stop his press conference?
- CAR: Marion Barry is the flesh of my flesh and blood of my blood, he is my brother. Rufus "Catfish" Mayfield is flesh of my flesh and blood of my blood, he is my brother. I will not in any way encourage black people to fight. The time for us fighting each other is over, it is past, it is time that we begin to move together in a spirit of love and unity to fight our major enemy.
- COMM: Which is?
- CAR: Which is that we bury all of our differences and we begin to development an undying love for each other, which this white man has been able to push against us, make us fight each other, make us hate each other, make us hate our color. We have to override that and begin to love each other, love our color, love our heritage and have a undying love for each other where we will not fight each other, we will come together and fight our major enemy.
- COMM: Do you think or do you feel inately a hate for any white man?
- CAR: Let's get that out of the way once and for all because I'm just tired of this question of hate. Now do you believe in dialective philosophy?
- COMM: Sometime.
- CAR: Well, clearly dialective philosophy works because all it says is that there are opposites in the world, is that correct?
- COMM: I believe.
- CAR: For hot there is cold, for joy there is sadness, for laughter there is tears. Is that correct?

COMM: Right.

CAR: There are opposites for everything, is that correct? Alright you have love, then there must be hate. So now if someone says to me that they don't hate white people then it means they don't have love for their own people. Because if they had love for their own people they would have to hate white people who are trying to destroy their people. If you're a father and you have children and I came to destroy your children you'd have to hate me, wouldn't you? Or try to stop me from destroying your children, wouldn't you?

COMM: Yes.

CAR: Right, because you love your children. So you don't have to preach hate and we don't have to preach hate for white people.

COMM: I answered yes to two questions. I think I would....

CAR: Alright, clarify them.

COMM: I think that I would try to stop you from killing those people, I think that hate is on an individual basis and not.....

CAR: You're absolutely wrong...

COMM: You hate me because I'm white.

CAR: Your people hate me because I'm black, dig that. You stole me from Africa because I was black.

COMM: I didn't steal you from anywhere.

CAR: Your ancestors stole me from Africa....

COMM: So therefore I've got to pay for what they did, theoretically did to your parents.

CAR: No, it's not theoretical, it's actual, and not only do you have pay....

COMM: Yeah, but I said your parents and it wasn't even your parents, it was on before that.

CAR: No, no, no, baby, it was my ancestors, my people, my race, it is my race that has been destroyed; my race that has been destroyed, has been spattered all over this world; my race by your race, by your race. So its clearly now that we're talking about this race of people, this beautiful black race of people regaining their consciousness and taking care of business and doing what is necessary so that we will survive, because we have to survive, we can't go on the way we been going on for 400 years, I mean you just get tired of being tired and I swear black people are just tired of being tired. So you just say that well look if we come to the end of the road, this is the final showdown, let's get the confrontation on, you know,

COMM: What sort of a confrontation are you looking forward to?

CAR: The confrontation that will make black people survive. That means there can be no major rebellions in the cities because white people are prepared for major rebellion, you're not prepared for other kinds of things.

COMM: What sort of rebellion is effectual in the city?

CAR: Ha, ha, ha.

COMM: How long can you control a city if the pipelines to the food which obviously come from the country because you know they don't grow in the supermarkets.

CAR: How long can you control them if white people can't get into the cities? Where the heart of production of the cities are?

COMM: You really believe that people can just exist on machines?

CAR: That's not what I'm saying. You set up a parallel situation. We can't get food; you can't get in to produce. The heart of production of this country is where? Where your machinery is? Where your industry is?

COMM: Stokely, you can't eat machinery.

CAR: Where are your industries?

COMM: In New York, in Chicago, in Detroit.

CAR: In the cities. Where's your steel? The largest steel plants are in Gary, Indiana, 60% of that is black. You can't function without steel.

COMM: There's enough of (it) it starve you out.

CAR: Well, we could try. Better to die on my feet than live on my stomach crawling for the rest of my life. I'd rather die at 26 with a gun in my hand than live to die like my father did, because he gave all his sweat and all his blood to white folk and I ain't got nothing to show for it.

COMM: How did your father die?

CAR: Of a heart attack at a young age, working hard, working, bowing scraping, saying yas suh, yas suh. But he was an Uncle Tom, not for me to be an Uncle Tom, he was an Uncle Tom for me to be a man and I'm going to be a man one way or another.

COMM: Do you foresee what is termed a riot in Washington this summer?

CAR: No, there's not going to be any riot in Washington this summer.

COMM: A rebellion?

- CAR: There ain't gonna be no rebellion in Washington this summer. The police are gonna start their little stuff and when they do we're gonna be cool. But we gonna get them back. Its not gonna be no mass thing because they got the tanks so we not gonna go out there and meet you with the tanks but everytime a policeman gets a brother...the policeman got to ride in our community.
- COMM: So the reference is there that you're going to get a policeman?
- CAR: (laughing) Not one (laughing) One ain't gonna be enough, brother, really.
- (COMM. questions another panelist. CAR joins in.)
- CAR: See the people we've been talking to, we've been making a mistake, we've been talking to white people. They have not been listening, that is the mistake. We've got to talk to our people that is what we've got to do. Now they are out there, forget these two cats, talk to our people, tell them what we've got to do.....right on, state blowing, take the time.....
- CAR: Well I think that the problem that the brother, the brother faces a problem that we all face, that is how can black people communicate without the interpretation of the white media, because white people you know have to interpret everything that somebody says, a black man says, to black people, and what the brother is trying to do is get his own organ going where black people can talk to black people without white people saying what they doing, cause Honkies do that all the time like.....
- COMM: That would be better without saying black in it.
- CAR: Well look, I'm black and I am proud of it and I say it all the time...ah..you know I'm black and I'm beautiful and will say it a thousand times a night, that irrevelant...
- COMM: What do you want me to say that I'm white and ugly?

CAR: That's your problem, not mine, really.....ah for example when we formed the Black United Front the main honkie press in this city, the Washington Post came out and said "why all these moderates leaders like Sterling Tucker sitting down with a communist like Stokely Carmichael, bla, bla....now what they what they were trying to do was to confuse the minds of our people, that was clear. About seven months ago a honkie named Lyndon Johnson sat down with another honkie named Kosygin in Glassboro, N. J. Johnson is the leader of the white free world and we know what that means, and Kosygin is leader of the Communist world, now these two honkies can sit down for two days and they get flashed all over the T.V., the Washington Post say what a beautiful thing that it is that these leaders are coming together and working out their differences bla, bla but when two black people get down together the honkies don't want to hear it. Now, that what the brother is trying to do he is trying to get his own press so all those.....

COMM: Are you a Marxist Stokely?

CAR: Marxism, I don't.....what is a Marxist?..Man I'm going to get you good. Tell me what is a Marxist is.

COMM: If you don't know I'm not going to tell you.....

CAR: No, No you asked the question. Tell me what a Marxist is.

COMM: Go ahead.....

CAR: Tell me what a Marxist is.

COMM: I just asked you a simple question.....

CAR: Well, I don't know what it is and I want to ask you the question.

COMM: Are you a black and beautiful man?

CAR: Well I know that I am black and beautiful, that's evident, I mean.....

COMM: OK, then, don't argue a Marxist.

CAR: Ah, well no, what is a Marxist?

COMM: Stokely, I ... you and I could talk about three more hours so.... There is a caller who called in with mention to Hannibal, Hannibal did not wipe out the Roman empire. His march over the alps came to a standstill before Rome because his government would not send equipment and supplies.....

CAR: Tell the man, did you ever see a Sicilian. Look at the color of a Sicilian man he's just as dark as me. That is Hannibal.

COMM: John, did you have a question for Mr. Carmichael?

JOHN: Well yes, I want to get some figures a little later on in the show. I was just telling him that I'm sure that the Washington Post didn't call him a communist because that's a () and you would undoubtedly have had a law suit within the hour.

CAR: The Washington Post said that Stokely Carmichael who has just returned from communist country who is espousing the downfall of the United States of America, are that these responsible Negroes should not set down with him. Kosygin is a communist. He lives in a communist country. He espouses the downfall of the United States. Yet when he sat down with Johnson the Washington Post did not say that Johnson should not set down with Kosygin. What I am saying is that the world is moving closer and closer on the Comi (??) question, the white man is coming closer and closer together to wipe out the black man and what the white man fears is the black man coming together, any sign of unity by the black man and the white man get upset. Any sign of identification by the black man and the white man get upset. Can't nothing upset a honkie like a man wearing a bush. A policeman gets shaken everytime he sees three brothers walking down the street with a bush.

COMM: What is a bush natural?

CAR: Natural is our beautiful hair coming out.....

JOHN: Well wouldn't you get shook if you saw a Klansman walking through your neighborhood with a shot gun?

CAR: I most certainly would get shook, Not only would I get shook, I would blow him to kingdom come. Ah, you know I don't think a man with a bush is equivalent to a man with a gun. Especially since the klansman is in my community, the brother with the bush is in his community. The white cop ain't got no business in our community () cause the Klansman with the shotgun is the same, like the Honkie cop with the badge and the gun. make that analogy....

JOHN: It was my understanding that during the Watts riots (Carmichael corrects Rebellion) rebellion, revolution, whatever you want to call it (Carmichael rebellion moving toward revolution) That Police Chief Parker one of the things he offered to do was to withdraw the police protection from the community and he was asked definitely not "We don't want that done". Because he got tired of it Charlie we'll just draw them out of there if you don't want them. (Carmichael, he's not fooling anyone). Now this was a white press that wrote that. (garbled) lies.

CAR: (repeats) He is not fooling anybody, it is lies, he is not fooling anybody. White policemen in our community is to do one thing, to protect property, not to protect us. Everybody knows that.

JOHN: How about black policemen in your community?

CAR: Now we are not going to fight them..we are not going to fight with our black policemen. No sir, every time I walk down the street and see a black man in uniform I say hello brother because I am not going to alienate myself from that brother. But every time I see a blue eyed man wearing a cops gun in my community today when he knows he has got no business there I just look him dead in the eye and just tell him I'm waiting. I'm waiting. So you know....I not going to fight.....

JOHN: How much longer are you going to wait?

CAR: Not too much longer, baby. I can feel....

JOHN: You know Stokely I read a very interesting letter to the editor in the New York Times Magazine that pointed out the fact that you were from Trinidad... and that this type of path (?) that you are putting down makes a lot of sense to a country that has a black majority. But in a country with a white majority.....

CAR: I don't want to hear that nonsense. Wherever the white man is he rules. Whether he is the majority or the minority, he rules. In South Africa he's the minority, he rules. Wherever you go he rules. Because the white man got this superior thing that he is supposed to rule the whole world. He came to this country as the minority, as the minority. Indians told you how to adapt to this country, you wiped him out. Took the country. Came to Africa, you were the minority, stole us, brought us here. Gave us a (superiority?) complex.....

JOHN: Interrupts Carmichael and says, I think your black brothers have been selling you for a few hundred years

CAR: Carmichael interrupts and says, Wait a minute . . . Let's get to that now because I am tired of you white folks telling me how black people sold us. Now you came to Africa to steal gold. What did you buy us with? You didn't have no gold cause all the gold is in South Africa. You didn't have none.

JOHN: Some of the Soviets

CAR: Interrupting, What did you have? You didn't have . . . Don't tell me about the Soviet Union because the Czar had that up tight. What did you have? Trinkets? We had all the diamonds. You didn't have no diamonds. What did you have? Cotton? Africa's got cotton and we had to pick the cotton to develop the country. What did you buy us with? Green money? Green money aint no good unless it's backed with gold. And we go back to the gold nor for . . .

JOHN: Hold up your hand when you are through here

CAR: What did you buy us with? Tell me? What did you buy us with? What (coins?) did you use? You always say that our people sold us out . . . What did you buy us with?

JOHN: I asked you that with a question mark on the end of it. Has black people ever sold black people?

CAR: No, they have never sold black people. White people say that because they want us to divide among ourselves. No, never.

JOHN: Which you are not going to do?

CAR: We will not divide among ourselves. We are one beautiful race of people. We will unite today and take care of our

JOHN: Interrupts and asks, Do you think people like Roy Wilkins and Whitney Young see eye to eye with you? On the basic problems?

CAR: Whether or not they see eye to eye to me is irrelevant in public. They are flesh of my flesh and blood of my blood. I will sit down with them and I will talk to them and I will try to reason with them.

JOHN: Fine. Now answer the question. Do you think they see eye to eye with you? You said not in public. Have they indicated to you in private that they would like to come out and say to they are for what you . . . or would they dare

CAR: What they say in private I wouldn't tell you.

JOHN: I wouldn't expect you to but I expect you to be honest about it.

CAR: Ah well I see them in private.

JOHN: And they say different things than they say in public.

CAR: I see them in private.

Stokely ah

CAR: Let the brother talk about figures and show them to you . . .

COMM: I will . . . I have a couple of more questions . . . Do you feel that the . . .

CAR: We can get em back. Let the brother () so we can take a break . . . (garbled)

COMM: Do you feel that the black community tomorrow (garbled by Carmichael)

CAR: You are trying to split us again . . .

COMM: I am not trying to split . . .

CAR: I am like James Brown . . .

COMM: (Garbled) Do you think the black community should physically arm itself with guns, shotguns, pistols, et cetera.

CAR: I'll get back to that along thing as soon as the brother do the number because that' a long thing. We just can't answer yes or no.

COMM: Stokely, we have a question that was directed to you. I believe it said to the beautiful Stokely Carmichael where can people find out more about Black Power.

CAR: Black History.

COMM: Right, same thing isn't it?

CARM: Yes, in a sense it is. There are a lot of books that can be . . . One of them is Riches (pho) of the Earth by Franz (pho) Fanon (very pho). Brother Fanon has also written another good book called White Skin, Black Man. The story of a black man in a White Society. Another one to read which is very very good is by J. A. Rogers, which is Africa's gift to America. It is really not the right title because we didn't give anything to America. They just stole it. Another good book, of course too, is written by Brother Lerone (pho) Bennett is Before the Mayflower. Confrontation Black and White W. E. DuBois, The Brilliant Black Author, has written several books, one of the best ones, a little pocket book, The Soul of Black Folks, which is an excellent book. We also

CAR: have the invention of the Negro by Earl Carou (pho), which is very good to explain just how the term Negro came up and what its uses are. There are several new books on the market today that. The Crisica of the Negro Intellectual by Harold Cruise (pho). This is an excellent book to read and there are lots more coming out. What we are trying to do is compile a lot of these books and to open a black book store. As a matter of fact, we will open a black book store in the District which will be on 14th Street and Fairmont. If people want courses they can contact the New School for Afro-American Thoughts which is on 14th Street between Florida and W, which has an awful lot of information on this.

COMM: Stokely Carmichael, have you urged the black community in America to arm themselves?

CAR: Well, see I do that in the context of equality. I believe in equality.

COMM: Then again as an equalizer.

CAR: Well in a sense you see White People got guns, that's a fact. White folks got guns. Now if you believe in equality if a white man got a gun then a black man should have a gun, that being equal. But white folks got a game, if they get the gun they don't want nobody else to have the gun like the Atomic Bomb. White countries have the Atomic Bomb, the Hydrogen. Now they come up with some joke about we ought to have nuclear test treaties (long laughter). And no more testing. And no more developing of bombs, they got the bombs, if you don't have any nuclear testing it means you won't get the bomb. So they tell the rest of the Third World, Africa, Asia and Latin America, you all don't do any more testing cause we don't need no more bombs, they got all the bombs. The white folks are doing the same thing, they got all the guns, and

CAR: now today they talk about we got to stop the sale of guns because they got em. Did you see in the papers white women in Kansas, the police are teaching them how to shoot. Atlanta, Georgia, two months ago, the police department sold guns for a dollar a piece to white people. The necessity that black people get guns. We need em in case you come down. It's better to have your stuff than not to have it. It's always better to be prepared.

UNIDENTIFIED

MAN: To pursue this question of equalization a little bit further, as far as employment quotas are concerned, do you put any stock in those if a community is ten per cent black, that some of the businesses should employ at least ten per cent black people. Do you hold stock in that at all? Population versus percentage of employees.

CAR: I don't understand.

ANOTHER
UNIDENTIFIED

MAN: In other words if we go along with Mr. Ragland's statistics, that 90 per cent of the people in Washington are black, should 90 per cent of the job holders in Washington be black.

CAR: No, No, I'm not talking about job holders, I'm talking about ownership and control.

FIRST
UNIDENTIFIED

MAN: If there are ten per cent black people in the United (ABOVE) States, should ten per cent of the Federal jobs be black?

CAR: Ten per cent of the ownership and control of their country should be black. Jobs don't mean nothing unless you have ownership and control. So let's talk about ownership and control. White people don't want to talk about it. They want to talk about we will give you ten per cent of the jobs.

UNIDENTIFIED

MAN: In a black community do you think things should be commonly owned?

CAR: Yes, no doubt about it. There is going to have to be in our community. This concept of private property and private ownership and profits is a strict white concept. We've never had it.

UNIDENTIFIED

MAN: That sounds a little Marxist there, doesn't it?

CAR: What's Marxist? (laughter) I'm talking about Africa that's Africa, the usual way of life - straight up African and a Marx is a white boy who came along after Africa, so you know.

UNIDENTIFIED

MAN: Where are there communal societies on the world that have worked out?

CAR: Africa, until you came along and disrupted it.

UNIDENTIFIED

MAN: What kind of standard of living do they have in Africa?

CAR: They had a beautiful standard of living. You have a standard of living now that tightens everybody up because you raped the world. You steal the gold, you steal the uranium, you steal the copper, you aint got no gold in this country.

UNIDENTIFIED

MAN: You have a warped sense of history.

CAR: You aint got no gold in this country, yet your whole country is backed by gold (?). Do you back your gold currency 25 per cent on the dollar bill for your gold, hell no, and you know it. Uranium, copper, diamonds, zinc, where do you get all these from, that's not white economics, that's black stuff that you steal. Now what about your rest of metals and materials, where does it come from?

UNIDENTIFIED

MAN: What's your point?

According to an article appearing in "The Evening Star", dated April 3, 1968, approximately 300 students seized the administration building at predominantly Negro Virginia Union University, on April 2, 1968, and vowed to occupy the structure for "a long, long time." The article continued that whites were warned to stay away from the building by the students who enthusiastically welcomed black power advocate, STOKELY CARMICHAEL, as a visitor. CARMICHAEL was reportedly in Richmond to attend a bond hearing for H. Rap Brown. The students reportedly took control of the building after talks between boycotting students and officials broke down.

On the evening of April 3, 1968, CARMICHAEL assisted others in moving the SNCC office from 1234 U Street, N.W., WDC, to 2208 14th Street, N.W., WDC, the former location of the New School for Afro-American Thought which had moved to 2115 14th Street, N.W., WDC.

"Shortly thereafter, I observed Carmichael, followed by approximately fifteen to twenty unidentified persons, proceeding south on the west side of the 2000 block of 14th Street, N. W. I readily recognized Carmichael from newspaper photographs, although I have not previously observed him in person. The group entered the Peoples Drug Store in the 2000 block of 14th Street, and I observed an unidentified person or persons in conversation with the manager of the store. I was not close enough at this time to determine who talked with the manager.

"The group then exited the Peoples Drug Store and proceeded diagonally across 14th Street, N. W., to the 1900 block, where they stopped briefly at a Safeway Store. Inside the Safeway Store at this time were two or three employees and some special security officers. I did not observe the group to enter this store and do not know if any conversation ensued between the employees and members of the group.

b7D "The group, with Carmichael in front, continued south to the Wings Carry Out located at 14th and Wallach Place, N. W. There Carmichael was confronted by an individual I believe to be [redacted] photographs of whom I had previously observed. After a brief conversation, Carmichael appeared to brush [redacted] aside and entered the Wings Carry Out Shop. At this point, the group had grown to approximately eighty to one hundred in number. A small group of individuals followed Carmichael into the Wings Carry Out Shop.

"Shortly thereafter, the group, with Carmichael in the lead, departed the Wings Carry Out Shop. I thereupon overheard Carmichael say to the group: 'We don't want any violence, as long as they close. But if they don't, take it.' The group, with Carmichael still in the lead, then crossed 14th Street to the west side. The group proceeded to the Pig N' Pit Restaurant in the 1900 block of 14th Street, N. W., and a small part of the group entered this restaurant. I was unable to observe if Carmichael personally entered this restaurant. After departing the Pig N' Pit, the group continued north to the Wings and Things Restaurant, also located in the 1900 block of 14th Street. Some of the group entered this restaurant, but again I was unable to observe if Carmichael himself went in.

"Upon exiting the Wings and Things, the group proceeded north on 14th Street to U Street, crossed 14th Street and continued east on the north side of U Street. In the 1300 block of U Street, Carmichael and part of the group entered a delicatessen, the name of which I cannot recall. Upon departing the delicatessen, they proceeded to the vicinity of the Republic Theater, also located in the 1300 block of U Street.

"At the Republic Theater, Carmichael remained outside on the sidewalk, while part of the group filed through the lobby and into the theater itself. The group broke windows at the Republic Theater, and again I overheard Carmichael say: 'We don't want any violence as long as they close. But if they don't close, take it.'

"The group then proceeded east on U Street to the Lincoln Theater, located in the 1200 block of U Street. Some of the group, which now numbered approximately 150 to 200 persons, entered the Lincoln Theater. At this point, my attention was distracted by the presence of an unidentified white male, who was standing on the south side of U Street and carrying a camera and camera case. The group also spotted this individual and about eighty to one hundred members of the group rushed him, shouting 'kill him,' and 'get him.' The unidentified white male was thrown to the ground by the mob, and I yelled to the mob to let him go. At this point, I was identified by several persons in the crowd [redacted]

[redacted] I then heard someone in the mob shout, 'Get the film.' The unidentified white male thereupon opened the back of this 35 milimeter camera, and an unidentified member of the mob snatched the film from it. The white male was then assisted to his feet by an unidentified Negro male, and he and I then pushed our way through the crowd and led the white male to safety. I last saw the unidentified Negro male and white male running north across U Street and west on U Street towards 14th Street. I did not observe Carmichael as being part of the group that attacked the unidentified white male.

"At this point, I noticed that the group, now split in two sections with Carmichael leading the front section, proceeding west on U Street towards 14th Street. They went north on the west side of 14th Street and unidentified persons within the group began throwing objects, such as coke bottles and rocks, at passing automobiles bearing white persons. As these incidents occurred, I observed Carmichael to be leading the group, although I did not observe him to personally throw any objects. The group continued north on the west side of 14th Street, and some windows were broken in a drug store located at 14th and Clifton Streets and other premises, the names of which I cannot recall. I also observed unidentified persons looting the drug store window at 14th and Clifton Streets.

"Subsequently, the main part of the crowd stopped at the corner of 14th and Chapin Streets, and led by Carmichael, reversed direction and proceeded south on 14th Street. At this point, I heard two gunshots. I was, at this time, one block north of the crowd around the corner at 14th and Clifton, where I had attempted to telephone [redacted] I did not see who fired the shots, and did not at any time observe Carmichael in possession of a gun. While following the group subsequent to the incident in the 1200 block of U Street, I received several threats against my person from unidentified members of the group.

"After hearing the shots, I crossed to the east side of 14th Street and walked south of the group. Carmichael and the group stopped in front of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) Headquarters, 2208 14th Street, N. W., and I crossed back over 14th Street at U Street. I then walked back [redacted] on the evening of April 4, 1968, in the vicinity of 14th and U Streets, N. W., WDC.

[redacted] I was in the headquarters of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) located on the corner of 14th and U Streets, N. W., WDC. Shortly after 8 p.m., approximately fifteen to twenty persons were present in the headquarters of SCLC inasmuch as Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., had been shot in Memphis, Tennessee. At this time I observed Stokely Carmichael sitting quietly in a chair also awaiting the outcome of Dr. King's condition. I can positively identify this individual as Stokely Carmichael because in the past I have had occasion to see and listen to him when he was making speeches throughout the WDC area. In addition to Carmichael, also present at SCLC headquarters were an elderly white couple and a young white male and female and other Negro males and females, both adults and juveniles, whom I cannot identify by name.

b7C
b7D

"Prior to the announcement on the radio that Dr. King was dead, Carmichael appeared to become impatient, got up from his seat, and said something to the effect, 'I'm not going to wait for a final verdict. I'm going to get my guys.' After Carmichael's departure, the elderly white couple in SCLC headquarters appeared to be frightened and made attempts to leave when a Negro male, whom I could not identify, advised them not to leave inasmuch as they were more welcome at SCLC than was Stokely Carmichael. The couple remained.

"Sometime after Carmichael's departure, I departed SCLC and entered the People's Drug Store located next door on 14th Street. In the People's Drug Store there were approximately twenty people listening to a radio news broadcast about Dr. King.

"Almost immediately after the announcement that Dr. King had died, Carmichael, accompanied by ten to fifteen young Negro males, entered the People's Drug Store. Carmichael, within earshot of an employee near the front of the store, asked 'Where's the manager? We're going to close this store because when Kennedy was shot the businesses were closed and they are going to be closed now that King's dead.' Carmichael and the individuals following him then proceeded to the back of the store and after a few seconds returned and walked outside. Carmichael left People's Drug Store and I followed him and the young Negro males to the southeast corner of 14th and U Streets. They proceeded south and some of the group entered various business establishments, requesting them to close, and continued to Wallach Place, N. W. At this time, they crossed to the west side of 14th Street and proceeded north, again entering business establishments for the same purpose. At the intersection of 14th and U Streets, Carmichael and his followers crossed over to the northeast corner and proceeded in an easterly direction on the north side of U Street. Carmichael then entered a theater in the 1300 block of U Street, N. W. Upon re-appearing, his group was interspersed by a number of people who were coming out of the theater at this time. Due to this, it was impossible to estimate the size of the crowd. While the crowd was gathered in the vicinity of the theater, a plate glass door was broken; but I did not observe who had broken it or how it had been broken. Carmichael stopped and said, 'We don't want any damaging. We just want the stores to close.' He then continued east towards 13th Street and I remained in the vicinity of the theater. Shortly thereafter, Carmichael returned and then proceeded in a westerly direction on the north side of U Street, and when he and his group arrived at the intersection of 14th and U Streets, they proceeded to the side where People's Drug Store is located (west side of 14th Street) and walked north.

"At this time I observed no other destruction of property or any looting in the general area of 14th and U Streets.

"I then left Carmichael and the group with him and made a phone call to [REDACTED] When I returned, the group and Carmichael were at the intersection of 14th and W Streets, N. W. As they went north on 14th Street, the crowd appeared to be approximately 200 in number and as they passed business establishments, I was at the rear of the crowd and noticed windows broken at a television and radio store along the route. Carmichael at this time was at the front of the crowd. They then proceeded to the 2400 block of 14th Street, which is located between Belmont and Chapin Streets, N. W. At the corner of 14th and Chapin, Carmichael stopped and the crowd stopped behind him. As he faced the gathering, a Negro male described as five feet ten inches, 180 to 195 pounds, approximately thirty years of age, heavy set, and wearing his hair in natural bush style, approached Carmichael and said something to the effect that he was wrong in what he was doing. Carmichael turned to this individual and asked him, 'Do you have your gun?' The individual replied, 'No,' and Carmichael then said, 'Well I have mine.' At this time Carmichael removed a small caliber handgun which appeared to be a .32 from inside his waistband and held this weapon above his head. After this, Carmichael turned and began walking south on 14th Street, on the west side, and the group, which had been with him, began going in different directions. It appeared he had no control of them. At this time I heard two shots fired, and I then observed windows being broken in a Safeway store located on the east side of 14th Street in the 2400 block. I also observed that windows of Eddie Leonard's Sandwich Shop and the Belmont Radio and Television Shop, both located on the west side of 14th Street within the 2400 block, were broken. During this period I noticed that two white males in a blue Volkswagen, who were parked in an alleyway behind Eddie Leonard's, were attacked by stones and other flying objects which hit the car as they attempted to leave the area. I further saw a Negro couple sitting in a car on the east side of 14th Street, when someone hit the windshield with a rake, smashing it and causing the Negro female to fall on the seat for protection.

"On April 5, 1968, I was on the campus of Howard University, WDC, at approximately 1:30 p.m. A group of students numbering between 500 - 700 were gathered near the steps of Douglas Hall, where they were being addressed by a small group of young people concerning the death of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

"Stokely Carmichael appeared through the crowd and walked to the steps of Douglas Hall. He then addressed the crowd by saying, 'They should not have killed Dr. King. They have killed the wrong man, they should have killed me.' He further stated, 'Do not be out on the streets for looting tonight. We mean business. If you don't come out tonight with your gun, stay home.' While making these remarks, Carmichael waved a small caliber gun. His appearance before the group was very short in duration and at the conclusion of the above remarks, he was observed leaving the campus.

"Prior to Carmichael's appearance the mood of the crowd appeared very hostile, and when he (Carmichael) left, I heard voices in the crowd saying in effect, 'Do you have your gun?' 'I have mine or I wish I had mine.'

"During the time Carmichael made his statement I could not identify any person within the crowd; however, on the steps of Douglas Hall from which he spoke, I recognized (First Name Unknown) [redacted] both Negro males.

b7C
b7D

"I then left the area [redacted] [redacted] prior to departing I observed no fires in the immediate area where Carmichael had traveled.

A press conference was called for 10:00 a.m., April 5, 1968, by the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) to be held at SNCC Headquarters, 2208 14th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

The following is a transcript of a tape recording of remarks made at the press conference prepared by Ralph Webb, Radio Engineer, NBC, at the above time and location.

Commentator: I want you people to listen clearly. This press conference will be only five minutes. And...as soon as the press conference is over, you gentlemen will not leave anything here that you didn't bring in here. Your films, your cigarette butts, you take them to clean it up. Ah...we will have a few questions...of two minutes questions. To my right, extreme right, is Mr. Cleveland Sellers, Director of the Orangeburg, South Carolina, project of SNCC. To my right here, immediate right, is Stokely Carmichael, who is on staff here in WDC. And to my left is Mr. William Hall, who is also a member of the staff in Washington. And Lester McKinnie, Director of the Washington SNCC office. Mr. Carmichael will speak to you for five minutes.

Carmichael: As you may or may not know, this press conference was called before Dr. King was murdered. We called it then to deal with our Brother Rap Brown because we were very upset that Brother Brown had been in jail for 41 days and Governor Agnew of Maryland still seems to persist with his nonsensical charge and so the Brother can't get out of jail. Now we want the Brother out of jail...ah...next week when he comes to trial. Now, as to Dr. King's Murder, I think white America made its biggest mistake when she killed Dr. King last night, she killed all reasonable hope. When she killed Dr. King last night, she killed the one man of our race in this country, in the older generation, which the militants and also the revolutionaries and the masses of black people, would still listen to, even though sometimes he did not disagree...ah...(interrupts and says)...agree with them they would still listen to him. When...When white America killed Dr. King last night, she opened the eyes for every black man in this country. When white America got rid of Marcus Garvey (phonetic), she did it and she said he was an extremist, he was crazy. When they got rid of Brother Malcolm X, they said he was preaching hate, he deserved what he got. But when they got rid of Brother Martin Luther King, they had absolutely no reason to do so. He was the one man in our race who was trying to teach our people to have love, compassion, and mercy for what white people have done. When white America killed Dr. King last night, she declared war on us. There will be no crying, there will be no funerals. The rebellions that have been occurring around the cities of this country is just light stuff to what is about to happen. We have to retaliate for the death of our leaders. The execution of those deaths will not be in the court-rooms...they are going to be on the streets of the United States of America. When white America killed Dr. King last night, she made a whole lot easier for a whole lot of black people today. They no longer needs to be intellectual discussions...black people know that they have to get guns. White America will live to cry that she killed Dr. King last night. It would have been better if she had killed Rap Brown and/or Stokely Carmichael. But when she killed Dr. King, she lost. That's it.

Unidentified: Before any questions, I would like to give one statement from the organization. We the students of the Nonviolent Coordinate Committee wish to extend out condolences to the family of the late Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., who was brutally murdered today in Memphis, Tennessee. In his death there is a lesson which white America has taught us many times before. This lesson was clear in the murder of our four brothers in Orangeburg. This lesson was clear in the murder of a 16-year-old, Larry Payne (phonetic) in Memphis. This lesson is clear in the day-to-day torture of black people by white people in America and throughout the world. It was to end this torture that Dr. King bravely faced death many times, nonviolently. Dr. King was a brother who dedicated his life to liberate his peoples through nonviolence. Dr. King was a symbol of nonviolence and white America shot him down.

Carmichael: There is one last comment about these new things-- about last night. We will tell you where we were last night. Last night, we led all of those youngsters up and down the streets to close every store in this area because Dr. King was shot and they should have closed those stores. Now, some of them kicked glass store windows in. We are not stopping them from kicking in the store windows. We are stopping them from coming out on the streets without guns. When they come out on the streets, we want them with guns. If they don't have guns, we're not gonna let 'em throw bricks and bottles at guns. But when they get guns, we'll be on the streets.

Unidentified: Question (me) if you have any questions.

Unidentified reporter: Mr. Carmichael, don't you believe the vast majority of Americans feel just as badly as you do about what happened in Memphis?

Carmichael: The white press and that's from a "honkey" Lyndon Johnson to "honkey" Bobby Kennedy will not co-opt (phonetic) Dr. Martin Luther King. Dr. Martin Luther King fought for his people. It was not but four weeks ago when Johnson told King that if he came marching into the District, he would meet a force because he should bring his troubles to him. And now tonight he is trying to make as if Dr. King was his hero. He fools no one. Bobby Kennedy pulled that trigger just as well as anybody else. Because when Dr. King was down in the South and Bobby Kennedy was Attorney General, every time a black person got killed, Kennedy would not move because he wanted votes so he is just as guilty...all of white America killed Dr. King. And those who feel sorry ought to feel sorry.

Unidentified reporter: Mr. Carmichael, what do you intend to do...what actions do you intend to take relative to Rap Brown and your intent to get him out of jail?

Carmichael: We decided at our central committee meeting that if Maryland persists with this (nonsensical) charge, even though the reports said that Rap did not incite any riot in Cambridge. Well then Governor Agnew, he ain't seen nothing if he thinks he saw something on that Bowie State thing. We will take our troops back into Maryland and all of us are veterans from Cambridge, Maryland, and from Baltimore, Maryland, and we will turn that State inside out and upside down. And we've got Louisiana to get. We've got some brothers working in Florida. We've got some brothers working in Ohio and we are gonna get Richmond, Virginia.

Unidentified reporter: Mr. Carmichael, what do you think will happen to the poor people's campaign now?

Carmichael: I understand that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference will carry it on and as we said before we will be glad to give them any support. Whatever Southern Christian Leadership Conference asks for today, we will give to them. Except our tears. We will give no more tears for any black man killed in this country.

Unidentified reporter: Mr. Carmichael, do you see anybody replacing Dr. King as a nonviolent leader?

Carmichael: No, that's why America lost when she shot him down last night.

Unidentified reporter (woman): Mr. Carmichael, is there any truth to the rumor that you are going to call a general strike here in town?

Carmichael: We are waiting for what the Southern Christian Leadership Conference wants us to do.

Unidentified reporter: When you say the execution of those deaths will be, not in the courtroom, but in the streets, can you be a little more specific about the course of action you expect?

Carmichael: I think that is quite explicit.

Unidentified reporter: Do you expect an organized rebellion?

Carmichael: I think it is quite explicit.

Unidentified reporter: Mr. Carmichael, suppose a lot of black people have to die...(garbled). (What would it do to please you--This is thought what the reporter said.)

Carmichael: That they take as many white people with them as they can.

Unidentified reporter: Yes, but what about the black people who have to die?

Carmichael: Ah...we die every day. We die in Vietnam for the "honkeys", why don't we come home and die in the streets for our people. We die everyday. We die cutting and fighting each other inside our own communities. Why cut and fight each other and kill each other off? Let's kill off the real enemy. Black people are not afraid to die. We die all the time. We die in your jails, we die in your ghettos, we die in your rat infested homes. We die a thousand deaths every day. So we are not afraid to die. Today we are going to die for our people.

Unidentified commentator: I would like to say this before we have any more questions, that on Monday our Chairman, H. Rap Brown, will be in Richmond, Virginia, according to "honkey", Federal Government, and there will be a car caravan from all directions leading to Richmond, Virginia, on Monday morning. We are urging all our black brothers and sisters to come to Richmond.

Unidentified reporter: Mr. Carmichael, what is the alternative to the kind of retribution in the streets that you are talking about? Is there any way to stop it?

Carmichael: I don't think so. I do not think so. I think white America is incapable of dealing with the problem.

Unidentified reporter: How will Dr. King's death affect your leadership as you see it, Mr. Carmichael?

Carmichael: Well Dr. King's death will not affect my leadership or affect me as a black man. Because he was my brother, flesh of my flesh and blood of my blood. You see, the mistake they made when they shot Dr. King was even though Dr. King talked about nonviolence he was always in the streets. Ready to lead a demonstration. All of the other so-called leaders who are...talk about nonviolence and are not on the streets with their people. Many people respected Dr. King even though they didn't agree with his philosophy 'cause at lease he was in the streets. So now there is really no one else to respect who talks about nonviolence because the people who talk about nonviolence are not in the streets.

Unidentified reporter: Mr. Carmichael, are you declaring war on White America?

Carmichael: White America has declared war on black people. She did so when she sold the first black man from Africa. The black man has been sufficient, has been patient, has been resisting and today the final showdown is coming. That is clear. That is crystal clear. And that black people are going to have to find ways to survive. The only way to survive is to get some guns. Cause that is the only way white America keeps us in check is because she's got the guns.

Unidentified reporter: Stokely, what do you see this ultimately leading to? A blood bath in which nobody wins?

Carmichael: First, my name is Mr. Carmichael, and secondly, black people will survive America.

Unidentified commentator: Last question.

Unidentified reporter: What accomplishment or objectives do you visualize from the retaliation that you speak? What do you think you will accomplish?

Carmichael: If black man can't do nothing in this country then we gonna stand up on our feet and die like men. If that is our only act of manhood then God dammit we gonna die. We're tired of living on our stomachs.

Unidentified reporter: Do you fear for your life?

Carmichael: Hell with my life. You should fear for yours. I know I am gonna die. I know I am gonna die. (Applause)

Unidentified commentator: There is still a possibility that there will be a general strike throughout the United States. So that our black brothers and sisters can take off that day from their slavery and working for the masters and to think about and to re-analyze what the "honkeys" are doing to the black people in this country and me. And perhaps then something can be done. That is the end of the press conference.

According to information, Carmichael was interviewed from Havana, Cuba, on the evening of April 5, 1968. The interview was over Havana radio via overseas telephone. The text of this interview is set forth hereinafter:

Question: Stokely?

Answer: Yes.

Question: Oh, this is Mike Laguardia from Radio Havana Cuba.

Answer: Hello.

Question: Hello, sir.

Answer (in Spanish): How are you?

Question (in Spanish): Very well, and you?

Answer: Uh, uh, uh...

Question: Say, Stokely?

Answer (in Spanish): Yes.

Question: We would like to have a statement from you on Martin Luther King's assassination.

Answer: Right.

Question: And what has been the reaction of the Afro-Americans in the face of this crime?

Answer: Right. A white American has Rap Brown in jail right now. And America killed Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. last night. When they killed Dr. King, they made a mistake, because Dr. King was the one man who was trying to ask, uh, black people not to burn down the cities. Now that they have killed Dr. King, there is no black man who will ask black people not to burn down the cities. What it means is that we've gone full swing into the revolution.

Last night, 35 cities had major incidents. That was last night-- 35 cities of the United States where there was burning, and shooting, and killing over the death of Dr. King. It is clear, uh, more of this will continue. It is going to become more and more a guerrilla--urban guerrilla warfare, because it is clear that we cannot win with the uh, with the police in open rebellion. So more people are now beginning to plan seriously a major urban guerrilla warfare, where we can begin to retaliate not only for the death of Dr. King, but where we can move seriously to (words indistinct) serious revolutions with this country to bring it to its knees. It is crystal clear to us that the United States of America must fall in order for humanity to live; and we are going to give our lives to that cause. To our brothers and sisters in Cuba, we want to say: "Hello--my respects to you all."

Question: Thanks very much Stokely. We'll be coming back to you again in case something more shows up.

Answer: Very good.

WFO 100-43503

Question: Au revoir.

Answer: Au revoir. Tell Prime Minister Fidel I said hello.

Question: All right (words indistinct).

Answer: (words indistinct)

Question: 'Bye Stokely.

The conference began and CARMICHAEL sat in with the others. Throughout the conference he made no statements. STONE introduced him as the Acting Chairman of the Black United Front.

After the reading of the statement by [REDACTED] before the news cameras, CARMICHAEL excused himself and left. [REDACTED] left with him. At that time it was 3:24 p.m.

A meeting of the Black United Front (BUF) Steering Committee, was held on the evening of April 16, 1968, WDC. STOKELY CARMICHAEL, temporary Chairman of the BUF, served as Chairman of the meeting. During the course of the meeting CARMICHAEL read two letters requesting the BUF to lend support to a Malcolm X holiday in May, 1968, and to support the International Day of Protest and Student Strike. However, no decision was reached on the Malcolm X holiday. In both instances because the BUF was not aware of who was backing these movements, it was reluctant to lend its support to these causes.

In discussing the economic development of the black community and the rebuilding of the riot torn areas of the city, it was generally agreed that Negroes living in the affected areas would have to be responsible for such action. However, CARMICHAEL argued that the black community must be completely organized before the economic proposals and programs could be effective. CARMICHAEL's attitude in this regard precipitated a heated discussion and at one point he was emphatically informed that he could organize the community but that economic development would be the program of other concerned individuals and would not wait for the community to be organized.

In discussing the organization of the community, CARMICHAEL stated that he wants all people living in the community to be involved in the planning of all programs and policies affecting the community. It was pointed out to CARMICHAEL that such a feat is impossible to accomplish and CARMICHAEL admitted it will take five or ten years to organize the black community in blighted areas.

Regarding recent riots in WDC, it was proposed as a topic for discussion but the committee decided there was nothing to be discussed and the matter was passed over. CARMICHAEL did say the "Black brothers" knew exactly what they were doing during the riots and "were beautiful." He remarked that the pawn shops and furniture stores were the first places attacked. It was pointed out to him that this was not the situation and that the first store looted was a television repair shop and that liquor stores appeared to be high on the priority of stores looted. CARMICHAEL made no response to this contradiction to his statement.

In speaking of rebuilding the riot torn section of the city, mention was made that the white man will be reluctant to furnish financial assistance to rebuilding under black leadership. Also mentioned was the fact that Negro businessmen are motivated by profit just as are other businessmen in the community.

This prompted CARMICHAEL to state "Black police will go up against your head just as white police will." He said the only solution was to change the system but did not amplify this statement and was not questioned by any member of the Steering Committee as to just what he meant by the statement.

On several occasions when CARMICHAEL was rebuked over a statement or proposal he made, he would drop the subject and proceed to another topic. This left the impression CARMICHAEL is a "lot of rhetoric" and "a paper tiger" whose influence in the community had been blown up and out of proportion to the actual influence he wields. The Steering Committee of the BUF was characterized as a "debating society."

Bobby Hutton was a member of the Black Panther Party (BPP) who was killed at Oakland, California, April 6, 1968, while engaged in a gun battle with officers of the Oakland Police Department.

A characterization of the BPP is attached herewith in the appendix.

On May 7, 1968, [REDACTED] left a meeting which he had been attending at the Pan American Health Organization (PAHO) Headquarters building, WDC. This meeting, which commenced May 6, 1968, was sponsored by the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations. Upon leaving the meeting, [REDACTED] went to a telephone in the lobby of the building and was overheard to call STOKELY CARMICHAEL. During conversation between CARMICHAEL and [REDACTED] they agreed to meet that night (May 7, 1968) at 8:30 p.m. According to information just prior to the conclusion of the conversation, [REDACTED] told CARMICHAEL to "continue to follow plan A five." Following the telephone call, [REDACTED] reportedly returned to the meeting which had continued to progress. No additional information was developed concerning the proposed meeting of [REDACTED] and CARMICHAEL that night.

After a lengthy debate, one member finally said "What we are arguing about is who is going to be the big boss." All those present agreed that this was the basis of the argument. Subsequently, one of the members present asked for support at Resurrection City, the Poor People's Campaign encampment in WDC, including money for supplies. CARMICHAEL objected to these pointing out the BUF had voted to support the Poor People's Campaign but not participate in it. He said that support and other forms of aid by members of BUF would have to be a personal thing. He pointed out that the Reverend RALPH D. ABERNATHY, SCLC head, organizer of the Poor People's Campaign, had not come into the black community to ask for support and that if the campaign was a success, ABERNATHY would become a big political figure. If the Poor People's Campaign failed, failure would be laid to the black community and the reason for the failure would be sighted as lack of support of the black community. CARMICHAEL later agreed that an individual of BUF should be allowed to help the Poor People's Campaign in any manner he believed appropriate as long as the individual did not use BUF's name.

A television program entitled "N.E.T. The program was rebroadcast on the afternoon of June 2, 1968, and comments by STOKELY CARMICHAEL which were reportedly excerpts from his past speeches are being set forth as follows:

"I was told all the time that I was an exceptional Negro. I was an intelligent boy. I had scholarships to go to all the Ivy League schools and that I could get into that society if I played by their rules, but that really bothered me because I found myself becoming less free. You see, I think that the freest people in this society are the people from Mississippi because they have not been caught up in the structure of watching your 'Ps' and 'Qs,' so I was very worried about that, so I wanted to go South just to see how free they really were and what the threat was to the whole power structure. I got caught up in the Freedom Rides and decided that Mississippi was where I'd like to stay and work. I learnt (sic) from the people in Mississippi. I learnt from the people in Mississippi what I never learnt from the most brilliant professors I've sat under. They taught me how not to be ashamed. They taught me how to say what you want to say whenever you want to say it.

"We've been so riddled and inculcated with that American dream (and) nonsense which we were never a part of and could never hope to be a part of. I think that's what the problem with America's now facing with the youth both black and while that we're all beginning to question why is it that she's the richest country in the world. Is it that she exploits other countries, is it that she steals, murders, and plunders, or is it that she's so smart that she can develop her resources to yield the amount of productivity that it does, and I think that most of you are beginning to see that the United States has been exploiting other countries and that we have been enjoying that good life at the expense of other countries and that when you match that with the American dream which talks about honesty and equality and a fair share for everybody to recognize that you talk that nonsense at the expense of somebody in Vietnam or South Africa, or Latin America, Asia, Japan, just makes you sick to the stomach. You want to puke. it's time that you use your mouth to say no and begin to use your knowledge for the good of black people who surround your campus.

"For once they get someone who's speaking directly to them who's beginning to challenge what has been defined as success for them on their college campuses. Deep down they've always felt this, but they haven't been really sure how to express it because they were afraid they might be called racists or black nationalists. They finally begin to see that they have that release so that I think you get the catharsis there but then an awakening and a beginning to re-think what success is all about.

"In this country you were to think that white people were God; that they had the right to give us our freedom and so what we had to do was to beg them or to act the way they want us to act before they gave us our freedom. We must stop seeking to imitate white society. We must create for ourselves to save our very humanity because the fight for black power in this country is indeed a fight to civilize a barbaric country - the United States. We have to be able to gather the strength, you must be able to get the (goods?) as the intellectuals of the black society to say: 'We are black, our noses are broad, our lips are thick, our hair is nappy, and we are beautiful - and we are beautiful - and we are beautiful - yes - yes - beautiful (speaker drowned out by applause and the taking up of the chant, "We are beautiful.").'

"I think that black students have never heard anyone tell them that they are black and beautiful. White people like Negroes, but they have a role for them. They like them like maybe they like their pet dogs, but they like them to that extent. Now they have that role. Now when they break out of that role there's a threat, I guess the sociologists would call that a threat to status, or what have you, but there is that and then they have to react to that, but that isn't just in the South, I mean it's in the whole country. It's in the whole country. It's in the whole country.

"You ought to tell 'em clear, 'If you don't want any trouble, keep your filthy white hands off our beautiful black girls - keep 'em off - keep 'em off - keep 'em off (drowned out in crowd response) ..."

"You want to talk about this thing called violence that everybody is so afraid about. Here you are talkin' about you afraid of violence and the Honky draftin' you out o' school to go fight in Vietnam... (drowned out by crowd). Or, you gonna sit in front of your television set and listen to LBJ tell you that violence never accomplishes anything, my fellow Americans. This is the most violent society there is.

"I think that the society is headed toward suicide, and I really don't think that America could share in the guilt. I don't think we could ever see ourselves a country, and that people have to see themselves as individuals. And that is particularly true, I think, for white America, that she must see herself as individuals. That's the death trap for most liberals. You know, the first thing they say to you is that 'Well, I'm not like the rest of them.' Like their first phrase to you, because they recognize for them to share in the collective guilt they would just have to drink themselves to death. And I think that the people who even just touch on the collective guilt of white America must drink themselves to death, just have to, cause you just woke up one morning and without any reason at all you were burning bodies, and you didn't have anything to do with it, not any reason at all - burning babies, even to stop communism, burning babies, man you go crazy, you gonna blow your mind. (Speaker drowned out by miscellaneous background comments, mostly unintelligible.)

"We are not only opposed to the war in Vietnam, we are opposed to compulsory conscription, we are against the draft. Now, we are against the draft for anybody, black or white. When you are called to serve you have a choice, either you say no and face the possibility of going to jail or you become a hired killer, you inflict suffering on somebody.

"It is more honorable to suffer. We must save our humanity, we cannot allow ourselves to be used as the black mercenaries in that war. You should join the greatest, Mohammed Ali, and tell them, 'Hell, no! I ain't going! Hell, no! We ain't going.'" (Drowned out by background applause.) (It appears the speaker is furthering the applause with repeated statement, "We ain't going," while audience repeatedly says, "Hell, no.")

On May 28, 1968, SAS of the FBI verified the departure of CARMICHAEL from Dulles International Airport, WDC, to San Francisco, California, via Trans-World Airlines, flight # 63, departing at 6:00 p.m. He returned to WDC on June 4, 1968.

In February, 1968, when he was working for the [redacted] CARMICHAEL and one of CARMICHAEL'S associates met with [redacted] in his office in [redacted] of the District of Columbia. The meeting lasted for about 2½ hours. They discussed various aspects of the racial problem and CARMICHAEL was of the opinion that nothing of a concrete nature could be accomplished through the social programs then being employed to alleviate the ghettos. During the discussion CARMICHAEL used the term "revolution" in reference to the racial situation. Once used, however, CARMICHAEL stated his definition of the term was that it was a total destruction in order to bring about a rebirth of the system. Speaking of the racial question, CARMICHAEL stated revolution has to be the answer and that he was organizing, not mobilizing. He added that this was the only salvation for the black man. [redacted] said he was concerned about the country playing into CARMICHAEL'S hands through backlash controls and suppression. CARMICHAEL stated that the white people were helping by such demonstrations by students, by hippies, and by anti-Viet Nam war demonstrations. CARMICHAEL asked [redacted] if he would be willing to help him and told [redacted] that he could use him in his efforts. CARMICHAEL added that he was winning his own war.

[redacted] continued that CARMICHAEL does not want a viable program but wants to see polarization of the races and overreaction on the part of the whites. In the nation's capitol, CARMICHAEL has cast a different posture in that he has given the

One of the members present made a motion that a task force be appointed immediately to begin organizing the entire black community. This motion was seconded, but CARMICHAEL said the BUF would have to be very careful because people would start asking questions concerning the purpose of organizing. CARMICHAEL said his idea was to cover everything from the conservative to the revolutionary. He pointed out that in the process of soliciting memberships in the black community the people should be told they are only joining the BUF not committing themselves to any particular ideology. The motion was passed and worded to express the ideas set forth by CARMICHAEL.

At the meeting on June 5, 1968, it was announced that the BUF had began to use offices at 900 Florida Avenue, N.W., WDC.

He advised that the letters and telephone calls were non-specific in nature but some of them alleged the house would be burned or blown up either before or after CARMICHAEL took occupancy. A meeting of the BUF Board of Conveners was held on June 25, 1968, in WDC. and an agreement was reached to issue a press release on June 27, 1968. The press release stated as hereinafter set forth:

"A BLACK MANIFESTO

on

"THE JUNE 24TH TRICK BAG"

from

THE BLACK UNITED FRONT of Washington, D. C.

"On June 24th, the black people of Washington, D. C. were put in a trick bag.

"The trick bag was set up to destroy black unity and begin steps to make the D. C. black community a concentration camp.

"Because we are the black community, the Black United Front accepts its obligation to the black community to straighten our minds and get ourselves together. We ask black people to address themselves to the following 4 facts:

"1) It is a fact that when SCLC used its organizational tool of non-violence, that technique brought down massive and brutal violence by honkie cops against the entire black community. We have no quarrel with SCLC's use of non-violence as its technique to "do its thing".

"The Black United Front has never taken any position for violence or against non-violence.

"What we do reject is SCLC's refusal to accept its responsibility and the consequences for its actions as they affect the total black community. Honkie cops didn't go down against SCLC. They went down against the entire black community of Washington, D. C.

"D. C. black mothers and black children were tear-gassed for only one reason -- they were black.

"A curfew was slapped on the D. C. black community. We say the black community because only black people were arrested. Whites were permitted to pass unmolested by white cops.

"2) It is a fact that SCLC failed to honor the commitment made by our late and beloved brother, Rev. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., to involve the D. C. black community in its planning and to keep D. C. black people abreast of its plans --- step by step.

"This was not done. The black community of D. C. was totally ignored. Instead, whites took over many of the key operations of SCLC's program.

"3) It is a fact that the Black United Front, out of its deep respect for Rev. KING, initiated the meeting with SCLC, not necessarily to participate but to establish communication between the D. C. black community and SCLC.

"SCLC then chose to totally disregard the D. C. black community.

"4) It is a fact that the so-called "Solidarity Day" was a white-conceived exercise to divide the black community. District all-black organizations were not invited to participate in the "Solidarity Day" program.

"The Black United Front does not suggest that District black people would have participated in larger numbers. But they were not even asked.

"We ask: How can any "Solidarity Day" be a reality when any segment of BLACK PEOPLE is deliberately excluded?

"The Black United Front reaffirms its first loyalty to the black community.

"Black people must not be crushed by honkie racism, whether it comes in the form of honkie police brutality or misguided whites attempting to program the progress of black people by subverting our organizations.

"The Black United Front realizes that SCLC's action allowed the honkie cops to take the offensive against the entire black community.

"Because of the actions of less than 200 people connected with SCLC's program, the entire black community was placed "up tight". D. C.'s 500,000 black people themselves did nothing to bring on the curfew. In April, following our beloved brother's assassination, the total black community ran it down against white racism. We accepted our responsibility and the consequences for our actions because what was done was done in the name of blackness.

"The Black United Front hereby serves notice on ALL organizations throughout the country that no organization - black, white or inter-racial - is going to come into this city, program a protest and then expect D. C. black people to sit back and get put in a white racist trick bag.

"Unless such organizations are prepared to join with D. C. black people in helping to build a strong and viable black community, then we sternly warn against further protests which do not involve the Black United Front.

"Toward this end, the Black United Front invites its black brothers and sisters in SCLC to join with us in achieving the kind of black community that will stand as a lasting shrine to the power of blackness and the integrity of black unity.

"Our hands are extended. Our hearts are open to our black brothers and sisters in SCLC to meet with the Black United Front within the next week at a time and place of their own choosing.

"We await their decision in the name of black unity and black progress.

advised on June 28, 1968, regarding June 24, 1968, a date mentioned in the above "manifesto", that it was on that date the police converged on "Resurrection City", the Poor Peoples Campaign encampment in WDC and made a number of arrests of inhabitants there. On the same date, Reverend RALPH D. ABERNATHY, Head of the SCLC, Poor Peoples Campaign, along with a number of his followers were arrested in WDC charged with disorderly conduct. Subsequently, on that date a crowd began gathering in the vicinity of 14th and U Streets, N.W., WDC. Later, sporadic looting in the area commenced. In order to quell the activities then underway a considerable number of policemen were sent into the area. In some instances gas was used to contain lawless activity. As a result of this activity the BUF protested the police action and issued the above mentioned "Black Manifesto".

An article appearing in the July-August, 1967, issue of the magazine "Tri Continental" published by the Organization of People of Asia, Africa, and Latin America, contained an article appearing on Pages 15-22 entitled "The Third World-Our World", by STOKELY CARMICHAEL. The "Tri-Continental" is a bi-monthly magazine published in Havana, Cuba, and mailed from Prague, Czechoslovakia.

The foregoing is a copy of the article:

THE THIRD WORLD-OUR WORLD

By Stokely Carmichael

Black Power developed as a slogan because the African-Americans inside the United States recognized that prior to 1965, the people who were leading the struggle were not calling for power, but they were calling for other irrelevant things; they were calling for love, they were calling for non-violence, they were calling for peace, and that a clear political recognition is that if one is to implement change, one does not need love, one does not need non-violence, one does not need morality, one needs power.

So a clear understanding was that power was what the black masses of the United States need if they intend to liberate themselves, thus we call for black power.

What has happened is that living inside the United States for four hundred years, African-Americans recognized the racism of the United States and how deep it is. Unlike many peoples of the Third World who live outside of the United States, and never get a chance to really taste this racism, we have been inside the United States for four hundred years and we've recognized the depths of racism so that we have a two-front fight to wage; racism and exploitation, which happen to be by-products of a capitalistic system.

Many people who live on the outside are not so much concerned with racism as they are with exploitation, but the lines are sharply drawn for us inside the United States for many reasons. We have an entire white society, which has for four hundred years enjoyed a luxury out of our sweat; we have been slaves and none of them protested it.

When the Civil War occurred in the 1860's, the war was not for freeing the slaves; the war was whether or not the North would control the country, or the South would control the country. The question of slavery was irrelevant. As a matter of fact the war was started in 1861 but Lincoln did not sign the Emancipation Proclamation until 1863—he himself said several times that if he could save the Union without freeing the slaves, that is what he would do, because his job was to be concerned with the United States, not with Black people.

We do not think that the people in the Third World understand the racism that we have to fight. The off-times question is why we do not join hands with white workers in the United States. Not only is it because of the subconscious racism of white workers and the white working class in particular, who think that because they are white they are better than us, but also because the white working class is part and parcel of the American capitalistic society, and it is part and parcel because when the white working class of the United States organized, its fight was not for the control of the resources of the United States, not for the redistribution of wealth in the United States; their fight was merely for more money. All they were concerned about was more money.

The United States capitalists, who were then ruling the country, in order to get more money, in order to avoid the inevitable class conflicts Marx talks about, began to exploit other countries in the Third World. Their profits increased, they threw some of their profits to the white working class, who accepted it, so that the white working class was now enjoying the money off the sweat of the Third World, so that they became part and parcel of the system; they have to fight to maintain it, because if they do not fight to maintain it, they will have to fight for a new system.

Though we feel that a new system would be more beneficial to white working class America, we are unable to convince them of it because they are afraid to give up their economic security they now have and fight for a new type of system which would be more beneficial to them. So they throw in their lot with the white power structure inside the United States. Until they begin to develop a revolutionary consciousness, where they will begin to fight to change this system, they will not work with us—we cannot wait for them, we must struggle alone.

We automatically hook up with the peoples of the Third World, because we see ourselves, and we are in fact colonies inside the United States; the peoples of the Third World are colonies outside the United States. The same power structure that exploits and oppresses you, is the very same power structure that exploits and oppresses us. It rapes us of the resources inside the colonies where we live, it rapes you of your resources outside in the colonies where you live. So even if our goals were different, even if our aims were different, even if our ideology was different, our enemy is the same, and the only way all of us will be liberated is when we come together and defeat our enemy. And we must come together to defeat the enemy, because we are not fighting isolated capitalism, we are fighting international capitalism; and since the imperialist powers of the world have internationalized their system, we must also internationalize our system, so that our fight will be international.

That, then, means that the importance and the significance of Che's words when he says we must create two, three, many Viet Nams has much relevance to us once we begin to recognize the importance of internationalizing our fight.

Our hooking up with the Third World also moves beyond the point of having a common enemy; therefore it is more important for us to hook up with the Third World, than it may be for the Third World to hook up with us. Because the United States has used our peoples time and time again to fight all of her imperialist wars; it is we who are the cannon fodder for all of her wars. We must develop a relationship with the Third World, so that our people will begin to recognize that their struggle is with the struggle of the Third World, and that we cannot allow white America to use us to fight imperialist wars, where she can continue to subdue peoples. Once we begin to show that relationship to our people, they will not fight in the Armed Forces of the United States. Once we have reduced the fighting power of the United States, they will have to send other people to do their fighting on the outside, we can then have our total force on the inside, we can start to wage a fight on the inside of the United States.

We have viewed the United States as an octopus, with its tentacles reaching all across the world. The eye of the octopus is located inside the United States. Cuba has cut one of the tentacles; Viet Nam has one of the tentacles tied down; the other tentacles are loose; whenever there is trouble, the United States sends the other tentacles... If we can get the other peoples to tie down the other tentacles of the United States, while those tentacles are busy, we can stab the eye. That will be our job on the inside, so if we can make other people on the outside begin to fight the United States, while we are waging our fight inside, we can more easily defeat the octopus, and we must do that, if in fact it is going to be defeated.

If we allow the United States to keep waging one struggle and then the other, and then the other, she will continue for ever; but if she is forced to wage all the struggles at the same time, she will be defeated almost immediately. That is precisely the importance of hooking up with the Third World.

But there is another reason. What white western society has done wherever it has gone, is that it has transplanted different peoples and put them on different lands; it has taken Africans and spread us all across the Caribbean, all across South America, clear on into the United States. It has taken Indians and done the same thing; it has taken Indians from India and done that also; it has taken Chinese and has done the same thing; and what usually happens that whenever the peoples of these countries begin to move for their liberation, the imperialist powers begin to use the question of race and culture to keep them divided. A clear example of that would be Guiana today, where you have Indians fighting blacks; an example of that would be Malaya, where the British have the Indians fighting the Chinese, fighting the Malaysians.

These tactics are very good, as far as the imperialist powers are concerned, because while they keep these races fighting each other, they are still able to exploit. If we can begin to come together, where you no longer have Indians fighting blacks in Guiana, but both of them coming together and fighting the United States. If we can do that in Malaya, where you will not have Chinese fighting Indians, fighting Malaysians, but all three coming together and fighting the British, we can more easily defeat the imperialist powers around the world. So the question of the Third World coming together as a force is very important for us, because also within the United States we have problems such as this; a clear example is the problem of blacks and Spanish-speaking people inside the United States.

For years these two groups have viewed each other with hostility, have always fought against each other, particularly Puerto Ricans and blacks inside of Harlem and Chicago; and what has happened is that while these two groups have always been fighting each other, sometimes in bloody street fights, the white power structure has sat back and laughed. Unfortunately for them, and unfortunately for us, because of some concrete organizing work that we have done, we are getting Puerto Ricans and blacks to march in the streets together to fight the police. If that tactic can be employed successfully inside the United States, then we hope to use that as an example for our brothers around the Third World.

On the question of economics, we are somewhat behind other peoples of the Third World for a number of reasons; because we live inside the United States, it is hard for us to seize control of the United States and then have a revolution in terms of the redistribution of the wealth. Before that can come about, we need other people, particularly white people, to work with us so that we can begin to wage that struggle. We do not think, however, that white people will begin to develop a revolutionary consciousness until the profits of the Third World, the external profits of the United States, are cut off. Once those profits are cut off, and no more profits are coming into the United States, and she must begin to turn inside to find her resources and her economic way of life, then and only then will the white working class begin to develop a revolutionary consciousness. So that we must, whether we like it or not, aid the struggles of the Third World so that they can defeat imperialism in their colonies, keep the Yankees out, force them to come back home and force the white working class to develop the revolutionary consciousness, that it must develop to wage a fight to destroy the capitalistic system inside the United States.

Black Power must begin to speak specifically to the culture of black peoples around the world. Because the imperialist powers raped Africa so bastardly, that she took us from Africa and scattered us all around the world; took us from our mother country, took us from our mothers, took us from our fathers, split up our families, took away our culture, took away our language, took away our heritage, took away our dignity. And we are beginning to understand more and more that unlike other people who have land, or countries to fight for, in a sense, Black Power is going to have to become a nationality for us, that our color in many cases is going to become our country.

The black man has been scattered all around the world, like for example, a black man in Brazil, or a black man in Mississippi, a black man in Trinidad, a black man in Guiana, we've all sprung from the same culture, and we do not know that culture. Our fight is unique because we have to fight to reclaim our culture which has been destroyed in a cold, calculated method by white western imperialist society, so that we would not feel any togetherness or any unity for each other. As because in probably every country of the Third World you find black men today; except in Asia, in every other country you find Africans in the Third World, it is because of that, more than anything else, that we will have close ties with the Third World, ties which will transcend political and intellectual ties and will become emotional ties once we begin to see ourselves as a people. So that if the United States decided to invade Brazil, if Brazil has a sizable African population, which it does — 35% —; if we recognize that those Africans are part of us, that we stem from the same country, we will not fight them, we will not fight them. This is one of the important reasons why we can develop an emotional tie with the Africans in Brazil, the Africans in Puerto Rico, the Africans in Venezuela, the Africans in Santo Domingo, the Africans all over Africa and wherever Africans are.

Many of the African national leaders are now beginning to have an impact on us; it started with Lumumba, Patrice Lumumba, but our awareness of Lumumba did not come while he was alive unfortunately; it came after his death, and it did not come through Lumumba or through Africans; it came through our martyr brother Malcolm X, who began to explain to us that we must internationalize our struggle, that we must look beyond the United States, and we must begin to understand that we have to fight the minority complex which the United States imposes upon us; and that if we begin to internationalize our fight, we will begin to recognize that numerically the black man outnumbers the white men around the world; and that if we begin to see that, we will no longer see ourselves as a minority, but we will see ourselves, in fact, as a majority.

And if the people of color can begin to come together, all of us who have been exploited by the white man, be we Chinese, be we Indian, be we black; once we begin to recognize that WE make up the majority of the world, and the white man is in the minority in the world—particularly white western powers—we will no longer begin to be afraid of him. That, for example, would be the importance of the fight in Indochina; the French were fighting the Indochinese; the Algerians waited until the French had finished fighting in Indochina, fighting the Indochinese, before

... began their fight. If they had recognized their struggle and their unity, they would have come together and fought the French at the same time the Indochinese were fighting the French, the defeat of France would have been more quickly achieved. That could be the example to us of the Third World; the people of Malaya, the people of Somaliland, the people of Portuguese Guinea, the people of Venezuela, the people of Brazil, the people of Viet Nam—all of us—land the black people inside the United States, if we come together, we would quickly defeat all of the western powers.

White western societies have stripped the world of its humanity. It is our job to come together and save the humanity of the world. White western society has dehumanized all of us. Until recently, she had to dehumanize us to the point where we would not even rebel against the dehumanizing process; but we are now beginning to come alive; we are beginning to understand what Che talks about, when he says a man wakes up from his death and begins to love life so much that he is going to risk his life to live for it. I think that is where all of us in the Third World are; that is, where blacks inside of the United States are. And that we, more than anybody else, will recognize the dehumanizing process; and we, more than anybody else, recognize the price that we will have to pay for humanity; we, more than anybody else, have developed real hatred of the white West—the hatred that Che talks about that is going to make us effective, cold, killing machines that will transcend man, because for four hundred years we have been forced to live inside of the West, we have been forced to recognize and to understand the true, imperialistic nature, and like a dog who has been trained by its master, no one can become a more vicious enemy than a dog that has been trained by a master, because the dog knows the ways of the master.

The United States cannot destroy us the way she can destroy other peoples, because she cannot drop a hydrogen bomb or an atomic bomb inside her cities. Her weapons will be of no use to her inside her cities; she will have to fight us in hand to hand combat; she will have to fight us on our terms in guerrilla warfare. She may develop chemical gases, to use inside the ghettos, but if she uses a chemical gas inside of Harlem, she's going to have to use it in all fifty of her states, because once she uses it inside of Harlem, we will start in Watts, we will start in Chicago, we will start in Cleveland, we will put the entire country on fire, and we will sit like Nero and twiddle our thumbs.

If in the final end, in order to stop the United States, we have to fight till each of us die, then our lives is not too high a price to pay for the humanity that we will render to the world, once we have destroyed the imperialistic nature of the United States. I think that the most important thing that we can do is to begin to organize and I felt that I could use myself as an example, by going back into the field and begin to organize again, perhaps other people would begin to follow the lead. As I do not think that there is any hope for us in the Third World unless we organize our people; I think too many people in the Third World want to be what we call "arm-chair revolutionaries", that is, just talk and tell people how to organize,
